A good rain visited this community last week. Rain was indeed welcome and many people are out of water, both for home use and stock.

Measles have about run their course in this community and most children are back in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Ryan are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter last Friday. Grandpa Ryan is stepping high.

The Baptist Church shipped a case of eggs to the Orphan's Home at Louisville.

The R. A.'s G. A.'s and Sunbeams met with their leaders last Thursday.

The meeting of the Light Bearers S. S. Class at Mrs. J. T. Roberts was well attended and a very good program was rendered.

In our Bible Study the Book of Exodus was completed. For our next meeting the fourth Wednesday in April, we will study the Book of Esther.

The Happy Twelve Club met with Mrs. Mae Webster for their April meeting. The day was spent in quilting and packing eggs for the Orphan's Home.

A. T. Hunt is improving very slowly at his home.

Mr. Joe Fisher, who has been ill, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Jean Shetter who has been nursing her niece Rita Roberts has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roberts. Mr. Shetter is in training in Florida.

Don't forget P.-T. A. meeting Thursday at 2 o'clock. Election of officers will be held.

Tobacco Allotment Program Is Explained

Under the marketing quota provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act which govern allotments for burley tobacco during the next three years, farmers may plant less than their allotted acreage in 1941, 1942, or 1943 without being penalized by reduced allotments in future years, Mark Cook, chairman of the Boone County Agricultural Conservation Association, announced today.

When a farmer failed to grow his entire burley tobacco allotment over a period of years in the past, Mr. Cook pointed out, his farm allotments was reduced; but under present regulations, allotments are "frozen" and such reductions cannot be made.

This does not mean that reductions cannot be made under certain other specific conditions, such as violation of the marketing quota law, but it means that no reduction can be made because of a farmer's failure to grow his allotted acreage. Two farms having allotments of five acres each in 1941 will have equal allotments in 1942 even though one farmer grows five acres of tobacco in 1941 and the other grows only two acres, unless the allotments are changed for other reasons.

Thus if burley growers wish to do so, they may shift to other crops of livestock in 1941 in order to reduce the present large supply of burley and return to production of burley tobacco in 1942 or later, Mr. Cook stated.

Four-H Leaders To Attend Judging School April 11th

Leaders of the 4-H girls project groups in the county will attend a "Judging School" to be conducted by staff members of the State 4-H club department, University of Kentucky, Lexington on Friday, April 11th. The purpose of this meeting is to assist local leaders with training their girls for county and state contests, which incidentally serve to help girls raise their standards of quality in foods, canning, clothing and Home Improvement. The delegation will be accompanied by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute home demonstration agent.

THE BOONE COUNTY RECORDER

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 65 | BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1941 | NUMBER 45

BRIEF TERM IS EXPECTED HERE

AS CIRCUIT COURT GETS UNDERWAY MONDAY—ONLY FEW MINOR CASES IN VIEW FOR THIS SESSION.

The April term of Boone Circuit Court got underway Monday morning, with Judge Ward Yager presiding in his very efficient manner.

Only a few minor cases are in view at this writing, and court is expected to adjourn by the latter part of the week. The grand jury was in session Monday, and reported a very brief session as expected. They heard several witnesses and returned one indictment.

Cecil Fields was indicted on a charge of grand larceny, and trial was set for today (Thursday).

The grand jury was in session only one day, which was said to be one of the shortest sessions on record.

The grand jury in adjourning, recommended that Sheriff Walton use all possible diligence in enforcing the dog tax law, and recommended that all delinquents be cited to appear before the next session of the grand jury.

Members of the various juries follows:

Grand Jury

Charley Akin, Grant Maddox, Raymond Roter, Leland Snyder, Paul Aylor, Jess Delahunty, Earl Sullivan, Chas. Ryan, Lute Bradford, L. D. Renneckar, foreman.

Petit Jury No. 1

Frank DeMoisey, Lou Williamson, Robt. Youell, J. J. Meyers, Harold Love, R. N. Montgomery, W. O. Rouse, M. F. Judy, Tom Carr, John Burns, Fred Gross, James Bullock.

Petit Jury No. 2

J. T. Roberts, B. F. Elliott, Vernon Pope, Henry Anderson, R. E. Grant, Earl Aylor, Roosevelt Jackson, A. E. Stephens, J. G. Smith, Chas. Klopp, C. R. Bradford and F. H. Brown.

Poultry Market Tour Set For May 22

The 1941 poultry tour of the Cincinnati poultry and egg market will be held Thursday, May 22nd, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Jim Humphrey, poultry field agent and the department of market, College of Agriculture, will assist in the tour.

The tour will include visits to leading poultry and egg dealers, storage houses and the market exchange. Everyone interested in poultry marketing is invited to attend.

CHAMPIONS TO BE SELECTED

IN GARDEN PROJECTS—GARDEN PLOW WITH ALL ATTACHMENTS WILL BE OFFERED AS PRIZE.

Four-H garden champions will be selected on the summer 4-H tours, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent. Prizes will be awarded winners in local communities and a grand champion will be selected for the entire county. Geo. W. Hill and Co., Covington, seed dealer, has already furnished a garden plow and all attachments to be awarded the Boone County 4-H members raising the best garden.

Garden project members enrolled in 4-H clubs having 5 or more garden projects will be eligible to compete for local awards. Five or six of the ten clubs will have sufficient enrollment to be eligible for these local prizes to be awarded by the Geo. C. Goode Co., also of Covington. There has been considerable increase in the number of garden projects this year and there is every indication of strong competition for these awards.

C. G. Kelly Named Clerk Of Local Draft Board

Courtney G. Kelly was appointed Clerk of the Boone County Selective Service Board at a meeting held by the Board on Friday evening, April 11th. It was recommended by the State Selective Service Headquarters that a man be appointed as the Clerk so that he could assist the physician in making the medical examinations. Mr. Kelly is an ex-service man.

Mrs. Dorotha Ryle, who has served as Clerk since the Board first organized is now a candidate for public office and upon the advice of Col. Frank Rash, State Director of Selective Service and his legal advisor, offered her resignation effective April 15th. Col. Rash stated that while there is nothing in the Selective Service Act to demand this resignation, it would be to the best interest of everyone concerned.

Five New Hybrid Sweet Corn Varieties

Five new hybrid sweet corn varieties, Golden Cross Bantam, Spancross P-39, King Cross 12 Row Bantam, Golden Hummer Hybrid, and Silver Cross Evergreen, will be tried this year by a few Boone County sweet corn growers, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Aunt Mary, another new variety of high quality, will also be grown in the variety demonstration plots.

New and improved varieties form one important means of agricultural improvement. Not all new varieties are as good as those most commonly grown. However, if after considerable trial and error through extensive demonstration work, an improved adapted variety is found much agricultural progress has been made.

Grass Fire Causes Considerable Damage

A grass fire just outside of Union last Saturday caused considerable damage to fence and trees and threatened a large herd of cows that were grazing near the scene.

Local workers and the Florence Volunteer Fire Department were on duty and were able to stop the raging flames after about six hours of fighting. Many acres of land were covered by the fire before it could be brought under control.

Persons are warned to be careful with fire during this dry weather, as neglect on your part may cause untold damage to yourself and neighbors.

Erlanger Store Robbed Of $100 In Cash Loot Wednesday Night

Thieves broke into the Scheben Hardware Co., Erlanger, Wednesday night of last week, cracked open and looted the safe of more than $100 in cash, making a clean get-away.

The looting was discovered at 7 a. m. Thursday by Fred Scheben, son of Andy Scheben, Sr., owner of the business.

Entry to the building had been made through a dry cleaning and tailoring shop, operated by Andrew J. Comberger. The yeggs gained entry to the cleaning shop by a cellar window, then drilled through a connecting door into the storeroom of the hardware firm.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lucas, of Bullittsville entertained their children Sunday afternoon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Lucas and son, Mr. and Mrs W M. Lucas and son, of Erlanger, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ryle and daughter, of McVille.

Mrs. Bess. Rouse and lady friend of Cincinnati, motored to Charleston, S. C., where they spent the past week-end.

Live At Home Meeting Held At Florence Tues.

Cheese and butter making demonstrations were given before Boone County Live at Home Program committeemen in an all-day meeting at Florence on last Tuesday, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

Greater and more efficient use of dairy products on the farm has been considered by the committeemen as an important project in a better living program for the farm. Leaders attending the training meeting will advise their Homemakers clubs and their communities on new practices in the use of dairy products.

UNIFORM WEED SYSTEM SET UP

AWAITS RATIFICATION OF FOUR CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS —PLAN RESTS WITH BURLEY TOBACCO FARMER.

Representatives of Kentucky's four co-operative tobacco associations meeting in Louisville April 9th agreed to "a uniform unified tobacco marketing system."

Details will be made public after ratification by directors of the four associations. Tired after a day-long conference, the co-op representatives issued the following statement:

"A uniform, unified tobacco marketing system was agreed upon by representatives of the various organizations, subject to ratification by the directors of each association.

"It will be necessary that this ratification be consummated and details worked out before the complete marketing system can be made public.

"Agreements entered into by the representatives of the four cooperatives assure burley growers that their tobacco will be marketed under a sound and sensible system.

"Final approval or rejection of the entire plan will rest with the burley tobacco farmers, but it is the feeling of all interested parties that they (the farmer) will enthusiastically indorse the program."

Represented at the conference were the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association (old pool) the Eastern Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers' Association, the Stemming District Association, the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, the Louisville Bank for Co-operatives and the State Department of Agriculture.

Boone County was represented at the conference by Dawson Chambers.

WILDLIFE RESTORATION WEEK BEING OBSERVED

The observance of National Wildlife Restoration Week, April 14-19 will help to focus attention on the farmer's role in restoring wildlife, according to Ward T. Darnell, Camp Superintendent of the Soil Conservation Service in the Boone County CCC Camp SCS-5-Ky., Walton, Ky.

Farm land affords a vast area for the development of wildlife resources, Mr. Darnell points out. Farmers are the producers of more than three-fourths of the total amount of game taken by hunters. For that reason farmers are in a particularly advantageous position in the wildlife restoration movement.

"Through the individual efforts of farmers on their land ,the restoration of wildlife can be given a tremendous and widespread impetus," he says.

At the edge of fields and woodlands, wildlife borders can be established to replace these unprofitable areas with habitats which will encourage the increase of desirable forms of wildlife. Lespedeza sericea is the best plant to use in field borders, since it is sufficiently hardly to withstand the use of such areas as turn rows for farm machinery and animals.

Stream banks, small marsh areas steep slopes, and fence rows should contain shrubs—not trees—for wildlife shelter, nesting sites, and food. Crops rotated in strips provide abundant food of a kind near woodland shelter. Woodland protected against grazing helps wildlife, especially if a few den trees are left for squirrels and hole nesting birds.

These practices, which are first of all better farm conservation measures are a part of practically every conservation farm plan prepared for farmers cooperating with the Boone County soil conservation district.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION

H. E. White

Homemakers' Advisory Council To Hold Meeting

The Advisory Council of the Boone County Homemakers' Association will meet at the Court House in Burlington Monday, April 21, at 1:00 p. m. Presidents of local clubs and county officers will attend. Mrs. Geo. Kottmyer, Constance, will preside. Miss Lulle Logan, Lexington, assistant state leader of the Home Demonstration Agents, will hear the discussion of projects for next year.

Arrangements for meeting will be made by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Substitute Home Demonstration Agent.

Local Red Cross Chapter Receives Third Allotment

The Red Cross Chapter of Boone County has just received its third allotment of materials for sewing and knitting. Our quota is as follows: 20 layettes, 24 bed shirts, 34 operating gowns, 20 boys' shirts, 24 women's dresses, 32 girls' dresses, 48 sweaters, 15 mufflers, 8 shawls, 40 pair socks.

Anyone interested in doing this work please contact your district chairman or call Mrs. Joseph Huey County Chairman. We are in urgent need of more knitters.

Land Use Planning Meetings Scheduled

Land Use Planning discussion meetings will be held in Constance, Hamilton, Florence and Hebron Communities this week and next, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Second series Land Use Planning meetings will be held in Petersburg, Burlington, Grant, New Haven and Walton communities during this coming week.

Land Use Planning study is offering farmers an opportunity to study basic agricultural problems from a new angle. This work is expected to play an important part in future agricultural programs.

Tobacco Growers Are Treating Plant Beds

Numerous Boone County Tobacco growers are treating their plant beds with Bordeaux mixture this week, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent. This treatment is to control wildfire, angular leafspot and rust.

Demonstrations in the county over the past two years have proven these treatments effective in controlling the above diseases and in keeping the lower leaves on the plants longer, thus enabling the grower to delay tobacco harvest until the entire plant is more mature. The extra leaves harvested yield large returns for the very small amount of money spent for the treatment.

A 3-4-50 Bordeaux mixture is applied to the plant beds twice by local growers, once when the plants are forming the third and fourth leaves and again ten days or two weeks later. The mixture is applied with a sprinkler without removing the canvas. Additional information concerning these treatments may be obtained by contacting the County Agent's office.

H. E. WHITE ANNOUNCES

CANDIDACY FOR MAGISTRATE FROM SECOND DISTRICT—SEEKS RE-ELECTION ON BASIS OF PAST RECORDS.

H. E. White, Burlington, makes his formal announcement this week to the voters of the Second Magisterial district composed of Burlington, Florence and Union, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Magistrate, having served in this capacity for the last eight years.

During the past several years, Mr. White has devoted much time and study to road improvements in the county, and has acquainted himself with the problems of constructing better roads throughout his district. He feels that with this experience, he is now in position to serve the people even more efficiently as Magistrate than he has in the past.

Much credit is due the present administration for the improvement of the roads throughout the county, and for the conservative manner in which they have handled the road funds. Boone County's roads are greatly improved over a few years ago, due largely to careful planning and efficient management on the part of the present administration.

Mr. White solicits the support of the voters of the second district, and promises if re-elected to serve the people of his district in a fair imparital manner and to closely guard the financial condition of the county at all times.

Social Welfare Worker To Address Utopia Club

A Cincinnati Social Welfare worker will address Utopia Club members Thursday evening, April 17th, on "Welfare Problems Confronting City Workers," according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Special committees have been appointed for project group discussions. Everyone interested in Utopia club work is invited to attend.

Mrs. Amanda Leming

Mrs. Amanda Leming, aged 59 years, died Thursday, April 3rd at her home in Athens, Ohio. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Johnson, of Elsmere, and is survived by her husband Geo. Leming, Athens, O., a sister Mrs. Mabel Whitton, Huntington, W. Va., and one brother, Raymond Johnson, Elsmere.

The remains arrived in Erlanger Saturday morning April 5th and services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Tallaferro funeral home, by the Rev. C. B. Coots. Burial followed in Highland cemetery.

4-H Club Leaders Attend Judging School

Boone County 4-H club leaders of Home Economics projects attended a "judging school" conducted by state 4-H club field agents in Lexington Friday, April 11. The group assembled in the Hostess Room at the Honey Krust Bakery at 10:00 a. m. Forty-one leaders from eight counties registered.

During the morning standards in clothing and home improvement were discussed and judging of rings in the respective projects was practiced. The afternoon session was spent in a study of foods and canned products.

Those who represented Boone County were: Mrs. Wilson Fullerton, Jr., Florence; Billy Wilson, Hamilton; Mary Yates, Hebron; Mildred King, Walton; Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Substitute Home Demonstration Agent.

Two Youths Injured By Horse Near Verona

Two youths who were kicked by a horse when riding in a van near Verona, Saturday afternoon were reported to be in fair condition at Booth Hospital.

Joseph Scott, 13 years old, Verona, suffered a left elbow fracture and Weaver Carter, 16, Verona, a right leg fracture. They were passengers in a van driven by K. E. Easton, Verona, in which a horse was being transported.

Easton told hospital attaches that the horse kicked down a partition in the truck, injuring the boys.

Mrs. Elizabeth Placke

Mrs. Elizabeth Placke, age 76, one of the pioneer residents of Erlanger, passed away Thursday morning at her home 19 May St., after a short illness. She was the widow of Herman Placke who owned and operated the first bakery in Erlanger.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ella Flood of Chicago, Ill., and several nieces and nephews.

The pallbearers were Bernard and Robert Grabow, Chas. Burns, Rene Kneflin, Harold Collins and John Holloran.

Services were conducted at the Tallaferro funeral home Saturday at 2:30 by Rev. H. J. Egbring, interment following in Highland cemetery.

SOLDIER KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

NEAR WALTON FRIDAY—ANOTHER SUFFERS SEVERE INJURIES—CAR STRIKES TELEPHONE POLE.

Second Lieut. John H. Ferguson, 23, of 3040 Hackberry St., Cincinnati, was killed instantly Friday when the car he was driving failed to make a curve on Route 25 South, of Walton. The car left the road striking a large telephone pole then crashed into a ditch.

Another officer, also a Cincinnatian, in the auto with him was injured and removed to St. Elizabeth hospital for treatment.

Both men were inducted into the army about the first of the year and at present were stationed at Ft. McClelland, Ala., in the Medical Administration Corps. They were enroute from their post when the accident occurred.

Lieut. Ferguson was found pinned behind the steering wheel of the car, according to Sergt. Roy Osborne of the State Highway Patrol. Capt. Grigby who was riding with Ferguson was thrown completely out of the auto.

The body of Ferguson was removed to Williamstown funeral parlor and Capt. Grigsby was taken to the hospital by Boyd Elliott, of Walton.

Fannie Pearl Clore

Fannie Pearl Clore, wife of Yancy Clore, passed away at her home near Bullittsville Thursday, April 10th, after an illness of three weeks. The body was removed to Chambers & Grubbs funeral home for preparation and then conveyed to the residence to await funeral services..

Mrs. Clore was 68 years old. She united in marriage to Yancy Clore Sept. 28, 1898, and to this union two sons were born, Charles of Hebron and William of Covington.

Besides her two sons she is survived by one grandson Wilton Clore two sisters, Mrs. Ida Bradshaw and Mrs. Bert Stanton, both of Ludlow,two nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was the daughter of the late Charles and Lucinda Helm.

She was a member of the Bullittsville Homemakers' Club and the Modern Woodmen of America, Burlington. She united with the Primitive Baptist Church in her younger years and remained a faithful member until death.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Sand Run Baptist Church with Rev. Ratcliff officiating. Burial was in Sand Run cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of funeral arrangements.

FIRST HAT IN RING FOR JAILOR

WOOD STEPHENS OF FLORENCE ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY—HAS BEEN LIFELONG RESIDENT OF BOONE COUNTY.

Wood Stephens, of Florence, Ky., officially announces his candidacy for the nomination of Jailor of Boone County in this issue of the Boone County Recorder.

Wood, as he is better known, was born and reared in Boone, and is known in all parts of the County.

His statement is as follows:

"To the voters of Boone County: In seeking the election to the office of Jailor, I shall say that I have had ample experience in this line of business. I was custodian of the Doctors Building in Covington for one year, also was janitor of the Florence School for five years, and for the past four years have been Marshal of Florence, all of which gives me the experience necessary to fill the office of Jailor, and if nominated August 2nd, 1941 shall strive to conduct the office of Jailor with an efficiency that will be a credit to Boone County."

Local School Beautification Project Is Huge Success

Last week the local P.-T. A. and a group of interested persons gathered at the Burlington school grounds for the purpose of cleaning and beautifying the grounds around the new school building.

A large number of shrubs and trees were purchased by the P.-T. A. and were planted under the direction of a state landscaping expert who visited the school and suggested the arrangement of the shrubs and trees for the best results. All labor on the project was donated by interested persons under the direction of A. D. Yelton, Chairman of the committee.

At the noon hour the ladies of the P.-T. A. served a very delightful lunch to all those helping with the planting and cleaning work and a full day was spent on the project.

Results of the cleaning and planting program is very apparent as you approach the school grounds. The shrubs and trees add to the beautification of the grounds, and as soon as the trees receive their full spring coat, it will no doubt be worth your while to visit the school grounds and see the fine work being carried on under the supervision of the P.-T. A.

The chairman of the cleaning and planting committee expressed his desire to thank all those who helped in any way with the work last week and stated that the organization was more than pleased with the project.

CHAMPIONS TO BE SELECTED

IN GARDEN PROJECTS—GARDEN PLOW WITH ALL ATTACHMENTS WILL BE OFFERED AS PRIZE.

Four-H garden champions will be selected on the summer 4-H tours, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent. Prizes will be awarded winners in local communities and a grand champion will be selected for the entire county. Geo. W. Hill and Co., Covington, seed dealer, has already furnished a garden plow and all attachments to be awarded the Boone County 4-H members raising the best garden.

Garden project members enrolled in 4-H clubs having 5 or more garden projects will be eligible to compete for local awards. Five or six of the ten clubs will have sufficient enrollment to be eligible for these local prizes to be awarded by the Geo. C. Goode Co., also of Covington. There has been considerable increase in the number of garden projects this year and there is every indication of strong competition for these awards.

C. G. Kelly Named Clerk Of Local Draft Board

Courtney G. Kelly was appointed Clerk of the Boone County Selective Service Board at a meeting held by the Board on Friday evening, April 11th. It was recommended by the State Selective Service Headquarters that a man be appointed as the Clerk so that he could assist the physician in making the medical examinations. Mr. Kelly is an ex-service man.

Mrs. Dorotha Ryle, who has served as Clerk since the Board first organized is now a candidate for public office and upon the advice of Col. Frank Rash, State Director of Selective Service and his legal advisor, offered her resignation effective April 15th. Col. Rash stated that while there is nothing in the Selective Service Act to demand this resignation, it would be to the best interest of everyone concerned.

Five New Hybrid Sweet Corn Varieties

Five new hybrid sweet corn varieties, Golden Cross Bantam, Spancross P-39, King Cross 12 Row Bantam, Golden Hummer Hybrid, and Silver Cross Evergreen, will be tried this year by a few Boone County sweet corn growers, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Aunt Mary, another new variety of high quality, will also be grown in the variety demonstration plots.

New and improved varieties form one important means of agricultural improvement. Not all new varieties are as good as those most commonly grown. However, if after considerable trial and error through extensive demonstration work, an improved adapted variety is found much agricultural progress has been made.

Grass Fire Causes Considerable Damage

A grass fire just outside of Union last Saturday caused considerable damage to fence and trees and threatened a large herd of cows that were grazing near the scene.

Local workers and the Florence Volunteer Fire Department were on duty and were able to stop the raging flames after about six hours of fighting. Many acres of land were covered by the fire before it could be brought under control.

Persons are warned to be careful with fire during this dry weather, as neglect on your part may cause untold damage to yourself and neighbors.

Erlanger Store Robbed Of $100 In Cash Loot Wednesday Night

Thieves broke into the Scheben Hardware Co., Erlanger, Wednesday night of last week, cracked open and looted the safe of more than $100 in cash, making a clean get-away.

The looting was discovered at 7 a. m. Thursday by Fred Scheben, son of Andy Scheben, Sr., owner of the business.

Entry to the building had been made through a dry cleaning and tailoring shop, operated by Andrew J. Comberger. The yeggs gained entry to the cleaning shop by a cellar window, then drilled through a connecting door into the storeroom of the hardware firm.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lucas, of Bullittsville entertained their children Sunday afternoon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Lucas and son, Mr. and Mrs W M. Lucas and son, of Erlanger, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ryle and daughter, of McVille.

Mrs. Bess. Rouse and lady friend of Cincinnati, motored to Charleston, S. C., where they spent the past week-end.

Live At Home Meeting Held At Florence Tues.

Cheese and butter making demonstrations were given before Boone County Live at Home Program committeemen in an all-day meeting at Florence on last Tuesday, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

Greater and more efficient use of dairy products on the farm has been considered by the committeemen as an important project in a better living program for the farm. Leaders attending the training meeting will advise their Homemakers clubs and their communities on new practices in the use of dairy products.

UNIFORM WEED SYSTEM SET UP

AWAITS RATIFICATION OF FOUR CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS —PLAN RESTS WITH BURLEY TOBACCO FARMER.

Representatives of Kentucky's four co-operative tobacco associations meeting in Louisville April 9th agreed to "a uniform unified tobacco marketing system."

Details will be made public after ratification by directors of the four associations. Tired after a day-long conference, the co-op representatives issued the following statement:

"A uniform, unified tobacco marketing system was agreed upon by representatives of the various organizations, subject to ratification by the directors of each association.

"It will be necessary that this ratification be consummated and details worked out before the complete marketing system can be made public.

"Agreements entered into by the representatives of the four cooperatives assure burley growers that their tobacco will be marketed under a sound and sensible system.

"Final approval or rejection of the entire plan will rest with the burley tobacco farmers, but it is the feeling of all interested parties that they (the farmer) will enthusiastically indorse the program."

Represented at the conference were the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association (old pool) the Eastern Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers' Association, the Stemming District Association, the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, the Louisville Bank for Co-operatives and the State Department of Agriculture.

Boone County was represented at the conference by Dawson Chambers.

WILDLIFE RESTORATION WEEK BEING OBSERVED

The observance of National Wildlife Restoration Week, April 14-19 will help to focus attention on the farmer's role in restoring wildlife, according to Ward T. Darnell, Camp Superintendent of the Soil Conservation Service in the Boone County CCC Camp SCS-5-Ky., Walton, Ky.

Farm land affords a vast area for the development of wildlife resources, Mr. Darnell points out. Farmers are the producers of more than three-fourths of the total amount of game taken by hunters. For that reason farmers are in a particularly advantageous position in the wildlife restoration movement.

"Through the individual efforts of farmers on their land ,the restoration of wildlife can be given a tremendous and widespread impetus," he says.

At the edge of fields and woodlands, wildlife borders can be established to replace these unprofitable areas with habitats which will encourage the increase of desirable forms of wildlife. Lespedeza sericea is the best plant to use in field borders, since it is sufficiently hardly to withstand the use of such areas as turn rows for farm machinery and animals.

Stream banks, small marsh areas steep slopes, and fence rows should contain shrubs—not trees—for wildlife shelter, nesting sites, and food. Crops rotated in strips provide abundant food of a kind near woodland shelter. Woodland protected against grazing helps wildlife, especially if a few den trees are left for squirrels and hole nesting birds.

These practices, which are first of all better farm conservation measures are a part of practically every conservation farm plan prepared for farmers cooperating with the Boone County soil conservation district.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION

Arrangements for meeting will be made by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Substitute Home Demonstration Agent.

Local Red Cross Chapter Receives Third Allotment

The Red Cross Chapter of Boone County has just received its third allotment of materials for sewing and knitting. Our quota is as follows: 20 layettes, 24 bed shirts, 34 operating gowns, 20 boys' shirts, 24 women's dresses, 32 girls' dresses, 48 sweaters, 15 mufflers, 8 shawls, 40 pair socks.

Anyone interested in doing this work please contact your district chairman or call Mrs. Joseph Huey County Chairman. We are in urgent need of more knitters.

Land Use Planning Meetings Scheduled

Land Use Planning discussion meetings will be held in Constance, Hamilton, Florence and Hebron Communities this week and next, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Second series Land Use Planning meetings will be held in Petersburg, Burlington, Grant, New Haven and Walton communities during this coming week.

Land Use Planning study is offering farmers an opportunity to study basic agricultural problems from a new angle. This work is expected to play an important part in future agricultural programs.

Tobacco Growers Are Treating Plant Beds

Numerous Boone County Tobacco growers are treating their plant beds with Bordeaux mixture this week, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent. This treatment is to control wildfire, angular leafspot and rust.

Demonstrations in the county over the past two years have proven these treatments effective in controlling the above diseases and in keeping the lower leaves on the plants longer, thus enabling the grower to delay tobacco harvest until the entire plant is more mature. The extra leaves harvested yield large returns for the very small amount of money spent for the treatment.

A 3-4-50 Bordeaux mixture is applied to the plant beds twice by local growers, once when the plants are forming the third and fourth leaves and again ten days or two weeks later. The mixture is applied with a sprinkler without removing the canvas. Additional information concerning these treatments may be obtained by contacting the County Agent's office.

H. E. WHITE ANNOUNCES

CANDIDACY FOR MAGISTRATE FROM SECOND DISTRICT—SEEKS RE-ELECTION ON BASIS OF PAST RECORDS.

H. E. White, Burlington, makes his formal announcement this week to the voters of the Second Magisterial district composed of Burlington, Florence and Union, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Magistrate, having served in this capacity for the last eight years.

During the past several years, Mr. White has devoted much time and study to road improvements in the county, and has acquainted himself with the problems of constructing better roads throughout his district. He feels that with this experience, he is now in position to serve the people even more efficiently as Magistrate than he has in the past.

Much credit is due the present administration for the improvement of the roads throughout the county, and for the conservative manner in which they have handled the road funds. Boone County's roads are greatly improved over a few years ago, due largely to careful planning and efficient management on the part of the present administration.

Mr. White solicits the support of the voters of the second district, and promises if re-elected to serve the people of his district in a fair imparital manner and to closely guard the financial condition of the county at all times.

Social Welfare Worker To Address Utopia Club

A Cincinnati Social Welfare worker will address Utopia Club members Thursday evening, April 17th, on "Welfare Problems Confronting City Workers," according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

CONSIDER WAYS TO HAVE FARMS YIELD MORE FAMILY FOOD

As a national defense measure, 11 district meetings have been held over Kentucky to plan for a statewide program of "making the farm feed the family," according to Miss Myrtle Weldon, state leader of home demonstration work. Attending the meetings were county home demonstration agents, county agents, and one man and one woman leader from each county.

Among factors considered were the following:

Only a quarter of Kentucky's farm folk produce at home the food needed for an adequate diet.

Milk, cream and other dairy products are sold, and then butter-substitutes are bought as well as vegetable compounds in place of lard.

More cows are needed.

There is not enough feed produced to feed poultry and livestock.

Lack of a year-round garden.

Problems of tenants.

A specific 20-point program for solving the major portions of these problems was worked out, including a survey by counties to find needs, and having a county committee to plan how to feed the families from the farm.

Incidentally, Miss Weldon illustrates the possibilities of living at home by the story of a Johnson county family, that at the end of the year found their grocer owed them $18. This story could be repeated in countless other cases, she says.

A woman will complain of hunger, then sit down and order a lettuce sandwich.

More of us might worry about how we do it, than when we do.

Feet And The Law Of Tissue

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

There is a natural law constantly at work in the tissues of the human body. We must understand that bone, muscle and nerve consist of millions of ever changing tiny bodies called cells. These cells are held together with the tissue fluids and substances of the body.

Therefore bone, muscle and ligament respectively share the influence of this law, that constant tension causes wasting especially in the feet when the body weight which they carry about and support is not evenly distributed and balanced throughout the twelve major bones of the foot framework.

If ligaments are stretched, due to long and careless standing especially—those which bind the weight—supporting and key bones together, these ligaments finally yield in about the fifth or sixth year to strain and abuse and pull away from the bone attachments.

The rest which the night affords is not enough to counteract continuous strain during the day.

This same law holds true of the muscles and tendon attachments of the feet which lift the body weight on the metatarsal heads or pivots. On the other hand, constant pressure causes wasting of tissue.

If the musles do not hold the weight-bearing joints of feet in proper dovetailing and interlocking action, these joints become deranged, misshaped and deformed because of the pressure of the body weight upon their point surface.

When we consider that we drive hundreds of tons of aggregate weight into the twelve major bones of each foot every day that we live it is easily understood why feet degenerate.

Can you be well with unhealthy feet? Those headaches, those backaches, those leg pains may be caused by the shoes you are wearing.—Adv.

NEWS and FACTS . . . of Statewide Interest

DO YOU KNOW

. . . that Kentucky's $20,000,000 legal beer industry employs 15,000 people, pays salaries and wages totaling $10,000,000 annually and pays State taxes in excess of $1,000,000 a year?

To preserve these benefits, which are so important to Kentucky's social and economic welfare, our Committee has cooperated with law-enforcement authorities in the revocation of 10 retail beer licenses, suspension of six, cancellation of two, refusal of one license application and the padlocking of two retail beer outlets.

Thus, legal beer is sold under the strict control of state and local authorities, and under the watchful eye of our Committee. YOU can help by patronizing only reputable, law-abiding beer retailers.

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

Walter Pidgeon plans to purchase a ranch either in Northern California or Oregon on which he can be entirely self-sustaining. His brother Charles, who acts as his business agent, has been investigating properties for the past month. Now that Pidgeon has finished his role in "Flight Command" he is actively investigating various districts. Though the actor confesses that he has always been a city dweller and knows little about the operation of a ranch, it was always been his ambition to own some 300 or 400 acres on which he can raise all his own food. He has started studying soil culture as a beginning. For the time being he will visit the ranch just as a vacation spot, but eventually he intends to make it his permanent home.

SATURDAY

One hundred and twenty cows were interviewed by producer Armand Schaefer for the important role of "Blossom," prize winning cow in the Republic film "Barnyard Follies." A black and white 1000 pound Holstein that averaged ten gallons of milk a day won the role of Blossom. 'Owner of the bovine actress was L. F. Comport, San Fernando Valley rancher.

Mary Lee stars in "Barnyard Follies," which is the first big effort of the little trouper who formerly sang with Ted Weems' and his famous dance orchestra.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Ann Sothern's severest critic is her milkman. He has been delivering milk to the star's home for the past two and a half years and leaves notes with the day's supply giving suggestions, criticism and applause on her current roles.

He asked to see the star personally before she left for the set of "Maisie Was a Lady," her latest "Maisie" comedy, to be shown at the Gayety Sunday and Monday. And for the first time he asked for her autograph. But instead of the regulation pencil and paper, he handed her a milk bottle cap to sign.

"I've watched you for more than two years now," he explained, "and I believe you're ready for my collection of stars, which has been limited to Helen Hayes, Spencer Tracy and Lionel Barrymore."

TUESDAY
(Double Feature)

Ex-football stars of Kansas University can thank Ted North, a Jayhawker alumnus who is now under contract to 20th Century-Fox for the fact that their photographs are in a movie.

Action photographs of former Kansas gridiron greats were used to decorate a typical college dormitary room in "Yesterday's Heroes."

North who has one of the leading featured roles in the film, furnished the pictures from his own collection gathered during his undergraduate days at Kansas University.

Featured in the fine cast "Yesterday's Heroes," are Jean Rogers, Robert Sterling, Katherine Aldridge and Russell Gleason.

Also

During the filming of "Charlie Chan at the Wax Museum," 20th Century-Fox film, Sidney Toler had a little joke which backfired and cost him a tidy sum.

Toler had received a cable from the manager of the New Hilo Theatre on the isle of Hilo near Honolulu. It asked him to make a personal appearance at the Island premiere of a "Chan" picture. But Toler could not get away from his screen duties. Instead, he sent his regrets, jokingly offering the wax figure of himself used in the picture to stand in for "Chan" at the premiere.

To his surprise, the theatre manager accepted and Toler had to purchase the wax figure modelled by Clay Campbell, studio make-up chief, as soon as the production was finished, and sent it to Hilo via the China Clipper.

SAYS BUTT KERNELS ARE GOOD SEED CORN

The irregular-shaped butt kernels produce as good corn as the flat kernels, says Prof E. J. Kinney of the Kentucky College of Agriculture. Their shape, however, presents a planting problem. If they are so shaped that they go through the planter evenly, then there is no reason why one should not buy "rounds." Many producers of hybrid corn sell "rounds" for less than they quote "flats."

Farmers borrowing money from the Farm Security Administration are being encouraged to take an active part in the "live-at-home" program.

FOOD STORAGE PLANS STUDIED

BY COMMITTEE FROM BOONE, KENTON AND CAMPBELL—WOULD ENABLE FARMERS TO KEEP FRESH VEGETABLES.

Plans for locating a frozen food locker storage plant in Covington were made by representatives from Boone, Kenton and Campbell counties in a meeting at Covington on Monday of this week, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Locker Storage plants have proven highly successful in various parts of the country. Those attending the meeting expressed opinions that such an attempt in Northern Kentucky would be successful.

Freezer-Locker plants would enable a farmer to keep fresh frozen vegetables and meats from his own farm in storage the year round. The farmer would take his fresh fruits, vegetables or meats to the storage plant where they would be frozen until the time they are needed for home consumption. The service varies from ten to fourteen dollars per year per locker unit.

The service is of special importance to those having R. E. A. or other electric refrigeration. It would offer a wide variety of possibilities where a farmer would want to kill a beef, hog, lamb or poultry during the summer months and to maintain a fresh meat or vegetable supply throughout the year.

Approximately 300 lockers are necessary for an efficient frozen food locker plant. Boone, Kenton and Campbell counties should easily supply this number for a start in this new type of service. A rapid expansion in demand of this service will likely follow. Those who are interested in learning more about frozen food storage lockers are urged to contact the county agent's office.

Baseball Meeting Set At Courthouse Tuesday Night

There will be a meeting for all persons interested in organizing a county baseball club in Boone County on Tuesday night, April 29 at the courthouse in Burlington.

The meeting is called for 7:30 p. m. and all persons interested in organizing a county baseball club are requested to be present at this meeting.

Tulip Show To Be Held On May Day

The Homemakers' Clubs of the county will hold a tulip show on Thursday afternoon May 1 at the Burlington school. Exhibits should be brought to the school by 1:30 p. m. (central time) and the show will be opened at 2:30. Everyone is cordially invited to make entries.

The highlight of the afternoon will be a talk by Mr. E. A. Glass, flower expert and manager of Shillitos' Flower Shop. His subject will be "Practical Arrangements for the Home." Mr. Glass will bring his own materials for illustrating his talk. The full program and prizes will be announced next week.

JAKE F. CLEEK IS CANDIDATE

FOR MAGISTRATE FROM THIRD DISTRICT—IS WELL KNOWN FARMER AND SPORTSMAN OF BEAVER PRECINCT.

The formal announcement of Jake Cleek for Magistrate from the Third Magisterial District composed of Walton, Verona, Hamilton and Carlton precincts, appears in this issue of The Recorder.

Mr. Cleek is engaged in the business of farming and poultry raising and is widely known as a breeder and lover of fine beagle hounds. His farm was the site selected for the Ohio Valley Beagle Club, in which Mr. Cleek is an outstanding member.

Mr. Cleek is well qualified for the office he seeks, having held this office from 1933 through 1937. He has always been active in community affairs and is a staunch supporter of those things that are for the betterment of the community and county as a whole.

He states, that if elected, he will endeavor to serve the people in the same courteous and efficient manner as he has in the past.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION

John S. Juett

JUETT SEEKS RE-ELECTION

AS REPRESENTATIVE FROM GRANT AND BOONE COUNTIES—WAS ELECTED TO POSITION IN PRIMARY 1939.

John S. Juett, of Williamsown tosses his hat into the political ring this week by announcing his candidacy for re-election to the office of Representative from the counties of Boone and Grant, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, Aug. 2.

Mr. Juett has served the people of Boone and Grant for one term, and has filled the position of Representative in a very commendable manner. During his term of office he served on several important committees in the House, and stated that if re-elected he would be in a better position to further help enact legislation to benefit his district.

Mr. Juett is well known both in Boone and Grant. He is a partner in the Halfway House, Williamstown and is one of Williamstown's most prominent businessmen.

He was born and reared in Grant County, and spent the greater part of his life on a farm near Williamstown, and is well acquainted with the farmer's needs in the way of legislation.

Mr. Juett's announcement follows an agreement between the Democratic Committees of Boone and Grant, whereby an agreement was reached that each county should hold the office for two terms, thus enabling the Representative to succeed himself. Heretofore this office was held one term by each county.

In making this agreement the committees anticipate more efficient representation, due to the fact that the official elected will have had more experince.

Judge Goodenough To Hold Court At New Haven

Joseph P. Goodenough, Judge of the Kenton County Circuit Court, has agreed to assist the Boy Scouts of Union, Troop 128, at their entertainment to be given Friday night, May 2nd by bringing his famous mock court to New Haven High School. This is the first opportunity that the people of Boone County have had to witness this humorous mock trial.

In addition to Judge Goodenough, Mr. Willard A. Friend, Boy Scout Executive, will show and explain a motion picture on Canada. The boys of the troop also have a sketch or two to present.

This troop is sponsored by the Union and Richwood Presbyterian Church for the boys of their neighborhood. Rev. Russell Cross is the Scoutmaster.

Ernest Rosenstiel Inducted Into Service

Ernest Wilson Rosenstiel, a volunteer was inducted into the United States Army at Ft. Thomas Wednesday, April 23. He was a replacement from the last call for Wayne Arrasmith who was rejected by officials at the army post.

Rev. F. Barker To Be Guest Speaker At Bullittsville

Rev. F. Barker, young pastor of the Erlanger Christian Church will be the guest speaker at the Bullittsville Christian Church at the evening service, Sunday, April 27, according to Rev. Noble Lucas, pastor.

Rev. Lucas, pastor will preach at the morning hour. His sermon topic will be "Hallowed Be Thy Name."

The public is cordially invited to attend both these services.

FARM LEADERS STUDY COUNTY

NEIGHBORHOOD AND COMMUNITY CENTERS BEING STUDIED—WILL COVER PERIOD OF SEVERAL MONTHS.

Boone County leaders are studying our farm problems from a new angle, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. This angle is called Land Use Planning.

Community committeemen in the preliminary stages are holding meetings to study neighborhood and community centers, the types of soils and types of farming in the community, average land values and the size of farms, and capital investments required to purchase a farm and pay for it in a reasonable time. This work will be followed by studies on organization of farms in the communities and with an attempt to identify the social and economic problems of the community with the idea of finding a more satisfactory solution.

The Land Use Planning program will cover a period of many months. The results will be coordinated through community and county meetings. The county program will be coordinated with the State and National Land Use Planning Programs in the attempt to find a more sound solution to our agricultural problems.

The committees serve without pay in their interest for a better agriculture. Meetings recently have been held in Petersburg, Grant, Burlington, Constance, Florence, Walton, New Haven, Hamilton communities. A meeting in the near future has been planned for Hebron community. The committees attending the first meetings report the work most interesting and expressed their desire to have the study continued.

James E. Cheesman

James E. Cheesman, age 72 years passed away at his home Walton, Ky., April 19. The body was removed to Chambers & Grubbs funeral home for preparation, after which it was returned to his home, and laid in state there until Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Hickory Grove Baptist Church, of which he was a member, at 2 p. m. by his pastor Rev. Mangold, assisted by Bro. Alford. Burial was in Independence cemetery.

He is survived by his widow Mrs. Matilda Cheesman, 3 sons, five daughters, 33 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and five sisters.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Maggie Hopperton

Maggie Hopperton, age 78, passed away at St. Elizabeth Hospital April 17th. She was a resident of Walton.

The remains were brought to the funeral home of Chambers and Grubbs for preparation and remained there in state until Saturday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. by Rev. C. J. Alford in the presence of her many loved ones and friends.

She is survived by her husband Chas. C. Hopperton, one daughter, Callie, eight sons, Ed, Lon, Andrew, Joe, Harvey, Fred, Hines, and Jesse, 27 grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and many other relatives who will mourn her passing.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of arrangements.

SIDEBOTTOM IN SENATOR'S RACE

HAS SERVED IN BOTH LEGISLATURE AND SENATE DURING LAST SIX YEARS—IS NATIVE OF OWEN COUNTY.

P. L. Sidebottom, Williamstown, makes his formal announcement this week to the voters of the 26th Senatorial District, composed of Boone, Grant, Owen, Gallatin and Pendleton Counties, for the office of Senator, subject to the action of the Democratic primary Saturday, August 2, 1941.

Mr. Sidebottom served the people of Boone and Grant Counties as Representive six years ago, and has served as State Senator from the 26th district for the last four years. He is one of Grant County's best educated men and is well qualified for the office he seeks.

He is a native of Owen County, but has spent practically all his life in Grant County. At present he owns and operates the Sidebottom Chevrolet Company in Williamstown.

Mr. Sidebottom is the first to announce his candidacy in the Senatorial race and makes the following statement:

"Believing that the farmer, merchants and small businessmen needs representation and legislation at Frankfort, and believing that I have consistently represented these interests in the past at Frankfort, I will be a candidate again for the Democratic nomination for Senator from the 26th Senatorial District."

A CORRECTION

In last week's issue of The Recorder in the delinquent tax list the names of Boyd Webster, of Verona and F. B. Youell of Walton were carried through an error of the Sheriff's office.

KIRKPATRICK IS CANDIDATE

FOR RE-ELECTION TO OFFICE OF JAILER BOONE COUNTY—HAS BEEN VERY EFFICIENT AND COURTEOUS OFFICIAL.

Elmer Kirkpatrick, Jailer of Boone County announces in this issue as a candidate for re-election.

Mr. Kirkpatrick needs no introduction to the voters of Boone County, whom he asks to indorse the administration of the office he now holds.

He is a Democrat of the old school and at all regular elections, County, State and National, you will find him working for the nominees of Democratic Party.

The people from the various parts of the County who have visited the County seat have always found him courteous and accommodating at all times.

To the unfortunates who have been placed in his custody he has extended to them the kind treatment one would expect from his fellowman.

Mr. Kirkpatrick wishes to extend to the voters of Boone County his thanks and appreciation for the consideration they have shown him in the past and hopes to see them all in person before the August election.

He will appreciate your support and promises if re-elected to perform his duties in a manner that will reflect credit upon himself and his constituents.

Mrs. Ben Jones, Sr.

Mrs. Ben Jones, Sr., 86 years, passed away at her home in Constance Saturday morning following a brief illness.

She leaves her husband Ben Jones, four daughters, Mrs. Tommy Masters, Bullittsville, Mrs. Sally Rector, Petersburg, Mrs. Kitty Anderson, Constance and Mrs. Rogers, of Richtown, Ohio; one son, Ben Jones, Jr., of Covington. She also leaves 28 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home by Rev. Tipton, pastor of the Ludlow Christian Church. Burial followed in the Bullittsville cemetery.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cress wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Ruth Cress to Mr. Estil Gomph. The wedding will be an event of June 16th at the Lawreneeburg Lutheran Church.

IN RACE FOR SHERIFF

Edgar (Cuddy) Goodridge

HEBRON MAN IN SHERIFF'S RACE

EDGAR M. (CUDDY) GOODRIDGE MAKES OFFICIAL BOW—WAS BORN AND REARED IN HEBRON PRECINCT.

Edgar M. (Cuddy) Goodridge, of Hebron, formally announces his candidacy for Sheriff of Boone County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2nd, 1941.

In making his official announcement, Mr. Goodridge makes the following statement:

"I was born and reared in the Hebron precinct and received my education in the Boone County public schools. I am a member of the Bullittsville Christian Church, and also a member of Hebron Masonic Lodge No. 757.

"I have always been a loyal Democrat and at present I am a member of the Boone County Young Men's Democratic Club.

"I am making this race because several of the most prominent and successful business men of Boone County have urged me to do so during the past year, and I certainly have faith in them and the voters of Boone County.

"I solicit the support of the Democratic voters in the coming primary and swear, if elected Sheriff to serve the people to the best of my ability."

4-H Members Plan Poultry Exhibit At State Fair

Poultry Project members of the Boone County 4-H Clubs are planning a poultry exhibit at the Kentucky State Fair this fall, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent. There are approximately 60 members enrolled in the poultry project in the county.

Many 4-H members have purchased baby chicks of the highest quality in order to be eligible to enter an exhibit at the State Fair. Prizes are awarded there for the best trios composed of two females and one male of the same breed and the best county 4-H Poultry Exhibit consisting of three trios. Each county is entitled to show two entries of three trios. Entries at the 4-H Free Fair in August will serve as an elimination of entries to be entered in State competition.

Erlanger Man Buys Thirty-Five Acre Farm Near Burlington

The 35-acre farm of Mrs. James Goins, located on the Belleview road opposite the Ed Berkshire farm, was sold last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allen, of Erlanger. The purchase price was $2100.00.

Mrs. Raymond Holbrook and daughter will return from Paducah, the first of the week, after spending the past week there with her husband.

Red Cross Knitters Needed In Boone County

Mrs. Martha L. Huey, Chairman of Production of the Boone County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has indicated that more knitters are needed in Boone County to complete our quota for knitting in the War Production Quota. If you know how to knit and have the time to do, please call Mrs. Huey at Florence 623, and she will see that you receive your yarn.

An interesting story of a Dallas, Texas, woman has reached the local officers of the Boone County Chapter. Despite her 91 years, Mrs. D. R. Weyand, of Dallas, is knitting a pair of socks a day for the Red Cross—without the need of glasses. She learned to knit at the age of five, making socks for the Confederates in '64 and American troops in '18.

REFERENDUM SET MAY 31ST

FOR WHEAT GROWERS, ACCORDING TO MARK COOK, CHAIRMAN OF BOONE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL ASS'N.

The wheat situation is not changed by the recently announced expansion of the Ever-Normal Granary to provide needed food products, and plans are going forward for holding the wheat marketing quota referendum on May 31, Mr. Cook, chairman of the Boone County Agricultural Conservation Association, said today.

Contrasting the wheat situation with the need for more pork, dairy and poultry products, he pointed out that the United States and the world have more wheat than is needed. As a result, the nation's wheat farmers will need quotas to protect soil resources, maintain income, and safeguard adequate reserves.

The new development of the Ever-Normal Granary for expanding production of certain foods simply demonstrates the flexibility of the national farm program, he said. This flexibility is as important in handling wheat surpluses with marketing quotas as in increasing needed supplies of other foods, he pointed out.

With a record carryover of 380,000,000 bushels of wheat and another large crop expected this year, he stated, this country probably will have 1¼ billion bushels of wheat for the coming year.

This is enough wheat, he said, to take care of United States' needs for nearly two years, and the world wheat picture is much the same. There is a market for only one bushel out of every three for sale.

Canada, which he cited as an example of what wheat farmers everywhere face, has enough wheat over and above her own needs to furnish Great Britain a two-year supply.

United States wheat farmers took steps a year ago to insure an ample supply of wheat for defense purposes by maintaining an acreage allotment higher than the market outlook appeared to justify. They were able to do this because they had income protection through storage loans and acreage allotments and could call upon marketing quotas if necessary to handle the bigger supplies in an orderly manner.

In this emergency, he said, a sound agriculture is essential to a strong nation, and marketing quotas and acreage allotments furnish wheat, cotton, and tobacco growers the means to achieve it and to make whatever adjustments are needed now and after the emergency is over.

Injuries Prove Fatal To Tyrone, Ky., Man

Columbus Johnson, 35, Tyrone, Ky., died early Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, after having been injured when his auto left the road and crashed through a fence near Richwood, early Sunday.

Johnson suffered fractures of the skull and right collarbone in the accident.

State Patrolman Joe Megerle said Johnson lost control of his auto. Six other persons suffered minor injuries in the accident.

EDGAR GRAVES SEEKS OFFICE

OF MAGISTRATE FROM FIRST DISTRICT—HAS ALWAYS BEEN STRONG SUPPORTER OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Edgar S. Graves, of Bullittsville announces his candidacy for Magistrate from the First Magisterial District, composed of Constance, Hebron, Bullittsville, Petersburg, and Belleview precincts.

Edgar has lived in the same community all his life, has always been a strong supporter of the Democratic party and an active worker.

He was Deputy Tax Commissioner for 12 years and has many friends in the county. He has served on the election board for many years as clerk, judge or sheriff of the Democratic Party.

Edgar solicits the support of the voters of the First District and if elected will endeavor to serve the people in an impartial manner and to the best of his ability.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 4:32-35; 6:1-7.
GOLDEN TEXT—And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul.—Acts 4:32.

Machinery without power is useless—that is why in the lesson of last Sunday the power of the Holy Spirit was recognized as being indispensable in the church. One sometimes wonders whether we do not now have more machinery than power, and thus fail in our high calling.

Power, on the other hand, reaches its greatest usefulness through the organization of well-planned machinery. The church soon found that its activities, simple at the beginning, had become more complex, calling for suitable organization, if it was to best serve the needs of its own people and of those round about it. In so organizing they did not forget this fundamental purpose of the church, nor did they forsake the true source of power.

I. Sharing With the Brethren (4: 32-35).

Love for one another prompted the Christian brethren to meet each other's need by sharing, by holding all they owned for the common good. This was not (as some would have us believe) a type of communism. It was purely voluntary (see Acts 5:4), temporary, and local. It was practiced only in Jerusalem and only for a short time. It was an expression of Christian brotherhood and liberality which is worthy of our consideration.

The duty and privilege of sharing material as well as spiritual blessings is a part of Christian fellowship. Those in the church who have should willingly share with those who have not. Some churches have so effectively carried out this plan today that none of their members is on relief. Not every church can do that, but much more could be done if we had the considerate spirit of the early Christian church, which was indeed the spirit of Christ.

II. Caring for the Unfortunate (6:1, 3, 5, 6).

The church had come through its first real persecution (Acts 5:12-42) with real victory and assurance (5: 42), only to face an internal difficulty. Wherever the Lord blesses, the enemy comes to destroy. Whenever a door of service opens, there are many adversaries (I Cor. 16:9).

There were two groups in the church—the Hebrew Christians, and those with a Greek background. Among the poor to whom daily distribution of help must be made were many widows. Suddenly the Grecian group began to note (or think they noted, which was just as disturbing) that their widows were being neglected.

Notice that men of good character and spirituality were chosen to serve, and that all of them bore Greek names. The Greeks, who were doubtless in the minority in the Jerusalem church, had a complaint, so those who were appointed to serve were their own people. We might have been tempted to appoint a committee made up of half from each side (and thus to continue the dissension), but not so here where grace and wisdom from above controlled.

Do not fail to observe that there was here a well-ordered plan to care for the weak and unfortunate. No Christian church should fail in that important ministry.

III. Preaching the Word (vv. 2, 4, 7).

Social service is necessary—the church should make intelligent provision for its poor and its widows—but it makes a fatal mistake when such service becomes more important than the preaching and teaching of God's Word. Let those appointed to that blessed ministry find joy in sanctified social service, but never let it pre-empt the place of evangelism.

Certainly such service must not become the all-absorbing task of the one who has been set by God as the messenger to the church—the spiritual shepherd of the flock. Many a preacher has lost himself in such work, and failed to study and pray so that he might be prepared to preach the Word in power and with conviction. Too many preachers are attempting to shake a sermon out of their coat sleeves on Saturday night (as Joseph Parker put it) only to find that their ministry grows leaner and leaner until, reaching the years when there should be a matured richness and sweetness in their ministry of the Word, they find their message dead, dull and dry.

Such folly ill befits the Christian church of its ministers. Perhaps some minister who reads these lines should change his ways, and perchance many a church officer who reads them should realize that he has been driving his preacher into work which, while important, should be (for him, at least) secondary. First things first, in God's own order—that is the road of power and blessing.

A proof of confidence in her husband is the wife who goes home for a visit of over a week's duration.

FOOD PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

WILL CAUSE SOME CHANGES IN AAA PROGRAM FOR CORN IN KENTUCKY'S 12 COMMERCIAL CORN COUNTIES.

Expansion of the Ever-Normal Granary program into a food program designed to assure ample supplies for the United States, Great Britain and other nations resisting aggression, as announced by the Department of Agriculture, will cause some changes in the AAA program for corn in Kentucky's 12 commercial corn counties but will not affect other acreage allotments and the agricultural conservation program in general, Mark Cook, chairman of the Boone County Agricultural Conservation Association, announced today.

Mr. Cook pointed out that there is a big supply of corn now in the nation's Ever-Normal Granary, and that better use of present supplies of feed is a more important point for most farmers to keep in mind than the limited expansion in feed production.

He advises feeding hogs to heavier weights, increasing amounts of grain fed to dairy cattle and increasing production of poultry with present feed supplies and facilities, but he asserts that large increases in the acreage of feed crops or large cash outlays for increasing livestock production probably would be unwarranted.

Under the expanded program, the production of pork, dairy products, eggs and poultry will be stimulated through the support of prices over the period ending June 30, 1943, at levels remunerative to producers. Other phases of the program announced by the Department of Agriculture include:

1. Continuation of the existing corn loan program for 1941 and 1942.

2. Continuation of the policy of making loan corn available to producers at the loan rate plus certain carrying charges.

3. Allowing producers in the commercial corn area to increase corn acreage up to their usual acreage. Producers making such increases would not receive corn parity payments nor corn conservation payments and would not be eligible to receive corn loans.

4. No corn marketing quotas for the 1941 crop.

Assuming continuation of existing price relationships and taking seasonal price variations into account, the Department will make purchases in the open market to support long term prices (Chicago basis) at levels approximately as follows:

Hogs (cwt.) $9.00; dairy products, (basis of butter) 31c; Chickens, lb. 15c; Eggs, dozen 22c.

These prices would be subject to customary commercial differentials for market grades and qualities. Purchases will be used to accumulate reserve supplies of food. These supplies can be used for transfer to the British and other countries under the Lend-Lease Act, for release upon the market in case of unwarranted speculative price increases; to meet requests from the Red Cross for shipment to war refugee areas and for direct distribution through school lunch programs or through state welfare departments to public aid families.

In a family where there are daughters and a mother, it becomes a commission form of government.

Few women in Boone County will admit that another woman's husband is worth more 'round the house than hers, but she won't admit this to her husband.

Record Amounts Of Phosphate And Lime Being Used In County

Record amounts of phosphate and lime are being used by Boone County farmers this year, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. This work is resulting in more profitable production and the improvement of both quality and looks for farm lands.

The county agricultural conservation association reports that 660 tons of superphosphate and over 3,000 tons of agricultural limestone have been ordered and delivered todate under the Grant of Aid program. This already exceeds the entire 1940 record on phosphate and is the first year that limestone has been supplied to farmers as grant of aid in lieu of cash payments for carrying out soil building practices. Farmers who have not ordered limestone and phosphate should do so before May 15th, the last day that this type of order can be accepted under the 1941 program. The 1941 program year closes June 30th.

A record increase in alfalfa seeding is expected as a result of the lime and phosphate treatment. Farmers are appreciating more the importance of alfalfa as a health building feed for more profitable livestock production and also the ease with which a good stand can be secured on land that has been limed, phosphated and the seed inoculated. April and May usually are good months for seeding alfalfa.

DEARBORN COUNTY FAIR DATES ANNOUNCED

The David McAllister Post American Legion of Lawrenceburg, Indiana announced the dates of their 19th Annual Fair to be the week of Aug. 18th to the 23, inclusive. These dates which are just one month later than their usual dates were selected in order to allow more time for the construction of their new Fair Grounds, located on an eighty-acre tract adjacent to the new U. S. 50 through Lawrenceburg. There will be ample room for parking and all other building, including a half-mile track. 1t-ch.

F. F. A. HOLD ANNUAL FATHER AND SON BANQUET AT HEBRON

The annual father and son banquet of the F. F. A. was held at the school house April 10th. Harry Aylor served as our toastmaster for the evening. The Home Economics girls prepared and served the meal. After the meal had been served the officers presented the opening ceremony.

William Burns gave the welcoming address. Edwin Burnsetter said the Future Farmer creed. Mr. Wendell Howard, vocational agriculture instructor at Ewing, Ky., and president of the Northern Kentucky Agriculture instructors gave the principal address, which was enjoyed by all.

Joe Hogan gave a talk on the chapter activities. Mr. Goodridge, principal of our school gave certificates to the members of the part-time class that were present. The closing ceremony by the officers included the evening's program.

The agriculture class of Hebron has treated several tobacco beds during the last two weeks. We are planning to treat more of the student's beds. Anyone desiring to have their beds treated the club will be glad to do it for the cost of materials used. Please call the Hebron school if you want a bed treated.

Employes to Share in "Pot of Gold"

Twenty Covington residents, all members of the staff of the Sears, Roebuck & Co., store on West Seventh St., Covington were advised by Francis Vehr, the local manager that they are sharing in a $4,136,129 "pot of gold" representing the company's contribution to the savings and profit-sharing fund of the Sears, Roebuck employes for the fiscal year of 1940.

A regular employee of the company becomes eligible for fund membership after a year of service.

"The attractiveness of the plan is attested by the fact that over 95 per cent of eligible employes are members of the fund" said Manager Vehr.

Live At Home Program And National Defense

Boone County farmers, Homemakers' clubs and 4-H club members are placing special emphasis this year on the Live-at-Home program as an important part in National Defense, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The "Live at Home" program means a better living for the farm family from products and opportunities made available on the farm. It is estimated that a large percent of our people do not receive an adequate diet in proper amounts and kind. Well fed people produces a stronger nation. More attention than every before is given by the Government to see that our military forces have been the best possible balanced diet.

The 1941 County "Live at Home Program" calls for the following points:

1. Every farm grow a good garden with kind and variety for year round use. Extension Circulars Nos. 343, on the Garden, Month by Month, and No. 354 on Make the Farm Feed the Family, are available at the County Office on request.

2. Sufficient poultry and eggs for year round use by the family. Five early hatched spring pullets per member of the family are planned for early fall and winter egg supply.

3. Sufficient dairy products are planned through use of one to two good cows per family and more use of a greater variety of milk products are planned.

4. Greater use of the farm produced meat supply, including pork, beef and lambs. The curing, canning and preserving of these meats for year round supply.

5. Fruit supply through plantings of (a) 250 strawberry plants; (b) 50 raspberry plants; (c) 6 grape vines; (d) 6 to 12 bunches of rhubarb.

The Homemakers' clubs and Home Economics 4-H club members are stressing the importance of variety and uses in the family diet as a means of better feeding the family from the products produced. More complete details of the "Live at Home" program are available at the county office on request.

FULTON FARMERS GROW VEGETABLES

Low prices of cotton and dark tobacco are stimulating interest in commercial vegetable growing in Fulton county, Kentucky. County Agent S. V. FOOT TEST

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

Usually the first sign of foot trouble is the running over of the heels of shoes.

In a strong healthy human foot the 26 bones are held together to form a substantial support for the weight of the body and they are held together in place by strong ligaments, tendons, and muscles. These bones are so arranged that they form four separate and natural arches.

The heel bone and ankle bone lean out of position more or less in almost every kind of foot trouble. The cause, is that ligaments, muscles and tendons which hold the heel bone and ankle bone in place, become weakened, and are not strong enough to hold these bones in their normal position.

Backaches, headaches and many body ills may be traced to feet. Even symptoms like those of rheumatism and arthritis now are being banished with proper shoes. Also nervous indigestion, sleepless nights, etc.—Adv.

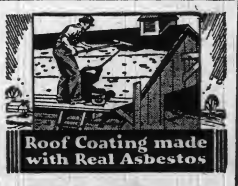
Notice To Contractors

Sealed bids will be received by the Department of Highways at its office, Frankfort, Kentucky, until 10:00 a. m. Central Standard time on the 9th day of May, 1941, at which time bids will be publicly opened and read for the improvement of:

Boone County SN-FA 15 A (4); SP 8-90 The Florence-Warsaw Road, beginning at end of four-lane pavement east of Florence and extending to junction with U. of approximately 0.436 miles. Grade, drain and high type surfacing construction.

The special provisions for highway projects financed with Federal Aid Highway funds apply on this project.

The attention of prospective bidders is called to the prequalification requirements and necessity for securing certificate of eligibility; the special provisions covering subletting or assigning the contract and the Department's regulation which prohibits the issuance of proposals after 4:00 p. m. of the day preceding the opening of bids.



Further information, bidding proposals, etc., will be furnished upon application to the Frankfort Office. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

CAREY Fibre Coating does more than cover the surface of a felt roof—it renews the life of the material. The light oils soak into the dried-out felt; thoroughly waterproofing it. The heavy oils fill up exposed cracks and form a new wearing surface. This new surface is reinforced with fibres of genuine asbestos; the wonderful mineral which is practically impervious to exposure.

Carey Fibre Coating is made for felt roofs, but it is also fine for badly worn metal roofs. One gallon covers about 50 square feet — get our money-saving prices on any quantity.

FLORENCE

Children of the Florence public school enjoyed a short vacation last week end on account of K. E. A.

The boys who were recently inducted into the army will be greatly missed by friends in Florence.

We are glad to see Miss Mary H. Gillaspie able to be out again.

Mrs. Wendell Sleet and two daughters, Ruth and Jean spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Ruth Baker, of Beaver, Ky.

Mrs. Juanita Ammerman, sister of Jack Renaker is convalescing nicely in a Louisville Hospital, following a serious operation recently.

Mrs. Lillian Schram and daughter Bonnie, spent the day Saturday shopping in Covington.

Mrs. Zetta Osborn was called to St. Elizabeth Hospital this week to the bedside of her brother Louis Smith, who is seriously ill.

We are glad to announce Mrs. Charlotte Wilson as manager of the Florence public school lunch room for next year.

Miss Alma Schwibold called on Mrs. Helen Byrne and family Saturday evening.

Henry Smith, of Gunpowder was calling on friends here Saturday afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Laile spent from Wednesday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor and family.

Mrs. R. L. Brown called on her brother Ezra Popham who is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital and found him improving.

Mrs. Lora Laile visited her son Carey Laile and family, of Erlanger on Thursday.

Quite a few from here attended the J. S. Tanner sale, which was held Saturday afternoon near Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kelm and family spent Thursday evening with his mother, Mrs. Kelm, of Petersburg.

Mrs. Sarah Markesbery and sons spent Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dugan entertained with a six o'clock dinner party on Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Minnie Jones and Mrs. Fannie Kinsella, of Sayler Park, and Mrs. Flemons and daughter, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leibrock, of Hamilton, O., were dinner guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Baxter.

Friends please don't forget to hand your items of interest to Mrs. Harold Conner at Florence Drug Store.

Miss Lillian Taylor had for her house guest over the week-end her friend Miss Dorothy Laile.

Friends of Ezra Popham will be glad to know he is improving nicely, after an operation at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He has been confined to his home for several months due to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dugan were calling on friends at Francisville Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Grace Myrtle Murray and Mrs. Campbell, of Bullittsville visited Mrs. Nan Baker, who remains ill.

Sylvan Martin and bride have started housekeeping in the lovely apartment of Mrs. Geneva Souther on Lloyd Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pettit are sporting a new car.

Sterling Cason, of Erlanger visited Mrs. Sue Grant on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Osborn were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Highhouse and Mrs. James Clutterbuck and son on a motor trip to Dillsboro, Ind., last Sunday where they visited Mrs. James Clutterbuck's parents.

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Miss Carrie Sine and Mr. Sylvan Martin, who were quietly married Easter Sunday, April 13. We wish them much happiness and success.

Mrs. R. L. Brown entertained with a dinner party last Sunday, it being her 64th birthday anniversary. The table was decorated for the occasion. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn Buckler and sons Russell, Douglas and Orville, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Laile and children Bobbie, Frances and Marvin. All left wishing Mrs. Brown many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker, of Hebron, spent Sunday afternoon with his mother, Mrs. Nan Baker, who is improving slowly after several weeks' illness at the home of her son Harve Baker.

Announcement has been made of the recent marriage of Miss Marjorie Pickett, of Florence to Ralph Jones, of Burlington Pike. The marriage was performed at Renfro Valley, Saturday, April 12th. We wish them much happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside on his farm.

TONIGHT

Kidded as "the biggest man in pictures" because of his tremendous bulk, Laird Cregar has caused a revision of estimates of his brawn and agility.

Just to prove that very little of his 309 pounds is fat, Cregar did a series of agile cartwheels on the set of "Hudson's Bay" at 20th Century-Fox where he has a featured role in Paul Muni's starring film. The fact that Cregar was wearing a beard and was clad in the heavy leather costume of a pioneer trapper, added more to this athletic exhibition.

FRIDAY
Double Feature

Eight million dollars is the sum Earl Carroll, the beauty magnate, estimates he has spent on girl shows produced by him during the past 30 years. The impresario has turned actor for the first time in his career, making his screen debut, playing himself in Paramount's musical comedy-melodrama, "A Night at Earl Carroll."

Also

George Hawkins, beautiful West Coast concert violinist and member of the famous Pasadena Playhouse, makes her debut as a screen actress in "Doomed Caravan," latest film adventure of "Hopalong" Cassidy. Miss Hawkins, still in her 'teens and a startling brunette, was "discovered" by screen actor Victor Jory when he appeared with the Pasadena players.

SATURDAY

Because of the outdoor background for most of "Romance of the Rio Grande," 20th Century-Fox film which has Cesar Romero as the Cisco Kid, Director Herbert I. Leeds filmed most of the sequences out on location.

Vasquez Rocks, 40 miles from the studios, provided most of the outdoor background. However, on a sound stage the studio built a Spanish hacienda which covered every available inch of floor space. The company had been at work for 3 weeks before they made their first appearance on the lot.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Everyone has a good luck charm of some form or another, but one of the most unusual in Hollywood is owned by actress Hedy Lamarr, who co-stars with James Stewart in "Come Live With Me." The charm is a tiny, gold-edged locket of glass. Inside is a four-leaf clover. The clover was plucked by Miss Lamarr's mother from grass near London's Trafalgar Square, and enclosed in a letter. The star had it mounted in the locket which dangles from a gold chain about her wrist.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

If Lou Costello weren't such a dummy at rummy, there never would have been an Abbott and Costello to howl about in "Buck Privates," the Universal comedy about army camp life.

Abbott was a cashier in a theatre. Costella was a vaudeville comic. They started playing rummy backstage, with Abbott furious at Costello's fumbles. Somebody suggested that they try squabbling on the stage. That's all it took.

We blame the cold for lingering then turn around and complain about having spring fever.

Alex Carrel says we must make men over in order to save civilization. Some wives have been working on this for some time.

You may get away with murder, robbery and swindling, but the government will get you on income tax evasion, one fine day.

County Nurse Holding Pre-School Clinics In Co.

April 15th, the Burlington clinic was conducted at the school house. Dr. M. A. Yelton was the medical examiner. He was assisted by the Red Cross Nurse.

Mrs. Kirtley Cropper, Mrs. W. L. McBee and Mrs. Walter Brown, a committee from the P. T. A. did a good job of reaching all parents of children to enter school next year. The attendance was good considering the amount of measles, mumps and whooping cough, so prevalent now.

Besides talking over physical defects, diphtheria and smallpox immunization was stressed. Every baby should be immunized against diphtheria as soon after he is six months old as possible. If the child is breast fed he is supposed to get some protection from its mother up to that time. The younger the child the more apt he is to take diphtheria.

Smallpox vaccination should also be given in infancy. The fact that the law requires this before entering school, (teachers will be authorized to diligently enforce this another year), does not mean the child should not be vaccinated long before the age of six.

Why not take your boy or girl to your family doctor and have this protection against these dread diseases before it is too late Trouble and expense is often saved by doing this.

Through the Red Cross and from the Children's Bureau, Washington, books entitled "Are You Training Your Child To Be Happy?" have been secured. These books are expensive to print and hard to obtain. Therefore, only parents who attend the clinic with their children can receive one of these new and up to date books on child training.

Following is clinic schedule for the entire county:

Constance and Taylorsport, May 9. Plans not yet completed.

Florence, April 30. Plans not yet completed.

Verona, May 2. Plans incomplete.

Walton, May 5 and 6 at 1 p. m. Dr. R. E. Ryle Medical examiner, assisted by Red Cross Nurse.

Petersburg, May 7, 1 p. m. Dr. E. J. Love, assisted by Red Cross Nurse.

Belleview, May 9, 1 p. m. Dr. E. J. Love, assisted by Red Cross Nurse.

New Haven, May 8, 12:30 p. m. Dr. G. R. Coe, assisted by Red Cross Nurse.

Hebron, April 28, 1 p. m. by local physician, assisted by Red Cross Nurse.

Hamilton, May 7, 9 a. m. by local physician, assisted by Red Cross Nurse.

Parent-Teacher Associations are sponsoring and assisting with all clinics. This in invaluable for many reasons.

Public Sale Held 90 Years Ago In Ky.

The following article brought into this office by Carlos Cason, of Burlington R. 2 this week. It appeared in The Telegram, Uniontown, Ky., paper recently, and was copied from an old sale bill which Mrs. Arch Thompson found among her father's papers as she was going through them recently.

The sale was held in Woodford County, 90 years ago. The text of the sale bill was as follows:

SALE

"Having sold my farm and I am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox team, will offer on March 1, all of my personal property, to-wit:

"All ox teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; 2 milk cows; 1 gray mare and colt; 1 pair of oxen and yoke; 1 baby yoke; 2 ox carts; 1 iron foot of popular weather moldboard; 1,500 ten-foot fence rails; 1 60-gallon soap kettle; 85 sugar troughs, made of white ash timber; 10 gallons of maple syrup; 2 spinning wheels; 30 pounds of mutton tallow; 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson; 300 poles; 100 spit hoops; 100 empty barrels; 1 32-gallon barrel of Johnson Miller whiskey, 7 years old; 20 gallons apple brandy; 1 40-gallon still of oak tanned leather; 1 dozen real books; 2 handle hooks; 3 scythes and cradles; 1 dozen wooden pitchforks; one-half interest in tan yard; 1 32-calibre rifle; bullet mold and powder horn; rifle made by Ben Miller; 50 gallons of soft soap; hams, bacon, and lard; 40 gallons sorghum molasses; 6 head fox hounds, all soft-mouthed except one.

"At the same time I will sell my six negro slaves—2 men 65 and 50 years old; 2 boys 12 and 18 years old; 2 mulatto wenches, 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to same party. Will not separate them.

"Terms of sale: Cash in hand, or note to draw 4 per cent interest with Bob McConnel as surety.

"My home is two miles south of Versailles, Ky., on the McClouns Ferry Pike. Sale begins at 8 o'clock Plenty to eat and drink.—P. L. Moss."

C. A. [illegible] of Barren county grew three tobacco crops on one acre; that is, the yield of 2,423 pounds was about three times the average yield. The land had been in alfalfa four years, and he added large quantities of manure, and 400 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate.

FORMER PASTOR OF LOCAL CHURCH WEDS CENTRAL CITY, NEBRASKA GIRL

Toney A. Conley of New Alexandria, Ohio, former minister of Belleview Church of Christ was married Sunday, April 13, 1941 to Nadine Vorse of Central City, Neb. The wedding took place at Mt. Pleasant Church of Christ, South of Williamstown, Ky.

A double ring ceremony was performed at the close of the evening service, Easter evening. Prof. Geo. Mack Elliott of Cincinnati Bible Seminary and minister of Dayton, Ky. Church of Christ performed the ceremony with Prof. R. T. Drake pronouncing them husband and wife.

The bride, Miss Vorse, was attended by her sister, Roxine, who is also a student at C. B. S. Miss Vorse wore a gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of Easter lillies and daises. The bridesmaid wore a dress of pastel green, embroidered voile and carried pink carnations.

The groom wore a dark brown suit and was attended by Harold Odor of Williamstown, Ky., and a classmate of Mr. Conley.

Miss Bertha Fisher, head of English Department at C. B. S. sang two numbers "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "Because." Miss Arlen Kuskie, of Central City, Neb., played the Wedding March from Lohengrin and Mendelsohn and also accompanied Miss Fisher.

Mr. Conley is serving the Mt. Pleasant Church and Lystra Church of Christ at Mason, Ky. After commencement exercises in June Mr. and Mrs. Conley will reside near Williamstown, Ky.

LLOYD BRADFORD NOW STATIONED AT PANAMA

Lloyd Bradford, son of Russell Bradford, of Covington, is a recent volunteer in the United States Army. He enlisted the latter part of January.

Lloyd was stationed at Fort Thomas for a few days, after which he was moved to Fort Moultrie, South Carolina. He remained there two months, and after a brief furlough with home folks in Covington he was moved to Panama Canal Zone Co. H. 14th Inf. Fort. Davis.

Lloyd is a grandson of the late J. E. (Tom) Bradford and wife, formerly of Boone County.

GRANT 4-H NEWS

The girls in the first and second units of sewing have held three project meetings. The meetings were held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Hugh McArthur. The girls are getting along very nicely.

At the first meeting they planned what they were to make and do during the year. The girls in the second unit are going to make a 4-H uniform.

The girls in the first unit of foods have held two meetings at the home of their leader, Mrs. Helen Rogers.

The first meeting was held April 10, 1941. They talked about menus. Mrs. Rogers told them to try to get measuring cups and spoons.

The second meeting was held Monday, April 14, 1941. They talked about menus and learned how to cook a few things. Mrs. Rogers told the girls to get breakfast recipes. She also told them to prepare breakfast three times before the next meeting. The meeting was held on Monday, April 21.

The Grant True Blue 4-H club held its third meeting April 15. The meeting was held at the school house. Twenty members answered "present" to the roll call.

There were two leaders present. They were Mrs. McArthur and Mrs. Moore. The project leaders gave very nice reports.

We had a program. It was conducted by the Vice-President, Charles Newman. We all liked the program very much.

We were very sorry Miss Gillaspie could not be with us. We all hope she can be with us at the next meetings. We are very glad we won the 4-H club trophy. We hope to win it again next year.

Emma May Brady, Reporter.

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

The Burlington Homemakers will meet at the courthouse in Burlington May 1, 1941 at 10:30 a. m. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

This meeting will be an interesting one. News of what has been done and is being done by other clubs in the district will be brought to the meeting by delegates who attended the annual district meeting.

More about the making of rugs will be brought at this meeting More good pointers will be presented such as: Wool is not very desirable for crochet rugs and whether or not it is better to tear or cut materials and always use lengthwise. The size of the needle should be G-H or J.

Members and friends who are interested in making rugs come out and see the pretty rugs and new patterns which the ladies have made and used.

Those planning to attend the annual meeting April 29 at Maysville, remember today is the last in which to make reservations for lunch and transportation.

Several Scott county Utopia club members are starting plantings of small fruit.

Better producing cows for family milk supply was discussed at a meeting in Robertson county.

New Streamline Train Makes Press Run From Chicago To Cincinnati

A large group of newspaper people were guests of the New York Central System on Friday, April 18, on the new streamlined train, the James Whitcomb Riley.

This beautiful flyer will go into service on a five and one-half hour schedule between Cincinnati and Chicago on April 28th. This special run was made between Chicago and Cincinnati to give the news folks a preview.

About two hundred were on board, representing papers from fifty different towns. It was a happy affair, all seeming to enjoy the party.

The train consists of stainless steel coaches, with reclining, rotating chairs, extra large washrooms and special lighting system. Along the exterior runs a maroon stripe the height of the windows. This is superimposed on a gray background with silver stripes.

The dining car, whose interior was designed by Henry Dreyfuss in cooperation with the Equipment Engineering Department of the New York Central, is in three sections, with banquette seats in the center, upholstered in blue leather. At either end is a section seating eight persons, with seats in rust upholstery. Floor coverings and drapes are in varied tones of tan and rust.

The observation lounge car is decorated in tan and walnut with upholstery of rust and blue. Plastic windows divide the car into three sections. It has a semi-circular bar in the center.

In spite of all this luxury the train is a coach train and requires only the lowest fares. All seats will be assigned as tickets are sold. The public cars are available to all on board.

The train will be on public exhibit at the Cincinnati Union Terminal on Thursday, April 24th, from 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m.

In regular service the leaving time from Cincinnati is 8:00 a. m. Eastern time, arriving Chicago at 12:30 p. m., central time. Returning, it leaves Chicago at 4:30 p. m. central time and arrives Cincinnati at 11:00 p. m. eastern time.

Approximately 100 Pulaski county farmers sowed cover crops on all their cultivated land. Their names were inscribed on a county honor roll and they were awarded certificates of merit.

VOLUME 65 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1941 — NUMBER 47

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE MONDAY

LARGE AMOUNT OF HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE AND FARM IMPLEMENTS LOST IN RICHWOOD BLAZE.

Fire destroyed a barn Monday, on the farm of Maggie Glacken, located four miles south of Florence on U. S. 25 near Richwood. Origin of the blaze was unknown.

Walton's fire department was called as soon as the blaze was discovered, but the fire had gained such headway, it was impossible to save the barn. However, a large two-story building nearby was saved through the efforts of the firemen.

A few farm implements, household goods, and 12 tons of baled hay were destroyed by the blaze, none of which were insured. The barn was insured in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of Boone County for the amount of $300.00, according to F. H. Rouse, secretary of the insurance company. Estimated loss was set at $500.00. Mr. Rouse stated that this was the fourth barn to burn on this farm during the past several years.

Household furniture, hay and part of farming tools lost in the blaze were the property of Claude Stamper, who had recently moved to the Glacken farm.

Mrs. Mary Bradford

Mrs. Mary Bradford, 52, passed away at her home in Hebron Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, having suffered severe injuries in an auto accident about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Bradford wac the wife of the late Carl Bradford, who preceded her to the grave several years ago. She leaves seven children, Helen, Marcella, Ruth Mae, Robert, Carlton, William and Alton; one brother, Snyder Watts and several other relatives and friends to mourn her passing.

She was a member of Sand Run Baptist Church and a very good citizen in the community.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed Tuesday night. However, it was stated that services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Bullock and Catherman will be in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Belle Boyd Clore

Mrs. Belle Boyd Clore, age 75 years passed away Sunday morning at 1 a. m., following an illness of several months from heart trouble. The body was removed to Chambers & Grubbs funeral home for preparation, after which it was returned to her home at Belleview, and laid in state until Tuesday afternoon.

She is survived by five sons, Elbert, Willard, Lee, John and Franklin; two brothers Robert and William Huey of Boone County.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Belleview Baptist Church, of which she was a member, with Rev. O. M. Huey officiating, in the presence of her many loved ones and friends. Burial was in Belleview cemetery by the side of her husband who preceded her to the grave many years ago.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of funeral arrangements.

NEW ROAD BIDS TO BE RECEIVED

FOR HIGHWAY AROUND FLORENCE—WORK ORDER WILL NOT BE GIVEN UNTIL ALL RIGHT-OF-WAY IS SECURED.

Bids for construction of a new highway route around Florence, avoiding the "bottle-neck" curve through the town, will be received by State Highway Department in Frankfort May 9.

Although bids will be accepted on this project, a work order on the road will not be given until Boone County authorities have secured two remaining pieces of rights-of-way.

Marion D. Ross District Engineer announced that a project for the widening and resurfacing of a section of U. S. 25 between Florence and Richwood will n[illegible]be begun until rights-of-way h[illegible] been obtained for beginning [illegible] the new route around Florence, inasmuch as the state wishes to undertake both projects an improvement measure for the thoroughfare.

Boone County League To Open Season May 10

The Boone County Baseball League, recently organized at a meeting held in Burlington, will open the season May 10th, when Petersburg will battle Belleview at Belleview, Burlington at Big Bone, and CCC Team at Hebron.

The above six teams will compose the Boone County League, it was announced Tuesday by Chas. Benson.

Burlington will open the season in the Campbell County League Sunday, when they meet the strong Dan Cohen Shoes at the Burlington park.

Basketball Squad Entertained By P.-T. A.

Burlington's basketball team, their substitutes and cheer leaders were entertained by the P.-T. A. of Burlington at a banquet Friday night in the school building. Approximately fifty were in attendance.

Edwin Walton, Coach, stated that everyone present was called upon for a brief talk. Dick Bourne assistant athletic director of the Bellevue High School was present and gave a very interesting talk.

Coach Walton awarded letters to the various players at this meeting.

Boone County Fish And Game Club To Hold Meeting May 8

The regular monthly meeting of Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association will be held at the club house, near Burlington on Thursday night, May 8th at 7:30 p. m.

Lunch will be served by members, and everyone interested in the club and club work are requested to attend.

DAN COHEN CO. TO HOLD SALE

$77,000 WORTH OF FOOTWEAR TO BE SOLD AT REDUCED PRICES—PROMISES TO BE RECORD BREAKING SALE.

The Dan Cohen Co., 24 Pike St., Covington, commences a sale today that promises to break all records for Northern Kentucky. It is a remodeling sale, and will be continued until over $77,000 worth of footwear is sold, regardless of cost. The stock of shoes for every member of the family have been cleared from the shelves and placed on racks at prices that will attract buyers of family footwear.

The Cohen building at 24 Pike Street, the scene of this sale, was builded in 1909. It will be rehabilitated at a cost of approximately $50,000. It was here that the first Dan Cohen store was started about 50 years ago. The firm grew rapidly, and today it is recognized as the largest exclusive family shoe store chain in the country, with 50 stores, extending as far south as Texas.

During this sales event many old-time Kentucky families will renew acquaintance with Mr. Mose Cohen, one of the founders of the business, in conjunction with his brothers, Messrs. A. E. Cohen and Nate Cohen.

Contracts for the reconstruction of the Cohen building have been awarded to a Covington architect, Abner Foster, and to a Kentucky general contractor, Mr. Hemmer. All sub-contractors and workmen will be native Kentucklans. It will be a treat to visit the store during this event, even if only to see how a good, old-fashion sale looks during these modern times.

It appears that the reconstructed Cohen building will house a large department store in addition to the Dan Cohen shoe store. An official of the Dan Cohen Co. advises that the sale will continue during the entire remodeling period and the public will forever remember the slashed-price items.

Pike Street has commenced to undergo considerable new front installations with the view of retaining its position as Northern Kentucky's busiest thoroughfare.

A CORRECTION

Through an error in the Sheriff's office, the name of Katherine Jergens estate appeared in the delinquent tax list last week. This name should have been removed from the list.

FARMERS ARE IMPORTANT

TO NATIONAL DEFENSE—PRESENT PROGRAM CALLS FOR INCREASED PRODUCTION IN MANY FARM PRODUCTS.

The farmer in the present emergency as in the past is playing and will play, a most important part in National Defense, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The Department of Agriculture is working out a definite program for the farmer in the present emergency.

The present program calls for increased production in poultry, dairy, pork and vegetables. A price support program of these commodities is to last through June 30th, 1943. Average minimum support prices will yary during the season but will work out to the established averages set.

The "Food For Defense" program in brief, follows:

What It Means to the Farmer

Food is a weapon for defense of democracy. This is a program of turning the ever-normal-granary feed supplies of the AAA program into ever-normal food supplies for ourselves and other democracies. The farm program's adjustments—upward or downward—continue. To enable farmers to make the new adjustments, the Government will support prices fair to farmers and consumers on the needed foods for a period ending June 30, 1943. The effect of the prorgam would be:

Poultry

(Prices quoted are on Chicago basis)

Wanted: Eggs, 6% (10 million cases) more. Hatchery chicks, 15% more.

How To Do: Improve feeding of hens, care of eggs; fill up now unused poultry equipment.

Dairy Products

(Chicago prices quoted)

Wanted: 6 to 8% increase in milk for butter, cheese, dried and evaporated milk.

Price 31c lb., 92-score butter.

How To Do: Improve feeding and management; add numbers by holding good heifers.

Pork Products

(Chicago prices quoted)

Wanted: More weight, 25 lbs. more per head at market; 1941 fall pig crop, 15% more; 1942 spring pig crop, 15% more. (Minimum figures).

Price: Hogs $9.00 per cwt. (Good heavy butcher hogs.)

How To Do: Feed to heavier weights; increase farrowing in line with present production equipment.

Vegetables

Wanted: Canning tomatoes, 33% more; dried beans, 33% more.

Price: Support through market purchases.

How To Do: Acreages no-depleting under AAA program.

General

The prices Chicago basis announced April 3 assume continuation of existing price relationships take into account seasonal price variations, market grades and qualities, and the support is intended on a long-term basis. Thus price support will avoid price pegging.

Increases are from 1940 production.

A study of the above program indicates that the increased production is to be secured through better feeding and management practices and not through the purchase of new equipment. The program is in full cooperation with the present AAA and affects only those commodities in which there is expected to be a shortage. Present indications are for a continued over supply of wheat, tobacco and certain other commodities on which acreage control will continue. Additional information will be made available as the program develops.

Northern Kentucky Firemen Will Sponsor Clean-Up Paint-Up Week

The Northern Kentucky Firemen's Association announce this week that they declared the week of May 15th as Clean-Up Paint-Up Week for Northern Kentucky, according to Chief Al Hue of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department.

All residents of Boone, Kenton and Campbell counties are included in the clean-up program, and all are urged to cooperate with the firemen in helping to eliminate as many fire hazards as possible in and around your home.

Chas. W. Riley Sells Farm Near Bullittsville

Charles W. Riley sold his 65-acre farm located on Sand Run Creek, 3 miles north of Bullittsville last Friday to Mr. J. D. Wainscott, of Cincinnati. This is known as the Mont Baisly farm on which there is an old stone house 140 years old, besides barn and other buildings. The Old Barlow Water Mill was operated at this site many years ago.

Possession of house to be given June 15th, but tenant will move to Bullittsville and continue the tobacco crop on the farm for this season. A. B. Renaker negotiated the sale for Mr. Riley.

Mr. Wainscott had been looking for a house and this kind of location for some time.

The same day Mr. Riley purchased from Theodore F. Birkle an old house and about an acre of land at Bullittsville, which he plans to repair for occupancy of his tenant, Mr. Tipton.

Mrs. Helen Dolwick and daughter of Burlington, R. 1, were calling on Mrs. L. C. Weaver Monday afternoon of this week.

FARM SHOP TO BE INSTALLED

IN HEBRON SCHOOL—WILL BE EQUIPPED WITH COMMON FARM TOOLS, ACCORDING TO REPORT.

To help meet the needs of the national defense program hundreds of young men employed by the National Youth Administration in Kentucky are engaged in constructing 50 Farm shop buildings at various points throughout the state. These shops in addition to 19 that have been finished within the past few months will offer new opportunities for vocational training to rural Kentucky Youth.

When completed, they will be equipped under the direction of local school officials with funds made available through an arrangement with the State Department of Vocational Education. Training activities through each shop will be under the supervision of the local Board of Edueation in cooperation with the Vocational Education Department.

Besides increasing the training resources of the state, construction of these buildings is offering practical work, experienced in various phrases of the building trades to a great number of young men.

The Hebron school is one of the schools that is going to get a Farm shop. The State allotted enough money several weeks ago to build this shop and also equip it with common farm tools.

The building will be constructed this summer by the young men over eighteen, in the community. They will be supervised by a foreman who is familiar with this type of construction.

The building, made of concrete blocks, is a three-room affair for classes for Home Economic and Vocational Agriculture and a room with lumber, tools and machinery. There will be cabinets for the tools. The instruction will be handled by Mr. James R. Huey, who is the vocational agriculture and athletic instructor of that school.

Hebron Man Injured In Auto Accident Tuesday

Paul Menzies, Hebron, suffered severe head and body injuries late Tuesday afternoon while returning home from work, and was rushed to Booth Memorial Hospital for treatment, it was reported her late Tuesday night.

A tire on Menzies' car blew out in front of the Hebron high school, causing him to lose control of his car which struck a tree on the side of the highway. The impact was so great that Menzies was thrown through the windshield, causing severe head and body injuries. The car was completely emolished.

He was rushed to the hospital and his condition was reported as not serious Wednesday morning.

Menzies operates the farm known as Thiemann Bros., just outside of Hebron, which is well known to many fishermen over the county for its fine fishing lake and picnic grounds.

PENDLETON CO. HERD LEADS DHIA

GRANT MADDOX'S HERD RUNS SECOND WITH AVERAGE OF 33.8 POUNDS OF BUTTERFAT.

On completion of the March records in the Northern Kentucky Dairy Herd Improvement Association, we find the herd of E. A. Thomas and Son of Foster, in Pendleton County, leading all other herds of the association. This herd is all purebred Guernseys and the herd average was 38.0 pounds of butterfat. In fact this herd was also high in the preceding month.

The next herd close to the Thomas herd is the herd of Mr. Grant Moddox. Mr. Maddox's herd is Jerseys and the average was 33.8 pounds of butterfat. In both herds the cows were fed a legume hay along with a concentrate and feed sufficient in protein. Needless to say, the lower herds in the association were those not fed a legume hay. However, those herd owners not feeding a legume hay are making efforts to feed such next winter.

Now that warm weather is here, the different herds in the association are on a more equal level. Past records of the winter shows a more uniform production of milk for those herds receiving the best care and management. Most important perhaps is the milking room where the cows stay altogether from fall to spring. Those herds in the tighter, yet well ventilated barns, held their production up much better than those subject to severe changes in temperature. This condition is being improved for dairymen are conscious of the fall.

Mr. W. B. Smott, of Augusta, in Bracken County is just completing a new dairy barn. It is built to hold some forty cows and is equipped with drink cups for the cows. Drink cups have proved most beneficial in holding production up, especially in the winter months.

At present all members in the association own or use purebred bulls except three. One of these, Mr. Otis Kells, of Williamstown, has recently purchased a young purebred from the University of Kentucky Dairy Experiment Station and before the year is over we hope to have all members using purebred sires. Dairymen must realize the importance played by the sire in building up one's herd, for it can be more easily run down than built up by the use of the wrong sire.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

THE CHURCH ENLARGING ITS FELLOWSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:1-8, 14-17, 25.
GOLDEN TEXT — Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.—Acts 8:4.

In a time characterized by materialism and commercialism, it is refreshing to consider the manner in which the early church spread the gospel far and wide. They did this without thought of personal gain or advantage, and with a sacrificial devotion to Christ which caused men and women to be willing to die for Him, and, what may sometimes be even harder, to live for Him in the face of persecution. Here was loyalty that puts expediency to shame, and sacrifice of self for Christian principle which needs emphasis in this "soft" age.

The enlarging of the church is revealed by our lesson as being

I. By Death or by Life (vv. 1-4).

Stephen, one of the deacons, "a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost" (6:5), was stoned because of his testimony for Christ. He became the first martyr of the church, leading the line of those noble men and women who down to our own day have been ready to die rather than to deny Christ. The day may not be too far distant when some of us may face that decision. Are we ready?

To every one of us who is a Christian comes the necessity of living for Christ. Some in Jerusalem died (v. 2), some were imprisoned (v. 3), but notice that the others were scattered abroad, like brands from a fire, carrying the message of God's Word. They were not afraid, did not go into hiding, nor did they "adjust" their message to meet the circumstances. They went "everywhere preaching the word."

While persecution may sometimes hinder the spread of the gospel, it also frequently stirs the zeal of God's people to preach and teach. Just now in the midst of the havoc of war and persecution the good news of salvation is spreading in lands which hitherto knew it not. Are you and I doing our part?

II. By Preaching That Brought Joy (vv. 5-8).

Philip, a layman (the first of many great evangelists) and a Jew, went to the despised Samaritans with the gospel, and God so signally blessed his ministry that a great revival broke out and "there was much joy in the city."

What we need is more gospel preaching and teaching. You laymen, please note that you are not to wait for the preacher to do it. Spread the good news yourself. And note too that it is to be preached to all people, even to those whom we might (humanly speaking) be tempted to despise, either by reason of race or position in life. It was a glorious thing that happened to Philip in Samaria. It can happen again, and "it can happen here."

III. By Fellowship That Brought Blessing (vv. 14-17).

When the church at Jerusalem heard what had happened in Samaria, they were overjoyed, and sent two of their leaders, Peter and John, to encourage and counsel with the new converts.

Such fellowship always brings blessing, and in this case it was unusual blessing; namely, the gift of the Holy Spirit. On this occasion God thus gave these new Samaritan believers the blessing and power of the Holy Spirit in such a way as to bind them in fellowship to the church in Jerusalem. Jew and Gentile believers in Christ thus were joined in one communion of love and faith.

IV. By Broadened Vision That Brought Action (v. 25).

Peter and John had completed their work in Samaria and were on their way home to Jerusalem, but what they had seen had given them a new vision. They acted on that vision, and as they passed through the villages of Samaria they "preached the gospel" with joyful hearts. What an interest and stir they must have created!

It is one thing to see an opportunity and a need; it is quite another to do something about it. For that, one needs determination of purpose. As Lloyd George put it, "You cannot fight a winning battle with a retreating mind." These apostles were reaching out for God, and under His leadership and blessing, into the villages of Samaria.

The Christian church needs more real consecrated action; that is, in the name of Christ and for His glory. The business man who conducts his secular affairs with enthusiasm and dispatch, often forgets all that in his church duties. He advertises and seeks new markets for his goods, but is not interested in the outreach of the church. He can get excited about the Rotary Club or the Lions or what not, but never develops the slightest enthusiasm about the Lord's work. It goes without saying that such a "picture" is all out of focus. Let's make it right. Vision? Yes, by all means. But also action for God.

Trigg county farmers plan to use 30,000 tons of limestone and 4,000 tons of phosphate under grass and legumes. They also hope to plant at least a third of the corn acreage to hybrid varieties.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our beloved sister Phoebe Ann Price, who departed this life May 2, 1940.

Each night, Phoebe dear, as we lie down,
We hear your voice as when on earth;
And we see each smile and frown,
And when we are called to join you
This world, when we are through,
We pray the Lord to let us go
So peaceful and brave as you.

Sister, Daisy Reeves and Family

Churches Of Christ To Hold Convention At St. Louis, Mo.

The International Convention of Disciples of Christ, representing 8,070 churches in the United States and Canada, will meet in St. Louis, Mo., May 1-7. These churches, known as Christian or Churches of Christ, have a membership of 1,669,222.

Disciples of Christ make up the only major evangelical group having its beginnings in America, and rank fifth in size of all those of our country. Now they have 8,925 churches in forty-one countries of the world with a total membership of 1,829,465.

Harry B. McCormick, pastor of the Lakewood, Ohio, Christian Church, is president of the convention, and brings the keynote address, "Making Christ Central" at the opening session Thursday evening. The theme of the convention is "Thy Kingdom Come."

All sessions of the convention will be held in the beautiful and commodious Municipal Auditorium building, either in the Opera House or Convention Hall. Three sessions will be held daily.

In few countries of the world other than our own could church people come together to review the accomplishments of the past year and to face an unpredictable future. The war with all its implications has brought unprecedented problems to the church. The business sessions will be among the most determining of any this brotherhood has ever faced; what the church will do to meet religious needs in the national defense program, the consequences of the recently adopted new religions bill in Japan, the evacuation of Americans from China, the effect of the new government social program, the consequences of the war mind on Christian thinking, the result of the draft on church colleges and universities, and other such crucial urgencies.

Many outstanding speakers will be on the program. Dr. H. P. VanDusen of the Union-Theological Seminary in New York City, Judge E. J. Millington of Cadillac, Mich., Dr. Emory Ross, secretary of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, Judge L. K. Wood of Louisville, Ky., Mr. Merle E. Sidener, Indianapolis, Ind., Dr. P. D. Sukhnandan of Mungeli, India, Mrs. Edna Gish and Miss Wenona Wilkinson of China, E. E. Aubrey of the University of Chicago, Mrs. Charles Green of Manchester, England, and Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, of Dallas, Tex.

A convention prayer service will be held in the Opera House Sunday morning, May 4, at 8:00 o'clock under the leadership of Hugh B. Kilgour, pastor of Central Christian Church, Grand Rapids, Mich. That afternoon at three-thirty o'clock a communion service will be held in Convention Hall under the direction of F. E. Davison, pastor of First Christian Church, South Bend, Ind.

Some of the organizations officially related to the International Convention are The United Christian Missionary Society, the Pension Fund, the Board of Church Extension, the Board of Higher Education, all with offices in Indianapolis, Ind., the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity of Anderson, Ind., the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity of Anderson, Ind., and the National Benevolent Association with headquarters in St. Louis.

A feature of the convention will be "The Church Confronts Its World Task," a symposium from various lands and aspects of work by missionaries and other staff members and members of the board of trustees of The United Christian Missionary Society. This comes Saturday morning.

Another feature is "The Church Meets the World Crisis," a symposium in which heads of the various agencies cooperating through Unified Promotion in their appeal to the local churches for funds will face the crucial issues brought about by the war and its relating factors. John A. Tate, secretary of the Virginia Christian Missionary Society, will lead the symposium, and speakers will be Dr. F. E. Smith, secretary of the Pension Fund of Disciples of Christ, Harlie L. Smith, secretary of the Board of Higher Education, Dr. John H. Booth, secretary of the Board of Church Extension, President Robt. M. Hopkins of the United Christian Missionary Society, Gaines M. Cook secretary of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society, and Dr. C. O. Hawley, director of Unified Promotion.

An attendance of 10,000 is expected at the convention.

Walter Pennington was called to Walton last week when his mother, Mrs. Polly Pennington suffered a heart attack. She is somewhat improved at this writing.

A very interesting meeting of the New Haven Homemakers' Club was held at the Beagle Club House on Friday of last week. Mrs. Jake Cleek gave the lesson "Exterior Beautification. Mrs. Cloyd Johnson was to give the lesson on crocheting rugs but was absent due to illness, so Mrs. Sam Sleet gave the lesson. Mrs. Jake Cleek was appointed Reading Chairman. At the noon hour we went to the Beacon Tourist lunch room where Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Jones served a lovely lunch. The following ladies enjoyed the day together: Mrs. Marie Pennington, Mrs. S. B. Godby, Mrs. Sam Sleet, Mrs. Orpha Miller, Mrs. J. M. Jack, Mrs Jake Cleek, Mrs Raymond Snow, Mrs John Conley, Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Mrs. Jesse Callen, Mrs. Will Abdon, and Mrs. Mamie Moore.

STUDY TAG ON SEED BAG

Seed sowing time for many crops in Kentucky is approaching, and the question of where and how to purchase seed is confronting many farmers. Only good seeds, those high in quality, high in germination and low in weed seed content should be sown, says a statement from the State College of Agriculture.

High-priced seeds are not necessarily good seeds. Therefore one cannot buy just on the basic of price. Only the information on the tag attached to the bag will furnish conclusive evidence on the value of the seed.

On the front of the tag the purity and germination percentages are found; on the back of the tag the total percentage of weed seeds is given and the noxious weed seeds per ounce listed. Let every farmer through his reading of the seed tag be the judge of the quality of the seed he buys.

FOR SMALL BOYS

In buying clothes for boys that are small, be sure the material will take rough treatment and that it is easy to launder. Reinforce clothes where there is the most wear. Be sure button holes are firmly made. Blouses should open in front and be long enough to move the buttons down as the child grows up. Raglan sleeves are roomiest and short sleeves are the handiest. A flat-finished neck is most comfortable and wears longer than turning the collar. Trousers should have the fewest fastenings necessary. An average sized button with a ridge on it makes it easy for a child to help himself in dressing.

Recreational Hour Enjoyed By Local Men's Bible Class

The Men's Bible Class of Burlington Baptist Church enjoyed a recreational hour at the club house of the Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association, Friday night.

Rev. R. D. Martin, pastor of Erlanger Baptist Church was the speaker of the evening, giving a very interesting talk, "What I Saw From the Capitol Steps."

Refreshments were served to 28 members of the class, and an enjoyable evening was reported by all in attendance.

A committee from the local church has been invited to attend a similar meeting of the Erlanger Baptist Church, May 3rd.

Leaders Visit Kentucky Four-H Camp Tuesday

H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent, and Mary Scott Moore, Substitute Home Demonstration Agent, visited the new Kentucky 4-H Camp last Tuesday. Camp Bingham, as the site is known, is located on the Chaplin River about 20 miles south of Lawrenceburg, Ky.

The new camp is being prepared for the use of 4-H boys and girls throughout the central section of Kentucky of which Boone County is a part. Club camps will be conducted for one week each with members paying a nominal fee to participate in this event. A permanent building is located on the grounds to house 250 people. Recreational facilities including swimming, tennis, baseball, badminton and croquet will be available for those attending camp. The Boone County 4-H Council has made no definite plans regarding this camp but it is expected some local club members will attend. August 11-15 is the time set aside for the Northern Kentucky group of counties.

Medical Examinations For Pre-School Children

Dr. S. B. Nunnelley has just completed the summer round-up clinics for Hebron, Constance and Taylorsport for children who will enter school next year.

Practically all children who are to enter these schools next year had the following examination and recommendations where needed: Eyes, ears, nose, throat, glands, teeth, deformities, nutrition, posture, skin, heart, lungs, and weight.

Dr. Nunnelley was assisted by the Red Cross Nurse, Mrs. Robert Reimer, Mrs. J. C. Aylor, Miss Mary Bess Cropper and Mrs. Ida Herbstreit.

By request of the faculty, Miss Elizabeth Lowry, Boone County Red Cross Nurse will talk to Hebron high school girls on "Training For Nurses" May 1st at 10:30 a. m.

RURAL MAIL BOX IMPROVEMENT WEEK

Unsightly rural mail boxes detract from the natural scenic beauty along highways and are not a credit to the owners of attractive homes served through the boxes. Rural mail boxes which are not properly erected or which are not in good, serviceable condition retard the delivery of mail and expose it to damage from the elements.

It is the desire of the Department to encourage patrons of the rural delivery service to provide entirely suitable mail receptacles and to erect them in such manner that they will be accessible to the carrier and present a neat appearance. It is especially desirable that the boxes be maintained in such condition that they will properly protect mail placed therein, that the names of box owners be inscribed on the side of the boxes visible to the carrier as he approaches them, and that the boxes and their supports be kept painted. Patrons who have nonapproved boxes of top-opening, revolving-door, or other type are not required to discard them, provided they have been in use by the present owners for several years and are maintained in good serviceable condition. However, any boxes not of the present standard type which are of such design that they cannot be properly served by the carrier from his vehicle or which are not in such condition that they will protect mail from damage by the elements should be replaced with boxes of approved type. Boxes, regardless of type, should, of course, be of such design and in such condition that there will be no likelihood of the carrier injuring his hands when serving them.

To accomplish these desirable objectives, the Department has designated the week beginning May 5, 1941, as "Rural Mail Box Improvement Week."

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

After season of prayer, meeting adjourned.

Publicity Chairman.

WEARING APPAREL

With lace collars so popular for frocks it is necessary that they be kept new looking. They must be laundered frequently and carefully in order that your costume remains attractive. If the collar is a delicate lace, take the time to baste it on a muslin foundation and this will keep it from too hard a rubbing. A subscriber suggests that we pass on this item regarding the reviving of a droopy chiffon dress. It looks bad and in need of a lift, it isn't soiled, just wilted. Hang it in the bathroom and let the steam from the hot water renew its "pep." Take it out in the open air and you will notice the difference.

Warren county farmers will have a tobacco tour in the south part of the county August 7 and in the north half September 4.

Better Pastures And Fences Needed

Pasture improvement, better fences and more abundant supply of good livestock water are needed, according to farm leaders attending the Land Use Planning meetings on last Wednesday in Belleview and Petersburg communities, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

Problems outstanding toward farm improvement were listed as (1) low farm prices (2) bushes on much of land (3) lack of capital required to properly manage and equip farm (4) The fertility of the soil and (5) much land has to high capital investments to pay out.

Recommendations of the committee included:

1. Fence, graze and mow pasture land.

2. Lime and phosphate should be used on all land including pasture land.

3. Produce more good legume hay supply livestock needs.

4. AAA payments for fence improvement, clearing bushes off pasture lands, ponds.

5. Soil analysis and study to determine fertilizer needs.

6. Use of cover crops on 100% on all but overflow land.

7. All farm families should raise own meat and food supply. This is especially true of tenant farmers.

Problems in the land use program varies in the different communities and in the different soil areas. The Land Use Program is being studied by leaders in nine community centers. All who are interested in this study are invited to take part.

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers met at the Town Hall on March 27, with 18 members and 1 visitor present.

Roll Call: How I Refrain From Neighborhood Gossip.

Reports were made by all committee chairmen. Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. Laverna Wilford read articles on garding and gave ideas and suggestions for the Live At Home Program.

The part contributed by the program committee was an article on "The Kentucky Pre-Marital Act," read by Mrs. Pauline Grayson.

Mrs. Gladys Fullerton was appointed to assist the Vice President, with the Defense program which all homemakers clubs are including in their programs for this year, at this meeting she read and commented on an article from the Good Housekeeping magazine, written by Mrs. Harriet Elliott, entitled, "Ten Ways For You To Help National Defense." At the April meeting we will study Nutrition.

We were indeed glad to have Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute H. D. A. with us at our meeting, she brought us many suggestions and plans for the next month, including the District meeting to be held at Maysville, Ky. on April 29.

Mrs. Gladys Fullerton and Mrs. Adrienne Stith gave the lesson on braided rugs, Mrs. Fullerton displayed several beautiful rugs that she had made, a number of the members worked on their rugs at the meeting, some on braided and others on the hooked ones.

Arrangements have been made for a bus to take those wishing to attend the District meeting at Maysville, anyone wishing to go, please get details and make arrangements with either Mr. Lorie Morith, Florence 716, or Mrs. Laverna Willeford, Florence 107.

The April Meeting will be held at the Town Hall April 24, all members should be present and visitors and new members are always welcome.

GRAYSON FARMERS RAISE BROILERS

As a result of a campaign conducted by County Agent R. T. Faulkner, farmers in Grayson county, Kentucky, are producing approximately 26,600 broilers which they expect to sell for about $6,000. Mr. Faulkner points out that not enough broilers are produced in Kentucky to supply local demands, and thousands are brought into the State every year. Farmers who have been producing broilers in Grayson county in the past years made money, according to the county agent.

The sale of D. O. Hudson's on Saturday was well attended, and the P.-T. A. wishes to thank friends for their cooperation.

A. T. Hunt is still confined to his home. Sunday visitors there were Mr. and Mrs. Noble Hunt and son, Marion and wife and baby of Denver, Ind., and Ed Hunt and sister Irene and husband, all of Owen county.

The parents are urged to remember the open house at the school building Friday, May 2nd. There will be a display of the children's work in each room and there will also be field contests and races.

The P.-T. A. is sponsoring a preschool clinic for all children who will start to school next year on May 2nd.

Friends of little Ronnie will be interested to learn that he has returned to the home of his parents, Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and daughter spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roberts.

Mrs. Clyde Chapman and son spent the past week visiting relatives.

Ray Chapman and Jimmy Rhodes were visiting relatives over the week-end.

FLORENCE 4-H CLUB

On April 28, the third meeting of the girls of the Florence 4-H club was called to order by the president. We then had the roll call by the secretary, with fifty-two members and one leader answering present.

We also discussed many coming events, Rally Day, the tour and the new camp, which many are planning to attend.

One of the more important dates coming up among the individual project members is May 7th, when the fourth unit of foods is serving a tea and the members of the three units of clothing are having a style show following a meeting of the P.-T. A. of Florence.

We then had an interesting citizenship program and the meeting adjourned by repeating the 4-H Club pledge.

IN RELATION TO MENTAL HEALTH

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PFOTZLI'S FOOT COMFORT

9th and Madison Covington

Those of us who have read the novel, "Of Human Bondage," will remember the marked personality defect due to a chronic foot condition. Here we have the case of a man who, because of a childhood foot affliction, grew up with his entire personality warped and distorted.

Usually a parent is anxious for his child to have a well integrated, well rounded personality; be congenial, intelligent, healthy, athletic and socially desirable. The distorted personality is one in which but few or even only one element of the personality is perfected or desired by the individual. You have all heard of children who develop their athletic skill and totally disregard their academic training, and of others who are bookworms, and never leave the house to participate in the activities of their social group. This exclusion of activities in favor of only one activity is very often an indication of a shortcoming of the personality.

Let us consider for example, the case of a child with flat feet. Because of his flat feet, he has difficulty in running and moving about among his friends. He finds shortly that he very often loses in games where speed and agility are required. In the simple game of tag he is usually in the center and the butt of ridicule of his playmates. When teams are chosen he is usually the last one picked and soon begins to feel that he is not capable or wanted by his friends. He begins to avoid them, and tries to escape the ridicule by doing things which he can do by himself. He turns to reading, or some other solitary activity, and finds in this way some protection from his playmates. Thus his personality becomes distorted and he fears to meet people on the same social level. He feels inferior and tries to run away.

However, let me not leave the impression that all mental disorders are due to the feet, but let me rather emphasize that mental disturbances that are used by poor foot health should be quickly eradicated.—Adv.

QUAIL SHOWING UP IN LARGE NUMBERS IN STATE

Frankfort, Ky., March 10—The Bob White Quail, a game and insectivorous bird in Kentucky, is showing up in abundant numbers in practically every section of the state, according to reports which have been coming in to the Division of Game and Fish offices here from interested farmers, conservation officers and the general public.

After putting all the information together and sifting out the most important item it was learned that more quail were seen after January 1, 1941 than had been located during the entire past hunting season by the nimrods.

With this encouraging news and with ideal winter weather for wildlife this bit of news should mean that there will be a big quail population to carry on the reproduction and restocking program in Kentucky this spring and summer.

LARGE NUMBER OF DUCKS FEEDING NEAR HENDERSON

Frankfort, Ky., March 10—Approximately 160,000 ducks are now feeding within a radius of 30 miles of Henderson, Ky., according to information received by the Division of Game and Fish from R. C. Soaper, U. S. Game Management Agent, who has headquarters in Henderson.

Soaper stated that most of the ducks were feeding on the Ohio river and on the tributary streams and also on several lakes in the neighborhood.

The concentration of ducks will probably be broken within the next two or three weeks when they begin their flight north to the summer nesting grounds. The species found most numerous at the present are the mallards and pin-tails.

Soaper, in conferring with officials of the Division, pointed out that practically every species of the migratory waterfowl are increasing very rapidly, due to protection by state and federal game agents and to increased restoration of feeding and nesting grounds by the Federal government.

50,000 MEMBERS IS GOAL OF SOCIETY'S CAMPAIGN

The necessity for its campaign following on the heels of another must be established in the public mind, it was agreed by the executive committee meeting Monday March 10th, to complete plans for the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children drive opening April 2.

This can be accomplished in a minute's reading time, in the opinion of the State chairman Neil Dalton, assistant to the president of The Courier-Journal and The Times.

"Twice in a few months Kentuckians are being asked to aid crippled children," he said. "The children cannot help this, but they can be injured by it unless the two campaigns are understood.

"The first was for Infantile Paralysis work only. It was for 20 per cent of our cripples, the number suffering from infantile paralysis. It culminated on the President's Birthday. Half of the money is for work in Kentucky; half for research through the National Foundation in New York.

"The second campaign is for all cripples; especially for the 80 per cent not affected by the first. It is to be made through a membership campaign by the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children, with a goal of 50,000 members. It is to be made by men and women in each county who give their time not only to the campaign, but to the other Kentucky Society work for crippled children of their own communities throughout the year."

MORE MONEY WILL BE SPENT IN BUILDING HOUSES

More money will be spent in 1941 to build one-and-two-family houses than in any other year since 1928. Increased popularity for small homes with their new living conveniences is expected.

F. Bruce Forward, general manager of Home Owners' Catalogs, a publication of F. W. Dodge Corporation, prepared his yearly "educated guess" about future home building, yesterday. Many reliable observers and analysts regard home building as an important indicator of the direction to be taken by business in general.

One-and-two-family houses to be built in 1941 throughout the 37 states east of the Rocky Mountains will call for materials, equipment and labor valued at about $1,200,000,000, says Mr. Forward in the Home Owners' Catalogs forecast. That will be 6 per cent more than the final total for 1940, as it was estimated yesterday.

The home building expected in 1941 will include the largest volume of business since $1,413,681,000 was recorded for 1928. The five years following had successive decreases until the depression-bottom of $184,810,000 was hit in 1933. Slow recoveries were made in the next five years.

The billion-dollar-level for one-and two-family houses will be passed this year. And next year is scheduled to show further improvement.

Small homes, equipped with their new features to make living more convenient, more economical and more efficient, came into the present widespread popularity since 1928. Home Owners' Catalogs concluded.

HEBRON HOMEMAKERS

The Hebron Homemakers met for their regular meeting at the Odd Fellows Hall on April 9th, with 21 member, present.

Mrs. Jessie Hossman, our exterior beautification leader, gave an interesting talk on planting and pruning of shrubs.

The publicity chairman, Mrs. Sue Rogers, made a report on how to increase our publicity.

Mrs. Hilda Hogan asked each member to name a new vegetable which they were to grow this summer.

Mrs. Moore, our assistant county demonstrator, asked all who want to go to Maysville, to the district meeting on April 29th to get in touch with the president, Mrs. Edward Pell, and make reservations.

We then adjourned for lunch at the Hebron school, which we enjoyed very much.

We were glad to have Mrs. Kottmeyer, our county president with us. She gave an interesting talk on reading in the club, after which a reading chairman was elected.

Mrs. Stella Nichols gave a most informative talk on citizenship, after which we had our lesson on chocheted rugs.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ruby Hollis, on May 14. The roll call will be answered with a "verse about mother." All members are urged to be present.

Gayety Theater News

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY
(Double Feature)

"Dracula," "Frankenstein" and other celebrated screen horror characters have welcome a new member into their boogey brotherhood. He is "The Mummy," death-dealing demon of "The Mummy's Hand," Universal shock-darama.

Tom Tyler, famous screen cowboy star, dons a gruesome guise to portray the role. Dick Foran, Peggy Moran, Wallace Ford and Cecil Kellaway head the cast of the production.

Also

Although Hugh Herbert blasted seven billiard balls into the pockets with a single shot during filming of Universal's farce comedy, "Slightly Tempted," with Peggy Moran and Johnny Downs, the comedian admits that he is a rank amateur at the game.

"But," he explains significantly, "I know Willie Hoppe personally!"

• • •

SATURDAY

The new Universal adventure epic, "Trail of the Vigilantes," with Franchot Tone in his first Western starring role.

Tone appears at the head of an imposing cast that includes such prominent players as Warren William, Broderick Crawford, Andy Devine, Micha Auer, Porter Hall, Peggy Moran and others.

Comedy as well as action and spectacle are emphasized in "Trail of the Vigilantes" by the veteran director, Allan Dwan.

Tone appears as an undercover agent sent by a city newspaper to the frontier in quest of the murderer of a reporter.

• • •

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

The Bumsteads go musical—as Blondie leads Dagwood a merry dance! Your favorite fun family on a cruise that makes the wild waves wilder! Rolling down to Rio on waves of laughter and melody, "Blondie Goes Latin"—and how!

Newest of the laugh-packed Bumstead family's misadventures, "Blondie Goes Latin," presenting Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Sims and Daisy, the family pooch, in another uproarious Columbia comedy.

• • •

Just as a token of its appreciation, a West Coast steamship travel service ofefred Paramount Producer Anthony Veiller a free South Seas island trip.

Veiller's first picture, "Typhoon" had Dorothy Lamour on a tropic island and his "Safari" showed Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Madeleine Carroll in an African jungle. His latest picture, the filmization of Joseph Conrad's great novel "Victory," takes stars Fredric March and Betty Field to the Netherlands East Indies.

The steamship travel company explained to Veiller that films about the tropics stimulate desire for travel on the part of the public. Because of a busy production schedule, Veiller was forced to decline the offer.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When you break a glass, dampen cotton to pick up the broken fine particles . . . It is easy to keep the nickel faucets shining by each day rubbing them with cleansing tissues . . . Potatoes will be more mealey when baked if the ends are cut off before putting them in the oven . . . Postage stamps, if stuck together, may be separated by laying a damp cloth over them and pressing with a hot iron . . . Shake salt on the syrup that runs out on the oven when baking the apple pie. It will burn crisp and be easy to remove . . . The orange juice will lose its valuable vitamin content if it is squeezed only just before serving . . . Spices should not be kept in boxes after they have been worn, as they require air to preserve them.

BURLINGTON TO HAVE BUS LINE

IS REPORT—HEARING SET AT FRANKFORT MAY 27—WILL START OPERATION IMMEDIATELY IF PERMIT IS GRANTED

The High Line Bus Company has made application to the Division of Motor Transportation at Frankfort for permission to operate a bus line from Burlington to Florence on an hourly schedule, connecting with every other bus of the Dixie Traction. This hearing has been set at Frankfort for May 27th.

If permission is granted to operate this line, we understand that service will begin at once and that the fare will be 10 cents from Burlington to Florence with a fare of 5 cents for children.

Burlington is the only County Seat we know of that does not have some mode of public transportation, and the citizens of this section should encourage this move. From a survey recently made there are over 700 people that would be served by this proposed line and this number would increase rapidly with bus service established.

Florence Fire Dept. Given Credit For Work At Richwood Fire

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department was highly praised by Mrs. Maggie Glacken last week due to the splendid work at the fire which destroyed her barn near Richwood. Had it not been for their splendid work her residence would probably have been destroyed.

In last week's issue, due to insufficient information on the part of the writer, the Florence Fire Department was not mentioned. We regret that this error was made. The Florence boys have been very active during the past few years and deserve much credit for their splendid work, not only in Florence but the surrounding territory, answering calls within any reasonable distance.

The Walton Fire Department also participated in this fire, but did not arrive until sometime after the Florence Department was on the job and had the fire fairly well under control.

FLORENCE MAN ANSWERS CALL

WAS RETIRED FARMER—CAME TO BOONE COUNTY SIXTY-TWO YEARS AGO IN COVERED WAGON—SERVICES SATURDAY

John L. Jones, 82, Florence, died Wednesday at his home, after an extended illness.

Mr. Jones was one of Boone County's most prominent residents. He was a native of Kirksville, Mo., coming to this county 62 years ago in a covered wagon. After being in this section for two years he married Miss Sophie C. Reib.

Ten years ago when the couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary they were remarried with the same witnesses who attended them at the first ceremony. They recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Jones operater a large farm in Boone County until 1929, when he retired to a small home in Florence.

He was a pioneer of the Big Bone Methodist Church, hauling the first load of stone for the erection of the building's foundation. He also acted as a member of the Boone County Board of Education for eight years, resigning because of ill health.

He is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Chester Stephens, Cincinnati; Mrs. John Aylor, Petersburg and Mrs. Melvin Moore, of Union; three sons, Harry F. Jones, Erlanger; Jess Jones, Ohio County, Ind., and John L. Jones, of Union; 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Saturday at Hughes Chapel Methodist Church Beaver Lick. Burial was in church cemetery.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION

Chas. W. Riley

The above picture of Chas. W. Riley, who announced his candidacy for County Attorney last week was omitted due to an oversight by The Recorder.

He is well known to the voters of Boone County, and has filled the position he now seeks for the past four years, in a very efficient manner.

85 HOMEMAKERS ATTEND MEETING

HELD AT MAYSVILLE APRIL 29—FOURTEEN COUNTIES ARE REPRESENTED AT DISTRICT MEETING.

Eighty-five Boone County Homemakers, representing 9 clubs in the county attended the annual District Federation meeting held at the Maysville High School on Tuesday, April 29. Mrs. S. B. Sleet New Haven District Director, presided at the program. The principal speaker was Miss Ella Gardner, recreation specialist, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington. She spoke on the subject of "Living in This World."

Large delegations from the following counties in the District took part in the meeting: Kenton, Boone, Campbell, Mason, Bourbon, Fayette, Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln, Jessamine, Mercer, Clark Madison, and Rockcastle.

During the morning session Mrs. P. W. Atkins, Pineville, State President, urged the Homemakers to include religion of some form in their program. She pointed out the value that may be derived from participation in the church activities. Chairmen of the standing committees made their reports and presented the aims for the program for the year. During the afternoon the group assembled in the gymnasium and Miss Gardner directed the women in folk games. The meeting closed with the singing of "America the Beautiful" and the Salute to the Flag of the United States.

JUDGE RIDDELL IS CANDIDATE

FOR RE-ELECTION—HAS DEVOTED BEST YEARS OF HIS LIFE TO INTEREST OF HIS COUNTY.

In this issue of the Recorder the announcement of Judge N. E. Riddell as a candidate for re-election as County Judge of Boone County subject to the action of the Democratic party, appears.

Judge Riddell has served officially in Boone for more than thirty-one years, devoting the best years of his life to the interest and benefit of the county of his birth, Boone. Everyone who is acquainted with the business of Boone County knows that it has been to the best interest of the citizens—not a cent of floating debts exist and the county is operated on a cash basis.

The State examining officers who make annual audits of the records of this county have complimented the officers for the way and manner they find the business of the county transacted. The judge has been sick the past year but his physical condition has very much improved and he expects to fully recover.

Judge Riddell left Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Texas and during his absence Mr. C. L. Cropper will act in his place.

Under the management of the Fiscal Court which is composed of the Magistrates, County Judge and Road Engineer, the roads in Boone County have been and are rapidly being improved. When Judge Riddell was first elected to office, we had toll roads and many miles of dirt roads, a majority of which have been improved to such an extent that they may be used the year around.

Florence M. E. Church Will Hold Mother's Day Service Sunday

The Florence Methodist Church is planning a great Mother's Day service next Sunday, May 11th at 11 o'clock, according to F. E. Mosley, pastor. The choir will sing mothers songs. The pastor will deliver a special message, subject "Behold Thy Mother."

Everybody who attends will wear a flower in honor of their mother—a red flower for her if she is living, a white flower for her if she is dead. The meeting will be concluded with a beautiful Flower Service in which everybody will be asked to partake. This will be one of the outstanding services of the year.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Come and enjoy this great service.

CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF BOONE COUNTY

Judge N. E. Riddell

LOCAL FLOWER SHOW, SUCCESS

SEVENTY-NINE ENTRIES FROM NINE COMMUNITIES IN COUNTY—WAS FIRST SHOW TO BE HELD IN COUNTY.

Boone County Homemakers' first flower show was conceded to be a success by those attending, at the Burlington high school auditorium Thursday, May 1st. Records show that 79 entries were made by persons from nine communities in the county. One hundred persons besides the students in the school, viewed the exhibit which included tulips, flowering shrubs and arrangements ranging from lilacs to miniatures of rock garden plants.

Mrs. Jake Cleek presided at the meeting. She introduced Mr. E. C. Glass, manager of Shillito's Flower Shop, who was guest speaker. He demonstrated his art in four practical flower arrangements for the home. He used low, medium and tall containers showing tricks that aid in obtaining effects desired. Among these were: chicken wire rolled loosely to hold a moss bouquet in medium size bowl; florist's wire wrapping to give strength to limber stems, or pliability to stiffer ones; a rose bud forced open by turning petals to effect a camella; a tulip turned back to resemble open poppy. Mr. Glass stressed the importance of following a mental picture in order to obtain the desired result in an arrangement. Stems should be cut on angle with a sharp knife. Flowers are kept fresh by changing water often. In choosing flowers for others, choose the kind they like, he stated. The flower arrangements were auctioned off by Mrs. Cleek and the money was used to defray the expenses of the show.

Mr. Glass and Mrs. J. C. Layne, Florence, judged the flower show. Many tulips from bulbs bought through Homemakers clubs last fall were shown as well as other fine varieties purchased elsewhere. The judges exclaimed over the quality of many specimen in the show. Winners of the classes are listed below. Mrs. George Morith, was accorded the grand champion ribbon on a beautiful white darwin tulip, the variety name was not listed. A set of three "stick-on" frogs were presented to her with the compliments of J. Charles McCullough's Seed Company, Cincinnati. When Mrs. Morith was asked how she came to grow such a fine tulip, she said "I start with a good bulb, feed it on bonemeal, and put naptha flakes in the hole to protect it from insects and rodents. I have never lost a one of my tulips."

Plans for the flower show were made by the Homemakers' county committee on exterior beautification, Mrs. Garnett Tolin, Burlington, Chairman, Mrs. John L. Vest, Walton; Mrs. Jake Cleek, New Haven; and Mrs. Anna Engle. Mr. N. R. Elliott, landscape architect from University of Kentucky, gave the committee many suggestions on flower shows. Those who served as local committee on arrangements were: Mrs. Grover Jarrell, Mrs. H. R. Forkner and Mrs. Vernon Pope. Registration committee Mrs. A. D. Yelton, Mrs. Nelle Garrison, Mrs. Eddie Smith, Mrs. Herbert Snyder. Suggestions were made by Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute Home Demonstration Agent. Others who contributed to arrangements for the flower show were: Prof. Walton and the school management, Miss Ar anda Holliday, who made posters, Mrs. M. A. Yelton, who secured the speaker, and local newspapers who contributed the publicity.

Winners of ribbons are listed as follows:

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Herbert Snyder

HERBERT SNYDER IS CANDIDATE

FOR SHERIFF—SERVED IN U. S. ARMY FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS DURING WORLD WAR—WELL KNOWN TO VOTERS.

Herbert Snyder tosses his hat into the political ring this week by announcing his candidacy for Sheriff of Boone County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary August 2nd.

Mr. Snyder is well known to the voters of Boone County. He has always been a strong supporter of the Democratic party and an active worker. It is his intention to see as many voters as possible before the election.

During the World War he served eighteen months in the United States army with the 326th Field Artillery, twelve months service in the United States and six months in France.

He solicits the support of the voters of Boone County and if elected to the office of Sheriff will perform his duties in a manner that will reflect credit to his constituents.

EVERETT JONES SEEKS OFFICE

OF MAGISTRATE—HAS FILLED THIS POST IN EFFICIENT MANNER FOR PAST FOUR YEARS.

In this issue of The Recorder, Everett Jones, of Big Bone, makes his formal announcement to the voters of the Third Magisterial District, for re-election to the office of Magistrate, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2, 1941.

Everett, in asking for the support of the voters, pledges a sincere, impartial, and efficient administration of the afafirs of the office he seeks, and believes that his experience in that office for the past four years—along with a keen interest in the affairs of his community—make of him a candidate worthy of your support.

Revival Services At Burlington M. E. Church May 25-June 8

Revival services at Burlington Methodist Church will be conducted May 25 to June 8th., Rev. R. L. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist Church, Middlesburg, Ky., will be the guest preacher for the two weeks.

Special prayer services in preparation for the revival are being held at the Methodist Church each Thursday at 7:30 p. m. An invitation is extended to everyone to attend these services.

Quality Sample Shoe Conducting Large Sale

To make room for large shipments of shoes coming in, the Quality Sample Shoe Shop, 627 Madison Avenue, Covington, is conducting a sale, during which the entire stock of dark shoes will be sold at sensationally low prices—despite the rapidly advancing prices of footwear.

This means that hundreds of pairs of smart shoes will be sold at one-half price and even less. They are nationally known brands of all ladies', girls', boys' and men's shoes.

Announcement of this special sale will be found on the last page of this issue of The Recorder.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Huey spent last Saturday in Covington, shopping.

LOCAL NINE WIN OPENING GAME

BY DEFEATING DAN COHEN TEAM—BOONE CO. LEAGUE TO HAVE OPENING GAMES SATURDAY.

Burlington's baseball team defeated the Dan Cohen nine Sunday on the local grounds in the first game of the Campbell County League, by a score of 6 to 1.

Gulley, Deck and Shinkle, mound artists for the Burlington team allowed only three hits during the game, each pitcher allowing one hit.

The local boys will be in action each Sunday afternoon at the local park, it was announced this week.

Boone County's Baseball League composed of teams from Petersburg, Hebron, Belleview, Big Bone Burlington and the C. C. C. will open the season Saturday, May 10 with all teams having scheduled games. Burlington will play at Big Bone, Petersburg at Belleview, and C. C. C. at Hebron.

Games will be played between the above mentioned teams each Saturday until August 16th, when the four teams occupying top positions in the number of games won will play elimination series to determine the county championship.

Anyone is eligible to play on any team, but cannot be a member of two teams at the same time, and after July 12th each team will be limited to 15 signed players.

Many of the boys have been devoting some time to practice and promise Boone County fans some real action in the opening games Saturday.

Mrs. Helen C. Acra

Mrs. Helen C. Acra, 32 died Monday at Booth Hospital, following an illness of three weeks. She was a resident of the Rabbit Hash neighborhood, Boone County.

She leaves her husband Wilbur C. Acra, 4 children, Owen, Joyce, Ailene and Ivan Eugene; one sister Mrs. Zelma Dameron; one brother, Paul L. Clore, all of Rabbit Hash, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Clore.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Big Bone Methodist Church at 2 p. m. with Rev. Roy Johnson, officiating. Burial was in Big Bone cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ryle and daughter entertained her parents Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Lucas, of Bullittsville.

DISTRICT THREE LEADS SIGN-UP

IN 1941 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—94.7 SIGN UP IN THIS DISTRICT, ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

The final report on Farm Plans show that District No. 3 comprised of Carlton, Hamilton and part of Beaver has signed up for cooperation in the 1941 A. C. Program better than any of the other communities.

The percentage signed in this District is 94.7 percent. One hundred sixty have signed Farm Plans in these communities out of a total of 169 and several of the remaining nine are farmers that are not actively engaged in farming. The committeemen that have been actively engaged in working with producers in the 1941 program in these communities are Hugh Stephens, Robert R. Robbins and Bruce Ryle.

There is a better sign-up for the County than there has ever been before in the history of the A. C. program. There is a total of 1360 farms eligible for payment and out of this number 1224 or 90 percent have signed for cooperation in the 1941 program. according to John E. Crigler, Secretary of the Boone County Agricultural Conservation Association.

Orders for limestone and phosphate furnished as grant of aid can only be taken until May 15, 1941. There is a considerable quantity of 48 percent phosphate now available and orders should be placed at once for this material. Producers are also being urged to place their orders for ground limestone before May 15. The use of ground limestone has not been as heavy as was expected and practically all of the dealers have a good supply of limestone on hand and can furnish it to producers upon short notice.

PAYMENT FOR MOTHER

There is none who has built better, sacrificed more, struggled harder than she whose name we praise publicly this Mother's Day. In our attempt to live a useful existence, have acquired so many gains and prizes for success, that we finger our rewards and admire our riches with deep intentness and often mistake this compensation as what should have been coming in payment for endeavor. We sit mid the gains and tell ourselves it is what we deserve, payment in part for aims, ambitions, opportunities and dreams. If this is indeed our just desserts, then what is the payment due the universal mothers who have been the power and strength behind the man, who has through her self-sacrifice and devotion given him his first taste of gifts and instilled in him the idea that for such inspiration and service there is no need for payment. We have accepted the worldly belongings and felt we earned them for it is the time and trouble put into the business of living. But what will a mother ask in return as her payment?

There has never been a period in history when mother declared a strike against love, a war on devotion, where they refused to dedcate their patience to motherhood, where they aimed only for the return payment from their families in appreciation. Of all the victories and tributes to be paid no Mother today demands your loyalty. To enter into the spirit of the day one must come willingly and understandingly, with peace of mind that such devotion will triumph over the world. We wear a flower for her, we send her our love, we pay tribute in the hope that we have made ourselves worthy of such loyalty and affection. This is her payment.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

S. S. Lesson for May 11

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE HOME REGARDING BEVERAGE ALCOHOL

LESSON TEXT—Deuteronomy 6:4-7; Jeremiah 35:5-10.

GOLDEN TEXT—Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.—Proverbs 22:6.

The responsibility of the home regarding liquor is primarily that of providing a place for children to grow up under proper principles and practice. That means that the home should be a Christian home, where both parents follow Christ in life as well as profession. Young people about to establish a new home should give themselves without reservation to Christ. Those who began their home as a Christian home, but who have drifted through carelessness or unbelief, should renew their devotion to Christ. America needs many things, but first and foremost stands its need of real Christian homes.

I. Preparing to Meet Temptation (Deut. 6:4-7).

Temptations will come, and when they do it will be too late to prepare a defense against them. We are all "defense conscious" these days. We have seen in the sad events of the last year that there must be adequate preparation in advance if we are to withstand the enemy. That is doubly true in the realm of the moral and spiritual. We must build moral fiber and appreciation of spiritual things into the lives of our boys and girls from their infancy. How?

1. By a Consistent Example (vv. 5-6). Only the father (or mother) who loves the Lord with all his being and who has permitted God's Word to enter into his heart will set the right example. It is well to know something about child psychology, about the principles of rearing children, etc., but these, without a right relationship to God, are cold and powerless. But let the parents walk before their children in earnest Christian living, let them honor God's Word in their lives and in the home, and they will lay the finest foundation for Christian character in their children.

2. By Correct Teaching (v. 7). The parent should make the teaching of God's Word to children a matter of first importance. It is to be expected that the children will be in church and Sunday school with their parents (notice the word "with"—it's not enough to send them), but that is not sufficient. Blessed and fruitful is that home life in which the Word of God is a normal and easy topic of conversation, where spiritual things are discussed intelligently and without restraint. Every home can be that kind of a home, if the parents will do what they know they should do about it.

II. Standing in the Hour of Temptation (Jer. 35:5-10).

As a protest against the heathendom, the intemperance, and corruption of the city life of his day, Jonadab instructed his house or tribe to live an itinerant life and, above all, not to touch wine.

We are not called to imitate in detail their way of living, but rather to learn from them the principles of consistent temperance.

1. Remembrance (vv. 6, 7). Jeremiah was sent to test the Rechabites (not to tempt them to fall) by offering them wine, but to them it was a real temptation. They met it promptly and without fear, because they had in their hearts and minds the teaching of their "father" Jonadab.

Blessed is the boy or girl who in the lone and trying hour of temptation is not confused by the negative or unchristian example of parents, but who at once has a vision of a God-fearing father and mother, and a remembrance of their faithful teaching of God's standards of life.

2. Obedience (vv. 8-10). Here again is a lesson which must be learned from the tender years of babyhood, but which bears glorious fruit in the days of young manhood and womanhood. The parent who does not tactfully, kindly, but withal, firmly, teach children to obey has undermined their life in advance.

The Rechabites loyally obeyed the word of their founder, and passed their hour of testing with flying colors. They had his example, they knew his teaching, and life itself had proved to them that they were in the right way.

A closing word. The liquor interests are concerned because the consumption of beer is rapidly falling off and because most of their customers are "elderly or middle-aged." They are spending tremendous sums in advertising to "get the beer drinking habit instilled in thousands, almost millions, of young men who do not at present know the taste of beer."

That is their avowed aim. Shall they be permitted to put it across? Not if Christian people will put the influence of the American home squarely where it ought to be against the liquor traffic.

The man who struggles for health instead of wealth finds that it will last longer for folks aren't always trying to borrow it.

We are aging, when we live to see Deanna Durbin married and Mickey Rooney keeping company.

Children's Feet

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

Ninety-nine out of a hundred babies are born with good feet, even if they do appear to be flat at the start. We say babies are born with flat feet because the bony masses in a new-born baby's feet are held in place by fat pads. As the baby starts to stand and walk, these fatty pads are absorbed and muscles take their place. By about the third year the arch of the foot should be pretty well defined if the child is going to have any arch. We say if, because every one isn't intended to have a high arched contour to the foot, any more than every one is meant to have the same color of hair or eyes. Perhaps when the child starts to stand he is overweight, or undernourished or has gone thru a serious illness. In that event the muscles may not develop enough to produce an arch in his foot. He then grows with a natural flat foot. The conditions is rarely painful. However, many cases of flat feet can be averted if the child is provided with shoes that hold the weak foot in alignment. Such shoes are usually wedged slightly under the inner border of the heel bone. This prevents tipping in of the ankles and by over correction has a tendency to cause the muscles on the inner border of the leg to shorten. These muscles are the ones which keep the foot arched.—Adv.

This Week In Defense

President Roosevelt, in a letter to the Office of Production Management which said the nation is confronted with a "critical situation," ordered all available machines pooled for defense work on a 24-hour day, 7-day week schedule, with time out only for repairs. The President also asked the OPM to reconvass the nation, including the armed forces, for skilled workers to operate the machines. No effort or justifiable expense should be spared, the President said.

OPM Production Director Biggers, speaking in Washington, said national defense progress "seems phenomenal" but vast increases are still necessary. He said airplane production which has been trebled since May 1940, must again be doubled before the end of 1941; machine gun production which has been quadrupled, must be increased five-fold by the end of the year; the manufacture of powder, increased 1,000 per cent, must still be trebled.

Defense Needs First

Blackwell Smith, Assistant Priorities Director, said in a speech in Washington: "We cannot have business as usual so long as we must pay first attention to defense needs."

"We are not choosing between guns and butter," he said, "but are choosing between tanks and airplanes and ships, and some things which are not so essential."

"When you consider that our major defense effort is less than a year old, you begin to sense what the future holds," Mr. Smith said. "It will mean dislocations and difficulties, higher taxes, shortages in an undetermined number of products . . . and it certainly means an overall effort which will tax all the resources of the nation."

Commerce Secretary Jones said in a speech in Washington: "We have not yet made any sacrifices, but they are in store for us, plenty of them."

Defense Contract Distribution

Director of Purchases Donald Nelson, speaking in Washington, said the defense program is now advanced to a point where more consideration can be given to greater decentralization of defense orders. He suggested that businessmen, instead of asking the Government to locate factories in their communities, find out from the Defense Contract Service which Government agencies are in the market for goods and "do a little energetic competing."

The Defense Contract Service issued a pamphlet telling how manufacturers may send full information on their plants, products and experience to the Service's field offices at Federal Reserve Banks and branch banks to determine if they are qualified for defense orders.

Labor Disputes

Secretary of Labor Perkins reported strikes have declined to a point where less than two-tenths of one per cent of defense workers --or 7,800 persons—are affected. Selective Service headquarters advised local boards they are not justified in reclassifying workers joining a strike in a defense industry.

Labor Supply

The Social Security Board reported shortages of labor in certain machine shop occupations, shipbuilding and boilermaking and an increasing need for electrical, mechanical and optical instrument makers and wood patternmakers. The Labor Department reported 290,000 workers given employment in one month and said that 310,000 additional workers will be needed by September, 1942, in shipyards alone. The Civil Service Commission anounced that persons up to 65 years old are now eligible for Federal trades and artisan positions.

Cost of Living

Secretary of Labor Perkins reported living costs of moderate income families in March were 2.6 percent higher than before war started in Europe. She reported price rises in sugar, coffee, pork, butter, canned vegetables and certain fresh fruits and vegetables, rents clothing and house furnishings.

Consumer Commissioner Harriet Elliott warned that some manufacturers were maintaining unchanged prices by lowering the quality of their products.

Defense Housing

President Roosevelt approved legislation authorizing a $150,000,000 expansion of the defense housing program and asked Congress for $15,000,000 to purchase 14,200 portable houses, 6,900 dormitory units and an obsolete passenger ship to house defense workers during the housing emergency. Mr. Roosevelt reported $5,000,000 previously appropriated for emergency purposes in addition to $447,000,000 for the regular defense housing program—had been used for 7,300 dormitory units and 3,800 trailers.

Aid to Democracies

The President told a press conference he has ordered a survey to ascertain what, if any, planes may be procured immediately from civilian airlines. Navy Secretary Knox told a press conference the Navy has no combat ships available now for transfer to Great Britain, but that more high-speed "mosquito boats" will be turned over to the British as they come off assembly lines.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau announced an arrangement under which the U. S. will contribute $50,000,000, the United Kingdom, 5,000,000 pounds sterling, and China 20,000,000 U. S. dollars, to a Chinese currency stabilization fund to be managed by a five-man board including a U. S. representative.

Shipping

President Roosevelt requested U. S. Maritime Commission Chairman Land to arrange a pool of at least 2,000,000 tons of existing merchant shipping which could be used to carry "food and the munitions of war to the democracies of the world." Admiral Land said the shipping would be drawn from the inter-coastal trade, Army and Navy auxiliary ships, the laid-up fleet, requisitioning of foreign vessels in U. S. ports and re-routing of commercial shipping regardless of the resulting inconvenience and loss of trade.

Defense Financing

The Treasury Department placed on sale U. S. savings bonds and postal savings stamps designed to obtain money for defense financing and provide investments for all citizens as a "cushion" against possible post defense depression.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman Eccles said taxes should be planned to discourage consumer purchases of such items as automobiles, refrigerators and furniture in order to build a back-log of purchasing power for use after the emergency. He also said that although higher taxes on personal income will be necessary, most taxes should be collected from business, "where the profits originate."

Food for Soldiers, Sailors

The OPM announced the American soldier and sailor is better fed than at least sixty per cent of the U. S. population and better than any other fighting man in the world. Every man receives 5,000 calories a day, the agency said. The Army alone uses daily 1,000,000 pounds of meat, 600,000 pounds of potatoes, 700,000 quarts of milk, 125,000 pounds of butter and $50,000 worth of bread, OPM reported.

Navy

Navy Secretary Knox told his press conference the Navy's ship construction program is daily setting new records for speed. He said that since January one aircraft carrier, three cruisers and 20 submarines have been added to the fleet. Admiral Stark, Chief of Naval Operations, said U. S. naval policy is "to protect our coasts and our insular possessions from any enemy whatsoever; and to safeguard U. S. interests beyond our shores."

Defense Bonds Now On Sale At All Post Offices

The United States Defense Savings Bonds and Postal Savings Stamps are now on sale at all Post Offices, as part of the national effort to make America impregnable.

Postmaster, Newton Sullivan, announced that plans are complete for this community, along with thousands of others from coast to coast, to do its full part in the savings program. It is expected that all civic leaders will be among the first purchasers of savings bonds and stamps here.

Postmaster General Frank C. Walker, in a letter to Postmasters throughout the country, said that the help of the local postmasters would be "a real service to the country."

A Defense Bond may be purchased for $18.75. In ten years, this bond will be worth $25.00. This is an increase of 33 1-3 per cent, equal to an annual interest return of 2.9 per cent, compounded semi-annually. Any time after sixty days from the date of purchase, the bond may be redeemed for cash in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on the face of the bond.

For the smaller investor who wants to buy a Government Bond on an easy payment plan, the post office will have a new series of postal Savings Stamps, at 10c, 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $5. Each purchaser of any Savings Stamp higher than 10c will be given, free of charge, an attractive pocket album in which to paste his stamps until he has enough to buy a $25 bond or one of higher denomination. Thirty million of these albums are now being prepared.

The cover design of the albums is in color, featuring a United States battleship and an eagle bearing the American flag. On the back cover is a painting of the Minute Man statue by Daniel Chester French, which symbolizes the American citizen ever alert in defense of his country. The inscription is "America on Guard."

Secretary Morgenthau said that even a boy or girl who saved 10c to buy a Savings Stamp would help the country. He added that "you can safeguard your own money and your own future while helping the national defense, by buying United States Savings Bonds now."

NEW QUILT COVERS

To cover an old quilt try using a good quality of a plain colored seersucker. Select a cluster of flowers from another piece of material such as linen or chintz, cut about three such groups out and then applique them on the seersucker. Quilt the design by hand or sewing machine. Another idea suggested by the subscriber who gave us the first plan, applique large initials in contrasting colors of percale in the center of the quilt and bind the edge in the same color in scallops.

Children's Clinics Continue In County

Under the auspices of the Florence P.-T. A. the summer round-up, which is a physical examination of children to enter school next year, was held in the school house on April 30 as scheduled.

Dr. H. R. Daugherty made the examinations, and parents who were unable to take their children to this clinic, missed a real opportunity to find out what their child needs and how to get, in order to put him in the best physical condition for starting to school next fall.

Mrs. R. C. Lutes, president of Florence P.-T. A. and the following committee assisted with the clinic: Mrs. George Morith, Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. A. W. Fullerton. The county Red Cross Nurse helped Dr. Daugherty with the examinations.

Parent Teacher Associations throughout the county secure a doctor for their individual clinic, a place to hold it, and try to see that every one is notified and has transportation.

May 2, Verona summer round-up was held at the school in connection with their May Day.

Dr. J. F. McCormack, assisted by the County Red Cross Nurse made the examinations and recommendations. Mrs. Robert Porter, president of the P.-T. A. with her committee, Mrs. Walter King, Mrs. Maud Caldwell and Mrs. Alfred Kemper assisted with the clinic, as well as helping to promte it.

Under the auspices of the Walton P.-T. A. Dr. R. E. Ryle is examining children who enter school next year. Dr. Ryle says in order to do a good job, he wants to take two days May 5 and 6. The committee has personally seen every parent and expects all children who are not sick to be present.

Those assisting with this clinic are Mrs. Jesse Pruett, Mrs. Mabel Webster, Mrs. Lula Huey, Mrs. Nannie Lee Slekman, Mrs. Lucy Alphin and the County Red Cross Nurse.

Mrs. A. B. Renaker Sells 50-Acre Tract

Mrs. A. B. Renaker sold her remaining 50-acre tract of land one mile from Burlington on East Bend Road Monday, to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Winters and Mr. J. S. Cecil of Latonia. This is known as the C. C. Hughes land. The other tract of land was sold a few weeks ago to Mrs. Hehman, of Erlanger.

Both tracts will be improved in the near future by the purchasers.

Flock Of Grant Maddox Produces 12,432 Eggs In April

Six hundred sixty-one hens in the flock of Grant Maddox of Florence laid 12,432 eggs during the month of April, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The flock averages 18.5 eggs per hen.

Grant has the largest flock of chickens in the county and one of the largest flocks of single comb Rhode Island Reds in the State. His flock shows a substantial profit under the good management practices followed.

Poultry is one commodity the production which should be considerably increased under the National Defense program.

May 15th Set As Deadline For Grant Of Aid On Phosphate, Limestone

May 15th has been set as the final date for farmers to file applications for securing grant of aid advances of limestone and phospshate under the 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

This week's paper offers the last opportunity to notify farmers interested in securing these important soil fertilizers. Agricultural limestone is of special importance in that the farmer may secure the agricultural limestone already crushed and delivered to the farm or may have the stone crushed on the farm.

Agricultural limestone under the A. C. Program represents probably the best investment in soil improvement a farmer can make.

While applications for limestone as grant of aid must be filed by the 15th, the lime may be spread any time up through June 30th with credit under this year's program.

Tobacco Plant Beds Badly In Need Of Rain

Tobacco plant beds are being seriously affected by the drouth, according to H. R. Forkner. County Agent. Many farmers are watering their beds.

Farmers report that on an average the beds sowed early are not as good as the beds sowed late and that plants in many instances have not come up good.

A few farmers who treated their beds with Bordeaux mixture for the first time have questioned if the treatment injured the plants. A survey of a number of these beds and of beds not treated indicates that this has not been the case with any bed checked to date. Plants from the beds will be much better off when more favorable weather arrives.

Two Hybrid Corn Varieties Being Tested

Mr. Edward Rogers and Mr. Will B. Rogers, both well known farmers of the Belleview section, are testing two hybrid corn varieties with their best open pollinated variety. U. S. 13 and Ky. 103 are the hybrids being used. These two hybrids have proven very satisfactory for general planting thruout the county, but no definite check plots for comparisons have been planted in this section. These two men are rendering a service to local farmers and it is hoped that all interested persons will observe the results on these plots. Seed for these plots was supplied by the Boone County Hybrid Seed Corn Growers Association.

31ST ANNUAL MEETING OF BOY SCOUTS TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON

Delegates to the 31st annual meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, representing all parts of the nation, will be addressed by prominent speakers when they convene at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., next Friday and Saturday, May 16 and 17th.

Paul V. McNutt, Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, former National Commander of the American Legion, Governor of Indiana and High Commissioner of the Philippine Islands, will address the National Council's annual banquet Friday evening, May 16. While Dean of the Law School of the University of Indiana, Mr. McNutt served as Scout Commissioner of the White River Council of the Boy Scouts of America at Bloomington, Ind.

Telling how the Boy Scouts of America are sharing in the promotion of public participation in the Treasury Department's defense savings program, will be Gale F. Johnston, Field Director of the Defense Savings Staff. Mr. Johnston is President of the St. Louis Mo., Boy Scout Council.

Norman H. Davis, Chairman of the American Red Cross, will speak at the luncheon session, Saturday, May 17.

Senator Arthur Capper, Statesman. newspaper and magazine editor and publisher, who has represented his native state of Kansas in the United States Senate since 1919, will speak at the opening session Friday morning. He will pay tribute to his long-time associate, the late Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, an Honorary Vice President of the Boy Scouts of America for many years.

At the luncheon session Friday, May 16, Sir Willmott Lewis, Washington correspondent of "The London Times," will pay tribute to the late Lord Baden-Powell, Chief Scout of the World, who died in Africa last Jan. 9. The prominent foreign correspondent once worked with the world-renowned Scout leader.

Another dinner speaker will be Frank J. Hogan, prominent Washington lawyer and past president of the American Bar Association who was also Secretary to the Chief of Staff, United States Army and lecturer in law at Georgetown University. Mr. Hogan will pay tribute to his close friend, Dr. Jas. E. West, on having completed thirty years as the Chief Scout Executive and Dr. West will respond.

In preparing the brooder house, remove cobwebs and litter from floor and walls, and scrub with boiling water containing a can of lye to 13 gallons. Then spray with a 5 percent solution of coaltar of creosol.

New Cycle Paths To Be Opened By Covington Concern

Northern Kentucky "kids" will be provided with ample space to ride their bicycles without the hazards that go with cycling on crowded city streets when the new bicycle paths of the Dixie Cycle Shop, 16 E. 5th St., Covington are opened at the Lookout Farm, Lookout Heights, Kenton county next Sunday at 10 a. m.

Plans are being complete to open a playfield, designed along the lines of that in operation at Lunken Airport. The playfield will include horseshoe courts, an archery range and canoeing.

It will be known as Dixie Cycle Trails, and will be operated by George Maher, proprietor of the Dixie Cycle Shop.

The Lookout Farm was leased from Jimmy Brink, operator of the New Lookout House and owner of the farm.

Home Gardens Are Important Factors In National Defense

Home Gardens are important in the National Defense Program, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Every farmer should make an effort to produce the best garden possible in 1941.

A good garden should not only supply a year round supply of fresh and canned foods valued at more than $250.00 and mean a better fed family, but will release much canned food for National Defense and will protect the family against a probable rise in food prices.

Sixty-seven 4-H club members are raising home gardens this year in connection with their 4-H project work.

A "Live at Home" garden Circular has been prepared for those desiring additional information on the home garden and "Live at Home Program."

As a horse feed, barley has almost the same value, pound for pound, as corn. This fact is helping increase the use of barley as a cover crop. Corn on the cob usually is the cheapest and most common grain fed to horses and mules.

BUILD FOR THE FUTURE

No better way to begin building for the future than to establish your credit standing with some good strong bank by opening and maintaining a profitable checking account.

In this way you become accustomed to banking requirements and the bank officials become acquainted with your manner of doing business, then when you need a loan you have your credit established.

CAN 47 STATES BE WRONG AND ONLY KENTUCKY RIGHT?

WHEN the fond mother exclaimed: "They're all out of step but Jim!" she didn't realize that her lug-footed boy was spoiling the whole parade.

. . . . And, so, maybe the 3,000,000 people of Kentucky don't realize that our State's absurdly rigid regulation of the motor truck industry is "gumming up" the parade of national defense. The Kentucky laws limit the gross weight of any freight hauling truck to 18,000 pounds—truck and load combined. This restriction makes our State a serious bottle neck in transportation of vital war materials, both for the defense industries which are springing up throughout the State and to military cantonments such as Fort Knox.

. . . . No other State has a load limit of less than 30,000 pounds gross weight, and the 127,000,000 people of this country who live outside of Kentucky enjoy better service, more business, higher tax revenue from the trucking industry and—last, but not least—a saving on everything they eat, they wear, they use.

. . . . The situation is particularly serious in Kentucky, too, because 77% of the communities in our State have no other method of rapid freight transporation—they are served only by the trucking industry. And Kentucky farmers are the most seriously affected, since 75% of Kentucky's farm products go to market in trucks.

Learn the facts; discuss them with your representatives in the Legislature; and with candidates in the coming Primary.

PETERSBURG 4-H

April 30, 1941, the Petersburg 4-H Good Will Club was called to order by Dorothy Owen Nixon, president. Mr. Drake told about summer 4-H activities and Mrs. Moore talked about 4-H club camp. Some of the 4-H members took part in a Citizenship program. The meeting was adjourned. We sang "I'm On The Upper Trail," said the Pledge and had a yell. We expect to make our club the best it has ever been.

RABBIT HASH HOMEMAKERS

The April meeting of the Rabbit Hash Homemakers' Club which was held at the Cream Station, with Mrs. Ida Mae Ryle hostess, was called to order by the president, Ethel Wilson. Seven members and two visitors were present.

Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, our substitute H. D. A. gave a very interesting lesson on crocheted rugs. She displayed some rugs made by members of other clubs. As our leader Mrs. Opal Kelly was ill, Mrs. Moore gave the lesson. Mrs. Moore had a letter read from a lady in England, a member of one of the Women's Federated Club, who are letter friends of the Homemakers in this country. The lady gave a vivid description of the war conditions of England. She sent pictures of herself and of one of the evacuated children whom she was caring for during the duration of war.

Mrs. Minnette Stephens was appointed Reading Chairman of the Club.

The Live at Home Leaders will give a report for the May meeting.

The bake sale held April 12, sponsored by the club proved to be quite a success.

Those from this club who attended the Bluegrass District Convention, Federation of Homemakers at Maysville, April 29, were Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. Ozell Hall, Mrs. Ethel Wilson, Mrs. Ida Mae Ryle and Mrs. Minnette Stephens. They reported a grand time and were very much enthused over the main speaker of the day Miss Ella Gardner the Recreational Expert, from Washington, D. C., who brought the principal message.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fay Stephens.

Minnette Stephens, Reporter.

TO THE LADY

To THE LADY who made the best chicken gravy ever, and knew that big fellows of ten just had to have long trousers, who kissed away skinned knees, and understood our heartbreak when the dog was run over .

To the Lady who brought a drink of water in the middle of the night and let out hems to cover gangling knees, who didn't expect too many letters home from college, and sent big treasure boxes of food for midnight feasts . . .

To our Mother who did all that and still had time to keep house, get Father off to work every morning, and love us each and every one . . . we offer this loving reminder of our affection to her.

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

Paramount wrote a most unusual chapter in railroad history during the filming of the new Technicolor production of "Virginia," starring Madeline Carroll and Fred MacMurray.

This event occurred when Producer-director Edward H. Griffith induced the president of a famed Virginia line to consent to direct a sequence of this sparkling comedy-drama.

The story tells of the difficult decision of a woman, born in Virginia and reared in the North, has to make when she falls in love with a Southerner offering her only the hardships and traditions of plantation life, but who is pursued by a wealthy, handsome Northerner, who offers a life of superficial gaiety. Miss Carroll is seen as the woman with the romantic problem, MacMurray as the Southerner who wins her, and Hayden as the Northerner who comes out second best.

What technique! What finesse! What a man that dashing Cesar Romero is in "Tall, Dark and Handsome!" He's a killer who doesn't kill! He watches his own funeral and it's not done with mirrors! He's the Romeo of the rackets and last but not least, he gets the girl. And what a honey Virginia Gilmore is!

Action starts popping in the very first reel when Romero, as the Romeo of the rackets, falls for beautiful Virginia Gilmore, a nurse. Cesar poses as a father and gets Virginia to take a job in his luxurious home.

TUESDAY
(Double Feature)

Sparkling comedy, with cast and story built for laughs, will fill the screen at the Gayety when "Blonde Inspiration" will be shown Tuesday. The picture introduces a new romantic team in John Shelton and Virginia Grey, two youngsters who appear headed for stellar heights in Hollywood.

The story deals with a young writer, played by Shelton, who attempts to get his name before the public by writing for a Western pulp magazine. To do it, however, he has to buy a share in the magazine. Then he finds that he must write the whole magazine, being the sole member of the staff. That means that he must turn out three short stories, a complete novel and two columns each week, a man-sized job.

The secretary of his published played by Virginia Grey, helps him fulfill his assignment, however, and he manages to meet his deadlines.

The climax comes when the boy learns that his prized story is to be printed in the pulp magazine. He does evrything possible to prevent it, including beating up the publisher and trying to destroy the printing press, but only winds up in jail. But everything comes out happily when newspapers print the story of his wild battle to save his book and cause publishers to besiege him with offers.

Also

The daring exploits of a fast-shooting cowboy, two loyal companions and a pretty border-cafe singer, are the basis for the exciting action in Tim Holt's newest thriller, "Along the Rio Grande."

To obtain evidence against a ruthless gang which is pillaging the countryside, the young cowpuncher and his two pals pose as bank robbers and become members of this dangerous band. See these two big features.

WED., THURS., AND FRIDAY, MAY 14, 15, AND 16TH

The most unusual car in films says goodbye to a professional career in the new film "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary," latest of the Hardy Family pictures.

The car is Andy's famous jalopy, purchased originally in a Hollywood junk yard for the total sum of $50.00. During its career in films, the car has been equipped with many times the amount of its purchase price in gadgets. Its numerous wires and levers makes it possible for the driver to disassemble the entire car with the press of a button, to say nothing of causing fenders to wave or tires to deflate.

"Andy Hard's Private Secretary" reassembles the popular Family for the eighth time. Lewis Stone appears in his characterization of the Judge, Mickey Rooney is seen as Andy, Fay Holden as Ma Hardy, Sara Haden as Aunt Milly and Ann Rutherford as Andy's girl friend, Polly Benedict.

28,349 FAMILIES WANT MATTRESSES

By the end of the week of March 2-8, a total of 28,349 applications were received for one to three mattresses in the Kentucky rural mattress program, according to Miss Myrtle Weldon, state leader of home demonstration work. Graves county ranks first in number of applications, with 3,000 on file, followed by Calloway county with 1,700 and Bell county with 1,600. To date 2,680 bales of cotton have been ordered. Cooperating in the program are the Extension Service of the State College of Agriculture, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the Surplus Commodities Corporation. Home demonstration representatives train leaders to give expert direction in making mattresses, which then are processed at community centers. Bell is the first county in the State actually to make mattresses.

TO CLEAN CEILINGS

To remove whitewash from the ceiling, make a solution of the following ingredients. Make a glue size by dissolving a pound of glue in three parts water. To three parts of this size add one part of paperhangers paste and a handful of powdered alum. Spread the solution on the ceiling, let the room become hot and it will dry out the whitewash. The white wash will curl off in flakes and what doesn't fall can be removed by a wire brush. Be sure and cover the floor before you start this job.

HELPFUL HINTS

Kid belts can be cleaned by rubbing with art gum . . . To make smooth gravy, sprinkle salt into the flour before putting it into the hot fat. It will help to keep it free from lumps . . . When baking peppers place them in muffin tins. They will hold their shape better. . . . An excellent polish for mahogany is a tablespoon of olive oil mixed with a teaspoon of vinegar. . . . A quarter pound stick of butter can be cut quickly into pats with a piece of stiff wire.

VOLUME 65 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1941 NUMBER 49

COUNTY LEAGUE BEGINS SEASON

WITH BIG BONE, BELLEVIEW, HEBRON TAKING OPENING GAMES—LOCAL NINE WIN IN SEMIPRO LEAGUE.

Big Bone chalked up an impressive victory in their opening game in the county league by downing Burlington 24 to 4 at the Big Bone park Saturday.

Starting at the beginning of the game, the victors hammered hard Burlington's pitchers and, coupled with loose fielding by Burlington, opened the way for a barrage of runs which early in the contest determined the winner. Akin, Benson, Clore, and Huey were touched for twenty-seven hits by the winners, while their teammates were collecting a total of twelve safe blows from the offerings of Wood, Black, and Williamson, hurlers for Big Bone, who never were in trouble due to their team's lead throughout the game.

After pouncing upon Petersburg for five runs in the first inning Belleview went on to win their first game by a score of 11 to 5 at the latter's park. The game was featured by several significant errors in fielding by Petersburg, behind the pitching of Edwards, Bradburn and Deck.

To make it unanimous for the visiting teams to suffer the defeats, the CCC team of Walton was turned back by a score of 8 to 5 when they journeyed to Hebron to play their first game of the season. Jones and Hodges were on the mound for Hebron.

Saturday, Belleview will play at Burlington, Hebron at Petersburg, and CCC at Big Bone.

The Boone County All-Stars handed the Bavarian Beers a 3 to 0 shutout in a well-played game at te local park in the second round of play in the Campbell County Semipro Baseball League Sunday. It was the Bavarian's first set back and the All-Star's second straight victory.

Timely base hits by Shinkle, Bradburn. Kirkpatrick, and Clore gave the local team their winning runs. Shinkle, turned in an excellent performance on the mound for the All-Stars, not giving a base on balls nor hitting a batter with a pitched ball, while striking out eight and allowing nine well-scattered hits.

The local team will meet the strong and undefeated Pleezing Foods teams in their next game.

Condemnation Suits Filed To Procure Rights-of-Way

Two suits for condemnation were filed Monday by the Boone County Court to procure right of way on the new road through Florence. One suit was filed against the Emma Krebs property and the other against property of Stella Tryling.

Chas. W. Riley, County Attorney announced Wednesday morning that the Krebs suit has been settled for $800.00, the amount allowed by the commissioners, and the commissioners report in the Tryling suit of $100.00 has not been accepted and is still pending.

Contract for the new highway was awarded last Friday, and work will start as soon as right-of-way is obtained, Mr. Riley stated.

TOM CARR SEEKS MAGISTRATE SEAT

FROM THIRD MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT—WAS BORN AND REARED IN BOONE COUNTY—IS OCCUPIED AS A FARMER.

Tom Carr of the Verona precinct announces his candidacy for magistrate from the Third Magisterial District in this issue of The Recorder, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2, 1941.

He was born and raised in Boone County and has always been a staunch Democrat.

He is a farmer, and if elected will try and do all in his power to see that the affiars of the county are conducted in a business like manner and that all sections will get a square deal in the expending of road funds.

Mr. Carr states that he will make an effort to see each voter in the district before the election. He solicits the support of the voters of the district.

Local Man Attends North Carolina ACP Meeting

The Regional Conference of the East Central Division of the Agricultural Conservation Program held at Charlotte, North Carolina was attended by Mark Cook, Chairman of the County Committee and John E. Crigler, Secretary of the Association. The Conference was held on May 8, 9, and 10 and was attended by Committeemen and Workers from the states of Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware.

Special speakers attended the Conference from Washington and various points over the country including Secretary of Agriculture, Claude R. Wickard and W. G. Finn, Director of the East Central Division.

The conference was attended by by about 800 farmers and workers in the A. C. Program. Recommendations were made for various changes and additions that would be beneficial to the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program.

Utopia Club Will Discuss "What's New"

What's New in Agriculture and Home Economics will be discussed by Utopia Club members in their meeting Thursday evening, May 22, at Burlington, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The discussion will be given by leading members of the club.

The discussion "What's New" will be led by the following members:

Poultry—Grant Maddox.
Landscaping—Alberta Dickey.
Dairy—Woodford Crigler.
Canning—Nannie Lee Siekman.

Local Scout Troop Begin Flower Project

The local Boy Scout Troop, under the leadership of Rev. T. O. Harrison has started a beautification project at the local Baptist Church which will add much to the appearance of the church grounds.

Two large flower beds are being made, one on each side of the front entrance. Each bed is to be approximately 10 feet across and bordered by large rocks set on edge. The project is expected to be completed this week.

This is one of the many fine activities of the Boy Scouts, which deserve the full cooperation and support of every citizen of this county.

Florence Scouts To Hold Meeting Friday

Boy Scout Troop 1, Florence is extending an invitation to all its friends and patrons to attend the annual Troop meeting Friday, May 16 at the Florence Methodist Church. At this meeting the Troop will be presented with its Charter by Melvin Fullerton.

Virgil Gyson, scoutmaster announced that the Northern Kentucky Council film will be shown as a feature of the evening's entertainment.

A complete program has been arranged, and is reported to be very interesting.

SCHOOL CLINICS ARE COMPLETED

IN ALL SECTIONS OF COUNTY—FOUR SCHOOL HOLD CLINICS DURING PAST WEEK, ACCORDING TO COUNTY NURSE.

Hamilton's pre-school clinic was held the morning of May 7 as scheduled. Dr. G. R. Coe came from one of the city hospitals, where he was attending a case, gave his time for the physical examinations and to his patient. Following the clinic a number of persons expressed their appreciation for Dr. Coe's keeping his promise to be there, even though he was so busy. The clinic attendance was good. Those helping were Mrs. R. Z. Asbury, Mrs. Everett Jones, Mrs. Lloyd Marsh, Mrs. Henry Sleet, Mrs. Robert Robbins and the County Red Cross Nurse.

Petersburg pre-school clinic was conducted the afternoon of May 7 in the office of Dr. E. J. Love. Dr. Love made the physical examinations and recommendations. Every child who is to enter school next year was present with the exception of two, and Dr. Love has volunteered to examine these within the next few days, when the P.-T. A. makes arrangements for them to call at his office. This makes Petersburg a 100 percent summer round-up or pre-school clinic for this year. Those promoting and assisting with the clinic were Mrs. Harry Jarbo, Mrs. Stanley Bonta, Mrs. Jacob Nixon and the Red Cross Nurse.

New Haven pre-school clinic for May 8 was conducted by Dr. G. R. Coe. The attendance was poor, partly due to some contagious diseases in the community. Those offering their services for the clinic were Mrs. Louise Newman, Mrs. W. S. Friend, Mrs. Irvin Rouse, Mrs. Ruth Mason and the Red Cross Nurse.

May 9 a pre-school clinic and party for mothers and children were held in Belleview school. Out of 12 children to enter school next year 11 attended the clinic. Following the health inspection, refreshments were served and a good time was had by all. Those working in the clinic were Mrs. J. F. Moore, Mrs. Ernest McNeely, Mrs. O. W. Purdy, Mrs. Hugh McArthur Mrs. Edward Rogers and the Red Cross Nurse.

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Constance Homemakers' Club was held May 7th at the home of Mrs. Alice Kenyon. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Freda Kottmyer. There were eleven members and one visitor present.

We were very glad to have Miss Gillaspie back with us again and to have Mrs. Moore with us also.

Members who went to Maysville gave us some very good information on the meeting and of the talks given. They all enjoyed the day very much.

We are planning to make an educational tour in the near future.

During the afternoon session our major project leaders, Mrs. George Kottmyer and Mrs. Walter Sprague gave a very interesting and helpful lesson on making knitted rugs.

Our next meeting will be held Wednesday, June 4th at the home of Mrs. Lena Fritz. Roll call to be answered with "Your Most Interesting Hobby."

HEBRON LUTHERAN CHURCH
Rev. H. M. Hauter, Pastor

Sunday, May 18th, Bible School 10:00 a. m. Mr. Woodford Crigler, Supt.

Seniors Invited To Attend High School Night Program

Seniors from all Boone County High Schools have been invited to attend the High School Night program to be sponsored May 23 by the University of Cincinnati Evening College on the U. C. Campus.

The evening's activity opens in McMicken auditorium at 8:30 p. f. A dance will follow in the Great Hall of the Student Union Building. Many senior classes from Northern Kentucky high schools are making up parties to attend in a group.

Admission tickets are to be sent Boone County high school principals and seniors may obtain them from them, Prof. G. W. Kingsbury, assistant to the dean, has announced.

TO CONDUCT REVIVAL

Rev. R. L. Anderson

Rev. R. L. Anderson will conduct a revival at the Burlington Methodist Church beginning May 25 and continuing through June 8th, Rev. T. O. Harrison, pastor, announced this week. Rev. Anderson is pastor of the Middlesburg Methodist Church.

Special prayer services in preparation for the revival are being held at the Methodist Church each Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

An invitation is extended to everyone to attend these services.

Tobacco Plants Damaged By Weather

Tobacco plan injury this year has been widespread and severe, according to Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist from the College, in a letter addressed to the County Agent's office this week.

Young plants have been severely injured due to concentration of fertilizers, including cynamid applied to the bed. The extra dry weather has resulted in the salts being brought to the surface and the concentration has been strong enough to burn the young feeder roots. Heavy watering of the beds will tend to dissolve the fertilizer and lessen the injury.

Mr. Hunt will visit the county in the near future for a meeting and tour of plant bed demonstrations, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

LOCAL CHURCH BELL RECODED

FOR USE ON RADIO PROGRAM OF REV. D. B. EASTEP HEARD OVER WCPO EACH SUNDAY MORNING AT 8:00 A. M.

The local Baptist Church was honored the past week when the large bell that tolls each Sunday morning was selected from a large group, as having the best tone and has already been recorded for radio broadcasting.

Rev. D. B. Eastep, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Latonla made the selection last week after seeking for sometime, an old fashion country church bell that could be used on his weekly radio broadcast. The first radio broadcast with the Burlington bell will be heard on Sunday morning, May 25th at 8:00 (C. S. T.) over radio station WCPO. The program will be started each week with the ringing of the bell.

All persons who are familiar with the ringing of this bell may hear it each Sunday morning, beginning May 25th over WCPO at the time of Rev. Eastep's regular radio broadcast from the Latonla Baptist Church.

MILK PRODUCTION AT ALL-TIME TOP

The appeal for more milk products for defense found the cows on American farms already in high gear. Never in all history was there such a flow of milk as was produced in the United States last year, and production is continuing at a high level this spring, says a report of the Department of Markets and Rural Finance of the Kentucky College of Agriculture.

Plans call for furnishing large quantities of dried milk and cheese and other dairy products in condensed form to save shipping space vegetables, meat and lard to Britain. The government will support prices, so farmers may find production profitable.

Bill Harrison will be the auctioneer.

SPARTA MAN'S HAT IN RING

WILL CAMPAIGN FOR SENATOR FROM 26TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT—SERVED IN U. S. ARMY DURING WORLD WAR.

Alvin Kidwell, of Sparta, tosses his hat into the political ring for Senator from the 26th Senatorial District, composed of Boone, Gallatin, Grant, Owen and Pendleton counties, announcing in this issue of The Recorder.

Mr. Kidwell is a member of the Methodist Church and the American Legion. He served in the U. S. Army during the World.

For the past eighteen years Mr. Kidwell has operated a large nursery near Sparta. He is well known in that section and his friends are numerous.

Mr. Kidwell stated that he had never held a political office, this being his first time to every seek an office.

He is a Democrat of the old school, and has always supported the policies of the Democratic organization.

Mr. Kidwell solicits the support of the voters, and stated that if nominated and elected, would represent his district in a honorable, impartial and efficient manner.

George A. Slayback

George A. Slayback, 70, passed away Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCabe, of Beaver Lick, with whom he made his home. He had been ill for three weeks.

He is survived by a grandson, George Allen, of Beaver Lick, one great-grandson, one sister, several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock Monday at Hughes Chapel, Beaver Lick. Burial was in Hughes Chapel cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Theimann Pond Is Restocked With Fish

Approximately 1,000 pounds of channel cats and bullhead cats were released in the Thiemann Bros. pond near Hebron several days ago, it was announced by Paul Menzes, operator of the farm. The cat fish averaged from 1 to 10 pounds, according to reports.

Local anglers reported fishing good, there Sunday, with one man taking an 8¼ pound cat fish. Several other good catches were reported.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Director of photography Joe Valentine trained his cameras on Deanna Durbin for the ninth picture during production of Universal's "Nice Girl?"

Many of Hollywood's stars have preferences for certain cinematographers, but Valentine's record of photographing nine pictures with one star is believed to be a high mark in Hollywood camera circles.

Since production of Deanna's first picture, "Three Smart Girls," Producer Joe Basternak has retained virtually the same crew as an intact unit on all of the star's films.

Heading Miss Durbin's new supporting cast are Franchot Tone, Walter Brennan, Robert Stack, Robert Benchley, Helen Broderick, Ann Gillis, Anne Gwynne, Elizabeth Risdon and Nana Bryant.

To Whom it May Concern:

Many thanks to our Local Board Chairman, Mr. Geo. Baker for placing me in charge of delivering the group of selectees and their papers to Ft. Thomas on April 4. Consider it a great honor to lead the group to the receiving station.

We had a great time during the bus ride and continued to enjoy ourselves until we were separated into different groups.

Since leaving Ft. Thomas I have lost contact with all but one. The train left Newport, Ky., at ten a. m. on April 8 and arrived here at Camp Shelby at 11:00 a. m. on April 9th. We were immediately classified and sent to our posts and I was very fortunate in being placed with the 138th Field Artillery Band of the 38th Division. At the present am a member of the Headquarters Battery 2nd Battallon of the 138th Field Artillery and am very fortunate in having Leland Loomis from Burlington, as a next door neighbor. Now, just a word about this great camp. It is situated in the heart of a pine forest about 12 miles from Hattiesburg, Miss., and can be reached directly by train or automobile. The camp covers an area of about 100,000 sq. acres and at the present about 60,000 men are stationed here.

The camp is well laid off in blocks and each street is marked so that it is very easy to find your way around. The base hospital has a personnel of about 450 attendants, doctors and nurses, and covers 80 acres of ground.

This Camp is a city in itself, having its own tailor shops, post offices, theaters, clothing stores, camp exchanges, churches, photograph shops, laundries, its own water supply and sewage disposal plants. Words cannot express the immensity of it.

We are located only a few miles from the Gulf of Mexico and get the cool gulf breezes during the day and especially at night.

May we suggest, that any of you who wish a nice vacation, might motor down through the State of Mississippl and while here stop in at the camp and enjoy yourself and look us up. Visitors are always welcome and we have facilities for putting up visitors for the night.

Speaking in behalf of the selectees from Boone County, who are stationed here,

I remain

Sincerely yours,
PRIVATE LARRY AYLOR,
Hdq. Btry 2nd Bn.

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS TO MEET HERE MAY 15TH

On May 15th the postponed meeting of the Burlington Homemakers will be held at the courthouse at 10:30 a. m.

The meeting will be interesting as we will hear from the delegates attending the district meeting. Those who dld not attended the flower show will learn interesting facts about flowers.

The flower show merits mentioning again, inasmuch, not only because of the interest in flowers and shrubs it aroused in the community. One felt so much smarter after she learned to name and classify the tulips and to be able to recognize a breeder tulip.

The fact that the ribbon for miniature arrangements was awarded to a bouquet of violets and dandellons is worthy of note. While the overall size was to be no more than five inches in diameter, this particular arrangements had three containers in it, and it was so well balanced and the blooms arranged so well, the judges readily agreed upon it.

To this meeting bring a covered dish, also knitting needles and rags for a rug. Any lady who is interested in rag rugs, come and learn how to knit them properly.

GERREZ OPEN BRANCH STORE

Due to steadily increasing business, Gerrez & Sons, 507 Madison Ave., Covington, has opened a branch store at 604 Main St., Covington.

The new store will not only handle an attractive line of made-to-order and unclaimed suits for men and young men at very low prices, but will also do dry cleaning and repairing, featuring quick, satisfactory service.

Gerrez & Sons' announcement appears in this issue of The Recorder.

Mrs. Nannie Riddell spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Walton Dempsey in Erlanger.

INCREASE IS BADLY NEEDED

IN FOOD PRODUCTION—PORK, DAIRY, POULTRY AND VEGETABLES NEEDED IN NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM.

Increased food production of pork, dairy, poultry and vegetables are needed in the National Defense program, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The Secretary of Agriculture has called upon farm people to assist in this National emergency.

It will be noted that no increase in wheat, beef cattle, tobacco and certain other commodities of which there is a surplus at present is requested.

Farm and rural people can do certain definite things adjusted to needs of their individual farms and gardens to fit into the program. These needs varying with the individual cases are:

(1) Live at Home or better Farm Living Program. Every farm family is urged to grow a good garden and home meat supply. This supply should be for year round use by canning, curlng and storing surplus fresh commodities. Home raised and home canned food will release canned foods for defense workers in cities and for shipment under the Lend-Lease program.

(2) A 15 percent increase in pork production. This may be accomplished by marketing hogs 25 pounds heavier than customary for the hogs now on feed.

(3) A slx to eight percent increase in dairy products. Increased production can be secured thru better feeding and management practices.

(4) A 15 percent increase in poultry products and a 6 percent increase in egg products.

(5) A 33 1-3 percent increase in tomato production for canning.

The increased production can be secured without additional equipment but through increased and improved feeding and management. A meeting of local farmers will be called in the near future to discuss the farmers part in the National Defense program.

POULTRY TOUR SET MAY 22ND

POULTRY AND MARKETS DEPARTMENTS OF COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE WILL ASSIST IN TOUR.

Boone and Kenton County Poultrymen will hold a combined poultry market tour on Thursday, May 22, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The tour will start from the new Post Office Building on Scott Street, Covington at 9:00 a. m. Central Time.

The poultry and markets departments of the College of Agriculture are assisting in plans for this tour. Leading poultry commission and storage houses and the market exchange will be visited. The purpose of the tour will be to study marketing problems after the poultry and eggs leave the farm with the idea of securing information that will enable the producer to prepare a more desirable and more profitable product.

Everyone interested in poultry and egg production is invited to attend. A good turnout of poultry producers took part in last year's tour. All reported the day spent profitably.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

BROADENING CHRISTIAN HORIZONS: SAUL'S CONVERSION

LESSON TEXT—Acts 9:1-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.—Acts 26:19.

The conversion of Saul is recognized as one of the outstanding events in Bible history. When two brilliant English lawyers, Lord Lyttleton and Sir Gilbert West, set out to disprove the truth of Christianity, they selected the resurrection of Christ and the story of Paul's conversion as the focal points of their proof. Working independently, they then came together to compare notes, and found that they had both become Christians as they had become convinced of the truth of the Scriptures.

The two events may well stand together as mighty evidence for Christianity, for only on the ground of regeneration can the change in Saul be accounted for, and only on the assurance that he met the risen Christ on the Damascus road can we account for his conversion. This is a great lesson, let us make the very most of it.

I. Saul, a Bold Persecutor (vv. 1, 2).

As our lesson opens we find the brilliant and zealous young Jew, Saul, "yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord." The persecutions in Jerusalem had practically wiped out the church in that city, but had scattered the disciples abroad, and thus the witness had been spread. The death of the godly Stephen, to which Saul had given his approval, had only increased his determination to destroy those who were "of the way" of Jesus. Looking for new fields to conquer, he carried with him to Damascus letters from the high priest at Jerusalem, giving him authority to imprison the followers of Christ. But on the way he met Christ Himself, and was stricken to the earth.

II. Saul, a Convicted Sinner (vv. 3-9).

Stricken down by a brilliant heavenly light, he finds himself talking to the Lord Jesus. He hears from His holy lips the solemn indictment of those who persecute God's people—"Why persecutest thou me?" He who lays unkind hands upon, or brings untrue accusation against, God's children had best beware, for so closely is our Lord identified with His people that when they suffer, it is He who bears the hurt.

In a single sentence the Lord disposes of the persecuting zeal and the sinful skepticism of this proud young Pharisee, and Saul enters into Damascus not as the haughty persecutor, but as a man trembling and astonished. He spends three days shut in with his own soul and God, not seeing, not caring to eat, but entering into communion with God. By God's grace the old life is pulled up by the roots as it is displaced by the new life in Christ Jesus.

III. Ananias, an Obedient Disciple (vv. 10-12).

Ananias was the "I am here, Lord" type of Christian to whom the Lord could confidently commit His important business. All we know of him is what is contained in this chapter, but it is a very beautiful and enviable record. God is able to work directly on any human soul and accomplish His end (as He did with Saul on the Damascus road), but His usual manner of working is through faithful human agencies. One wonders how much would be accomplished for God if every Christian were as willing and ready as was Ananias to do the Lord's bidding in seeking out and helping a struggling soul.

The greatest of all Christian leaders, the apostle Paul, was led out into his life of loyalty and service to Christ by a humble layman. Repeatedly God's Word by precept and example stresses the vital importance of personal work on the part of laymen and women. The leaders of Christian work during the coming generation are now in the Sunday school classes of our churches, perhaps in a little wayside chapel in the country, in the village church, in the mission or settlement house, or in the great city church.

IV. Saul, a Chosen Witness (vv. 15, 16).

The fears of Ananias that Saul might still be a worker of evil (v. 13) were soon overcome by God's assurance that in the praying Saul He had prepared for Himself "a chosen vessel" (v. 15) to bear the gospel to the Gentiles and to kings, as well as to Israel.

The great witness of Saul was to be accompanied by great suffering. How often the two go together, and both may be (as they were in Paul's life) for God's glory. Saul knew nothing of that subtle hypocrisy known as being "a secret believer," for at once he made open confession of his faith in baptism, and "straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues that he is the Son of God" (v. 20).

During clean-up time of the year we realize more keenly that what helps Boone County, helps us as individuals.

HEBRON

Friends of Henry Getker were glad to see him at Sunday School Sunday, after several weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hogan called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker and Mrs. Nan Baker Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Aylor, of Cincinnati, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crigler.

Truman Paddack and daughter, of Cincinnati, called on his brother, Ben Paddack, Sunday.

A large gathering of parents and friends assembled Sunday night for the baccalaureate services for the twenty-five graduates of Hebron high school at the Lutheran church. After scripture reading and prayer by Rev. H. M. Hauter, he introduced Rev. Forest Taylor, who delivered an interesting sermon to the class. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dickey and son, of Ludlow, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Baker, of Florence and John Baker and son, of Bromley were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker and Mrs. Nan Baker. Mrs. Baker is improving from injuries received in a fall during February.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mary Watts Bradford wish to extend their grateful appreciation and heartfelt thanks to the Reverend Forest Taylor, Reverend Noble Lucas, Dr. S. B. Nunnelley and Bullock and Catherman, also the many relatives and friends for the kind expressions of sympathy in their recent bereavement. 1t-pd.

Foot Health In Relation To Mental Health

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

When you suffer from flat feet, your muscular system is taxed and irritates the nerves of the foot, simultaneously affecting the entire delicate nervous system, causing it to function at less their normal capacity. The result of this whole action is a generalized irritability and unrest in the individual.

Ordinarily the body can overcome the irritations of its various sick parts, and is capable of removing the effects of the disease. The disturbances of the foot, however are often subject to influences which the body has great difficulty in combating.

The foot according to dictates of society should be housed in a protective leather or cloth covering, which must meet the aesthetic tastes of the prevailing fashion. Thus, if the fashion dictates that, long thin shoes be worn, thousands of individuals with short wide feet will attempt to crowd them into long thin shoes, and vice versa.

The vagaries of fashion may thus make you comfortable one season and uncomfortable another. However, when we consider the permanent effects of this change of style, we realize that the foot which has a fairly permanent shape, like an elastic band. The harm wrought in one season does not disappear the next, but may rather be accentuated in some significant defect as for example the BUNION.

Once this effect s formed the foot is placed daily in what may be considered a vice or mold and the normal metabolis or growth activity of the foot is interferred with. The attempts of the body to overcome the irritation are frustrated and the physical ailment grows and becomes more pernicious. The mental effects of this constant irritant are such as to set up a continual hypersensitiveness in all behavior.—Adv.

29 MILLION!

A record never before approached!

★When the 29,000,000th Ford rolled recently from the assembly line, an all-time record for the industry was set. 29,000,000 units built by the same management and all bearing one name—a name that has become one of the best-known trade-marks in the world!

It is significant that this achievement comes at a time when our country is making a mighty effort to re-arm swiftly. For to further that effort, to help speed it along in any possible way, we have offered the vast facilities of the Rouge Plant and every ounce of our experience.

As you read this, a new $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine plant, started only last fall, is nearly completed. A new magnesium alloy plant, one of the few in the country, is already in production on lightweight airplane engine castings. Work is right now under way on a new $18,000,000 plant for mass production of big bomber assemblies. Orders have been filled for military vehicles of several types, including army reconnaissance cars, staff cars and bomb service trucks.

In the midst of this activity for National Defense, building the 29 millionth Ford car is simply one part of the day's work.

The public has acclaimed the 1941 Ford car as the finest in Ford history. Ford Dealers are enjoying their greatest sales and expecting their best year since 1937.

It is good to be producing the things America needs, and to be setting records on the way!

ERLANGER -:- KENTUCKY

This Week In Defense

OPM Associate Director Hillman told his press conference he was drafting plans with the AFL and CIO for a four-shift day, 160-hour week for all defense industries able to use extra labor. Mr. Hillman said the plan provided a shut-down of production only on Sundays from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m. to repair machines. He recommended that defense industries pay a bonus to workers who voluntarily forego vacations.

Labor Disputes

The War Department announced that only three one-hundredths of one percent of the total time worked has been lost because of labor troubles on its $1,200,000,000 construction program. Administrator Straus of the U. S. Housing Authority reported "work has not been delayed by a single hour by a single strike on any defense housing built by USHA."

Aid to Democracies

President Roosevelt, directing "whatever action is needed" to speed the production of heavy bombers, said in a letter to War Secretary Stimson that command of the air by the democracies must be achieved even if it means "a great strain on our production effort." The President, requesting the Department of Agriculture to establish an Office of Agricultural Defense Relations, wrote Secretary Wickard that "the most vital operating function of agriculture in the defense program are, first, the guarantee of an adequate supply of food for . . . this nation and . . . those nations whose defense is essential to the defense of this country; second, the provision of sufficient agricultural raw materials for expanded defense production."

Cabinet Officers Speak

Secretary of War Stimson said in a radio speech that American freedom will not be saved "unless we are ready to sacrifice, and if need be, die . . . It is within our power to turn the tide of darkness back" by using the Navy to "secure the seas for the delivery of our munitions to Great Britain . . . and . . . hold in check the onward rush of the tide of Nazism until the other defense forces of all the democracies are completed."

Mr. Stimson said "at least a year will pass before we can have an army and an air force adequate to meet the air and ground forces which could be brought against us if the control of the seas passes into Axis hands . . . If we should allow the present strategic moment to pass until the power of the British Navy is gone, our Navy would become merely a secondary power instead of the decisive and winning power."

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard said at Charlotte, N. C., "I see no course for the U. S. that gives any real promise of keeping us from becoming deeply involved in this world conflict . . . Any course we take involves risks."

The U. S. has two choices, he said: either to support England or to let Hitler take England and "prepare for the richest conquest of all—the U. S." He said "we had better take risks on getting aid to England than to risk bombing raids and tank attacks on our own fields."

Production Effort

Production Director John D. Biggers, speaking in Philadelphia, said defense contractors must apply "every known technique, every practical pressure for speeding production." Defense Purchases Director Donald M. Nelson, speaking in Washington, said "we have got to begin to realize once and for all that we are in a real life-or-death emergency—not just a make-believe one."

OPM Director Knudsen, in a letter to all machine tool builders said "Let's forget everything except the welfare of the country."

Production Progress

Speaking in Detroit, Mr. Glancy, OPM Ordnance Director, said the military plane program is on schedule with "our combat planes surpassed by none;" the naval program is "generally ahead of schedule;" and many army and navy air fields and bases are "well ahead of schedule." OPM reported 1,427 military planes manufactured in April—a new record.

Major General Wesson, Army Chief of Ordnance, speaking in Rochester, N. Y., reported U. S. armament to be of latest type and "thoroughly effective." He said we are "on the threshold of mass production."

Army-Navy

The War Department announced the Army's largest peace-time maeuvers will begin May 24 in California and continue throughout the summer and fall in various parts of the nation until regulars and trainees are schooled in the most advanced methods of modern warfare.

The Army opened its fifth recreational camp. It announced that Ed Wynn will appear in the first of a nation-wide series of entertainments at army and navy posts featuring the donated services of screen, stage and radio stars.

The Interstate Commerce Commission granted railroads permission to reduce rates to 1.25 cents per mile for personnel of the armed services.

The Navy Department announced 4,900 college graduates would be enlisted in Class V-7 of the naval reserve for training as officers.

Selective Service

Selective Service Headquarters announced that registrants who cannot pass fourth grade reading and writing tests will be declared unfit for military duty. Headquarters also advised local boards to defer medical students" who give reasonable promise" of becoming doctors and internes to apply for Army Medical Reserve Corps commissions, and to see that no doctor necessary to his community is called for service.

Defense Financing

President Roosevelt asked Congress for a tax bill "which will convince the country the national defense program . . . is not going to make the rich richer and the poor poorer." The President asked for legislation "aimed at making the Federal revenue system evasion-proof and so devised that every individual and every corporation will bear its fair share." Treasury Secretary Morgenthau reported defense savings stamps and bonds are selling so fast the Bureau of Engraving has to work Saturday and Sunday to keep up with demands.

Consumers and Defense

Defense Purchases Director Nelson, speaking in Cincinnati, called on consumers to aid in keeping prices down by refraining from "scare buying" and hoarding because of rumors of shortages. He also advised consumers to be suspicious of price increases, to find out if price increases are really necessary, and "exercise your natural right to say 'no' once in a while."

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers held their regular monthly meeting at the Town Hall, with 19 present, our honor guest of the day, being Mrs. George Kottmyer, our county president. Mrs. Kottmyer gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Homemakers' Clubs.

Mrs. Mary Moore, our assistant H. D. A., discussed the various projects that we might study next year, our club decided on "Meal Planning."

Mrs. Verda Martin, Live At Home chairman, gave a report on the cheese and butter class held recently, she also gave suggestions for gardening.

Mrs. Gladys Fullerton gave a talk on "Defense" and suggested gifts for the soldier.

Mrs. Roy Lutes was appointed "Reading Chairman," she gave everyone a copy of the "Aims For Reading For Homemakers," as compiled by the district reading chairman.

Mrs. W. R. Stith gave the lesson and demonstrations on crocheted rugs. We learned how to hold and not to hold our needles and how to crochet the ends of the material in, rather than to tie or sew them together.

How to Visit Your Soldier at Camp

That's easy — Greyhound serves more training camps than any other travel system at less cost. For example:

● It's fun to be ahead of the crowds —enjoying your favorite vacation spot while it's still fresh and unspoiled —and with hotel and resort accommodations assured. And it's fun to be money ahead, too—as you always are when you go places by Greyhound at only 1/3 the cost of driving a car. If your personal plans permit, you'll be smart to travel on week-days — and you'll be saving extra seat space for soldiers and sailors on leave over the week-ends.

VOLUME 65 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1941 NUMBER 50

20 MATTRESSES ARE COMPLETED

BY WORKERS AT OLD BURLINGTON SCHOOL BUILDING UP TO LAST SATURDAY—240 MATTRESSES, COMFORTS IS AIM.

The Boone County mattress program which is being directed by local Extension Service Agents, Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie, Mrs. Mary Scott Moore and H. R. Forkner, through cooperation of the Agriculture Adjustment Administration, opened activities at the Mattress Center located in the old Burlington high school building on last Thursday. Mrs. Vernon Pope is county supervisor. Volunteer leaders from Homemaker clubs are assisting Mrs. Pope.

Twenty mattresses had been completed when the center closed Saturday afternoon. Applications have been received in sufficient number to take up all material on hand. The deadline for making new orders was May 1; therefore, the program will be closed when 240 mattresses and comforts have been completed.

As the work progresses and all applicants in the Burlington area have their mattresses made, the center will be moved to other sections of the county. The Petersburg center will be opened probably the latter part of this week. Work will be done at Grant, Union, Walton, and Verona in the order listed. Notices will be sent to applicants in advance of center openings so that they may be prepared to work and finish on scheduled time. Centers will open at 7:00 a. m. C. S. T. Workers are asked to come promptly; wear comfortable clothing; bring something to wear on their hair; and a muslin piece to cover mouth and nose. No smoking is permitted inside of building because of fire hazard. The cotton is being hand fluffed, therefore, the work goes slowly and is time consuming. No loafers are allowed; there is work for everyone and "cooperation" is the watchword.

Ten-Pound Catfish Caught By L. C. Weaver

L. C. Weaver, Assistant Postmaster, of Burlington caught a 10¾-pound channel cat in Thiemann Bros. Lake, near Hebron Friday of last week. Bait used was dead minnows.

This is one of the largest fish to be caught in this section on pole and line, and is the largest channel cat this writer has ever seen taken from any waters.

Several other nice catches were reported at this lake the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Yelton attended the graduation exercises at Butler High School Wednesday night of this week.

MAJOR PROJECT TO BE SELECTED

BY HOMEMAKERS' ADVISORY COUNCIL AT MEETING TO BE HELD AT BURLINGTON, MONDAY, MAY 26TH.

The Major Project to be carried by Boone County Homemakers' clubs will be selected by the Advisory Council next Monday, May 26. Local club presidents, County officers and project chairmen will meet at 1:30 p. m. at the Court House in Burlington. The presiding officer will be Mrs. Geo. Kottmyer, president, Boone County Homemakers.

Local homemakers clubs have voted on their choice of a major project at meetings during the past month. The following seven projects were suggested by members at the April Advisory Council meeting. General nutrition, meal planning, vitamin study, accessories for the home (home lighting and picture study), the completed livable home, consumer problems in home furnishing and upholstery. Each club representative will cast their vote for one of the seven possible projects at the Monday meeting. The project receiving the most votes will be carried by Boone County Homemakers next fall and winter, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Miss Lulie Logan, Assistant State Leader of Home Demonstration Agents, plan to attend the meeting.

New Radio Program Initiated By College Of Agriculture

A new radio program to be known as "Here and There with the Homemakers" has been initiated by the College of Agriculture thru the courtesy of WHAS. This program will be broadcast eyery Saturday at 11:50 a. m. Central Standard Time, (12:50 p. m. Eastern Standard or Daylight Saving Time), and will be devoted entirely to activities of the homemakers and home demonstration service in Kentucky. In this weekly discussion on homemakers' affairs, the plan to give brief accounts of happenings among the homemakers' clubs all over Kentucky, human interest stories of achievements and accomplishments of homemakers, interesting activities and unsual programs presented by these clubs.

On last Saturday Miss Vivian Curnutt, home improvement specialist who has come to Boone County monthly since last October, spoke on "What's Been Going on Through the State in her Home Improvement Project." Reference was made to the Rug Making project in Boone County and 3 times during the broadcast she spoke of the work being done in the Homemakers' clubs. Special reference was made to the hooked rug work done by Mrs. Rod Hughes, Walton, and Mrs. Carl Campbell, Hebron. It would be worthwhile for Homemakers and others to hear this broadcast and are requested to tune in next Saturday.

Rev. R. Lee James and family, of Evansville, Indiana, spent several days here last week with Dr. M. A. Yelton and family and attended the graduation exercises at the local school.

COUNTY-WIDE MEETING SET

BY AMERICAN RED CROSS AT FLORENCE SCHOOL—NURSING PROGRAM TO BE DISCUSSED AND REPORTS MADE.

On Wednesday, May 28th, the Boone County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a county-wide meeting at the Florence School, at 2 p. m. Rev. J. Russell Cross, County Chairman, will preside over the meeting, and will introduce Mrs. Hazel Fish, executive secretary of the Campbell County Chapter; Mrs. Lucy T. Hume, executive secretary of the Kenton County Chapter; and several members of the Kenton County delegation to the National Convention of the Red Cross held in Washington, D. C., in April.

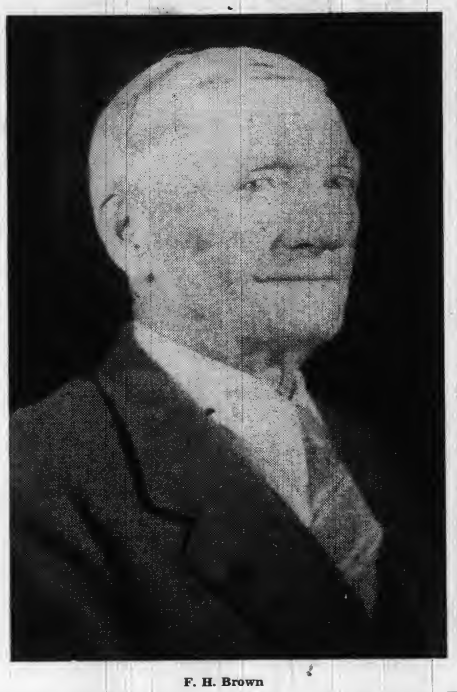
The nursing program being sponsored by the local chapter will be discussed and reported on, and the War Production Quotas will be discussed and plans made for carrying out effectively the work of the chapter in sewing and knitting for the months to come.

The nursing activities committee will have charge of the refreshments to be served, under the leadership of its chairman, Mrs. Kirtley Cropper. Mrs. Cropper will be assisted by the other members, namely, Mrs. Lula Huey, Miss Elizabeth Lowry, R. N., Miss Lucy Lee Grant, Mrs. Jane Utz and Mrs Walter Ferguson.

Mrs. Martha L. Huey, Chairman of the Boone County Production Work, will have a meeting of her county-wide committee after the general meeting.

All the women of Boone County are earnestly urged to attend this very important meeting to learn of the activities of the Red Cross in general, and of their own local chapter in particular.

Miss Nellie I. Gurney



Miss Nellie Inskip Gurney, retired Big Four Railroad employee, died Sunday at her home on Erlanger Road, Erlanger, following an illness of several months. An employee in the passenger department of the railroad in Cincinnati for 47 years, Miss Gurney retired in 1939. She had been a resident of Erlanger for 45 years.

Three brothers, T. H. Gurney, Richmond, Va., John M. Gurney, Erlanger, and W. L. Gurney, Chicago, and two sisters, Mrs. M. J. Mitchell and Mrs. Helen Gaines, both of Erlanger, survive her.

Funeral services were conducted at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger, Tuesday afternoon, followed by rites at the grave in Highland cemetery at 2:30.

Philip Taliaferro was in charge of arrangements.

Defense Committee Meets

The county agricultural and nutrional National Defense committees met at Burlington Tuesday, May 20th, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The National Defense needs in agricultural production and more efficient use of foods in supplying the Nation with a better diet were outlined by Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Agent, and local leaders.

Plans were made for holding of local meetings, and use of newspaper publicity and circular letters to inform people of present needs.

Elza Allensworth

Elza Allensworth, 713 Bedinger Avenue, Erlanger, retired riverman, died Sunday at Booth Hospital, Covington, following an illness of several months. He was 80 years old.

He is survived by a daughter, Miss Fannie Allensworth, Glendale, Calif., and two sons, Leonard Allensworth, Erlanger, and Chester Allensworth, Ludlow.

Funeral services were conducted at the Bullock and Catherman funeral home, Ludlow, at 2 o'clock Tuesday. Burial was in Highland cemetery.

BELLEVIEW, BIG BONE WIN AGAIN

AS PETERSBURG BEATS HEBRON IN COUNTY LEAGUE—LOCAL TEAM GET FIRST SETBACK IN SEMIPRO LEAGUE.

Belleview maintained its perfect record for the season by nosing out Burlington in a close game at the local park Saturday. Aylor pitched the winners to a 2 to 1 victory when he limited his opponents to six scattered hits, while his teammates collected nine off Gulley to get their one-run margin. Burlington's only tally came in the first inning as the result of an infield error. Belleview tied the score in the third and pushed what proved to be the winning run across the plate in the fourth on a couple of singles and a stolen base. From then on it was a pitchers' battle with neither team being able to score another run.

Petersburg got into the winning column at the expense of Hebron when it greeted its guest at the Petersburg park with a 9 to 1 trouncing. D. Deck limited his opponents to five hits for the game while his rivals on mound, Mellin and Watts were forced to give up twelve. Hebron's only run was made in the sixth when a Petersburg outfielder lost a fly ball in the sun.

Big Bone outslugged the CCC team to defeat the Walton boys 11 to 8 at Big Bone. After the winners had scored four times in their first trip to the plate, CCC came right back in the next inning to tie the score and then in the fourth to add three more runs for a three-run lead. But in the seventh Big Bone scored four runs again and added two in the eighth and one in the last inning, which the losers were unable to offset it with their additional run in the eighth. Wood was on the mound for the winners, opposed by Wolfe and Lea.

Games Saturday will consist of Petersburg at Big Bone, Belleview at Hebron, and CCC at Burlington.

The standing of the teams are:

	Won	Lost
Belleview	2	0
Big Bone	2	0
Hebron	1	1
Petersburg	1	1
Burlington	0	2
CCC	0	2

The Boone County All-Stars suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the confident Pleezing Foods team at the local park Sunday by an 8 to 3 count. After getting off to a slow start, during which its opponent scored six runs in the first and second frames, the local team settled down to play and for the next seven innings more than matched its opponent play-for-play, but was unable to overcome the early lead established by the Campbell County team. The winners collected ten hits off the pitching of Shinkle, while the local team got eight off Munn, the winners' hurler.

The All-Stars will meet the Wiedemann team at the local park in their next game.

Judge Riddell States Fishing Good In Texas

Judge N. E. Riddell, who is visiting friends in Texas, stated last week on a card received from him, that fishing was fine. He reports that plenty of mackerel and pompano are being caught near the Port Aransas fishing club.

We are glad to know that the Judge is having good luck angling, and our only regret is that we are unable to enjoy the fishing with him.

Tuberculosis Meeting Set For May 22nd

A meeting to make some plans for care and prevention of Tuberculosis in Boone County will be held in the court room, Burlington, Thursday, May 22nd at 7 p. m., Central Time.

All those interested in this movement are urged to attend.

First Tobacco Is Set This Season

The first tobacco to be set in the county this year was set last Saturday. Mr. J. J. Klopp set 1 acre; Mr. Floyd Snyder ¾ acre, and Lewis Slayback 1¼ acres. All three of these men live in the Petersburg neighborhood.

F. H. BROWN ENTERS RACE

FOR COUNTY JUDGE OF BOONE COUNTY—IS GRADUATE OF A. & M. COLLEGE, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

In this issue of The Recorder will be found the official announcement of F. H. Brown, of the Belleview precinct, for the office of County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2nd, 1941.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of the A. & M. College of Lexington, where he studied law. In 1908 he was instrumental in organizing the Citizens Deposit Bank of Belleview, where he served as director and cashier several years. He served as a member of the Belleview school board for 12 years and acted as secretary and treasurer while on this board. He married Grace M. Rogers of Belleview, daughter of the late Boon Rogers.

Mr. Brown's statement follows:

"I am not a candidate for any parties desiring to sell merchandise to the county and if elected I pledge myself to handle all county money in such a way as to get full benefit from it.

"I further pledge to faithfully discharge all the duties of the office and be at my post six days each week. I believe in probation and will show mercy at all times."

Several Cited To Court By Wardens Busby And Johnson

Conservation officers Johnson and Busby made several arrested Sunday while patroling the Ohio River. Those cited to appear in court were as follows:

Wm. Davis, Sayler Park, Cincinnati, fishing without a license.

Herman Willis, Patriot, Ind., fishing without a license, fined $29.50. He was unable to pay his fine and was placed in the Burlington jail.

Another person whose name was not obtained was cited to Federal Court on a charge of shooting ducks out of season on the Ohio River.

Mr. Johnson and Mr. Busby also reported that six illegal nets were confiscated by them while patroling the river Sunday.

Referral Agent Announces Change CCC Eligibility Rules

Mrs. Jane G. Utz, Referral Agent announced that, effective May 1 1941, the "six month" is revised—a former honorably discharged enrollee is eligible for reselection after three months has elapsed since the date of his CCC discharge, providing he meets all other requirements.

JUNE 3RD LAST DAY TO REGISTER

PERSONS WHO HAVE CHANGED PRECINCTS OR WHO HAVE RECENTLY BECOME RESIDENTS SHOULD REGISTER.

Voters of Boone County are reminded that June 3rd is the last day to register in order to be eligible to participate in the county primary, Saturday, August 2, 1941, Mr. C. D. Benson announced this week.

Persons, who have moved from one precinct to another are required to register, in order to be eligible to vote in the primary. All persons who have recently moved into the county also must register.

Many voters thruout the county who are registered other than Democrats are under the impression that they will be entitled to vote in the Democratic primary. According to the laws of Kentucky they cannot be issued a ballot in this election, as changes in party must be made following a primary election.

FOUR-H SPRING RALLY MAY 24TH

MEMBERS WILL MEET AT BURLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL FOR ALL-DAY SESSION—INTERESTING PROGRAM PLANNED.

The annual Spring Rally for Boone County 4-H clubs will be held in the auditorium of the Burlington High School on Saturday, May 24th. The program will begin at 10:00 a. m. C. S. T. Local leaders, club members, parents and friends of the 4-H club members are expected to attend.

Features of the program include 4-H songs led by Mr. J. F. Moore, a talk on the club members and Citizenship by Rev. J. Russell Cross; Style Revue of Clothing completed by girls' project groups; team demonstrations in approved Farm and Home practices; and group games directed by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore and H. B. Drake. H. R. Forkner, County Agent, will be chairman of the program and Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie will discuss plans for summer 4-H club activities. A picnic lunch will be spread in the cafeteria at noon.

Winners of the Style Revue and Team Demonstration contests will be presented ribbons. The Style Revue champion will receive a trip to Junior Week to be held at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, June 9-14. Winning demonstration teams will represent the county in the district contest at Dry Ridge, May 30. Judges will be Miss Louise Tucker and Katherine Russell, Home Demonstration Agents from Campbell and Carroll counties, respectively, and Marion K. Williams, Assistant County Agent, of Kenton County.

Committees of local leaders will assist with the events of the day. Program arrangements are being made by Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie, Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Home Demonstration Agents, and H. R. Forkner and H. B. Drake, agricultural agents.

Youth Injured While Stretching Barb Wire

Raymond Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tucker of near Burlington suffered severe injuries to his hands when a barb wire which he was helping stretch broke. Both of the youth's hands were badly lacerated by the barbs.

3 VOLUNTEERS READY FOR JUNE

CALL—TWENTY-TWO MEN NOW QUALIFIED AND READY FOR CALL AT ANY TIME—QUESTIONNAIRES TO BE MAILED.

Draft Board No. 9, Burlington, reported this week that three volunteers will be inducted into Selective Service June 3rd at the induction post Ft. Thomas, Ky.

Those who fill the quota for June are Wallace Roosevelt Delph, Burlington, Ruther Dempsey Hodges, Burlington and Chas. Wm. Anderson, Jr., Ludlow.

At the present time twenty-two men are ready for call, having been physically examined and are qualified. The number required for the next call is not known, but it is necessary for the Board to have a certain number ready at all times.

C. G. Kelly, Clerk of the Local Draft Board announced that all questionnaires will be mailed to registrants in the near future, which should be filled out and returned to the Board at once. After all questionnaires have been returned, each man will receive his classification.

Land Use Planning Committees Complete Preliminary Work

The Boone County Land Use Planning Program Committees have completed their preliminary work with the holding of this second series of meetings in nine communities. The final meeting was held at Constance on last Tuesday evening.

A summary of the work of the committees to date will be published in the near fuutre in mimeographed bulletin form, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. This summary will be supplied all committeemen assisting in the meetings and to others on request.

Land use planning has for its purpose the identifying of local agricultural problems on the basis different soil types, based on the experience of leading farmers residing in these soil type areas. Each soil type, regardless of community boundaries is grouped together after they have been outlined by the community committeemen. A marked resemblance of farm problems on any soil type is found regardless of community boundaries. The survey will cover a period of years and gives promise of uncovering solutions of many basic agricultural problems from angles that have not heretofore been clearly understood.

LADIES TO GIVE CHICKEN DINNER DECORATION DAY

The Ladies' Aid of Hopeful Lutheran Church will serve a baked chicken dinner Decoration Day, May 30th from 11:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. in the church basement. The public is cordially invited to attend.

NEW HIGHWAY PLANS PROGRESS

CONSTRUCTION WORK EXPECTED TO BEGIN IN NEAR FUTURE, ACCORDING TO CHAS. W. RILEY.

Work is progressing very nicely in obtaining right-of-way for the new road around Florence, which will eliminate the bottleneck, according to Chas. W. Riley, County Attorney. He states that construction work will begin immediately after all deeds for right of way have been obtained.

The State Highway Department has awarded a contract to the Fuller Davies Co., Frankfort, for construction of the new link in the Dixie which will skirt Florence. The new strip of highway will be nearly a half-mile long, beginning where the present four-lane highway ends at the north limits of Florence and joining the present roadway again at the intersection of Highways 42 and 25 south of Florence. The new road will be located east on Florence, thereby eliminating the sharp bend in the center of the town.

The new road is to be 42 feet wide in its driving surface, with six-inch curbs on each side, a two-foot grass plot on either side and a 3½-foot sidewalk on each side.

The Fuller Davies Co. bid was $44,254.15, which includes grading, draining and surfacing of the new highway and sidewalks.

THE DIVORCE GAME

A divorce was granted yesterday to a woman who used the grounds that her husband of five weeks had married her under false pretenses. The lady was trusting and the bonds were severed when she discovered her error in judgment. This is one instance and there are hundreds given on equally as foolish grounds. Not all marriages are made in heaven and divorces are certainly proof that man enters the scene with poorly constructed laws. Of all the divorces that are granted for no level-headed reason, of marriages made while drink overcomes reason, vows drunkenly taken and regreted when the participants sober up. There should be a stop to hasty marriages, a halt to divorces granted on the flimsiest of causes. It is hard to convice people that marriages are made in heaven, that bonds are holy, when you find divorces handed out so freely and carelessly.

LOOK AHEAD, LABOR

The labor picure is much brighter calls a headline and this is an aspirin tablet to those who felt the picture was too dark for American-made comfort. The fact that there are two sides to every story makes us certain, even without the advice of those in the midst of it, that labor has rights and demands that must be met in order to provide harmony. The side of capital must have an audience as well But during the discussion of strikes on defense jobs, the public in general seems to be more willing to judge against labor than for it. We are thinking in terms of our own skin, I guess. Perhaps if the labor picture is brighter it means that there are hopes for us, that we can get busy and produce to capacity for the maintainence of peace at home. Let labor troubles be solved by mediation and be solved squarely, but don't let labor trouble draw us into a fate worse than wages and hours discord, a fate that would make labor trouble look a bit childish—Hitler trouble is a worse death.

MORE FUN

There will probably be friends of ours in Boone County who will put on a long, sad face and insist that, from the way things look now, they won't be having much fun this summer. They insist the future won't hold much in the way of a good time, for they can't afford it. Perhaps we won't have the amount of pleasure we have had other years, but other years we had a billion dollar's worth of fun, and in round number that is a heap of enjoyment! American's spent more than half this amount a year for movies. Of course it wasn't all fun for some of the movies we saw weren't worth the admission price. Bowling alleys come in for almost fifty million dollars a year and this pleasure is on the increase. Maybe you helped to spend some of the forty million at the race tracks and in the country's pool parlors. You no doubt added your bit to the fund for professional baseball, which comes sixth in the lineup of pleasures. You are going to have some fun this summer when last year you helped to make the figure a billion dollar's worth.

BROADENING CHRISTIAN HORIZONS: PETER'S VISION

LESSON TEXT—Acts 11:5-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons.—Acts 10:34.

"The best argument for Christianity is a Christian" (Henry Drummond). Peter presented just such an argument when, early in the history of Christianity, there arose a difference of opinion regarding his ministry to a Gentile and his family. The stumbling stone of offense became a stepping stone to higher things, leading to the place of broader horizons. Peter, instead of appealing to his apostolic authority or asserting his position, simply related what God had done. He presented the best proof that God had actually been at work; namely, a redeemed soul.

We may learn from this lesson that the way to broadened horizons and greater usefulness for the church is by

I. A Vision of God's Plan (vv. 5-10).

All men are equally precious in God's sight. God taught Peter very effectively that, whether Gentile or Jew, the Lord is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (II Pet. 3:9).

When God speaks we do well to give heed to His message, even though it cuts across our ideas and prejudices, as it often does. It is not our plan that is important; it is God's plan and purpose. As we walk in that way we shall have

II. An Experience of God's Power (vv. 11-15).

The Holy Spirit had fallen on the Gentiles and they actually had been saved. Is it not singular that in the early church they could hardly believe that a Gentile could be saved? Now we are astonished if a Jew is saved! Why will we in our unbelief limit the Holy One of Israel?

The all-powerful gospel of the grace of God is still saving men and women, Jews and Gentiles, from their sins. Have you seen it happen? It is a great inspiration to faith and service. God is ready so to encourage us—He is the same today as He was when He sent Peter to Cornelius. Are we willing to run His errands, proclaim His message? To do so we need

III. An Appreciation of God's Word (v. 16).

The best way to learn the meaning of God's Word is to use it, live it, obey it. "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God" (John 7:17). Peter had learned anew that God's Word meant just what it said. We who are God's servants should believe His Word and act on it in faith.

Observe that Cornelius had gathered a group in his household to hear the Word of God (Acts 10:27, 33). Could we not do the same? "Cannot each calculate with exactness some time and place where the gospel is to be preached, and is it not possible to bring thither one's relatives and friends? Secondly, when present in a place of worship, cannot each be prepared to say, 'We are all here present'—all, family and friends, mind as well as body; 'in the sight of God'—not to be seen by others, not conscious so much of others as of the presence of God; 'to hear all things'—not to be amused or to sleep; 'that have been commanded thee of the Lord'—not to listen to human conjecture or the exploiting of doubts, but to receive a positive message which is delivered in a reverent spirit and with the prophetic formula: 'Thus saith the Lord.' What would happen were all Christian churches filled with such audiences?" (Charles R. Erdman).

This brings us to what is most important of all in broadening our spiritual horizons.

IV. An Understanding of God's Love (vv. 17, 18).

God's love is for all people. Since He has not raised any barriers of race, creed, color, class, or social position, it is not for His followers, and assuredly not for His servants, to set up hindering restrictions which He does not countenance. If God intended to save Gentiles, Peter wanted to be an instrument in His hand, not a hindrance in His way. One of the needs of our day is that those doing God's work should not withstand Him and His love. He who is the same yesterday, today, and forever, is ready to work as powerfully today as He did in the days of Peter and Paul, or of Finney and Moody. Let us give Him liberty to work in and through us, not as we may wish, but as He desires. Who are we that we should withstand God?

Goal of Life

Oh, yet we trust that, somehow,
Good will be the final goal of ill,
That nothing walks with aimless feet,
That not one life shall be destroyed,
Or cast as rubbish to the void,
When God has made the pile complete.—Tennyson.

That fellow wasn't too crazy who escaped from an insane asylum to return home in order to get "a good square meal."

In every man's life, some woman has at one time thought him really wonderful.

Why Be Old At 40?

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

Do you have severe pains in the muscles or your legs?

Do you walk with toes pointed out?

Are you bedeviled by a thousand demons tearing at your back?

Do you hate to get up in the morning?

Do you experience foot pain when walking?

Can you be on your feet all day without fatigue?

Any or all of these conditions may indicate that one or more of the four arches of your feet are on the verge of collapse. There is really no end to the trouble that such a condition could cause. Around the bones and muscles of your feet are numerous nerves, all of which are directly connected with the nerve center. Severe pains in your feet are transmitted to every part of your body.

What can you do about it?

For years men and women have withstood the aches and misery due to some foot condition and have always decked "There is nothing you can do about it."

Now Comes a Sure Way to Relief for many aches and pains due to faulty foot condition. You will be eager to rise each morning and meet the conditions of the new day. You will have the springy active step of a youngster of eighteen. You will not be old at forty! There is no secret to it. You don't have to take a long rest, nor a change of climate. You need only to be correctly fitted in a pair of surgical shoes. You may think this is a simple way to end all of pain and misery, you have been suffering for a good many years, but after all don't the simplest things in life bring the greatest joy?

Resolve today that you will pronounce the death sentence on the misery aches and pains due to foot trouble.—Adv.

They're Saying No!

Beer retailers are frequently asked to violate the law. But they're saying "No"—because they realize that a clean, law-abiding establishment is the best "insurance policy" their business can have.

That is why most beer retailers want to, and do, co-operate with the Kentucky brewing industry's self-regulation program. They want to be among the great majority of reputable retailers who know that good conduct is good business.

You can help us—by patronizing only the reputable places where beer is sold and by reporting to us any objectionable conditions you may observe.

TRAINING MEET HELD WEDNESDAY

IN CONNECTION WITH MATTRESS PROGRAM — VOLUNTEER LEADERS RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS.

A training meeting for Homemakers volunteer leaders in the mattress program was held at the local mattress center on Wednesday, May 14. The day was spent in learning to make the cotton mattresses. Two demonstration mattresses were made; thus each one present had a chance to participate in all the detail procedures necessary to complete a mattress. The training class was conducted by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute Home Demonstration Agent.

It was pointed out in the discussion that this is a cooperative program to help ones self while helping another. Those who make a mattress will have worked for it. The small fee paid was necessary to defray expenses included in setting up the center and in carrying on the program. The cotton being used by purchased by the Government as surplus cotton to aid the cotton farmer of the South in securing a living wage for his product.

The program will give non-members of the Homemakers clubs an opportunity to benefit by the worthwhile information available through that organization and the University of Kentucky Extension Service. The standards considered good in selection and care of bed clothing will be the basis of the educational work in connection with the project. It is the desire of the Home Demonstration Agent and the Homemakers that members will be added to the club rolls because of benefits derived from the mattress making program.

Leaders who attended the training school were Mrs. Vernon Pope, Mrs. Grover Jarrell, Burlington; Mrs. A. B. Ligon, Mrs. Huey Aylor, Mrs. Anna Engle, Mrs. Marshall Bullittsville; Mrs. Chas. Klopp, Miss Edna Berkshire, Petersburg; Mrs. Lorie Morith, Florence; Mrs. Christina Kirtley, Miss Marion Rogers, Grant; Mrs. Maude Wilson, Mrs. Pearl Lamn, Mrs. Sibbia Gordon, Mrs. Walter King, Verona; Mrs. Flora Tanner, Hebron; Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mrs. Ida Mae Ryle, Rabbit Hash.

Public Invited To Attend Silver Tea

Everyone is invited to attend a Silver Tea, May 27th at 2 o'clock C. S. T. at the Burlington courthouse, for the benefit of the Homemakers' lending library.

Mrs. Hale Ornell of Tulsa, Okla., will present a portrayal of "Washington Slept Here." This play has been running on Broadway for some time.

This county is very fortunate in having this charming and talented monologist as a guest artist.

Utopia Committee Plans Program

The Boone County Utopia Club program planning committee met at Burlington Friday, May 16, and planned a meetir g program for the last six months of 1941, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The program will be presented to the members at the regular meeting, Thursday evening, May 22nd. Carl Jones, club specialist, and a number of charter members will take part in the Thursday evening meeting.

BELLEVIEW

John Maurer is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Sherman Burcham and Mrs. C. A. Berkshire are on the sick list. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

The W. M. U. held its regular meeting at the church Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin was calling on her father K. K. Berkshire Saturday evening.

Several relatives were calling on Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Berkshire Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith, of Burlington, were calling on her brother, John Maurer, Saturday. He is very ill.

Mrs. Neva Sebree spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur and family spent Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Jeff McNeely and Mrs. Espy Ligon and daughter were calling on Mrs. Hilda Mae Sebree one day last week.

Everett Clore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Kite.

Mrs. Willard Ryle was calling on Mrs. Anna Cason last Friday. Glad to report she is slowly improving.

Last month 700 head, of cattle were given T. B. tests in Webster county, to make the county accredited.

Donations Made To Dearborn County Fair

Mr. Leonard Haag, secretary of the Dearborn County Fair, Lawrenceburg, Ind., which will be held one month later this year, the week of August 18 to 23rd inclusive, announced this week that R. N. Nanz, manager of the Old Quaker Co., C. O. Brein, president of the A. D. Cook Co., Inc., advised the Fair Board that their respective firms would again make their usual contributions to the racing purses.

M. F. Cook, manager of Joseph F. Seagram Co., advised that in keeping with their policy of encouraging raising of better farm crops and animals, will offer $10 for the best ten ears of yellow corn; $10.00 for the best one-half peck of rye, and $10.00 for the best 4-H hog shown at this year's fair.

This splendid cooperation of these Lawrenceburg firms help make the Dearborn County Fair, the leading County Fair in this section of the country, and the American Legion is grateful for this splendid support.

Local Epworth League Have Interesting Meeting

The Epworth League met Sunday night at the Methodist Church. A very interesting and inspiring talk was given to the young people by T. O. Harrison in which he explained the purpose of the League, our duty to the Church as young people, what we could do to save souls. We were glad to learn that we are to play a prominent part in the revival meeting starting next Sunday night.

Next meeting will be held Sunday night at the Church at 6:45 p. m. This meeting is to elect new officers for the coming year. All young people are urged to come and bring a friend. We want this league to be your league. We want you to feel that it is your responsibility to make it bigger and better than ever before!

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

The Burlington Homemakers met at the courthouse on May 15. It was a meeting in which several chairmen had a lot to give us. The Citizenship chairman suggested ways in which the Clean-Up Campaign committee might get greater response.

Sponsored by the County Citizenship committee a Silver Tea will be given in the Florence Christian Church on July 31. Mrs. Ann Stewart and Mrs. Lan will be the speakers for the afternoon. This promises to be interesting and entertaining. To hear an author of one's own community is quite a treat. Many are familiar with her "Let The Earth Speak." Mrs Lane is of the committee on Beautification of Highways and as our Exterior Beautification project is so much allve, a lot will be gained from her talk.

While this is such a good program and a full one also, there is yet another highlight. There are those who have been interested in the Lloyd Home and wished that it were possible to go through it. On this day the home will be opened. Those who have read Stringtown on the Pike and other of John Uri Lloyd's books will appreciate this opportunity.

These books may soon be available to persons who have not read them. Burlington Homemakers' club is to have a lending library from which books may be obtained very reasonable. Books may now be obtained from the State library. Any book may be kept in the club for two months. The reading chairman has a list of books covering all subjects from which to choose. This project will prove to be educational and afford relaxation, so should be heartily accepted.

The chairman on Citizenship stressed the fact that the local Red Cross is urgently in need of knitters and women who can sew. There is an allotment of yarn on hand, which the Red Cross chairman is anxious to give out to women who are willing to knit. Women who can not knit and would rather not learn, but who are willing to do their bit can help by sewing. There is a large quota of children's dresses on hand. These are simple patterns and the material is that which is easily handled—thus, we are urged to put our shoulders to the wheel. Get in touch with Mrs. Kirtley Cropper and Mrs. Bernard Gaines, respectively concerning same.

At this time of year the ladies start thinking and talking trips and tours. Much time was given over to the discussion, but no decision made, nevertheless a good time is in view sometime in July.

Knitted rugs was the subject for the day. No lady could see these quaint and original designed rugs without hoping to make one.

The lesson was well presented by the assistant project leader in the absence of the lead.

Anyone who is interested in becoming a Homemakers will be welcomed at the next meeting which will be the first Thursday in June.

In Laurel county, aluminum wire scarcity because of national defense needs has slowed down rural electrification.

RINGLING-BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS TO EXHIBIT IN NEARBY CITY.

With Mr. and Mrs. Gargantua the Great, the world's most publicized gorilla couple, as its superfeature, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus will exhibit in Cummingsville, June 7th and 8th, bringing to that city 1,600 people, 50 elephants, 1,009 menagerie animals and hundreds of horses. The performances will start at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m., with the doors open at 1 and 7 p. m., admitting the public to the radically restyled menagerie, gorilla tent, horse fair and big top—all redesigned by Norman Bel Geddes, of New York World's Fair Futurama fame.

Among the outstanding features are: the new fairyland fantasy, "Old King Cole and Mother Goose" designed and costumed by Bel Geddes, with ensembles staged by the famous Albertina Rasch, Hollywood and New York musical show dance director: Alfred Court's three mixed groups of performing wild animals of almost every known specie, appearing simultaneously in three steel arenas; the new Birdland aerial ballet, starring Elly Ardelty and costumed by Max Weldy of Paris; the many aerial and novelty acrobatic troupes from South America, headed by the three famous Flying Diego-Fernandez acts; the new high school and liberty horse offerings, headed by Viscomte Roberta Vasconcellos, the famous Riding Cristianis; the great Truzzi, juggler; the three Flying Coucello troupes, with Antoinette. In all, 800 performers.

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers will meet at the Town Hall, Thursday, May 22nd, at 10 a. m.

Roll Call: Helpful hints for keeping peace and unity in the home.

Project Lesson: Knitted rugs, bring your materials and a pair of knitting needles No. 7, if possible.

During the morning there will be a business session and interesting information about their work given by the chairmen of the minor projects and other leaders.

Let's all get together and make this a big day.

ON GUARD

Against Interruptions to Your Electric Service
YOU probably know him as Tom or Dick or Joe, a friend and neighbor. There's nothing spectacular about him and he doesn't claim to be a hero, but his role is an important one in seeing that you get dependable electric service.
When Nature goes on a rampage and causes breaks in power lines, he's the fellow who braves driving rain, howling wind or stinging sleet to locate the source of the trouble and restore service with a minimum of delay. Unmindful of personal discomfort and the risk of injury, he is ready day or night to go wherever duty calls. At his disposal, if needed, are motorized line crews, skilled engineers and nearby reserve stocks of materials and supplies. All are part of an organization geared for quick action in emergency.
Every effort is made to prevent interruptions to service, but when occasionally they do occur, in spite of all precautions, it is comforting to know that your electric serviceman is on the job with but one thought in mind—to restore the flow of current as quickly as is humanly possible.
Good Electric Service Doesn't Just Happen
It takes a huge investment in costly generating, transmission and distribution equipment; the expenditure of large sums annually for maintenance and taxes; the ceaseless efforts and constant watchfulness of a trained personnel. It takes all this and more to render good electric service, yet electricity is one of the smallest items in the average household budget.

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

Robert Young is getting those "different" roles that he has been hunting.

His first "different" opportunity came with "Northwest Passage" in which he played a scout. Then he portrayed a "heavy" in "Mortal Storm" and more recently he was given a gun, spurs and a bucking horse for his role in Zane Grey's "Western Union," which 20th Century-Fox filmed in Technicolor.

"I liked 'Mortal Storm,'" Bob said. "I felt that at last I had a role I could sink my teeth into. It was more than just good manners and debonair speech.

"That's true, too, of my role in Western Union.' Can you imagine Bob Young as quick on the trigger? It's a challenge to see if I can do it. That's what makes the role interesting."

SATURDAY

Police guarded two machine guns for days as they figured in a gangster battle on a Hollywood sound stage. These were the weapons used by Edward Arnold, as a gang overlord, in "The Penalty," film transcription of Martin Kerkeley's New York stage hit. Because of eagerness of criminals to obtain these weapons they are kept under lock and key in studios and only brought out with a detective in constant charge. "The Penalty" is the story of the reformation of the young son of a gangster amid simple folk on a "Down East" farm.

TUESDAY
(Double Feature)

One of the most poignant. human dramas of the current season, Columbia's "Girls Under 21," will be shown at the Gayety. Bruce Cabot, Rochelle Hudson and Paul Kelly are featured in the story of a young school teacher's efforts to regenerate a group of hard-boiled 'teen-age youngsters, who prefer reform school to their dirty, "Dead End" street. Max Nosseck directed the film from a story by Jay Dratler and Fanya Foss.

Also

Ferd Niblo, who plays the illfated John Braun in Columbia's "Ellery Queen Master Detective," starring Ralph Bellamy, was one of Hollywood's foremost directors. Among his outstanding achievements were "Ben Hur" and "Blood and Sand," Rudolph Valentino's biggest success. He retired to private life ten years ago, but returned to the screen as an actor when he could stand the boredom of idleness no longer.

BLUEGRASS BOYS' STATE

The American Legion of Kentucky will conduct its second annual Boys' State at Western Kentucky State Teachers College, Bowling Green, June 8 through June 14. This project is one which deserves the understanding and commendation of every citizen of Kentucky.

Its purpose is to train the youth of the state in the fundamentals of good citizenship and primary governmental function under a democracy. High school boys of the age of 15 to 18, inclusive, make up the Boys' State.

They are sent to Bowling Green under the sponsorship of American Legion posts and of other interested civic and patriotic organizations. Some individuals who have realized the merit of the project also act as sponsors. There the boys are placed in charge of Legionnaires who are especially qualified as educators, law-makers or other public officials.

Under this leadership, they are organized into two symbolic political parties. They prepare platforms, nominate candidates, conduct campaigns and elect officers of a state, county and city.

Then these units of government are operated by the boys for the remainder of the week. Many problems which face public officials are met and solved by these boys. There is provided plenty of recreation under expert supervision, so that every member of the state has an enjoyable as well as an enlightening week.

This is practical laboratory training in citizenship. It supplements and makes clear the class room studies in government provided in the schools. It enables young men to know how democratic government works in practice and to return to their schools to spread that knowledge and understanding among their fellows.

If we are to protect and defend Democracy, our young men must know and understand why it provides the best, most just and workable form of government man has yet devised. This worthy objective the American Legion's Boys' State attains. It deserves our full help, encouragement and support.

VOLUME 65 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1941 NUMBER 51

BOONE TO HAVE X-RAY CLINIC

JULY 15, ACCORDING TO RED CROSS NURSE—DR. JOHN B. FLOYD, OF STATE HEALTH DEPT. TO CONDUCT CLINIC.

Through concerted effort on the part of Boone County Red Cross Nursing Committee Dr. John B. Floyd, Director, Bureau of Tuberculosis, State Department of Health Louisville, Ky., has been secured for an X-Ray clinic in this county on July 15th.

Quoting from the National Tuberculosis Association. "Doctors who have made a study of tuberculosis agree that the chest X-Ray is indispensable in the diagnosis of tuberculosis. Early symptomless disease can not be found by any other method. In advanced disease it is need to show the location and extent of the trouble. The records of sanitoria are full of case-histories proving that early tuberculosis escaped diagnosis because chest X-Rays were not taken in time.

"If we could find ways and means to X-Ray every member of every family in which there has been a death from tuberculosis where particularly children and young people were in contact, and X-Ray every member of a household in which there is a tuberculin-positive child, we would uncover a great amount of tuberculosis now unknown and would prevent much further spread. This search for for tuberculosis in families must not stop with blood relations; it should include everybody who has had a prolonged contact with the family, such as people who have lived in the home for sometime or who were frequent visitors."

Persons will not be taken at this clinic just because someone for no good reason decides he would like to have an X-Ray. If you think you should have a chest X-Ray, consult your doctor, and then if he thinks it should be done, make your appointment with the County Red Cross Nurse. Call Burlington 141.

A small fee to cover the cost of film will be charged for each picture. It is most likely there will be no time left for those who do not make their appointments early.

Homemade moving pictures of Mexico taken by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott and sons were shown.

TWO TEAMS TIED FOR TOP PLACE

IN BOONE COUNTY LEAGUE STANDING—ALL STARS DROP ANOTHER GAME IN SEMI-PRO LEAGUE.

Belleview defeated Hebron by the score of 5 to 1 at Hebron Saturday, in a game in which only one earned run was made in the nine innings of play. Aylor turned in a masterful performance on the mound for the winners, pitching a two -hit game in which he gave not a base on ball and hit one batsman and did not allow an earned run to be made on his pitching. Hebron's only tally was made on an error. Jones also pitched an excellent game, holding the winners to six safe blows and one earned tally, made on successive doubles by H. Ryle and P. Ryle. Belleview's other runs were scored on errors.

Big Bone came out on the long end of the score in a free-scoring contest and turned back Petersburg 15 to 14 at the Big Bone Park. Each team experienced difficulty in retiring the opposing batsmen before they had scored runs, due to numerous base hits and several errors in recovering the ball. D. Deck, Mahan, and E. Deck divided the pitching duties for Petersburg, while C. Black went all the way on the hill for the winners.

Burlington swmaped CCC in a one-sided slugging affair 21 to 7 at the local park. The winners scored two runs in the opening frame and five more in the second, to get a safe lead, upon which their pitcher, Akin, coasted through the rest of the game, giving up 14 hits. Cox and Smith gave up 16 safe blows, five for two bases and one for three, and six walks while performing on the mound for CCC.

Saturday, Big Bone will play at Belleview, CCC at Petersburg, and Hebron at Burlington.

The standing of the teams follows:

	Won	Lost
Belleview	3	0
Big Bone	3	0
Hebron	1	2
Petersburg	1	2
Burlington	1	2
CCC	0	3

The Boone County All-Stars lost their game in the Campbell County Semi-pro League to Goodrich Tires by the store of 14 to 5 at the local park Sunday. The setback gives the All-Stars a record of two victories and two defeats. The local nine was held to seven hits and one base on balls, as Gulley and Kirkpatrick collected two-base knocks. Gulley was on the mound for the All-Stars.

The local team was handicapped by the absence of several of its players, but in addition to having them back, several new players have been obtained to further strengthen the team for the next game, which is with Fort Thomas Florists at the local park.

200 ATTEND 4-H RALLY SATURDAY

PROGRAM CONSISTED OF STYLE REVUE, DEMONSTRATION CONTESTS AND ADDRESS BY REV. J. RUSSELL CROSS.

Approximately 200 people attended the annual spring rally of the county 4-H clubs held at Burlington school Saturday, May 24. The outstanding features on the program were the Style Revue of clothing made by the girls this spring and demonstration contests for home practice and farm practice teams. The highlight of the morning program was a talk entitled "Your Tomorrow's Self" by Rev. J. Russell Cross. The meeting was called to order at 10:00 o'clock by H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Presentation of winners of contests concluded the program that afternoon.

Nine out of ten of the organizations in the county answered roll call. Four-H clubs songs were led by Mr. J. F. Moore and Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Helen Snyder. The group was then divided and those participating in the Junior Girls' Demonstration Contest met in one of the class rooms for this event. The demonstration teams and their placings were as follows Kathryn Kenny and Betty Sturgeon, New Haven, equipped a sewing work box and received a blue ribbon; Margaret Barlow and Helen Rogers, Hebron, demonstrated points in good posture and shared honors for the red ribbon with Mary Hope Chipman and Flossie Locke, Verone, who prepared equipment for canning demonstrations; Betty Jane Pendry and Mary Lou Williamson, Grant, showed how to pack a suitcase for a week's visit and receive white ribbons as did Frances Wilson and Alma Fae Afterkirk, Hamilton, who demonstrated making and applying bias bindings.

The Senior girls' demonstration contest was held that afternoon in the auditorium. The honor of representing the county at the District Contest to be held at Dry Ridge May 30, was won by Wanda Pennington and Mary Katherine Shields, New Haven, who demonstrated how to make tomato soup without soda. Blue ribbons were awarded to Bernice Sebree and Betty Mullins, Florence, who demonstrated the preparing and serving of an afternoon tea. Those teams rating as excellent and receiving red ribbons were Audrey Marksberry and Sue Sayres, Florence, who packed a picnic lunch; Louise McArthur and Emma Mae Brady, Grant, showed the use of eggs in the diet. The last team showed the proper use of seams and was presented by Elaine Gardner and Betty Mullins, of Florence. This team was rated good and received white ribbons.

The Style Revue which was a big feature of the afternoon program was participated in by 24 girls from Florence, Burlington, Grant, New Haven, Verona, Walton and Hamilton. The Grand Champion who will represent the county in the State contest to be held in Lexington June 9-14 during Junior Week was Elaine Gardner, of Florence who wore a summer afternoon costume. Other girls who participated in the contest receiving recognition were as follows. Unit No. 1, those who received blue ribbons were, Betty Herrington, Florence; Loretta Pendry, Grant; red ribbons, Janet Byrne, Florence; Mabel Martin, Florence; Virginia Stevens, Florence; Joyce Sullivan, Florence; white ribbons, Lois Lizer, Burlington; Allie Woods, Florence. Unit II, those who received blue ribbons were Kathleen Keeny, New Haven; Alberta Tanner, Florence; Betty Jane Pendry, Grant; Zada Lee Caldwell, Verona; Bessie Jane Ford, Walton; red ribbons, Betty Sturgeon, New Haven; Mary Lou Williamson, Grant; Willa Maude Deck, Grant; Mary Louise McCubbin, Walton. Earleen O'Hara, New Haven received white ribbon. The New Haven boys will participate in the District Contest at Dry Ridge this Friday.

Four-H leaders served on committees who carried on the various contests and assisted with home demonstration agents. Leaders assisting were Mrs. Lorie Morith, Billye Wilson, Mrs. F. C. Martin, Mrs. A. W. Fullerton, Mrs. Walter Pennington, Mrs. John Masters, Mrs. Irma Marksberry, Mrs. H. R. Forkner, Mrs. S. B. Sleet, Mrs. Walter King, Mrs. Hugh McArthur, Mrs. Marvin Kendall, Mrs. A. B. Nichols, Mrs. Harry Moore, Mrs. Shirley Ferguson, Mrs. E. A. Martin, Mary Yates and Dorothy Tipton, according to Mary Scott Moore, substitute Home Demonstration Agent.

Important Business Meeting At Belleview Christian Church Sun.

There will be a very important business session immediately following services Sunday morning at the Belleview Christian Church and all members are urgently requested to be present.

MEAL PLANNING MAJOR PROJECT

SELECTED BY BOONE COUNTY HOMEMAKERS AT REGULAR MEETING OF COUNCIL HELD MONDAY.

The Boone County Advisory Council selected "Meal Planning" for the major project to be started next fall. The council held its regular spring meeting in the court house last Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Kottmyer, County President of Homemakers, presided at the meeting. She asked for a report from each county chairman. The following chairmen gave reports of work that had been done during the past month and outlined plans for the summer months:

Mrs. Orville Willeford of Florence gave the publicity report. She also gave citizenship report for Mrs C. F. Blankenbeker. Mrs. John Elliott told about the new Homemakers library that will be started in the near future. The Exterior Beautification report was given by Mrs. Garnett Tolin, County Chairman. Plans made by the county nutrition committee at a recent meeting were described by Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Sub. Home Demonstration Agent, reported that 66 mattresses had been made in the county.

The council decided to include methods of balancing meals, new ways of of food preparation and methods of preparing new vegetables in the major project "Meal Planning." Minor project selected to be carried next fall are "Live at Home," Exterior Beautification, and Style Trends.

WOOL POOL TO MEET JUNE 2ND

DIRECTORS AND MEMBERS TO MAKE FINAL REPORTS ON SIGN-UP AND SET DATE FOR SALE OF POOLED CLIP.

Boone County Wool Pool members will meet at Burlington Monday, June 2, at 1:30 p. m., according to H. E. White, president of the association. The directors and members will make their final reports on the signup and will set the date for the sale of the pooled clip.

All sheep growers in the county are invited to sign up and take part in the county pool. The signup is the simple listing with the director or officers of the association the number of fleeces that will be delivered to the pool.

All growers expecting to sell through the pool are urged to list their flocks before Monday. The highest price can be secured only if all wool offered for sale is signed pool wool. Many buyers refuse to bid on the wool until they are assured that they are bidding on signed pool fleeces.

The county pool has proven one of the most successful in the State. It has secured the highest possible cash price for its members for over forty years. It serves as a simple service organization selling the wool for its members direct, arranges for the receiving and paying for each member's individual clip at one of three convenient delivery places in the county, and most of all has an important sales committee of pool members who attempt to see that each member gets correct weights and fair and impartial treatment to all. If you have not signed up your wool—act now. Sign-up not later than Monday.

He is survived by two sons, Robert Alexander, of Atwood, Kenton County, Ollie Alexander, of Elliston, Mrs. Effie Lambert of Granite City, Ill., 13 grandchildren and several other relatives who will mourn his passing.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith of Covington spent Tuesday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith.

BUS SERVICE TO BEGIN JUNE 10TH

BY DIXIE TRACTION CO., OF ERLANGER—COMPLETE SCHEDULE WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN NEAR FUTURE.

It appears that as a result of the application of the High Line Bus Company to the Division of Motor Transportation for the right to operate a bus from Burlington to Florence that the Dixie Traction Co. will begin operation of a bus on this route on or before the 10th day of June.

The Dixie Traction Company having filed exceptions to the application of the High Line Company, and then by mutual agreement, the hearing was continued until September 11, 1941, and a temporary permit was granted the Dixie Company, pending the hearing in September at which time, if all works well, a permit will be issued.

A schedule will be arranged before the line starts operation to suit the convenience of the people of the Burlington community and the Florence vicinity.

Burlington and the county seat of Edmonson county are the only two county seat towns in the Commonwealth that are not served by a bus line or other public carrier.

From Burlington and Boone County Chas. W. Riley, County Attorney and A. D. Yelton attended the hearing and were joined by Robert Hensley at the hearing in Frankfort. The High Line Company was represented by Mr. Koo, the owner and Earl Rodney King, his attorney. The Dixie Company was represented by Walton Dempsey, manager, and Stephen L. Blakely, attorney.

Motion Picture To Start At New Haven

The New Haven school under the sponsorship of the P.-T. A. will again bring to the residents of the Union community a motion picture that will be permanent thruout the summer months.

This is to be the same type of picture as last year which was enjoyed by all. A complete listing of all shows will be carried in the columns of this paper each week.

Local Men Elected As Buffalo Club Officers

At a meeting of the Buffalo Club, an organization of men teachers of Northern Kentucky, held at the Bellevue High School, Wednesday night of last week, D. H. Norris, Superintendent of Boone County Schools was named as auditor for the ensuing year, and J. F. Moore, a teacher in the Belleview school, was elected assistant secretary.

The Buffalo Club is a splendid organization and have added much to betterment of the public schools in this section.

Mrs. D. V. Reese and daughter, Mrs. Lucy Albeiz and Miss Kate Kirkpatrick of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, were calling on Mrs. Lavina Kirkpatrick and daughter last Sunday.

FREE SHOW AT LOCAL SCHOOL

GIVEN UNDER AUSPICES OF COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE CO.—SOUVENIRS AND DOOR PRIZES OFFERED.

A free picture show will be presented by Community Public Service Co., on Tuesday evening, June 3rd, at 8:30 p. m. fast time at the new Burlington school auditorium, according to Mr. Clifford Peebles, local representative of Community Public Service Co.

The Hollywood production "Blame It On Love," is a swift moving romance that will be highly entertaining to both young and old.

No admission will be charged, and in addition there will be given away valuable door prizes and a free souvenir to everyone according to Mr. Peebles.

After the show the 22 carat gold model replica of the one millionth Hotpoint range will be on display. Mr. Peebles is very anxious for all of his Burlington and Boone County friends to be present for this show.

Burlington Group Will Consider Time Change Saturday

A special meeting has been called for all businessmen and residents of this community at the courthouse on Saturday afternoon, May 31st at 2:00 p. m. (C. S. T.) for the purpose of discussing the movement now underway to have a uniform time for this entire section.

Many of our neighboring towns have already adopted Eastern Standard Time in this movement to establish a uniform time for all persons throughout this section. Among those towns recently to adopt fast time, are Louisville, Lexington, Frankfort, Williamstown and Walton. Hebron, Florence, Limaburg, and a large part of Union have been using Eastern Standard Time for several years.

For several years Boone County has been using two different times in different sections of the county. This has been very confusing since all time mentioned had to be designated whether slow or fast. Regardless of whether we have Eastern or Central time, this writer is inclined to believe that a uniform time for all be much more satisfactory, and in a few months citizens will become accustomed to the change, and the difference will never be noticed.

The directors of the local bank will meet Monday, and it is believed that the banking hours will be changed to Eastern time, probably taking effect next Saturday, June 7th.

All persons interested in this movement are requested to be present Saturday afternoon at which time the question will be discussed from all standpoints. If you cannot attend this meeting your letter or postal card addressed to this newspaper office will be brought before the meeting and given proper consideration.

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day stands with special emphasis this year as the symbol of gallantry of those soldiers of the past and present who have served this country in the true American spirit of honor and respect for their native land. Whatever was the cause of battle, how many the years since the banner was carried for a principle, Americans pay honor each spring to a day set aside in commemoration of our soldiers. No greater plea for peace, no more pronounced verdict against war can be uttered than to consider the purpose that brought about the first Memorial observance. While we wave flags and bunting, spread flowers, orate and parade to the day's heroes, we are all wondering why the brave should have had to suffer for the wrongs of the misguided and the selfish, the unjust and the cruel, the power crazed and money mad.

Wars are blights on the pages of history, yet history points out that the daring "have not died in vain," for there comes from the smoke of the battlefield a cleansing of purpose and a new spirit that strives to bring about peace with honor, peace with justice, an armistice for the world. We have pledged to uphold our government, to save her in the name of freedom for the generations to come. Memorial Day is the tribute to those men who have paid with their lives as they march to defend this pledge.

In Boone County we have not forgotten loyalty, nor overlooked the defense offered this nation and county. We are dedicating this day to those men of the wars past and are paying tribute to the spirit of the soldiers of the present. There are sacrifices to be made for liberty and we want those from the past and of the present to know that Memorial Day is not an empty symbol to us but a living, breathing, pulsing evidence of a nation's respect and undying gratitude for defense to continue to preserve the great institutions of our homeland.

NO ROOM FOR IT

We frequently come across magazines and books that give us a bad taste in our mouth, that repels the sense of decency within us and makes us wonder how many people are going to read this thing and be equally disguested. We wonder that it ever reached the newsstands.

Mayor LaGuardia of New York, awhile ago sent a circular to all the newstands in that center and asked them, if after looking around their store, did they see any publications that they would not want their own children to read. If so, why sell it so other children would read it He asked the dealers to refuse to sell the magazines and to acquaint an official with the list of publications which he felt was unfit to be sold. And don't think this is just a problem of New York. It enters every town and creeps into places where schools and churches stand alone in their fight to exterminate the filth. It seems to be more popular these days to watch for what we term "propaganda" in the way of printing matter. This is worthy of noting and stamping out where we know it to exist. But there is the other evil that has been placed on the newstands long before a war woke us to propaganda, indecent literature is equally harmful. Judge it by looking at it from the standpoint of reading matter for youthful eyes and that will be your yardstick for decency.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

BROADENING CHRISTIAN HORIZONS: THE ANTIOCH MOVEMENT

LESSON TEXT—Acts 11:19-30.
GOLDEN TEXT—For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.—Romans 1:16.

Scattered abroad! As the flying sparks and embers from a fire which is wrildly beaten will light many new fires, just so persecution of the early Christians sent them abroad and established new centers for the preaching of the gospel. Verse 19 of our lesson connects with Acts 8:4. The ministry of Philip in Samaria was paralleled by that of others in Phenice, Cyprus, and now in Antioch. That great city was not far from Jerusalem, but it was far from God. A mighty city, rich in trade, it was also deep in all kinds of sin; but there it pleased God to establish a great center of Christian testimony. God loves to do new things (see, for example, II Cor. 5:17; Isa. 43:19; Ps. 33:3; Rev. 21:5).

I. A New Church (vv. 19-21).

What a splendid church it was! Here in the midst of the most evil surroundings the sweet flower of Christian faith grew, as it so often does.

It was a church built upon a faithful testimony by God's chosen witnesses "preaching the Lord Jesus" (v. 20). Their names are not noted, but their message is, and its blessed results. It was a gathering place for all people—Jews and Gentiles. The disciples from Jerusalem preached at first only to the Jews, but God sent others (v. 20), who preached His grace to the Gentiles.

Note also that the Antioch church was a living witness. "The hand of the Lord was with them"—little wonder then that "a great number believed and were turned to the Lord." Your church—and mine—might learn much by studying the church at Antioch.

II. A New Fellowship (vv. 22-26).

The genius of Christianity is fellowship. Those who have a religious belief which makes them exclusive—not willing to fellowship with other Christians—do not truly represent their Lord.

When the church at Jerusalem heard the good news, they sent Barnabas to help the new converts and establish fellowship. He was the ideal man to send, for "he was a good man.' It is far more important that a man be good than that he be brilliant if he is to edify young converts. He was 'full of the Holy Ghost.' He was also 'full of faith,' and no man that is not, need undertake the work of instructing and developing young converts, especially converts from heathenism so dark as that in Antioch. He was free from the love of gold (4:36, 37). He was free from personal ambition and jealousy in his work (vv. 25, 26). He was very sharp-eyed to see the sincerity and promise of a young convert (9:27). 'When he was come, and had seen the grace of God, (he) was glad' " (John W. Bradbury).

Into this new fellowship of life and service the gracious and generous Barnabas brought a new evangelist —Saul, God's prepared man for this hour.

But we have another new thing in our lesson, one of great importance.

III. A New Name (vv. 26-30).

Christian, the beautiful name of those who follow Christ was first used at Antioch. It may have held a measure of contempt (see Acts 26:28; I Pet. 4:16), but it was a remarkably suitable name for those who had come out of paganism now to live, in their old surroundings, a new life, a separated life, the Christ life.

This name "combines Jewish thought with Greek and Latin language, and thus, like the inscription on the cross, bears witness to the universality of Christianity as a religion for the whole world. The idea of 'Christ' (Messiah) is Jewish; the substantive 'Christ' (Christos) is Greek, and the adjectival termination 'ian' (-ianus) is Latin . . . This new name was intended to introduce and mark the difference between Jews and Gentiles on the one hand, and those who, whether Jews or Gentiles, were followers of Jesus Christ . . . The term 'Christian' evidently points to the Person of Christ, and to those who are associated with Him as His followers. It implies and involves union and close association with Christ" (W. H. Griffith Thomas).

Those believers at Antioch not only bore the name, they practiced the life of Christ. Next Sunday we shall study their activity for Christ, for in that city began the great missionary movement which goes on to our day. In our lesson today we have another practical expression of their faith. They gave of their means, "every man according to his abilities," to meet the need of their new-found Jewish brethren in Judea.

The average child asks questions and the average child doesn't wait to hear the answers.

We have reached that time of year when most folks in Boone County have forgotten their New Year's resolutions.

Feet And The Law Of Tissue

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

There is a natural law constantly at work in the tissues of the human body. We must understand that bone, muscle and nerve consist of millions of ever changing tiny bodies called cells. These cells are held together with the tissue fluid and substances of the body.

Therefore bone, muscle and ligament respectively share the influence of this law, that constant tension causes wasting especially in the feet when the body weight which they carry about and support is not evenly distributed and balanced throughout the twelve major bones of the foot framework.

If ligaments are stretched, due to long and careless standing especially — those which bind the weight-supporting and key bones together, these ligaments finally yield in about the fifth or sixth year to strain and abuse and pull away from the bone attachments.

The rest which the night affords is not enough to counteract continuous strain during the day.

This same law holds true of the muscles and tendon attachments of the feet which lift the body weight on the metatarsal heads or pivots. On the other hand, constant pressure causes wasting of tissue.

If the muscles do not hold the weight-bearing joints of feet in proper dovetailing and interlocking action, these joints become deranged, misshaped and deformed because of the pressure of the body weight upon their point surface.

When we consider that we drive hundreds of tons of aggregate weight upon bones of each foot every day that we live it is easily understood why feet degenerate.

Can you be well with unhealthy feet Those headaches, those backaches, those leg pains may be caused by the shoes you are wearing.—Adv.

Three Hybrid Corn Plots Planted For Demonstration

Three hybrid corn variety demonstration plots have been planted to check seven common hybrid varieties with the best available open pollinated ones. These plots are located on the farm of Reuben Kirtley in East Bend; Shelby Beemon on the Hopeful Church Road and Ira Tanner on the Mt. Zion Road. U. S. 13, Ky. 102, Ky. 103 were the yellow hybrids used in these plots with white hybrids Ky. 69, Ky. 69B, Ky. 72 and Ky. 201 being included. Each of the demonstrations provided the seed of a yellow variety which they considered to be a high yielding corn. These plots will be open for inspection at any time during the growing season, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent.

FARMERS WILL VOTE ON WHEAT

QUOTAS FOR YEAR 1941—REFERENDUM TO BE HELD AT BURLINGTON SATURDAY, MAY 31 FROM 8:00 TO 4:00.

A wheat marketing quota, designed to divide a limited market among all growers and to keep part of the surplus off the market until needed, was proclaimed May 10 by Secretary of Agriculture, Claude R. Wickard. The quota will be effective on the 1941 crop if approved by a two-thirds majority of farmers voting in a national referendum to be held May 31st.

Only one voting place will be held in Boone County as the county has less than fifty eligible voters. The county committee will be in charge of holding the referendum. Polling place will be at the A. C. office and the hours of voting will be from 8:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. (fast time). All producers who normally produce 200 bushels of wheat or who have over 15 acres planted wheat are eligible to vote and they have been personally notified regarding the details of the referendum, according to John E. Crigler, Secretary of the Boone County A. C. Association.

Each farm's quota is equal to the actual or normal production, whichever is greater, of the farm's wheat acreage allotment, plus wheat from any previous crop. Since the national allotment is calculated to provide enough wheat for normal domestic needs, normal exports, and a 30 percent reserve, officials point out that consumers will have plenty of wheat at reasonable prices.

The proclamation was made under provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 which calls for a quota when the estimated wheat supply exceeds a normal's year domestic consumption and exports by more than 35 percent. The 1941-42 wheat supply is estimated at 1,236 million bushels and exceeds the marketing quota level by 217 million bushels.

"In times like these, common sense dictates that we should have a large reserve of wheat on hand," Administrator R. M. Evans of the AAA said in connection with the announcement, "and the people of the country can be assure by the fact that we have larger reserves than ever before in the Ever-Normal Granary. But common sense dictates just as emphatically that we provide orderly handling of our reserves. Only in that way can the producer prevent his abundance from bankrupting himself and only in that way can the consumer be assured of wheat at a fair price."

The wheat supply total used in the quota determination includes an estimated 1941 crop of 858 million bushels. The July 1, 1941 carryover is estimated at 390 million bushels, including crop insurance reserves of 12 million bushels. The "normal year's domestic consumption and exports" amounts to 755 million bushels. This is made up of the average domestic consumption of 598 million bushels and exports of 57 million bushels for the 10-year period ending June 30, 1941. The addition of a 35 percent reserve makes 1,019 million bushels, the marketing quota level.

Under the quota all farmers will be able to sell or feed without penalty all they raise on their acreage allotment, plus any old wheat carried over from previous years. This means farmers whose wheat acreage is within their allotment may sell or feed all their wheat. They will also be eligible for a wheat loan. The small number of farmers who have excess wheat may avoid penalty by storing the excess and are eligible for a loan on this part of their crop at a rate lower than that offered cooperators.

If the marketing quota is voted down, the act provides that no Government loans can be made on the 1941 wheat crop.

The wheat marketing quota referendum will be conducted in every wheat community in the Nation. Each wheat grower affected by the quota will have the opportunity to vote by secret ballot.

WITH THE

Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati—There are plenty of tough obstacles in the path of the Cincinnati Reds, who are fighting to return to the middle of the battle for the 1941 pennant. Their biggest problem of the moment is to successfully hurdle the road trip on which they are now embarking.

First stop on the jaunt was to be at St. Louis, following the Wednesday ladies' day game against the Pittsburgh Pirates at Crosley Field. A single game was scheduled against the Cardinals Thursday and a Memorial Day doubleheader Friday. After this game the Reds and Cards will head east together, both clubs stopping off in Cincinnati Saturday, en route. This Cincinnati game will close the series between these two hot rivals, then on Sunday they will go their respective ways, St. Louis to Brooklyn and the Reds to New York.

A twin bill against the Giants Sunday will face the Reds on their first day in the East. They will remain in New York for single games Monday and Tuesday, then head for Philadelphia, where a night game is scheduled Wednesday, June 4, and a doubleheader Friday, June 6.

Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, June 7, 8, and 9, the Reds will be in dear old Brooklyn for another meeting with the red hot Dodgers. This series will be just as important to the Reds as that with the Cardinals this week.

The road trip will wind up with games at Boston Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, June 10, 11, and 12. En route home from Boston the Reds will stop at Cooperstown, N. Y., birthplace of baseball and meet the Cleveland Indians in the annual exhibition game booked by the two leagues to honor the city of Cooperstown.

New York will be the Reds' opponents when they open their home stand here Saturday, June 14. A doubleheader will be played against the Giants Sunday, June 15, and a series' closing single game on Monday, June 16. Boston will play a ladies' day contest on Tuesday, June 17, and a night game on Wednesday, June 18, then the Brooklyn Dodgers come here for single games Friday and Saturday, June 20 and 21, and a doubleheader, Sunday, June 22.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETS

The Epworth League of Burlington Methodist Church met Sunday night with a nice group of young people present. Bailey Greenup rendered a special solo "One Day." Mary Helen Clore gave the Bible reading, following by an interesting talk by Bailey Greenup in behalf of the league work.

After a short business session the league was dismissed.

All young people in the community invited to attend these meetings.

NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Boone Circuit Court rendered at the April Term thereof 1941, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court House Door in Burlington, Kentucky, to the highest bidder, at public auction on Monday, the 2nd day of June 1941 at One O'clock P. M., or thereabout, (being County Court Day), upon a credit of 6 and 12 months, the following described property to-wit:

TRACT NO. 1—The following described tract of land lying in Boone County, Kentucky, on the waters of Gunpowder Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone corner to Charles Tanner in Ephram Tanner's line, thence with said line and with a line of George Allen's S. 40¾, 7.2 chains to a stone, thence S. 40, E. 10.13 chains to a stone corner to J. E. Souther, thence with his line and with a line of George Tanner S. 49¼, W. 37.09 chains to a stone corner with J. A. Popham, thence N. 48 W. 11.22 chains to a stone, thence N. 74 E. 7.5 links to a stone, thence 41¼ W. 6.05 chains to a stone, corner to Charles Tanner, thence with his line N. 49, E. 38.5 chains to the beginning, containing 65 acres, 2 roods, and 16 poles.

Said above described lot was conveyed to J. A. Tanner, deceased, by deed from Isabel Searcy, et al., dated April 23rd, 198, and recorded on April 23rd, 1898, in Deed Book No. 43, P. 296, of the records of Boone County, at Burlington, Kentucky.

And also:

TRACT NO. 2—Lying and being in Boone County, Kentucky on the waters of Gunpowder Creek and on the road between the Price Pike and the Mineola Pike. Beginning at a stone in Joseph Graves line a corner of Mary Foster, the wife of George Foster (colored) on the south easterly side of said road; thence with said Joseph Graves line, S. 49¼, W. 838 feet to a stone, a corner of Mariette Murray (col.) Thence with a line of said Murray's four-acre tract N. 40½ W. 416 feet to a stone in Charles Cleveland's line; thence with said Cleveland's line N. 49½ E. 838 feet to a stone a corner of Mary Foster's two-acre tract. Thence west with the line of Mary Foster S. 40½ E. 416 feet to a stone containing eight acres.

Said above described lot was conveyed to Angus Tanner (that said Angus Tanner and J. A. Tanner were one and the same person) deceased, by deed from J. Robert Clutterbuck, dated August 18th, 1908, and recorded on July 29th, 1918, in Deed Book No. 60, P. 360, of the records of Boone County, at Burlington, Kentucky.

And also:

TRACT NO. 3—The following described real estate to-wit: Lying and being in Boone County, State of Kentucky, on the waters of Gunpowder Creek, bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone at the Forks of the road, old corner between the John and Josiah Souther tracts of land, corner also between Lots No. 5, 6 and 7, in the division of Albert Price's land; thence with the old line of the John Souther tract N. 47½ E. 25¾ poles to a corner in the Florence and Dry Creek Road opposite a stone on the West side; thence N. 42 W. 25 poles to a stone in Charles Cleveland's line; thence S. 47½ W. 25 3-5 poles to a stone of Cleveland's corner in the cross road in the old line dividing the John and Josiah tracts of land; thence with said line S. 42 E. 25 poles to the beginning, containing four (4) acres.

Said above described lot was conveyed to J. A. Tanner, deceased, by deed from Anna Hickey, et al., dated April 28th, 1908, and recorded on April 28th, 1908 in Deed Book No. 50, P. 13 of the records of Boone County, at Burlington, Kentucky.

Each tract of this land will be sold as a separate unit.

For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond, with approved surety bearing legal interest from the day of sale, until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

If electricity were sold "Cash and Carry"
. . . it would cost you considerably less than it does today. But electricity is not a commodity that you can carry home like sugar or potatoes. It is useful only when it is delivered into your home, ready to serve you at the flick of a switch.
To handle this delivery job — to be prepared to serve thousands of customers simultaneously and without delay at any hour of the day or night — is not a simple matter like delivering groceries or meat. It requires a huge outlay for transmission and distribution lines . . . carloads of poles . . . miles of wire . . . costly substations . . . large numbers of transformers, meters and other delicate and expensive items of equipment. It takes a trained personnel and the expenditure of thousands of dollars annually for maintenance.
All this makes the delivery of electricity one of the most expensive distribution jobs in the world, but it is only one item in the cost of rendering electric service. To it must be added the cost of generating the electricity and the cost of meter reading, billing, collecting, servicing, accounting and management, to say nothing of taxes, depreciation and interest on invested capital. Yet despite the complex and highly technical nature of the business and all the items of expense that enter into it, electric service rendered by this company costs the average family only 11 cents per day.

Gayety Theater News

TONIGHT

Albert Dekker, featured in Paramount's comedy with music "You're the One,", is seen in his second screen comedy role. Dramatic actor turned comedian, Dekker's first role as a funnyman was in "Rangers of Fortune," in which he played a comic cowboy.

Dekker's strongest dramatic screen appearance was in the title role of "Dr. Cyclops," in which he played a half-mad doctor, whose crazed genius devised a method of reducing normal human beings to doll-size. In "You're the One," Dekker is cast as a comedy bandleader, rivalling Orrin Tucker for the affection and singing talents of Bonnie Baker.

FRIDAY

Don't Give Up the Ship!" was the popular battle cry of the U. S. Navy when it adopted the words of the last command by Captain James Lawrence, U. S. Frigate Chesapeake, uttered June 1, 1813, during the War of 1812.

It is only one of the historical references in "Land of Liberty," to be shown at the Gayety. The film, comprised of 112 feature pictures and short subjects made over a period of the last twenty-five years, is being nationally released by M-G-M following showings at the New York World's Fair and the San Francisco Exposition.

Other significant episodes in American history which are depicted in the story include Washington and his ragged army at Valley Forge during the winter of 1777; the gold rush to California in '49 and the Louisiana purchase made in 1803, when Napoleon sold this vast territory to the young American republic at four cents an acre.

The picture was assembled and edited by Cecil B. DeMille and a group of associates from more than 2,000,000 feet of film available.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Abdullah Abbas, the husky Arabian film actor who conducts a physical training muscle-building business on the side, is cast as an inarticulate gardened in Preston Sturges' new Paramount comedy, "The Lady Eve," which will be shown at the Gayety.

In the picture, Abdullas has just one line, but he must have thought it was a muscle and tried to build it up. Sturges' script called for him to utter two words, "No speak."

Well, when the film was being shot, Abdullah began his scene by saying to Eugene Pallette, "I no speak." Writer-Director Sturges immediately halted the filming and cautioned Abdullah to cease applying his muscle-building technique to the script's lines.

TUESDAY
Double Bill

When a party of actors, cameramen and property men arrived at a canyon to film a sandstorm for the Western action drama, "Texas Rangers Ride Again," they found a real sandstorm in progress which forced them to take cover.

They waited until the blow was over—and then made their own sandstorm with powerful wind machines. The real storm couldn't be used because it blew sand into the cameras.

Featured in the picture are John Howard, Ellen Drew, Akim Tamiroff, Broderick Crawford, May Robson and Charley Crapewin.

Plus

"Sky Murder," will be one of the double features Tuesday night, and stars Walter Pidgeon and Donald Meek. Don't miss this thriller. You will enjoy it from beginning to end.

PEACE

If we could walk through Flanders field today,
Where small wood crosses seem to never cease;
Could these lads but speak, I think that they would say,
"Kneel down near us and say a prayer for Peace.

"Don't let our sacrifice be made in vain,
"Or send more gallant sons across the sea
"To bear the heartbreak and the bitter pain,
"And then to die as me.

"Our eyes would witness not the war strife hell,
"We fought our fight and gave our very best;
"But please don't let the blast of shrapenel
"Unearth our broken bodies from our rest."

Naught can restore the many lives that were lost
The toll ran high, where battle fields were red;
For victory now, at such a fearful cost,
Let's not forget allegiance to our dead.

Must war disturb those fine brave lads again,
The peace they won—it is their right to keep;
To satisfy the loathesome greed of men,
Must more boys go—to join them in their sleep.

Oh fellowmen, let's try to grant them this,
To sleep in peace, where blood red poppies blows;
We can not give them the living joys they missed,
But let's not add more crosses to those rows.

—JO.

THREE MEN VOLUNTEER

FOR SERVICE IN U. S. ARMY—INDUCTED AT FT. THOMAS TUESDAY—SEVEN SELECTED FOR JUNE 13TH CALL.

Three volunteers from Boone County were sent to Ft. Thomas, the induction center, Tuesday of this week for service under the Selective Service Act. Those to volunteer their services were Ruther Dempsey Hodges, William Anderson, Jr., and Wallace Roosevelt Delph.

Seven Boone County youths will report to the local draft board at the courthouse, Burlington at 9 a. m. June 13, at which time they shall be sent to Ft. Thomas, the induction station of the United States Army. Those who will be inducted June 13th are as follows: Ernest Hill, Lewis Edward Reeves, Harry Joseph Code, James Harold Dolwick, Willard Lynn Stephens, Carl Francis Rudicill and Albert Hill.

C. G. Kelly, Clerk of Local Board No. 9, reported Monday that 700 questionnaires had been mailed, and that approximately fifty questionnaires will be mailed each week until the list is completed.

Revival Progressing Nicely At Local Methodist Church

Revival services are progressing nicely at the Burlington Methodist Church with Rev. Anderson, of Liberty, Ky., bringing the messages each evening at 7:30. Services will continue through Sunday, June 8th.

Those attending these services report Rev.. Anderson as a forceful speaker, and the meeting has been well attended.

The public is cordially invited to attend the services during the remainder of this week.

Wilton Stephens Attends Conference Of County Tax Commissioners

Wilton Stephens, County Tax Commissioner attended the Conference of County Tax Commissioners of the State of Kentucky, held at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Ky., on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Speeches on tax problems were made by interesting speakers on the day program, while a banquet on Monday night followed by talks from Governor Johnson, Jim Underwood, editor Lexington Herald, and Dr. Rainey T. Wells, former chairman Kentucky State Tax Commission, made the conference most interesting and enlightening.

POOL WOOL TO BE OFFERED JUNE 9

TO HIGH BIDDER AT WALTON—GOOD PRICE IS EXPECTED BY GROWERS DUE TO INCREASED DEMAND.

The Boone County Wool Pool will offer approximately 13,000 fleeces of its members for sale at Walton on next Monday, June 9th, according to H. E. White, president of the Association. The date of sale was set by the members in a meeting at Burlington June Court Day.

Wool prices have been advancing in recent weeks and growers are optimistic as to the price this year. Sale price estimates vary from 45c to 50c per pound with most growers hoping for the latter figure.

The demand for wool this year is much greater. National Defense needs account for most increase demand. Eighteen sheep on an average are required to produce enough woolen materials to outfit one soldier for one year.

The local crop this year is reported better than last year's crop. The yield per fleece is reported varying from lighter than 1940 for some growers to heavier than last year for other growers.

Miss Carolyn Cropper, who has been attending college at Danville, Ky., returned home last Friday to spend the summer months here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cropper.

RECEIVES B. A. DEGREE

George Hankins Riley

Hebron Boy Receives B. A. At Transylvania College At Age Of 20

George Hankins Riley, received his Bachelor of Arts Degree at Transylvania College, Lexington, Tuesday of this week. He finished his course at the age of 20 years, an achievement, which is very outstanding.

George Hankins Riley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Riley, of Hebron. He graduates from the Hebron High School in the class of '37.

Transylvania is the oldest school west of the Alleghanies and this year marks its 161st graduating class.

Mr. Riley will enter University of Louisville School of Medicine in September this year, being one of the first to be accepted from the 1941 class at Transylvania.

BIG BONE TAKES LEAD IN LEAGUE

BY DEFEATING BELLEVIEW—HEBRON ALSO WINS—CCC DEFAULTS—RAIN STOPS SEMI-PRO GAME.

Big Bone took the lead in the county league standing Saturday by handing its closest rival for that place, Belleview, a 10 to 4 defeat at the Belleview park. The winners continued with another of their slugging attacks on opposing pitchers and drove Aylor, Belleview's starting pitcher, from the mound in the third, after collecting four runs off his offerings. Rector, who then took over the pitching duties, didn't fare any better, lasting but one inning, when he gave way to Stevens who finished the game for the losers. With H. Williamson leading the attack, and getting four base hits in five trips to the plate, the winners collected 12 safe blows, while Wood held the losers to nine base knocks.

Hebron pushed Burlington a notch farther down in the league standing by nosing out the local team 5 to 4 at the Burlington park. Though the victor led by a one-run margin during most of the game the ultimate winner was not determined until the last batsman was put out, for the losers tied the score and threatened to push winning runs across the plate several times in the game. Jones tossed an eight-hit performance for the winners, while Gulley, likewise, held his opponents to eight hits.

Petersburg took a game by virtue of default when CCC failed to produce a team for a scheduled contest at the Petersburg park.

Burlington will play at Petersburg, Big Bone at Hebron, and CCC at Belleview Saturday.

The standing of teams follows:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	4	0
Belleview	3	1
Hebron	2	2
Petersburg	2	2
Burlington	1	3
CCC	0	4

The local County All-Stars and the Fort Thomas Florists were in a one-to-one deadlock when rain halted the game in the first half of the sixth inning, after the All-Stars had retired the first two opposing batsmen. By holding his opponents to five hits and striking out eight, Shinkle, hurler for the All-Stars, had the edge on Hess, the Florists' star pitcher, who was forced to give up six hits and retired but five at the plate.

The All-Stars meet the strong Wiedemann team at the local park in their next game in the Semi-pro League. Both teams have a strong lineup and they should play an excellent game.

JOHN W. GRANT IS CANDIDATE

FOR SHERIFF OF BOONE COUNTY—IS WELL KNOWN THRUOUT THIS SECTION OF STATE AS DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

In this issue of The Recorder appears the announcement of John W. Grant, as a candidate for Sheriff of Boone County. subject to the action of Democratic primary Saturday, August 2, 1941.

Mr. Grant is well known to people of Boone County and expects to see as many voters as possible before the primary. He is a farmer, member of the Baptist Church and several lodges, and president of Farmers Bank of Petersburg.

He solicits the support of the voters of Boone County, and if elected will perform the duties of the office he seeks to the best of his ability.

LOCAL YOUTHS TO REPRESENT CO.

AT JUNIOR WEEK HELD AT UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, JUNE 9-14—SELECTED AT MEETING HELD MAY 27.

Miss Alva Mae Tupman, Florence, and Evelyn Franks, New Haven, will be among those who represent the 4-H clubs of the county at Junior Week to be held at the University of Kentucky, June 9-14. These girls won their trips by placing at the top in the clothing and foods judging contests held at Burlington on Tuesday, May 27. The contests were conducted by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute Home Demonstration Agent, assisted by Mrs. Sibbie Reimer, Miss Evelyn Conrad, Hebron and Mrs. Sam Sleet, New Haven.

The foods judging was done in the forenoon. Classes of biscuit, whole wheat rolls, and menus were placed. Judges heard the girls give oral reasons for their placings. Walton; Mary Louise McCubbin, Walton; Betty Sturgeon, Florence; Kathleen Kenny, New Haven, did not judge all rings.

During the afternoon three clothing classes were judged, street costumes, afternoon dresses and playsuits. These girls also gave oral reasons for their placings. They were rated as follows: Champion, Alva Mae Tupman; superior, Mary Louise McCubbin, Walton; Mary Katherine Shields, New Haven; Wanda Pennington, New Haven; excellent, Billy Wilson Hamilton; Evelyn Franks, New Haven; Bernice Sebree, Florence; good, Ella Ruth Black, Hamilton; Mary Hope Chipman, Verona; Bessie Ford, Walton; Elaine Gardiner, Florence.

Others who attended the judging contest and served on committees were: Mrs. Walter King, Verona; Mrs. Walter Pennington, New Haven; Mrs. Roy Kenney, New Haven, and Mrs. Black, Hamilton.

C. G. Lamb Honored By National Fraternity

Soverign C. G. Lamb, Escort of Camp Boone No. 614 of Burlington, was recently initiated into Kappa Delta Pi, a national honorary educational fraternity. He was taken into the fraternity by the Alpha Gamma Chapter of the University of Kentucky, where he is a candidate for his M. A. degrees.

Mr. Lamb, who is the Principal of the Fourth District School, Covington, Ky., is also a member of Phi Delta Kappa, a national administration fraternity.

For the past several years he has assisted in organizing Woodmen Camps in northern Kentucky. He served as the first Financial Secretary of Hurt Camp, a new unit, at Morgan. From 1939 through 1941 he was Head Adviser of the Kentucky Head Camp. The instructor is a graduate of Murray State Teachers College, Murray, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Rouse and son spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rouse.

Thieves Break Window In Florence Filling Station

Thieves broke a window in the Standard Oil Filling Station, operated by Lloyd Rouse, Florence, Monday night. The culprits were unable to gain entrance to the building and obtained only a small amount of loot. Several Coca-Colas, a pipe. some tobacco and other small articles were stolen.

A car owned by Virgil Franks, employee at the station was tampered with, and it was thought that the culprits made an effort to steal the car, but were not successful, due to the steering gear being locked.

Burlington Adopts Eastern Standard Time At Meeting Sat.

A representative group of the town of Burlington and surrounding communities, believing that it is to the mutual benefit for all concerned, that beginning on Saturday night, June 7th at 10:00 p. m., will adopt Eastern Standard Time for the above community. After June 7th all churches, schools, banks and all public places of business throughout this section will adopt Eastern Standard Time, to conform with surrounding towns and counties.

County officies will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m., it was announced. Beginning Saturday, June 7, all County offices and the County Agent's office will be closed Saturday afternoon, until the first of September by order of the Boone Fiscal Court.

Matilda Belle Cheesman, age 67, passed away at her home, Walton, Sunday June 1st. Her body was removed to Chambers & Grubbs funeral home for preparation, then returned to her home where it laid in state until Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted at the Hickory Grove Baptist Church, Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 with Rev. Mango officiating. Burial was in Independence cemetery.

She is survived by five daughters, three sons, thirty-four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of funeral arrangements.

94 MATTRESSES ARE COMPLETED

WITH CLOSING OF PETERSBURG CENTER LAST THURSDAY—CENTER OPENED AT GRANT SATURDAY.

The cotton mattress program in the county is moving along. When the center was closed at Petersburg on Thursday, a total of 94 mattresses had been completed. The center was opened at the Grant School on Saturday morning and will run there until the 27 listed for that district have been made. It is expected that the center will be moved and set up for work near Union Wednesday.

The program is being carried on through the cooperation of the Home Demonstration Agent, Homemakers clubs, County Agent, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, with help from local agencies. The county highway department, the county school system, Walton Lumber Co., Erlanger Lumber Co., are listed as groups who have done much to further the program. Mrs. Vernon Pope, Burlington, is county supervisor. Volunteer local leaders from Homemaker clubs are giving generous assistance. Mattresses have been taken into 66 homes already. Many persons have sought to make application but have been too late to get in on the program.

The mattresses require time and work for completion but have been received with hearty welcome by those who made them. The centers are open to visitors, but no loafers are allowed, according to Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Sub. Home Demonstration Agent.

A. M. YEALEY IS CANDIDATE

FOR COUNTY JUDGE OF BOONE COUNTY — WAS A FORMER TEACHER IN BOONE COUNTY SCHOOLS

A. M. Yealey, Florence, announces his candidacy for the office of County Judge of Boone County in this issue of The Recorder, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2, 1941.

Mr. Yealey was formerly a teacher in the Boone County schools, having been the principal of the Florence High school from 1901 to 1930. Then he entered a business career and disposed of this business in March of this year, and since then he is continuing writing the Early History of Boone County, which he hopes, in the near future, to publish in book form.

Mr. Yealey's statement is as follows:

"I hereby enter the race for County Judge of Boone County, with the understanding that if I am successful and elected, I shall give the County of Boone a business-like administration, the same as I did while principal of the schools I taught, or in business for myself."

Ohio Car Wrecked Near Union Sunday

A car bearing Ohio license tags overturned three times, one mile south of Union on U. S. 42, Sunday, according to F. M. Walton, Sheriff. The car was badly damaged and was ordered to be towed to the Gillispie Bros. Garage.

Occupants of the car were apparently uninjured as they hitchhiked to Warsaw following the accident. Driver's license attached to the car gave the name of Joseph Smith Parker, of Cincinnati.

A. L. Stephens Much Improved

A. L. Stephens, prominent citizen of the Petersburg community, and a member of the local Draft Board No. 9, who has been confined to his bed since Saturday, is reported much improved Tuesday.

Although medical authorities report his condition improved, it has not been definitely decided the exact cause of his trouble.

4-H Fair Date August 23

The Ninth Annual Boone County 4-H and Utopia Club Free Fair will be held Saturday, August 23, according ot H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The date was officially set by the 4-H and Utopia Clubs Council Monday evening.

The location of the fair will be determined by a committee composed of John Crigler, John Conner, R. V. Lents and D. H. Norris. The committee is also in charge of locating a suitable site for a permanent fair and county recreational center. Plans are being made for making the 1941 fair the biggest and best on record.

Revival Services Under Way At Beaver Lick

Revival services are now in progress at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church, beginning June 2, and will continue for two weeks. The evangelist is Rev. Roy Johnson, pastor, and song services are in charge of Mike and Rachel Acree. Services will begin each night at 7:30 slow time, and special music will be a feature each night.

The church has recently been redecorated both inside and out, and electric lights have been installed.

An all-day meeting will be held next Sunday, June 8th, at which time Rev. C. J. Alford of Walton will speak at the morning hour and Rev. R. D. Martin of Erlanger will bring the message at the afternoon service.

Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Last One-Room School In County To Be Closed

The Boone County Board of Education announced this week that the last one-room school in the county will be discontinued this fall, as the Taylorsport school is to be consolidated with the Constance school.

The Kentucky Educational system has for several years been working on the plan of consolidating of smaller schools in order to give our boys and girls greater opportunity, that can only be offered in larger schools. Boone County has been keeping pace with state recommendations and now has eliminated the last of our one-room schools.

The consolidation of the Taylorsport-Constance schools will prove beneficial to the students of both schools and to communities as a whole.

Nucleus For Lending Library Acquired

A delightful Silver Tea was held on Tuesday of the past week at the courthouse. The guest for the afternoon was Mrs. H. A. Orrell, who very ably presented the play "Washington Slept Here." Mrs. Orrell was greeted with a very responsive audience.

The tea was given as a means of raising money with which to buy books for the library. With a nucleus now on hand it will serve as a spur toward the goal.

The library chairman, Mrs. Herbert Snyder, who so capably arranged all the details has a list of books which are now available. Anyone who is interested, get in touch with her.

DELEGATES SELECTED

TO ATTEND JUNIOR WEEK BY FOUR-H AND UTOPIA CLUB COUNCIL IN SESSION MONDAY, JUNE 2ND.

The 1941 Boone County 4-H delegates to Junior Week, University of Kentucky, Lexington, June 9 to 14 inclusive, were selected by the 4-H and Utopia Club Council in session at Burlington Monday evening, June 2nd, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The delegates were selected from district demonstration team contest winners, style revue, foods judging, and clothing judging contests and from individual outstanding members over 13 years of age from community clubs. Preference was given by the council to outstanding members who had not previously attended and to clubs not having contest winners who were automatically selected.

The delegates selected are as follows:

Boys—Charles Patrick, Hebron; Harold Flick, Burlington; Vernon Myers, Verona; James Stephenson, New Haven, winner of District Demonstration Contest; Meier Taylor, New Haven, winner of District Demonstration Contest; Lee Roy McNeely, Burlington (alternate).

Girls—Mary Louise McCubbin, Walton; Ella Ruth Black, Hamilton; Elaine Gardner, Florence, winner of Style Revue; Evelyn Franks, New Haven, winner of County Foods Judging; Alva Mae Tupman, Florence, winner of County Clothing Judging; Louise McArthur, Grant (alternate).

All delegates will receive scholarship trips through the splendid cooperation of Dearborn Mill, Aurora, Ind.; Early Daniels Feed Company, Cincinnati, Ohio; Sears, Roebuck and Co., Chicago; and Coppin's Company, Covington. The scholarships enables all delegates to attend under the same conditions. Junior Week is the state meeting of outstanding 4-H club boys and girls from all counties in the State. It represents one of the most prized awards received by 4-H members each year.

Judge Riddell Lands 25-Pound King Fish

The Recorder is in receipt of a postal card from Judge N. E. Riddell, who is spending several weeks at Port Aransas, Texas. Pictured on the card is the Judge himself with two large King fish, one of which weighed twenty-five pounds. He reported that these were two of the larger one caught by him on that day.

He reports that he is much improved in health and we know he is having a splendid time.

SIX INJURED IN FLORENCE CRASH

SUNDAY NIGHT ON U. S. HIGHWAY 42 — THREE ARE RESIDENTS OF HAMILTON, OHIO—ONE IS BABY.

Three Hamilton, Ohio residents, one a fourteen-month-old boy, were injured in an automobile collision Sunday night on U. S. 42 at Florence.

The injured were Mrs. Mary Neal, 37 years old, possible right shoulder fracture; her son, Henry Clay Neal, severe face cuts, and Stanley Hopper, 30, right leg fracture. Mrs. Neal's husband, Albert, was uninjured.

Miss Anna Rose, 23, Dayton, O., another passenger in the Neal car, arrived at Booth Hospital in a private car late Sunday night. Her collarbone was fractured, attendants said.

The mother and baby were taken to Booth Hospital, Covington by private automobile. Hopper was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, by state police.

Andrew Neal, Hamilton, brother of Albert, told Booth Hospital attaches that he was driving the car, explaining that the crash occurred because his brakes failed when the car ahead stopped. To avoid hitting it, he swerved the machine, he said, colliding with a car traveling in the opposite direction.

A hub cap knocked from the other machine sailed through a window on the Neal car, striking the baby.

Two women, who were not identified, were riding in the other car. They were treated by an Erlanger physician.

Four-Year-Old Child Suffers Fractured Skull

J. Lynn See, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvas See, of Louisa, Ky., suffered a skull fracture and a fractured collar bone when he fell down the basement steps at the home of his uncle, Wayne See, McVille Saturday.

Dr. M. A. Yelton, Burlington was called, and after an examination rushed the child to Christ Hospital for treatment. Monday morning it was reported that the child was much improved and it was believed it could be moved to its home in Louisa, by Thursday, (today).

Mr. and Mrs. Alvas See and son were visiting Wayne See at Dam 38 at the time of accident. Mr. See is W. P. A. supervisor at Louisa.

Miss Alta Rouse of Cincinnati, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rouse.

RUGS TO BE EXHIBITED

BY HOMEMAKERS AT BURLINGTON, FLORENCE AND WALTON JULY 17, 18, AND 19—VARIETY OF PATTERNS TO BE SHOWN.

Boone County Homemakers will feature homemade rugs and mats in exhibits to be held in Burlington, Florence and Walton, July 17, 18 and 19. These articles have been made during the study of homemade rugs which has been conducted in the county by Miss Vivian Curnutt, specialist from the University of Kentucky, since last October.

Rugs and mats in varieties of design and color will be shown. Hooked rugs and mats will feature original patterns in which discarded woolens have been used. Many will show colors from the home dye-pot. Braided rugs and mats of cotton, and rayon or silk, crocheted rugs of cotton and knitted rugs and mats of silk and rayon fabrics will add interest to the exhibits.

Homemakers clubs will make their exhibits as follows: Burlington, Grant, Petersburg and Rabbit Hash at Burlington; Florence, Union, Hebron, Bullittsville, Taylorsport and Constance at Florence; Walton, Verona, New Haven and Walton colored clubs at Walton.

Mrs. Rod Hughes, Walton, is county project chairman. Local club project leaders will serve as exhibit chairmen for their groups. Plans were made for these and other exhibits of project work at the training school several weeks ago, according to Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Substitute Home Demonstration Agent.

BIG JOB

The question of government price control has been much in the headlines of late. The problem of just how far the government will eventually have to go to keep prices within justifiable bonds, remains unsolved. In the meantime, important voluntary price control action has been taken by the retail industry.

Retailers in all lines long ago realized the danger of price inflation resulting from war abroad, with its dislocating effect on world economy, and our unprecedented defense program at home which is releasing billions of dollars in a relatively short period of time. So led by the chain systems, they decided to do all they could to keep prices in line. They pledged themselves to fight profiteering. They pledged themselves to make further efforts to reduce overhead costs and narrow marketing spreads. They pledged themselves to refrain from "scare advertising." They pledged themselves to buy normally, so as to not unnecessarily disturb the wholesale markets. They pledged themselves to inform consumers of true conditions, in order to prevent hysterical buying.

You can see the fruits of this wise policy today. The cost of necessities has generally risen very little, and nothing resembling a price inflation has appeared. The cost of distribution continues to go down, and the producer continues to receive a rising proportion of the final selling price of his product. In short, the American standard of living is being maintained during a time when the standard of living of other nations has dropped to rock-bottom.

Your retailer, whether he operates a chain store or an independent store, is doing a big job in your interest. He's working harder than ever to help make your dollar buy as much as possible. That job deserves national recognition.

THEY WILL FACE IT

There are many young people who are walking from the campus facing the world with sheepskin and scepticism. The commencement speaker who gets up on a platform and tells youth that opportunities galore are running rampant outside the door, knows full well that his listeners don't believe him. They know this world is topsy-turvey and that it is going to require grit and gumption to face it as a beginner. But the youth of Boone County are prepared to face it and know that if the world is made up of communities like ours, that it is still a world worth struggling, fighting and working for. They are still looking for the future, for that is the glory in being young and a graduate. They will ask questions but if you can't answer them they will work it out for themselves. They aren't blind to the present conditions but they are going to try and help to get the world back in shape for living again. They are coming into business with us and are expecting to share with the company in its good and bad times. Business, American business, puts out the welcome mat wherever there is room, and we all must put our heads together and work to create the opportunities for our graduates.

—o—

PAY IT OFF

With the tremendous amount of money going into defense work, it means a great demand in farm produce and the probable rise in farm prices. During this past year there was a noticable increase in the farmer's income and with this he has brought down his indebtedness on his land. A note of satisfaction comes with the knowledge that the farm mortgage debt in the U. S. is the smallest today it has been since the year 1919. A farmer near us, thinks that due to the call for increased production and better prices that some farmers are going to run into serious debt to expand their business, figuring that the war will continue long enough for them to clear up these debts. But our friend suggests that the farmer reflect upon the probable increase in the cost of all living, of the foreign market being practically nothing, and the wise farmer will continue to pay off the old debts and continue his present policy of reducing his farm mortgages and keeping his surplus for any higher cost of living.

Canning and food storage records, collected by Nancy B. Scrugham, home demonstration agent, show that 267 women cooperating in the live-at-home program in Caldwell county canned 85,546 quarts of fruits, vegetables and meats.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

BEGINNING OF WORLD MISSIONS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 12:25-13:12.
GOLDEN TEXT—And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.—Mark 16:15.

Nineteen hundred years of "front line action" for Christ began that day in Antioch when the first missionaries of the cross were sent forth. There is no more thrilling story in all history than that of missions. The glorious thing is that it goes on year after year, and will do so as long as the Lord of the harvest continues to send forth workers. The writer of these notes is glad to be associated with a training center which in its half century of operation has prepared for service about 2,300 men and women who have been sent to the foreign field by their churches and missions, and of whom approximately 1,600 are still active on the field in spite of "peril, toil and pain."

Our lesson teaches us how "to fight the good fight of faith" (I Tim. 6:12). First we must have

I. The Base of Operations (vv. 1-3).

Every army must have a home base; just so, the army of the Lord looks to the home church, the local gathering of God's people. An army would fail if those at the base of its action were asleep, or so interested in the pleasures of this world, or so indifferent to their responsibility, that they would not work hard in support of the active army. So the cause of Christian missions cannot go ahead if it has to depend on a home church which is spiritually asleep, indolent, indifferent, and worldly minded.

The church at Antioch prayed and fasted. It ministered the Word of God. It was responsive to the guidance of the Holy Spirit and ready to sacrifice by giving its leaders to the missionary cause. Is your church that kind of a church? If not, why not?

Observe also that it is from such a church that God calls His workers. Sunday school teacher, you may have in your class next Sunday one of the missionary leaders of the next generation. See to it that the message from God reaches that heart.

II. Good Soldiers of the Cross (vv. 2-4).

The army does not call for the weak or physically handicapped to serve. Just so, God's service calls for the strongest men and women of the church, not the misfits or failures. A girl was once heard to remark: "If I can't get married, I will be a missionary." Fortunately for God's work, she did get married. Some men who cannot succeed in business think that means they should be missionaries.

God wants our best (Deut. 15:2) and He wants the best a church can give, which means the best spiritually, but in other ways as well. Note also in verses 3 and 4 that the messengers of the Lord must be constantly led of the Holy Spirit.

III. The Heat of Battle (vv. 5-10).

Warfare is not a Sunday school picnic. It means conflict with the forces of the enemy. So the missionary of the cross must be prepared to meet Satanic opposition. Saul and Barnabas met this "son of the devil" (by the way, reader, we trust you do not belong to that family) who opposed the work of grace which had begun in the heart of the governor (vv. 8-10).

However, there are those who do seek to hear the Word of God (v. 7) as did Sergius Paulus. The business of the missionary is to preach to them, but not only to them. The city of Paphos was really a miniature of the world of that day. It was a Greek city of high culture and low morals. It was ruled by the Roman governor, a man of noble character and a "man of understanding" (v. 7). But right with him was Elymas the sorcerer, a wicked and ungodly Jew, a disgrace to his own people and a hindrance to the work of God. The messenger of God rejoices in the opportunity to minister the Word, whether to Roman, Jew, or Greek, of high or low estate, wicked or good, interested or antagonistic. They all need God's Word.

IV. Victory for Christ (vv. 11, 12).

The army goes into battle with the purpose of winning a victory, or it is defeated before it starts. The Lord's army is on a victorious march, certain of success, because He that is in us is "greater than he that is in the world" (I John 4:4).

In dealing with the sorcerer, Paul brought down the drastic judgment of God. Note that this was not done because Elymas opposed Paul, or because he had some different belief, but because he in his wickedness opposed God. Those who fight against God are in a losing battle, the victory is always on His side.

There was another kind of victory here, and the soldiers of the cross are (or should be) far more interested in that type of victory; namely, the surrender of a sinner at the foot of the cross. God won a victory in the heart of Sergius Paulus.

Several farmers in Knox county are planning to drain rich creek bottom lands which to date have been kept in pasture. Bruce Mayhew will lay 4,000 feet of drain tile and dig out 1,000 feet of creek channel to drain 30 acres.

YOU'RE MY BOSS

As your electric service man, my first responsibility is to see that you get dependable electric service. And that goes for my fellow employees, too. From general manager on down, our entire organization is trained and equipped with the single object of making your electric service as convenient, useful and trouble-free as possible.

We know that it takes more than generating equipment, power lines, poles and transformers to provide good electric service. It takes understanding, cooperation and a genuine interest in the customer's needs. That's why my company conducts a continuous program of employee education . . . why we hold meetings at regular intervals to discuss ways and means of serving you better . . . why we are paid for submitting suggestions that will result in more efficient operations.

Your good will is our most valuable asset and we know that we can hold it only so long as we give you satisfactory service and make it easy and pleasant for you to do business with us. If at any time our service is not all that you think it should be, we welcome your constructive suggestions. You're the boss and we want to please you.

This Week In Defense

Federal Loan Administrator Jones announced the allocation of $650,000,000 for use in enlarging and speeding the bomber program by building Government-owned plants and increasing the supply of essential materials.

The War Department announced the award of contracts totaling $322,500,000 for 22-ton bombers to be produced at new Government-owned plants at Fort Worth, Tex., and Tulsa, Okla. The Department described the award of the contracts as a "major step toward the 500 bombers a month goal" set by the President when he said the democracies must achieve superiority in the air. OPM Director Knudsen asked airplane manufacturers to prepare to make an undisclosed additional number of heavy bombers.

The Navy reported its air program "slightly ahead of schedule" with 3,500 planes on hand May 1, as compared with 2,172 ten months before. The Department said that by January, 1942, its training program will supply sufficient pilots for 15,000 planes, its goal.

Ships

The Maritime Commission announced the delivery of seven new ships, an additional of 50,200 tons, to the American merchant fleet. The Senate and House enacted legislation authorizing the President to requisition foreign shipping immobilized in U. S. ports. Maritime Commission Chairman Land asked newspaper editors, radio stations and other sources of public information to withold news of merchant ships used to aid Britain and other democracies.

Aid To Europe

President Roosevelt authorized the dispatch of two merchant ships to Ireland with $500,000 worth of food for distribution to civilians under supervision of the Red Cross. The ships will sail under Irish registry with Irish crews

Civilian Defense

President Roosevelt established an Office of Civilian Defense and appointed New York's Mayor LaGuardia as Director to carry out program for the protection of life and property in an emergency with the volunteer help of men women and children throughout the nation. Director LaGuardia said volunteers would be organized to protect vital utilities in the event of an attack, carry on first aid and deal with problems of welfare, evacuation, housing and food.

FBI Director Hoover announced that 150,000 local law enforcement officers are being enlisted in a voluntary plan to rout fifth columnists.

Cost of Living

Labor Secretary Perkins announced a 2.2 percent rise in the cost of living in larger cities above the 1935-1939 average and 3.7 percent above August, 1939, just prior to the European war. She said food prices were up 5 percent over last autumn, rents up 0.3 percent in the last month, and clothing up 2.2 percent. The Labor Department reported, however, the earnings of workers in the manufacturing industries advanced to new high levels—5.4 percent more than March 1940, with average hourly earnings at 69.7 cents, or $29.11 a week.

Selective Service

Congress amended the Selective Service Act to exempt from service under the Act former regulars and reservists of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. Deputy Director Hershey announced that although the Army has sufficient dental and veterinary officers, dentists and veterinaries and students in these professions should be deferred to avoid a civilian shortage.

The OPM informed Selective Service Headquarters there will soon be a shortage in the metal-working trade and urged deferments to avoid this. OPM pointed out that when a skilled worker is inducted, the plant loses not only the individual but also the time of a skilled man need to train a replacement.

Labor Disputes

OPM Associate Director Hillman, speaking in New York, said "there are no insoluble problems in management-labor relations . . . only some prejudices . . . that must be eliminated" to create the "mutual trust which must animate any sound labor policy." Cooperation will result, he said, when labor problems are treated not as a "nuisance" but "worthy of serious study and consideration."

Public Attitude

William Batt, Deputy Defense Production Director, speaking in Washington, said OPM, War and Navy officials are not satisfied with defense progress.

"I do not want a single man or woman to feel we are right on the verge of becoming the arsenal of democracy," Mr. Batt said. "We cannot produce . . . and preserve our standard of living in terms of electric conveniences and leisure hours. A radical change of attitude must take place if we are to make good our promises to the defenders of freedom . . ."

Mr. Batt said business must be willing to expand without immediate regard for individual futures, labor must forget its differences in deference to more work, and Government must not allow politics or bureaucracy to interfere with defense.

Foreign Affairs

Agriculture Secretary Wickard, speaking at Hutchinson, Kansas, said " . . . in Latin America many countries are watching to see whether we will make good our promise or . . . simply talk and gesture . . . Millions of Britains are watching us who can't go on unless our help is made effective. The Nazis and Fascists are watching us and every sign of indecision and division fills them with joy. If we simply talk . . . they'll rule the world."

War Secretary Stimson and Navy Secretary Knox told their press conferences the Neutrality Act, which prohibits American shipping in combat zones, should be repealed and the U. S. should return to the former policy of freedom of the seas. Addressing the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, Mr. Knox said the U. S. must be prepared to make sacrifices "that will match any sacrifices made by any generation of Americans before us."

Secretary of State Hull, speaking in Washington, said control of the seas is a prime objective of the Axis and its program for world domination. Should the Axis succeed, Mr. Hull said, all countries will face economic ensalevement and control of international business by military and political forces.

Foreign Trade

President Roosevelt, opening Foreign Trade Week, said "the dictator nations already have achieved serious economic encirclement of the U. S." He said all Americans should fight against the economic slavery to which Germany and her allies would subject the world.

Raymond Geist, State Department Chief of Commercial Affairs, speaking in New York, said the international situation poses the question whether the peril confronting the nation "lies more in the struggle itself or in the cancerous post-war economic processes" of an unfair peace. He said it would be fatal if Germany won because the U. S. would be compelled to adopt economic methods "which would slowly undermine our prosperity and our democratic way of life." Secretary of State Hull said that after the war all nations should cooperate in international trade free from discrimination.

Other Activities

Congress increased the pay of parachute troop officers by $100 a month and the pay of enlisted parachutists by $50 a month, and authorized training of enlisted men as pilots . . . The Army announced testing of secret methods of combatting blitz warfare . . . The Treasury sold $257,650,000 of Defense Bonds in the first 17 days—"better than expected." . . . The President reduced his request for relief funds for 1942 by $109,000,000 . . . The Commerce Department reported exports to Japan running 48 percent less than last year.

GRANT 4-H NEWS

The girls in the first unit of cooking held their demonstration breakfast meeting at the home of Emma Brady. The meeting was held Wednesday, May 21. We had a very nice time. Mary McArthur made biscuits, Louise McArthur made goldenrod eggs; Imogene Presser fried ham and Emma Brady made rice. There were two parents present besides the hostess, Mrs. S. Brady. Mrs. Helen Rogers, the project leader, and Mrs. Mary S. Moore, were present.

After we finished our breakfast we made candy and played games.

Louise McArthur and Emma Brady demonstrated "Various Ways of Fixing Eggs." This is the subject we are going to demonstrate at Spring Rally May 24th.

Local Four-H Boys In State Contest

James Stephenson and Meier Taylor, both of the New Haven community, won the district 4-H demonstration team contest with their demonstration "Controlling Leaf Disease of Tobacco." This contest was held Friday, May 30, at Dry Ridge with county winners from Northern Kentucky competing. By winning the district contest, the local boys become one of twelve teams to enter the State contest to be held during Junior Week, June 9-14 at University of Kentucky.

The winning demonstration included an explanation of the common leaf diseases of tobacco, angular leaf spot and wildfire, and the method used in their control. The 3-4-50 bluestone and lime treatment was mixed and applied to the plant bed to illustrate the proper method of controlling these diseases. The demonstration will be given Tuesday, June 10, according to H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent. Mr. John Masters, New Haven Club Leader and principal of the school, is coach of the team.

Tobacco And Crops Demonstrations Visited

Tobacco and grass crop field demonstrations were visited on a county tour last Thursday, May 29, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Russell Hunt, field agent in tobacco work from the College of Agriculture, discussed timely tobacco problems with growers at the afternoon field meeting held at the farm of James Pennington of near Walton.

Excellent tobacco plans were found in most of the beds treated with Bordeaux mixture for rust and leafspot disease control. The plant beds treated last fall with cyanamid for weed control gave weed control, but for the most part gave very poor stands of plants. The poor stand of plants was attributed entirely to the dry season and failure to water the beds heavily in time. The cyanamid treatment was recommended to be tested extensively next year. Many growers regardless of treatment had plant bed failures this year.

Plants in most of the beds seen were ready for setting and will greatly benefit by the good rains falling the first part of the week.

Five new grasses grown on demonstration plots the last three years showed interesting results on difficult types of soils. Often farmers will make commercial seeding of certain of these grasses this year. Extensive seedings, however, are not recommended at this time.

With one-third of the Washington county sheep flocks insured, the cooperative association ended its year with $900 balance.

Katherine Evans Now Busily Engaged In Teaching 30 Students

Thirty kids leave home at 5:30 each school day morning in order to walk their mile or mile and a half to catch the school bus, final destination, the rural school, which is located on the Lancaster Pike only a quarter of a mile from Eastern's campus. Some of these pupils eat only a bite at breakfast for school to them is so much fun that it would be tragic to miss a day and a moment's lateness would cause them to miss the bus.

When these thirty arrive at school they are always met by Laura Katherine Evans, their teacher, (whom college boys will remember as their pal the head desk girl at Burnam Hall last year.) While we collegians are taking that last snooze Katherine is already at school preparing to give her thirty kids the best in schooling that she knows how. School at this rural outpost starts at 6:45 when the bus arrives and school is out when the bus comes back at 3:15.

However, classes don't start at 6:45, but the children are busy from this time on. Some of the children play ball, some play tag, and some may stay inside the room and work jig-saw puzzles or play the games Katherine has provided to entertain the children. Work in earnest usually starts around 7:45 when all the pupils take active part in a work period. Some of the girls have made curtains for the kitchen, some have made plaques from wood, and some of the boys have made a mop and broom closet for the kitchen during this work period.

When asked how she kept the kids busy and quiet all the time Miss Evans replied that the way to keep them quiet was to keep them busy. She also stated that the hardest part of teaching eight grades in one room was keeping them all busy and still teach them all the fundamental things which most pupils in our city schools learn in their own home. All eight grades are taught at this school and although a minimum of time can be given to individual needs these thirty pupils are learning principles and practices which are often neglected in our model schools.

Manners, personal appearance, appreciation of things beautiful, reverence for things religious, and other wholesome ideas are emphasized and although some of these pupils may never be a Phi Bet Kappa or a Rhodes Scholar, still they will know how to respect other people's rights and they will know the qualities which make up good citizenship.

Every one of the thirty pupils has his daily job and he takes particular pride in seeing that this job is done and done to the best of his ability. Since these pupils are at school for such a long time it was decided that through cooperation it might be possible to have something hot to eat or drink with cold lunches which the pupils bring. With the pupils bringing the ingredients and shifts of pupils doing the cooking and dishwashing it has been possible for the pupils to enjoy soup or hot chocolate during the winter months.

Orchid throwing is seldom the practice of the writer, but when excellent work is being done under circumstances which are on the adverse side, orchids are such small token for the real feeling behind them. Laura Katherine Evans is doing magnificent work, and the least we can do is to let the public know exactly what she is doing.

The above article was taken from the Eastern Progress, College newspaper, Richmond, Ky., and was written by Jim Squires.

VERONA 4-H CLUB NEWS

The Verona 4-H Club held its fourth monthly meeting May 13, at the Verona schoolhouse. We were very sorry not to have our secretary, Mary Hope Chipman present, because of illness. Our president, Vernon Myers, appointed Flossie Locke as secretary. The roll was called and we were very sorry to have only seventeen of our members present. We were glad to have Mrs. Chipman with us. Mr. Drake made a very nice talk on the following dates: Tour, August 1; County Fair, August 24; Rally Day, May 24; 4-H Club Camp August 9-15; State Fair Sept. 8-13. We were glad to hear that Miss Gillaspie is improving rapidly and will soon be with us again, though we will be sorry to lose Mrs. Moore.

We were led in our club pledge by our Cheer leader, Virginia Rose Clemons, and we adjourned.

David King, Reporter.

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Constance Homemaker's Club will be held June 4th at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. Lena Fritz. Roll call to be answered with "Your Most Interesting Hobby."

New members and visitors are always welcome.

To keep down taxes, Northern Ireland has abandoned bounties on foxes.

Dairy Herd Improvement

The month of May is credited with an increase in total milk production along with a higher butterfat average. In the Northern Kentucky Association, the herd average for May was 27.1 pounds of fat which is higher than it has been in several months. However, the turning of herds on pasture has not brought about the increase in milk production that normally comes about. This is due to the dry weather which has hurt pasture considerably and prospects are not so favorable for summer pasture. In view of such, dairymen are being encouraged to supplement scant summer pasture with grass silage. Bulletins can be obtained from the County Agent with complete information on such.

Along other lines toward improvement has been the purchase of registered sires by three members of the Association. Dr. R. C. Garrison has just purchased a Guernsey sire from Berea College which has a notable blood line. Mr. Henry Feldman, of Newport, another Guernsey breeder, purchased a sire from the Walnut Hall Farm at the Guernsey sale of April 29th. The third male purchased was from the University of Kentucky herd which was bought by Otis Kells of Williamstown. This calf is not of serviceable age but promises to go far in herd improvement.

These men as well as many others realize the importance the sire plays in building up the herd. By using males from cows with production records, the chances are more favorable toward a rapid building up of any herd.

World's Greatest Features With Mighty Circus

FAMOUS NAMES PREDOMINATE IN RINGLING-BARNUM LIST OF WONDERS.

The Big Show—Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey—will exhibit in Cummingsville, June 7th and 8th, and here's a synopsis of its 1941 features:

Mr. and Mrs. Gargantua the Great, the world's most publicized and fascinating gorilla couple; the new fairyland fantasy, "Old King Cole and Mother Goose," designed and costumed by Norman Bel Geddes, of New York World's Fair Futurama fame, in which 2,000 people and animals take part. Geddes has redesigned the circus from front to back.

"Old King Cole and Mother Goose cost $80,000," and is the grandest of all Big Show pageants; since it is spotted on the program to follow Alfred Court's three great mixed groups of performing wild animals, so that late comer's won't miss it.

The new Birdland aerial ballet, starring lovely Elly Ardelty, costumed by Max Weldy of Paris and staged by Albertina Rasch, famed Hollywood and Broadway musical show dance director; an invasion of acts from South America, headed by the three flying Diego-Fernandez troupes; the great Truzzi, juggler; Hubert Castle, tight-wire star; the Yacopis, Gauchos and Divisos, springboard somersaulting troupes; Adrianna and Charly, trampoline stars; Mlle. Louisa, flying trapeze marvel; the three Flying Concello troupes, with Antionette; the famous Riding Cristiana family—in short 800 world renowned artists. There are 1,600 people, 50 elephants, 1,009 menagerie animals and hundreds of horses.

WITH THE

Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati—Road days are hard days for any ball club. And, so, there is nothing soft staring the Cincinnati Reds in their faces as they tour through the eastern section of the National League.

Their eastern trip opened with a Sunday doubleheader against the New York Giants. Single games against the New Yorks also were scheduled Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday the club was due to move to Philadelphia for a night game. Thursday will be a day of rest, then Friday the Reds and Phils will battle it out in a doubleheader.

Saturday the tempo increases, for on that day the Reds will invade the home field of the steaming Brooklyn Dodgers, who have been performing so many heroics this season. Three single games are scheduled against the Flatbush Flock, whereupon the Reds will move to Boston Tuesday, June 10, for a three game series.

Following the third game of the Boston series on Thursday, June 12, the Reds will hope a rattler west. En route to Cincinnati they will stop at Cooperstown, N. Y., the birthplace of baseball, for an exhibition game against the Cleveland Indians on Friday, June 13.

Return to Crosley Field is scheduled for Saturday, June 14, against the New York Giants. A doubleheader against the Giants is booked the following day, Sunday, June 15, and a single game Monday, June 16. Boston will be here for a ladies' day game Tuesday, June 17, and a night game on Wednesday, June 18.

Tickets for all of the Red's home games for the remainder of the season are on sale at the Reds' downtown ticket office at 307 Vine Street.

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

Laraine Day was awarded a new contract and at the same time was assigned one of the most important roles in her brief but eventful career when she was cast as Lucia, the heroine of "The Bad Man," with Wallace Beery and Lionel Barrymore.

The role continues a cinematic association with Barrymore, with whom she has appeared in all the "Dr. Kildare" pictures. She plays an Eastern girl who, going to a Western ranch, is one of a group captured by Pancho Lopez, bandit, played by Beery.

SATURDAY

Scattergood gives of his shrewdness and wisdom from a chair on the porch of his store in the picture "Scattergood Baines," which will be shown at the Gayety, Saturday.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Lucille Ball contributed a gag to the fun in "A Girl, a Guy and a Gob." One sequence is laid in a box in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium, with George Cleveland Lloyd Corrigan, Edmond O'Brien and Marguerite Chapman teaming with Miss Ball in the routine. Cleveland plays Lucille's father and is quite an eccentric character.

"If my grandpa were in this box, he'd be smoking an old corn cob pipe," Lucille said to Director Richard Wallace. "Swell idea, Lucille," Wallace retorted.

TUESDAY
Double Feature

Special instruction on the subject of aviation was given to the Dead End Kids and the Little Tough Guys before they assumed their roles in Universal's "Give Us Wings."

Appearing as youthful aviators in the film, the boys were first taken on a tour of one of the huge factories in Burbank, Calif., where they gained information about aircraft construction.

Later, several noted pilots showed the group the fundamentals of plane operation.

Plus

Rita Quigley, who scored such a sensational hit as the daughter in "Susan and God," has another dramatic role in 20th Century-Fox's "Jennie" which will be shown as one of the double faetures.

Rita portrays the unhappy daughter of a family tyrant in the picture, and advance reports indicate that it is her best role to date. "Jennie" is the story of a young wife who dared to stand up to her "in-laws" hold the man she loved and bring joy into eight empty lives.

Featured in the picture are Virginia Gilmore, William Henry, Geo. Montgomery, Ludlwig Stossel and many others.

FOOT TEST

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

Usually the first sign of foot trouble is the running over of the heels of shoes.

In a strong healthy human foot the 26 bones are held together to form a substantial support for the weight of the body and they are held together in place by strong ligaments, tendons, and muscles. These bones are so arranged that they form four separate and natural arches.

The heel bone and ankle bone lean out of position more or less in almost every kind of foot trouble. The cause, is that ligaments, muscles and tendons which hold the heel bone and ankle bone in place, become weakened, and are not strong enough to hold these bones in their normal position.

Backaches, headaches, and many body ills may be traced to feet. Even symptoms like those of rheumatism and arthritis now are being banished with proper shoes. Also nervous indigestion, sleepless nights, etc.—Adv.

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

On Thursday, June 5, the Burlington Homemakers will meet at the courthouse. It will be an all-day meeting with a covered dish luncheon.

The topic of the day will be "Meal Planning and Its Component Parts." With the weather so warm one will be glad to learn how to prepare healthy meals with the least effort. Since all are now so vitamin conscious, to learn which foods contain the different vitamins will be a help along the lines of Home Defense.

Those who have Homemaker demonstration gardens will be grateful for this much needed and timely rain.

All women who are interested in this phase of the Homemakers' work will be welcomed at the court house on June 5th.

CARD OF THANKS

With deepest gratitude we wish to extend our appreciation to our relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown in the great loss of our beloved husband and father,

James L. Williamson

We also wish to thank Rev. William Smith for his words of consolation; all the donors of the beautiful floral offerings, and Chambers and Grubbs, funeral directors for their efficient service.

WORK ON NEW ROAD TO BEGIN

WITHIN NEXT WEEK, ACCORDING TO COUNTY ATTORNEY—WILL SKIRT FLORENCE TO ELIMINATE BOTTLENECK.

Construction work on the new link in the Dixie Highway U. S. 25 which will skirt Florence will begin within the next week or ten days, according to Chas. W. Riley, County Attorney. The new road which will be approximately a half-mile long will connect with the present four-lane highways north of Florence and will join the present roadway again at the intersection of Highway 42 and 25 south of Florence.

The new road will be located east of Florence, thereby eliminating the sharp bend in the center of town.

The new road will be forty-two feet wide in its driving surface, with six-inch curbs on each side, a two-foot grass plot on either side and a 3½-foot sidewalk on each side.

Contract for construction work was let several weeks ago to the Fuller Davies Co., Frankfort, for $44,254.15, which includes grading, draining and surfacing of the new highway and sidewalks.

It was also reported that U. S. 25 from Florence to Richwood will be resurfaced with black-top.

Rapid progress is being made on the Big Bone Beaver Lick Road, Mr. Riley announced this week.

Well Known Ferry Operator Is Visitor In Burlington Monday

Capt. Henry Kottmyer, Constance, well known river man, was a visitor in Burlington Monday, and while here called at this office.

Mr. Kottmyer has been on the river for the past 76 years, starting work on his father's ferry when he was only four years of age. During that time he has met many people, and no doubt has one of the longest list of friends of any man in this section.

At present Mr. Kottmyer owns Boone No. 7, a ferry operating on the Ohio River at Constance. The ferry is of all-steel construction, and is said to be one of the best, if not the best ferry operated on the Ohio.

Mr. Kottmyer stated that during his 74 years on the river he has never had but one boat to sink, that being due to the heavy ice in 1918.

At eighty, Mr. Kottmyer appears to be enjoying the best of health, and his many friends in this county and adjoining territory, wish many more years of continued health and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolpha Sebree and family, of Florence and Mrs. J. F. Jockey, of Walton, motored to Lexington Friday, where they attended the University of Kentucky graduation exercises. Miss Kathryn Sebree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sebree was graduated with a B. S. degree in Home Economics.

ANOTHER HAT IN POLITICAL RING

E. E. Reid, of Williamstown announces in this issue of The Recorder for Representative from the counties of Boone and Grant, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2, 1941.

Mr. Reid is native of Kentucky, spending the greater part fo his life in Boyle county. During the past eight years he has been a citizen of Grant county, operating a lumber business at Williamstown.

He is the eldest son of a Christian minister, a member of the Christian Church and of the Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Reid states that he has never made a race for any political office herestofore, but if elected will serve the people to the best of his ability. His statement follows:

"I earnestly solicit the support of all Boone County voters and if nominated and elected will serve my district to the best of my ability, and will favor any legislation that will benefit my district."

Local Youth Receives Numerous Promotions In United States Army

Firt. Sgt. Frank B. Helms, son of Mrs. Nellie J. Helms, of Petersburg has made an excellent record in the Hawaiian Islands in the service of the U. S. Army.

He enlisted at Ft. Thomas on July 1, 1938 as a Private, was assigned to Battery "C" 64th Coast Artillery (A. A.) on arrival in the Hawaiian Dept., Sept. 30, 1938. After twenty-six days of service he was appointed Corporal

April 6, 1940 he was transferred to 23d Bombardment Squadron (H) (Army Day), appointed Pvt. 1st Class, Fourth Class Specialist on April 6, 1940; rerated Specialist 3rd class April 14, 1940; appointed Corporal July 14, 1940; appointed Sergeant Sept. 16, 1940; appointed Staff Sergeant April 16, 1941 and First Sergeant April 17, 1941.

First Sergeant Helms is the youngest First Sergeant to be appointed at the age of 24 years, and was appointed First Sergeant from Private in 1 year and 11 days.

First Sergeant Helms is due to return to the United States on December 31, 1941 and hopes to be shaking the hands of his many friends.

Successful Revival Closes At Methodist Church Sunday Night

Revival services closed Sunday night at the Burlington Methodist Church, after a very successful two-week session, with Rev. Anderson, of Liberty, Ky., bringing the messages.

Attendance was good throughout the meeting, and seven new members were added to the church roll. Those added to the roll were Mrs. Cecil Cobb, Mrs. Chas. Ward, Robert Smith, Edward Walton Clore, Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Asbury and Mrs. Asbury's mother.

Large Graduating Class Receives Degrees From U. Of K. June 5th

Between four and five hundred students were graduated from the University of Kentucky Friday evening at the seventy-fourth annual June commencement exercises held in McLean Stadium on Stoll Field. Dr. Herman B. Wells, president of Indiana University at Bloomington delivered the commencement address, and Acting President Thomas P. Cooper presided at the exercises.

Commencement at the University of Kentucky climaxed a week of graduation festivities which included military field day exercises and R. O. T. C. graduation Wednesday, May 28; alumni day and baccalaureate Thursday, June 5, and the annual meeting of the alumni association also on June 5. Dr. Francis S. Hutchins, president of Berea College was the baccalaureate speaker.

Among those students graduating from Northern Kentucky are: Kathryn Grant Sebree, Bachelor of Science in Home Economics, Florence; and Harold Kelly Clore, Bachelor of Laws, Burlington.

Florence Lady Suffers Broken Hip

Vacation Bible School To Be Held At Local Church

Daily Vacation Bible School will begin at the Burlington Baptist Church Monday, June 16th and will continue until June 25. This school is for all boys and girls between the ages of 4 and 16 years, and all boys and girls of this community, regardless of denomination are invited to attend.

Excellent leaders have been selected to teach the classes for beginners, primary, juniors, intermediates and a story hour for children.

Classes will open at 9 o'clock each morning and close at 12 noon. Cars will operate over the various highways in this locality to furnish transportation to those children who have no means of travel. Any parent having a child that does not have a way to reach these classes please see Rev. Roy Johnson, pastor of the local Baptist Church.

Friday afternoon of this week at 1 p. m. all leaders and pupils who plan to attend these classes will meet to make out a schedule and other plans for the school. Wednesday, June 18, a moving picture will be taken of the school and will be shown Wednesday night, June 25, commencement night.

All boys and girls of this community are urged to attend.

Retired Naval Officer Purchases 155-Acre Farm On Gunpowder

Commander W. B. Fogarty, a retired Naval Officer, of Cincinnati, purchased the 155-acre farm on Gunpowder Creek, known as the Joe Riddell farm, last Saturday, from Mrs. R. S. Hensley, a granddaughter of the late Joe Riddell.

Commander Fogarty learned of this farm through his acquaintance with Dr. M. A. Yelton and became interested in the purchase. Large holes of water, stocked with fish border this farm. An old log house and barn are located on the farm.

The sale was handled through A. B. Renaker.

Fish And Game Club To Hold Meeting Tonight

The Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association, will hold their regular monthly meeting at their club house near Burlington, tonight (Thursday).

All members are urged to attend this meeting, as plans for a summer program will be discussed.

Hood-Craven

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Rev. Arthur Tipton, Ludlow, Saturday afternoon June 7 at 3:45, when Vivian Elizabeth, the oldest daughter of Irwin Hood, of Constance, became the bride of Paul Craven, son of Mrs. Henrietta Kottmyer Craven, Constance.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe with white accessories, and a corsage of white roses, while her biresmaids, her sister Avalon was dressed in blue crepe with corsage of yellow roses, and her cousin Shirley Hood wore pink silk with pink roses.

The groom wore a black suit, while his attendants, his brother Carl, wearing biege and Manilus Goodridge, blue.

After the wedding supper on the Dixie Highway, the bride and groom left for a motor trip with their destination unknown. On their return they will be at home to their friends with the bride's father in Constance.

W. P. Beemon, C. F. Blankenbeker and A. B. Renaker attended the Kentucky Association Bankers Group Meeting, held at Brooksville, Wednesday.

New Haven P.-T. A. Sponsor Picture Show

Do you want to give your support to an organization that has the welfare of your boys and girls at heart during their school days? Then come as often as you can to the moving pictures sponsored by the New Haven P.-T. A. throughout the summer months. The shows are given every Thursday evening at 8:30 E. S. T.

Next Thursday evening, June 12, the picture will star Joe E. Brown. Admission 15c for adults, 5c for children. Shows will be given at New Haven School.

Won't you help us to give the best to our boys and girls during their school days? Your support will be greatly appreciated.

BIG BONE TOPS HEBRON TEAM

AS OTHER GAMES IN COUNTY ARE RAINED OUT SATURDAY —LOCAL SEMIPRO NINE DOWN WIEDEMANN TEAM.

In the only game played in the county league Saturday, Big Bone journeyed to Hebron to wallop its opponent 16 to 1 on a wet ground. Opening their attack with two runs in the second inning, the winners climaxed their assault with eight tallies in the eighth frame, when they drove Goodridge from the hill, after scoring all their runs off his pitches. Aylor finished the game for Hebron. Wood did the pitching for the winners.

The Big Bone team has shown exceptional power at the bat, having scored a total of 75 runs in the five games played during current season, while holding its opponents to 31 runs.

The Burlington-Petersburg and the Belleview-CCC games were postponed on account of wet grounds and will be played on a later date, to be determined and announced later.

Burlington travels to Hebron, CCC to Big Bone, and Belleview to Petersburg for games Saturday.

The standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	5	0
Belleview	3	1
Petersburg	2	2
Hebron	2	3
Burlington	1	3
CCC	0	4

The Boone County All-Stars chalked up an impressive victory in the Campbell County Semipro League Sunday by turning back the strong Wiedemann team 9 to 3 at the local park. The All-Stars blasted Bailey, the Wiedemann's hurler, from the mound in the fifth inning, after hammering him for 10 hits and six of their runs. In the next four frames they touched Arnzen for five base knocks and three more tallies. In addition to rapping out doubles, Deck and Williamson each drove in a pair of runs for the winners. Shinkle held the losers to nine scattered hits, while striking out eight and giving four bases on balls.

The local semipros play the Dan Cohen Shoes team, which the All-Stars down 3 to 0 earlier in the season, at the Burlington park in their next game.

SPECIALIST VISITS CO. POULTRYMEN

WEDNESDAY OF LAST WEEK—ONLY LIMITED NUMBER OF FLOCKS COULD BE VISITED DURING DAY.

Poultry demonstration flock cooperators were visited by Jim Humphrey, poultry field agent of the College, and the County Agent on Wednesday of last week. Only a limited number of flocks could be visited during the day. A few high points seen on the visit are included:

Mrs. Cad Sullivan, 100 fine young turkey poults being raised in a brooder house with use of a home-made brick brooder. Three hundred chicks were also being successfully raised under another brick brooder.

Lucy Lee Grant, Idlewild-Hebron Road, has successfully raised a fine bunch of chicks under an electric brooder. She reports that the electric brooder operates economically and efficiently. Mr. Humphrey recommends the use of a good electric brooder, if one is to be used.

Huey Aylor and Mrs. Lola Ecast both report a successful poultry year.

Cecil Conner of Corner's Hatchery, Hebron, reports enlarged hatchery capacity with three new incubators, totaling 42,000-egg capacity. All hatchery chicks this year were from blood tested stock. He reports that the hatchery this year operated at capacity and was unable to supply the demand.

James V. Tupman, Limaburg, has successfully operated a lantern brooder in his 4-H project, raising 50 chicks with no losses. A model lantern broder at the poultry school last spring looked like just another idea but James finds it works "extra good." More of these will be used next year.

Grant Maddox, Florence, one of the largest and most successful poultry farm operators in Northern Kentucky, plans to build more houses and run around 2,000 laying pullets this winter. Coming from high production pedigreed breeding stock secured in the East and under Grant's care, they ought to make money.

Ben Lee Poultry Farms, Florence, 1500 laying birds on very limited space. Looks like they understand how to do the job.

J. F. Cleek, Beaver raised no baby chicks this spring but hopes to have houses filled with laying pullets this fall.

Mrs. S. B. Sleet, Beaver, is doing a good job with her farm flock. She has good brooding and laying houses.

There are many other Boone County poultrymen that are doing a good job this year.

Thirty Children From County Attend Orphan's Outing Tues.

Thirty Boone County children attended the annual Orphan's Outing at Coney Island, Tuesday of this week, according to J. F. Moore, chairman for this county.

The children were transported to Cincinnati by private owned cars, and from there to Coney Island on the Island Queen. This event has been an annual affair for underprivileged children and orphans during the past few years.

Mr. Moore was assisted by his wife, Rev. T. O. Harrison and Mrs. Martha Tandy of Burlington, Mrs. Jack Purdy, of Waterloo and Mrs. Ashcraft, of McVille.

The outing is sponsored by the the Cincinnati Automobile Club.

Many Books Available To Boone County Readers

Through the kind cooperation of Mr. Goodridge, principal, and Miss Cropper, librarian, the Hebron School library books have been made available to Boone County readers. Although the Reading Project is a Homemaker activity, it is thought that the county in general will be anxious to use this fine collection of books.

The following titles are numbered among the collection: The Citadel by Cronin; several of Lloyd Douglas' books, including The Magnificient Obsession; Rebecca; four books by Richard Halliburton; Heizer's An American Doctor's Odyssey; Live Alone and Like It; two by James Hilton, Goodbye, Mr. Chips, and Lost Horizon; Anne Lindbergh's North to the Orient; the ever popular Gone With the Wind; and the book about Boone County, Ann Stewart's Let the Earth Speak. Of interest to men will be Byrd's Skyward, and Johnson's Over African Jungles. These are only a few of the eighty or more fine books it is possible to obtain.

The books will be kept in the office of the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie, at Burlington, and will be open to those wishing to get books every Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m. The charge for use of the books is one cent a day and the time limit two weeks.

Florence people finding it difficult to get to Burlington may get in touch with Mrs. John B. Elliott, Florence R. I, who will be glad to arrange and get the books to them.

It is hoped that Boone County people will take full advantage of this fine opportunity for availing themselves of such excellent reading material during the summer months. With such a stimulating beginning it should not be too difficult to build up a Boone County Homemakers' Library.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ryle, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Vice and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Vice, Mrs. Thos. Hensley Mrs. Geo. Freeland. Mr. Lee Cropper and Albert Wm. Weaver attended the all-day meeting at the Beaver Lick Baptist Church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson and family, of Carrollton, were weekend guests of friends here.

Dairy Cattle Bring Good Price

Dairy cattle brought a good price at Harry Ruffra's sale at Union last Saturday. The high cow with calf by side brought $131.00. Several other cows brought over $100 per head.

Good stock that is in good condition and of the right age always sell to a better advantage than old stock poorly kept. Prices of dairy cattle are unquestionably higher than in recent years. We should at the same time cull our herds more closely, feed our stock better and grow a larger amount of cheap feed which means better pastures and large amounts of higher quality hays and roughages. Good stock must have large amounts of good feed and it must be low cost feed.

REGULAR BUS SERVICE FOR BURLINGTON IS STARTED TUESDAY

Morning By Dixie Traction Company of Erlanger—Only Temporary Schedule Is Available At Present.

The Dixie Traction Company, a branch of the Green Line Company, of Covington, started regular service to Burlington Tuesday morning, operating on a five-trip schedule until the needs of the community are determined and a more definite schedule can be arranged.

Although it was not generally known that service would be started Tuesday morning, each bus carried passengers throughout the day.

The temporary schedule which will be used for the first several days is as follows: All times given are E. S. T:

Lv. Florence	Av. Burlington
6:30	6:50
7:30	7:50
12:00	12:20
5:50	6:10
6:50	7:10
Lv. Burlington	Av. Florence
7:00	7:20
8:00	8:20
12:30	12:50
6:20	6:40
7:20	7:40

For many years the people of Burlington and surrounding community have desired such service, and after their desires have been realized will no doubt make an effort to see that it continues to operate by supporting the project in every way possible.

The temporary bus terminal will be Blythe's Lunch Room, and until a more definite schedule is arranged, the buses will operate daily on the above schedule.

The fare from Burlington to Florence is 15c or two tokens that can be purchased at 6¼ cents each. A roundtrip fare to Cincinnati will be 58c, according to the present schedule.

All persons interested in the bus service for this community are requested to give the matter serious thought for the next several days, and be prepared to present your views on the matter when a meeting will be called to arrange for a definite schedule. The Dixie Traction Company wishes to cooperate with the citizens here, and will maintain a schedule that is most convenient for a majority of the people.

Three More Called For Service June 24

The local Draft Board No. 9, Burlington, received another call for three men for June 24th, bringing the total number of calls for this month to three, an including sixteen men in the three calls.

This is the largest number to be called for any single month, according to C. G. Kelly, Clerk of the Board. All questionnaries are expected to be mailed out before July 1st.

Johnie Boles, Burlington R. 1 and Robert Henry Engle, Hebron are two of the three men selected for the last call. The third man is a volunteer, and his name could not be revealed at this writing.

County Nutrition Meeting Set June 13th

A meeting of the Boone County Nutrition committee has been scheduled for Friday, June 13th, 1:30 p. m. (E. S. T.) at the Burlington courthouse according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Representatives of civic and commercial organizations have been asked to attend the meeting.

A county program of work will be set up by the group. Plans also will be made for starting community nutrition committees.

Reports of the District Nutrition Conference held in Lexington June 3 will be given by the county representatives. The following people represented organizations at the Lexington Conference: Miss Evelyn Conrad, Vocational Home Economics; Miss Elizabeth Lowry, Red Cross Nurse, Mrs. Jane Utz, County Relief Administrator; Mrs. Geo. Kottmyer, Boone County Homemakers president; Mrs. Sam Sleet, Bluegrass Federation of Homemakers; Mrs. J. C. Layne, Federated Woman's clubs; Mrs. Joe Berkshire; Florence Homemakers, Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent; Mrs. John E. Crigler, Utopia Clubs; Mr. John Crigler, A. C. Program; Mr. Mark Cook, ACP Committee Chairman; D. H. Norris, County Superintendent and Mr. H. B. Drake, Assistant County Agent.

Hay Prospects Improved

Hay and roughage prospects have been much improved by recent rains, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Despite the severe spring drouth that cut grass, hay and pastures, there are excellent prospects for good crops of korean and late cutting of alfalfa.

Korean, an increasing popular hay in recent years, has come out wonderfully the past few days. Practically unnoticed until recent rains, it has begun to grow rapidly. A few rains in July and early August and with proper curing weather, two to three tons of good korean hay will prove a great benefit to livestock feeders.

FATHER'S DAY

We have worked on so many of the Ten Commandments and altered them to suit our own tastes that to find one that is left unscathed and unchanged, is a victory. Coveting what belongs to the neighbor is practiced even by whole nations. Thievery is entered into by once-honored governments so that the individual who steals looks amateurish. But still stands one of the Ten that is not changed and which always remains as a yardstick of man's principles. Consider "Honor thy father and thy mother." This theme of righteousness is the text of the family life of every nationality. Those people who cast aside the reverence for their father is indeed a lost people.

As we celebrate our annual Father's Day on Sunday, June 15, consider the manhood of tomorrow from the training received from the manhood honored today. Perhaps your own family circle covers a vast amount of land, members not losing touch only wandering far afield, but within each of them remains their appreciation of their family. The act of fatherhood is one of the greatest responsibilities placed on a man's shoulders and his treatment of this obligation forms the core of the family life. As the head of the house, as the mentor of family behavior, as the breadwinner for the welfare of his own, sits in state the father. Share this day with him. Regard his importance and hope that one day you might sit in the seat and bring to it as much honor as your father before you.

MONUMENT TO AMERICAN MEDICINE

Outside a famous Southern city there is an old cemetery where the dead of long-past generations lie buried. There are 1,396 graves in that cemetery—and in only four cases were the persons buried there more than 45 years old at the time of death. In other words, only one-fifth of one percent of them reached what in these modern times is regarded as the prime of life.

There could be no more graphic illustration of what American medicine and American medical science have done for the health of America. One hundred and fifty years ago the life expectancy of man in the United States was 35 years. Today it is 62 years.

That has been the result of endless striving, under a free system of medicine which gives every doctor, every scientist, the chance to achieve to the very utmost of his abilities and energies. Researchers in great laboratories—specialists in big cities—country doctors in villages and hamlets—all have contributed. They have spent their lives working to make the lives of others longer, fuller, happier.

In those hundred and fifty years typhoid fever has almost disappeared; smallpox has been subdued; diphetheria has been practically conquered; tuberculosis has been robbed of much of its terror. The monument to American medicine is written in the standards of health of the American people—standards which are not equaled anywhere else on earth.

THE FARMER IN WARTIME

In normal times, the farmer must grapple with difficult problems. In abnormal times, such as the present, those problems are doubled.

That is where such institutions as the farmer-owned marketing cooperatives enter the picture. They can deal with the problems of dwindling export markets, of higher production costs, of changing domestic markets, of improved production methods.

These cooperatives are growing in size and in influence. The intelligent farmer knows that he needs their services more than he ever did.

It has been some time since we have heard a man wishing that he had a million dollars.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

PROGRESS IN WORLD MISSIONS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 13:44-52; Galatians 3:26-29.

GOLDEN TEXT—For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.—Galatians 3:26.

"All people" are included in God's plan of redemption. When the angel of the Lord announced the birth of Christ to the shepherds he said, "Fear not: for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people" (Luke 2:10). The invitation is: "Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17). The disciples naturally and properly first preached the gospel to the Jews, but the time came when God was ready to send them to the Gentiles, that they too might hear the message of redemption. That historic turning point is found in our lesson. As Paul and his fellow workers proceeded from Paphos on the isle of Cyprus to the mainland with their message of Christ's redemption, they met both

I. Popularity and Persecution (Acts 13:44, 45).

In the synagogue of Antioch of Pisidia they were invited to preach, and Paul was blessed in the presentation of a powerful gospel message. Read it in Acts 13:16-41. It met with such a response that the people "besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath" (v. 42). So great was the popularity of Paul's message that the whole city came the next Sabbath "to hear the Word of God." What a wonderful sight that must have been and how the disciples must have rejoiced as they preached the Word.

But wait—there's a worm in that red apple of popularity, and its name is jealousy (v. 45). It caused the Jews to blaspheme as they contradicted Paul's preaching. Jealousy always makes a fool out of the one who yields to it. Yet this green-eyed monster is permitted to go right on destroying, hindering, hurting. In the church and the home, as well as in the social order, we let jealousy come in and wreck friendship, break down reputations, yes, even block the work of God. May someone learn the lesson of our text and turn away from that evil way—right now!

II. Rejection and Acceptance (Acts 13:46-52).

All through the record of Scripture and the history of man to this day we find some rejecting the grace of God—others accepting. Those who reject only prove themselves "unworthy of eternal life" (v. 46) and are themselves rejected of God.

The disciples now turn from the Jews to minister to the Gentiles, even as had been prophesied (Isa. 42:6; 49:6; Luke 2:31, 32). They accepted the word of truth and "were glad, and glorified the word of God." Rejection brought eternal death, but acceptance brought eternal life and joy.

They could not keep the good news to themselves, but had to spread it abroad. A lighted candle begins at once to shine. A redeemed soul longs to bring others to Christ. Persecution continued; in fact, was intensified to the point of physical ejection of the disciples. Were they downhearted? No! for the joy of the Lord filled their Holy Spirit-filled lives. Being filled with the Spirit means being filled with joy, even in the midst of persecution.

It really works! Have you given God a chance to prove it in your life?

III. Neither Jew nor Greek (Gal. 3:26, 27).

This selection from the letter which Paul wrote some ten years later to the people of the area in which he had now preached reveals the same truth, that faith in Christ is primary—and essential—in Christian experience.

In this early life we recognize distinctions based on nationality, sex, social position, and many other grounds. While these are overemphasized by most people, they are legitimate and necessary distinctions. But in Christ—ah! there the differences disappear. We are all one in Him (v. 28). This is a lesson which we have not learned even yet, but our slowness of heart and mind does not alter God's truth.

The church is talking much these days about ecumenicity, which in plain words means the unity of the people of the various branches of the church all over the world. All too often, however, the proposed basis of unity rests on a surrender or a partial surrender of what Paul declares to be the essential (the sine qua non if you wish), which is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. No other unity but that which centers in Him, and a personal relationship to Him, is sufficient either for this life or for the life to come.

Wonders of God

God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants His footstep in the sea
And rides upon the storm.

BURLINGTON HOMEMAKERS

The regular meeting of the Burlington Homemakers was held at the courthouse on June 5. It was a good meeting and July promises to be a full month.

The Citizenship chairman in her report stressed strongly the need of Red Cross workers, both for sewing and knitting. She said that Red Cross work should rank among foremost of the Homemaker's projects. A synopsis of the speech by Mr. Bingham of the Louisville Courier and Times was given, the topic being "In Time of Crisis."

Nutrition is now an outstanding feature of all programs. Homemakers are urged to properly plan their meals, to learn what constitutes a well balanced menu, and by so doing have National Defense start in the home.

The lending library is now in operation. On Friday afternoons of each week, Mrs. Elliott will be in Burlington to let out books and summer, quite a number of its is lending to the library for the check them in. The Hebron school books, an excellent selection. These may be rented for a penney a day. This charge is to insure against wear and tear of the books. The books taken out of the county and state library are loaned without charge and may be kept for two weeks, after which a fine of two cents a day is charged (for each day over the first two weeks). There is also a magazine exchange in connection with the library.

The tentative date for the Homemaker's picnic is July 8th, and the place is Clifty Falls. A bus will be chartered for the day.

According to the exterior beautification report, an interesting project, "Beautifying the Town Approaches" is awaiting the Homemakers, under the leadership of Mr. Engle. It is suggested that roadsides appoaching Burlington be planted. Is was pointed out that since "city people" are becoming so farm-conscious a beautiful approach to a community is a big asset and one of the best ways in which to influence desirable persons. Highway 42 from Florence to Louisville was named as an example.

June is the month for ordering bulbs. In order to get the varieties wanted and choice bulbs, place your order now, so the order may be sent in before stock is exhausted. Mrs. Garnett Tolin will be glad to take all orders for bulbs.

These shoes of ours that are white and brown or white and black are difficult to clean without smearing the job. A subscriber writes in to suggest that a good way is to apply the white cleaning fluid with a brush like comes in a youngster's paint-box. This is easier than using a sponge or cloth for you aren't as liable to get the white polish on the brown or black leather.

Friendly Service

Here is a situation that might have brought sadness to a little girl.

Her cat has climbed one of our poles and is unwilling or unable to come down. But a company lineman has been notified of her predicament and has saved the day by climbing the pole and retrieving the cat.

A small thing? Yes. But it illustrates the type of friendly service in which employees of this company take pride. They know that no amount of impersonal efficiency can ever take the place of courtesy, friendliness and a sincere desire to be helpful and accommodating. Retrieving a kite or a cat . . . helping a stranded motorist . . . repairing a damaged appliance . . . lending the office for the church circle's rummage sale—all are small things but they represent a concept of service that goes far beyond the mere delivery of current at a stated voltage.

In dealing with your electric service man, you're dealing with a friend and neighbor who is not only interested in seeing that you get good electric service but who wants to make it easy and pleasant for you to do business with the company he represents.

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers met at the Town Hall May 24, for an all-day meeting with 23 ladies and several children present.

We were delighted to have Miss Mary H. Gillaspie and Mrs. John Elliott with us. Mrs. John Elliott is the County Reading Chairman. She gave a very interesting report on the meeting held with the different reading club chairmen, and an outline of the work that they have planned for the year. Mrs. Elliott is very enthusiastic about her work, and makes everyone feel that they should do more and better reading.

Mrs. Sarah Markesbery and Mrs. Nell Blankenbeker gave a report on the joint Citizenship and Exterior Beautification meeting, they urged that every one help with the Red Cross work and other activities of the citizenship committees. They also told about the Silver Tea that these committees are planning to have at the Florence Christian Church on July 31, 1941. Mrs. Blankenbeker and Mrs. John Vest of the Walton Club are making final arrangements for the tea. Guest speakers for the afternoon will be Mrs. Ann Stewart, well known for "Let the Earth Speak," and Mrs. James Layne, who is connected with the Federation of Women's Clubs and the State Highway Beautification Department. This tea should be of much interest to all Boone County people since they plan to use the proceeds from the tea to beautify the Boone County roads.

Mrs. Blankenbeker, county citizenship chairman and Mrs. Garnett Tolin, county exterior beautification chairman, are both working hard in the interest of our local communities and county, and it should be the duty of everyone to get behind them and help to make their work grow and survive.

During the afternoon session Miss Gillaspie spoke on the essentials of a well balanced diet. She stressed the need of balanced meals the plans for the "Rug Shows" at all times. She also told about which are to be held at Burlington, Florence and Walton on July 17, 18, 19, 1941. She compared them to a three-ring-circus, the county being divided into three groups, of about three or four clubs to a group, then they will show the rugs which they have made during the project at the place designated to them.

In the absence of the project leaders the knitted rug lesson was given by Miss Gillaspie. Much interest was shown in the knitted rugs.

If we have to cut down on gasoline we will also be able to cut down on surplus hip-lines.

A fellow should start to whistle when he is happy, when he isn't happy and when he wants to complain.

There are two things we are holding onto in this country, come hell and high-water, and that is the Bible and our Constitution.

If we can find peace right here the loss of peace outside quite so in Boone County it doesn't make hard to bear.

This Week In Defense

Dr. Will Alexander of the OPM, speaking in Atlantic City, said defense industries will need 4,000,000 more workers by January. He said, as examples, the San Diego, San Francisco and Vallejo areas of California will need 31,000; Detroit, 66,000 to 88,000; Philadelphia, 70,000; northern New Jersey, 30,000; Dallas and Fort Worth, 17,200; and Wichita, 7,000. He asked employers not to discriminate against persons with necessary skills because of race, religion or color.

Labor Secretary Perkins reported 324,000 workers will be needed in the shipbuilding industry, 408,000 in aircraft, 291,000 in machine tools and ordnance, and 384,000 in other defense industries. She said the greatest single need is for 156,000 skilled machinists and 139,000 semi-skilled assemblers.

War Secretary Stimson announced that skilled workers in the Army will be released, if required in key civilian jobs, upon the request of former employers. Sidney Hillman, OPM Associate Director General, again appealed to all unemployed, all persons not in defense industries, and all persons who can do more highly skilled work than required by their present job, to register at local public employment offices so they may be trained and placed in defense work.

Prices

Bureau of Labor Statistics reported food prices increase for the sixth consecutive month and are now about 6.5 percent above last November. Prices of all foods moved upward but the latest increase results from advances in prices for dairy products, fresh fruits, vegetables, pork and lamb, the Bureau said.

The Department of Justice announced Federal Grand Juries in San Francisco, New York, Philadelphia, Hartford, Denver, Dubuque and Washington have indicted 300 firms and individuals in a nation-wide drive to prevent unwarranted increases in food costs.

Agriculture

Agriculture Secretary Wickard asked for a one-third increase in Cheddar cheese production and a one-fourth increase in evaporated milk. He said an increase in total milk production, asked several weeks ago, has been made, but the milk supply must increase in areas surrounding cheese and evaporated milk plants. He said prices would be supported by Government purchases for lease-lend activities.

Priorities

The OPM added copper, cork and steel to vital defense materials under priority control to give defense needs and essential civilian needs first call on the materials.

L. Edward Scriven, Assistant Priorities Director, speaking in Chicago, said "you can walk through any large retail store today and sell all around you commonplace objects—stoves, toasters, vacuum cleaners, typewriters, cameras, tools, and lots of other things—which cannot escape being hit by the demands of the defense program."

Consumers

The Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply suggested that local consumer groups aid the defense program by establishing local market radio news service, analyzing price rises, and establishing consumer information centers to advise on buying problems and check quality, grading and labeling of consumer goods.

Prospective Oil and Power Shortage

Secretary of Interior Ickes, Defense Petroleum Coordinator, said a temporary restriction on the use of gasoline and oil on the East coast may become necessary because of the shortage of tanker transportation. He said a proposed $70,000,000 pipe line from Texas to ease the situation would require 12 to 15 months to build.

The Federal Power Commission began a series of conferences with electric utilities officials regarding rapidly expanding defense needs for power, aggravated by a drouth in the mid-Atlantic and Southern areas. President Roosevelt asked Congress for $285,000,000 to complete the Great Lakes St. Lawrence seaway and power project to permit ocean-going vessels to reach the Great Lakes and make available an additional 2,200,000 horse-power of electric energy.

Home Defense

New York's Mayor LaGuardia, Director of the Office of Civilian Defense, reported it will take at least a year to obtain equipment to protect the nation's cities during bombing raids. He said it would cost about $43,000 each to equip the permanent fire companies in the country, and in many places auxiliary fire companies would be needed.

Foreign Affairs

Secretary of State Hull, said French - German collaboration threatens seriously to alter French relations with the United States. The President told his press conference rumors of German-English peace discussions were Nazi-inspired and not true.

Ships

President Roosevelt authorized the U. S. Maritime Commission to take over foreign ships in U. S. ports. The Commission announced it has arranged with Britain for American ships to take over services from Canada and the U. S. to Australia and New Zealand to relieve English vessels for war work. The Commission also announced purchases of 28 merchant ships for use as Army and Navy auxiliaries and ordered Atlantic and Gulf Coast line ship operators to make available 50 percent of their tonnage—between 60 and 70 vessels, totaling 375,000 tons—for the 2,000,000 ton emergency pool for lease-lend operations.

Navy Secretary Knox announced competitions would be worked out to speed building of ships by awards to the fastest workers and the fastest shipyards.

Navy

Navy Secretary Knox announced the launching of the 35,000-ton battleship South Dakota five months ahead of schedule. He said he hoped the warship would be ready for service by January although this normally takes a year after launching. Mr. Knox said the Navy's 35,000-ton ships far exceed in power, guns and arms the sunken German warship Bismarck. The Navy announced that all Atlantic bases acquired from Great Britain are now available for limited operations and will be completely finished within a year.

Army Air

The War Department announced high school graduates without sufficient education to become officers may enlist in the Air Corps for training as pilots. Applicants between 19 and 22 will receive preference. The Army said eventually 20 percent of its pilots may be enlisted men who will be trained to fly and given the rating of flight sergeant with pay of $108 to $207 per month, depending on length of service.

The War Department also announced Army Aid Corps aviation cadets now receive the same pay and allowances as Navy and Marine flyers and receive a $500 bonus for each year or fraction of a year of active duty and $10,000 in insurance.

Selective Service

Selective Service Deputy Director Hershey asked Congress to approve legislation authorizing deferment of all men 27 or more years old last October 16. SS Headquarters amended regulations to permit review of classification at any time prior to induction.

Defense Financing

The Budget Bureau estimated the Federal deficit for the current year would be $747,000,000 less than previously estimated because of the higher tax collections and cuts in non-defense expenditures.

WITH THE

Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati—The Reds will come marching home this week-end after a couple of weeks on foreign soil. They'll open a 13-game home stand against the Giants at Crosley Field Saturday afternoon, then meet these same Giants in a doubleheader Sunday and a single game Monday. Tuesday, which will be ladies' day, the Boston Braves will oppose the Reds, then on Wednesday, June 18, the Reds and Braves will battle it out in a night game.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 20, 21, and 22, will be big days for the Reds. Opposing team will be the rought and tough Brooklyn Dodgers, who would rather be at the Reds than eat. This is saying a great deal, because everybody knows how ball players love to eat. A doubleheader against the Dodgers is on the books for the 22nd, Sunday.

Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24 and 25, the Reds will entertain the Phillies, who have provided plenty of trouble for them this year. A single game is scheduled Tuesday and a ladies' day doubleheader on Wednesday.

Bill McKechnie feels that the time has come for his boys to rise in the National League race. He is greatly encouraged by the pitching form shown by young Elmer Riddle and he thinks Gene Thompson's recent performance at New York should help that young fellow get started again. Thompson suffered greatly this spring because of lack of control. The advent of warm weather should help him correct this fault.

There is no doubt that the schedule is in favor of the Reds' staging a late season putsch. They will spend the greater part of the second half of the season on their home diamond.

Tickets for all of the home games the Reds will play for the rest of the season are now on sale at the downtown ticket office at 307 Vine Street. Mail orders receive prompt attention. Whenever possible, stamped and self addressed envelopes should be enclosed with mail orders to facilitate handling.

A Gossiper

When you sit around and Gossip,
Always make sure what you say is true,
For other people has a feeling,
Just the same as you do.

The Lord tells us to love thy neighbor
For there are very few that do,
For Hell is waiting for a Gossiper,
You will find them close to you.

The Blood Stream

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

The blood stream has several important functions. For instance it feeds the tissues from the products of digestion; it carries away waste matter and it aids in equalizing the temperature and the water content of the body.

Blood is not just plain fluid, but has two parts. A yellowish fluid called PLASMA, in which float solid particles called corpuscles. Then there are three kinds of corpuscles; red corpuscles; white corpuscles, and blood platelets. The red corpuscles are the oxygen carriers of the body. The white corpuscles are the protectors of the body and multiply at a great rate of speed. In other words, the white corpuscles enable the body to resist infections and throw off contagious disease.

Friends, now that we understand how important a part our blood stream plays in the health of our entire body, it is easy to see that we should be careful not to choke or cramp this blood stream in any way.

When you cramp blood vessels and shut off blood supply to any part of the foot, every school physiology book tells us that you not only deprive it of the food it should have to keep healthy, but the slower blood stream cannot clear away waste matter as it should. We find chemical deposits form at the joints of the feet and the legs and then inflamation develops leading to pain and discomfort that makes you miserable all over. These symptoms are often mistaken for arthritis, rheumatism or some other ailment. Backaches, headaches and many body ills may be traced to the feet.—Adv.

Gayety Theater News

TONIGHT

Margaret Sullavan's modified southern accent came in handy in her role in Universal's "Back Street" which will be at the Gayety tonight.

Born and reared in Norfolk, Va., Miss Sullavan still slights her "r's" in conversation.

"Just can't help it," she says. "No matter how ha'd I try, they still come out that way."

The star is playing the role of a Cincinnati girl, Ray Smith, heroine of the picturization of Fannie Hurst's great novel. She is co-starred with Charles Boyer.

"Being from Cincinnati, this girl would naturally have just a slight accent, wouldn't she?" Miss Sullavan asks. "Cincinnati is just across the river from Kentucky, land of the Kentucky Kuhnel and the mint julep. It's a northern southern state."

So Miss Sullavan played the role of Fannie Hurst's Ray Smith with a slight south'n accent.

FRIDAY

"Let's Make Music," Bob Crosby's debut film, proves the noted band leader posses a 24-karat personality. Even though he and his swell band provide plenty of tuneful melodies during the course of the entertaining story, Bob's ability as an actor promises a screen career as brilliant as his work as the talented baton-wielder of the famous Dixieland Band.

Blonde Jean Rogers has the feminine lead in this sparkling comedy, while Elisabeth Risdon, veteran character actress, has probably the finest role of her long career as a spinster school teacher who writes a song that, because of its extreme amateurishness, turns out to be a sensational novelty hit.

Bob Crosby, as a celebrated maestro of swing, is the man responsible for making the corny tune such an amazing success, while Jean Rogers, as the spinster's niece, handles the romantic honors in deft fashion.

SATURDAY

Movie-gores have seen Jane Withers in all kinds of interesting settings in the two dozen films she's made since becoming a star. But in "Golden Hoofs," her 26th film for 20th Century-Fox, Jane sings and dances and gets her first grownup heartache against a new and more interesting background than ever before. This time the colorful and exciting sport of light harness racing serves as the background and "Golden Hoofs" has been hailed as her best film to date.

Another interesting note on "Golden Hoofs," is the fact that it brings Charles (Buddy) Rogers back to the screen after many years' absence. Others in the fine cast include Katharine Aldridge, George Irving and Buddy Pepper.

* * *

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Ever since 20th Century-Fox announced that it had purchased "Tobacco Road," the most discussed play of our time, the question has been pondered—how would it be brought to the screen? Who would play the difficult character roles such as Jeeter Lester, Sister Bessie and all the rest.

"Tobacco Road" achieves perfection in casting. Charley Grapewin stands out as Jeeter Lester, while Marjorie Rambeau as Sister Bessie, Gene Tiferney as Ellie May and William Tracy as Dude Lester turn in superb, convincing performances.

Under John Ford's brilliant direction all the characters and situations ring true. Nunnally Johnson's screen play is masterful. For sheer dramatic impact alone, "Tobacco Road" is tops in entertainment.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY JUNE 17 AND 18

Columbia's "Adam Had Four Sons" which stars Ingrid Bergman and Warner Baxter, marks a "first" of some sort in the lives of nearly everyone concerned with its production. Dramatic story of a father's 20-year struggle to bring up four motherless sons, the new film is based upon "Legacy," a best-selling novel by Charles Bonner. The cast includes, in addition to the stars, Susan Hayward, Fay Wray, Johnny Downs, Helen Westley, Richard Denning and Robert Shaw.

This picture marks Baxter's graduation from glamor boy parts to character roles, a "growing up" he probably will follow on the screen from now on.

Similarly, the picture proves Fay Wray isn't afraid of advancing years. As Baxter's wife who dies in the story, she is here seen in a mother's role.

'Adam Had Four Sons" gives Susan Hayward, heretofore not too fortunate in her casting, a part which should bring recognition. She is entrusted with playing Hester, seductive beauty who raises havoc with Baxter's four sons.

CONSTANCE HOMEMAKERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Constance Homemakers' Club was held Wednesday June 4th at the home of Mrs. Lena Fritz with Mrs. Freda Kottmyer, presiding. There were ten members present.

Citizenship chairman, Mrs. Alice Kenyon told about sewing for Red Cross.

Exterior beautification chairman reported ways to beautify along the highways by planting shrubs and flowers.

They are planning to have a County Homemakers' library.

We have planned an educational tour July 9th. Mrs. George Kottmyer and Mrs. Ida Herbstreit will be in charge.

Miss Gillaspie told us about the tea and program to be held July 31st at the Christian church at Florence.

Meal planning was selected as our major project for next year.

There will be a rug show July 17, 18 and 19th at Florence.

New members and visitors are always welcome.

WALTON 4-H CLUB NEWS

The Waltonian 4-H Club held its fourth meeting on Monday, May 12th, with 21 members present and two absent. Three members dropped out of the club.

Mr. Drake, assistant county agent Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute home demonstration agent, Mrs. Walter King, community leader and one visitor, Miss Ruth Moore, were present.

The meeting was called to order by the president Mildred C. King. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and approved by the president.

Mrs. Moore announced that the 4-H members of Boone County would have the privilege of spending a week, from August 11 to 17, at Camp Bingham which is being prepared to accommodate the club members.

Rose Marie Johnson, foods captain, reported that the foods class had held two meetings. Mary Louise McCubbin, clothing captain reported that the girls had purchased material, had their garments started, and were learning to make different kinds of seams.

J. B. McCubbin, poultry captain and Edward McIntyre, garden captain, had no reports to make. Plans were made by the members to attend Rally Day on May 24th. The girls planned to model their garments in the Style Revue and to take part in the judging contest on May 27th.

The members and leaders pledged allegiance to the American flag and repeated the 4-H pledge.

The meeting closed and the members adjourned.

Mary L. McCubbin, Reporter.

MOTH BALLS

A subscriber suggests this way of using moth balls for summer storing: When putting away the winter clothes, find old cotton gloves and place both balls or camphor balls in the fingers of the gloves. Tie the gloves at the top and the moth balls will stay in place without rolling around.

POISON IVY

Wash exposed parts of skin immediately after coming in contact with poison ivy. Use ordinary kitchen or laundry soap and running hot water, applying the soap freely to produce a thick lather. Rinse this off and continue to repeat the operation several times. If the poison has caused inflammation it is best to go to your doctor immediately.

4-H MEMBERS WIN HONORS

AT JUNIOR WEEK JUNE 9-14—EVELYN FRANKS OF NEW HAVEN WINS STATE FOODS JUDGING CONTEST.

Boone County 4-H members who attended Junior Week, University of Kentucky, June 9-14, proved themselves worthy of the honor of representing the county 4-H organization.

Evelyn Franks of the New Haven Boosters Club won the State Foods Judging contest and will represent Kentucky in the National contest held at the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 29 through December 4.

Alva Mae Tupman of the Florence X-L All club received a blue ribbon for clothing judging. Meler Taylor and James Stephens of New Haven received a red ribbon for their demonstration on "Controlling Leaf Diseases of Tobacco." They compete against the twelve district winners of the State. Elaine Gardiner's style revue costume was rate "good" among costumes from 78 counties.

Other club members who received trips to Junior Week by virtue of their outstanding work were: Ella Ruth Black, Hamilton; Mary Louise McCubbin, Walton; David Clore, Grant; Harold Flick, Burlington; and Charles Patrick, of Hebron. Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, substitute home demonstration agent, and H. B. Drake, assistant county agent, accompanied the delegation to Junior Week. Expenses of the delegates were paid by The Early & Daniel Co., of Cincinnati; Sears, Roebuck & Co., Chicago; Dearborn Mills, Aurora, Ind.; and John R. Coppin Co., of Covington.

It is interesting to note that the first year Boone County entered the State foods judging contest the championship came to this county. Evelyn Franks will also be the first Boone County girl to receive a trip to the National Congress. Evelyn has been a 4-H club member six years and has completed foods and clothing projects. This year she has been a member of the class in baking conducted by Mrs. Walter Ferguson. At the county contest held May 27 Evelyn made highest score in a group of fourteen girls. There were 47 judges from as many counties in the State contest.

The girls judged biscuit, whole wheat rolls, butter cakes, and menus. Besides placing each class correctly, each judge was required to give orally her reasons for the placing.

Judging is one of the methods used by 4-H club leaders to help the girls raise their project standards. Evelyn is to be congratulated upon this record. She will work to do as well at the National meeting.

BIG BONE WINS OVER CCC TEAM

SATURDAY AS OTHER NINES IN COUNTY ARE IDLE DUE TO RAIN—LOCAL SEMIPRO TILT ALSO WASHED OUT.

CCC journeyed to the Big Bone park to engage Big Bone in the only game played in the county league Saturday. When further play was halted by rain in the sixth inning the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of Big Bone, and the league leader had added another victory to its record. C. Black was on the mound for Big Bone, Lea for CCC. The other scheduled contests were postponed account of wet grounds and will be played on a later date.

Scheduled games for Saturday consist of Petersburg at Burlington, CCC at Hebron, and Belleview at Big Bone.

The stand of the teams:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	6	0
Belleview	3	1
Petersburg	2	2
Hebron	2	3
Burlington	1	3
CCC	0	5

The Boone County All-Stars' game in the Campbell County Semipro League was also postponed on account of the wet weather. Their next game will be with the Bavarian Brewers, which will be played at the Burlington park Sunday. The All-Stars have won three games and lost two in the current season.

Mrs. L. H. Crisler has been on the sick list for the past few days.

J. F. Cleek Withdraws From Magistrate's Race

J. F. (Jake) Cleek, of Walton R. 2, announced his withdrawal from the political race as a Democratic candidate for Magistrate from the Third Magisterial district of Boone County.

Mr. Cleek stated that he was retiring from the contest in favor of no one, but that there were three good men in the race, any one of which would make a good magistrate. Lack of time to devote to the campaign was given as the reason for withdrawing.

"Many thanks to all the voters who were going to give me their support.—Jake Cleek."

COMPLETION OF PROGRAM NEAR

IN COUNTY MATTRESS PROJECT—ONE HUNDRED FIFTY FAMILIES PARTICIPATING IN PROGRAM.

The cotton mattress program has completed 158 mattresses to date, according to Mary Scott Moore, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent. The center is now working at Verona. It is the aim that all mattresses will be finished by the middle of next week and work on comforts begun.

About 150 families are participating in the program. Some have received more than one mattress though none are allowed more than three. A comforter will be made for each mattress.

Mrs. Vernon Pope, county supervisor, has been ably assisted by Homemakers' project leaders in the respective communities. The project is being directed by local Extension Agents, Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie, Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, and H. R. Forkner. The success of the program has been very much facilitated by local agencies who have cooperated in setting up centers. Those in charge of the mattress making program for themselves and also in behalf of those receiving the mattresses wish to thank all local organizations that have so splendidly cooperated in the successful running of the county and community mattress making centers. They especially wish to thank the Boone County Fiscal Court and Mr. Sherman Burcham and his efficient road department for transporting the needed materials; the county Board of Education and Walton-Verona Board of Education for providing community center buildings; the Erlanger Lumber Company and Walton Lumber Company, Calvin Cress and Gulley and Pettit's Store for their loan of needed supplies.

Richwood-Florence Road To Be Widened

A project has just been released for operation and will start as soon as is practicable to remove macadam shoulders, widen pavement base and resurface the Dixie Highway from Florence to Richwood, a distance of 5.7 miles. The project is sponsored by the Kentucky State Department of Highways at a cost to the Department of $40,885 and a cost to the Federal Government of $22,952, making a total cost of $63,837.

Approximately 111 men will be given employment for three months.

Aylor And Rice Reunion

Children of the late James H. Aylor and Roanna Rice Aylor are having a reunion Saturday, July 5th at Zimmer's the old Florence Fair grounds, Florence, Ky.

Any family connections, distant or near relatives and friends of the Aylor and Rice name are requested and invited to attend.

GROVER JARRELL IN JAILER'S RACE

HAS BEEN EMPLOYEE OF CONSOLIDATED TELEPHONE CO. FOR 25 YEARS—FIRST TIME TO SEEK OFFICE.

Grover C. Jarrell, of Burlington, formally announces his candidacy for Jailer of Boone County in this issue of the Recorder, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 2, 1941.

Mr. Jarrell is a native of this county. He has been employed as lineman for the Consolidated Telephone Company for twenty-five years, and is well known throughout the county. He is a member of the Burlington Baptist Church.

He is a life-long Democrat and has always supported the Democratic party and its policies. He stated Tuesday that this is the first time he has ever entered the race for any political office, and that to his knowledge there has never been anyone by the Jarrell name to seek office in this county.

Mr. Jarrell will continue his work with the Telephone Company, and will be forced to limit his campaign. However, he stated that he would make an effort to see every voter in the county before the coming primary.

He makes the following statement:

"Due to entering the race for Jailer at a late date, and being forced to limit my campaign, due to my position with Consolidated Telephone Co., I may not be able to see all the voters of this county. If I should not see you, I will appreciate your consideration and support, and if nominated and elected will serve the people to the best of my ability."

Four-H Clubs To Cooperate In National Defense Program

The National defense program has been organized in such a way as to reach all true citizens. The 4-H club accepts the challenge to cooperate and so we find many boys and girls taking projects that have a pertinent relationship to the times. Gardens and canning go hand in hand to strengthen America. More projects of each are being taken this year than before.

Letters and enrollment cards were sent to all 4-H club girls this week. The girls were invited to enroll and register any friends who were interested. In the first year girls can 10 quarts of tomatoes and 10 quarts of fruit; second year girls repeat this and in addition can 10 quarts of non acid vegetables. The number of cards being returned indicates that the project group will be larger than before.

Celebrates Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary

Approximately 175 relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dolwick Saturday night, June 14th to help celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

A delicious lunch consisting of sandwiches, pickles, ice cream, cake and fruit punch was served those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolwick were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Utopians Meet At Hebron

Boone County Utopia Club No. 2 will hold its regular June meeting at the home of H. B. Drake of near Hebron on this Thursday evening, June 19th, at 8:00 Eastern Time, according to J. Crigler, Club reporter.

Utopia representatives of Campbell and Gallatin counties will take part in the program. Everyone interested in Utopia Club work is invited to attend.

Mrs. Joe Weaver and daughter Betty Jo of Beaver, attended services at the local Baptist Church last Sunday night.

R. C. Garrison Purchases Bull From Berea College

The American Guernsey Cattle Club, Peterborough, N. H., reports the sale of a registered Guernsey bull by Berea College to R. C. Garrison, of Burlington, Ky. This animal is Meteor's Dauntless King 300455.

LARGE FISH CAUGHT AT THIEMANN POND

Pictured above is Frank Means, with a 9½-pound channel cat caught recently at Thiemann's Lake, near Hebron. The fish was taken on a rod and reel, and minnows were used for bait. The fish measured 27 inches. Mr. Means is the proprietor of Frank's Bait Store, 322 West 4th St., Newport.

Persons reporting good catches at the lake in recent weeks are: Clarence Craig, 333 York St., Newport, Ky., 28-inch channel cat, weighing 8 lbs; Lloyd Weaver 10¾-pound channel cat; Albert W. Weaver 7-lb. channel cat; and one 11-pound fish was taken by a fisherman whose name was not learned.

Manager Paul Menze, stated that the lake would be restocked in the near future, anglers are asked to watch this paper for restocking date.

TREAT SHEEP SAYS FORKNER

WET WEATHER IS IDEAL FOR PARASITE DEVELOPMENT—SHEEP RAISERS SHOULD BE ON LOOKOUT FOR DISEASE.

Sheep, especially late lambs, are beginning to show indications of internal parasites, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The wet weather is ideal for parasite development.

Most farmers wait until their lambs show marked signs of being sick before beginning to treat them. The sheep at this state is already injured and the farmer has already suffered several dollars per head loss on his market lambs. While it is useless to treat sheep that are not infected, every sheep raiser should be on the look out for first signs of infestations and begin treatment.

The College of Agriculture in Extension Circular No. 152 gives the following recommendations on stomach worm (intestinal parasites) control:

Preventitive measures:

1. Breed ewes for early lambing so as to get the lambs on the market before stomach worms have had a chance to affect their market value.

2. Avoid contaminated pastures as far as possible, at least until the lambs are ready for market.

3. Provide as much rotation of pastures as possible and make liberal use of temporary pastures during the hot weather.

4. Do not overcrowd. Better have too few sheep than too many.

Medical Treatment:

1. Treat the whole flock with a reliable vermifuge in late fall so that sheep go into the winter comparatively free from worms.

2. Treat all sheep again, except the lambs, in the early spring, after lambing.

3. Treat the sheep regularly every month thereafter until fall.

4. Treat any lambs that will not be ready for market by the middle of June, when they are eight or ten weeks old and monthly thereafter until marketed.

Among the vermifuges that are used successfully in the control of stomach worms in sheep the following are recommended: (1) copper sulfate (2) a mixture of copper sulfate and nicotine sulfate and (3) tetracholorethylene. The copper sulfate and the combined treatment are generally administered in the form of drench while tetrachlorethylene is usually administered in capsules.

Phenothiazine, a new treatment for nodular and other stomach worms, gives promise of effective results. This recommended treatment will be available for sheepmen in a circular letter that will be available at the county office in the near future. Dr. K. W. Ryle at Burlington has been accessfully using this treatment on many classes of livestock the past year.

Frank D. Crigler

Dr. Frank D. Crigler, 204 Summit Lane, Fort Mitchell, widely known physician and businessman of Ludlow and Covington, died Friday at Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, after a long illness.

Dr. Crigler, who was 82 years old, was a graduate of the Ohio Medical College. He had practiced in Ludlow for more than 50 years. A resident of Ludlow for many years, he moved later to Fort Mitchell. He maintained a winter residence on San Marco Island, off Miami Beach, Fla.

In addition to practicing medicine Dr. Crigler was interested in business lines.

His Widow, Mrs. Grace Crigler, and two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Riggs, of Boone County, and Mrs. Della Wilhoit, Springfield, Mo., survive him.

Services were conducted at 2:00 Monday afternoon at the W. Mack Johnson funeral home, Cincinnati. Burial was in Highland cemetery Fort Mitchell.

Patrolman Briefly On Duty At Circuit Clerk's Office Mon.

Patrolman, Clarence Brierly, of Newport, will be on duty here each Monday, at the Circuit Court Clerk's office to examine applicants for driver's licenses. Mr. Brierly was called to Harlan County recently for duty there during the labor dispute.

Herbert Snyder Names Running Mate

Herbert Snyder, Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Boone County announces he has selected Grover C. Ransom, of Verona, Ky., to fill the position of bookkeeper and Deputy Sheriff in the event of his election at the coming primary, Saturday, August 2nd, 1941.

Chest X-Ray Clinic To Be Held July 15

If you have been exposed to tuberculosis, see your doctor, and if he recommends you coming to this X-ray Clinic make your appointment early with the Red Cross Nurse, courthouse. Telephone 141.

This clinic will be conducted for the benefit of Boone County people. Dr. John B. Floyd, Director of Bureau of Tuberculosis, Kentucky State Department of Health will bring his X-ray machine and his assistants to the courthouse, Burlington, to direct this clinic on July 15th, 1941.

Occupational Licenses Due Monday, June 30th

C. D. Benson, Clerk of Boone County Court stated Monday that all occupational licenses are due Monday, June 30th.

Licenses must be obtained by restaurants, stores, poolrooms, and other places of business, Mr. Benson said.

Those failing to renew their license by the above date will be required to pay a penalty of 20 percent.

Businesses required to obtain licenses and the cost of same will be found on another page of this issue headed "Notice of Occupational Licenses."

CAMP ERNST TO OPEN JUNE 29TH

ORRIN DE VAN TO DIRECT BOYS CAMP—MRS. DOROTHY WESTRICH WILL ACT AS DIETICIAN.

Camp Ernst, one of the most beautiful spots in Northern Kentucky, will open officially June 29 with three weeks of camping for boys. A similar period for girls will follow, according to Willard L. Wade, general secretary of the Covington Y. M. C. A.

Orrin De Van will direct the boys' camp, succeeding Harvey Mattingly, who recently was called for army service. Mr. De Van has an outstanding record in boys' activities at Holmes High School and the Covington Y. M. C. A., where he had several years' work in the physical education department while attending the University of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Dorothy Westrich will be back for the summer as dietician.

Camp activities include woodcraft, Indian lore, water sports, baseball, tennis, track, volleyball, nature lore, campfire, outdoor cooking, campcraft, music, handicraft projects, dramatics, entertainments, first aid, archery and chapel programs.

The camp is situated on a 100-acre farm approximately three miles from Burlington and seven miles from Florence on Gunpowder Creek. All cottages and dining halls are screened and well built for camp purposes.

The swimming pool is safe and all classes are guarded at all times by competent Y and Red Cross safety directors.

Dates for the camp are:

Boys first period, June 29 to July 6; second period, July 6 to July 13, and third period, July 13, to July 20. Girls, first period, July 20 to July 27; second period July 27 to Aug. 3, and third period, Aug. 3 to Aug. 10.

Any person wanting to sponsor a deserving boy or girl should contact Mr. Wade at the Y. M. C. A.

R. J. Akin Celebrates Eighty-Third Birthday

R. J. Akin, of the Burlington-Petersburg road was surprised by a number of relatives and friends Sunday when they gathered at his home to help him celebrate his eighty-third birthday.

Those present to enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Loran Wetzler and son, all of Moores Hill, Ind.; Mrs. Courtney Williams and daughter, of Hebron; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Akin and daughter, Mrs. R. J. Akin and Miss Elva Akin and the honor guest.

Mr. Akin received many nice gifts, and all left wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Curtis, of Louisville, spent the past week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Finn of Woolper. Francis Souther, who is now stationed in the same Company with Mr. Curtis accompanied them to Burlington.

THREE BOONE CO. YOUTHS CALLED

WILL BE INDUCTED INTO SERVICE OF U. S. ARMY JUNE 25—REGISTRATION OF YOUTHS SET FOR JULY 1.

Three Boone County youths will report to Draft Board 9 at the Burlington courthouse, at 9 a. m. E. S. T. on June 25th, when they will be sent to Fort Thomas, Ky., the local induction station of the United States Army.

Those to be inducted into the Army June 25th are Joseph Louis Aylor, a volunteer, Johnie Boles, and Tyrus Raymond Ruth. With the induction of these youth the total called in June will reach thirteen.

C. G. Kelly, Clerk of Local Draft Board 9 stated Tuesday that registration of all youths who have reached the age of 21 since October 16, 1940 will be held July 1st, 1941. Further information regarding registration will be carried in this paper at a later date.

Nine hundred and four questionnaires had been mailed up to Monday afternoon, Mr. Kelly reported. The remainder of the questionnaires will be mailed as rapidly as possible, he announced.

Three Covington Men Arrested At Florence For Breach Of Peace

Three Covington men were arrested by Deputy Sheriff J. T. Williams last Friday night at Zimmer's Clubhouse, Florence, following a fight.

The three men gave their names as Jesse Ramage, 1309 Russell St., Covington, Ellis Moore, Latonia Terrace, Covington and Raymond Hall, also of Covington. Ramage was injured in the melee, but was removed from the scene before he could be arrested. His arrest followed at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was taken by his friends for treatment.

Trial is set for Saturday, and all three men were released on bond.

Recital To Be Given By Pupils Of Lillian Faber, June 26th

The pupils of Lillian Faber will give a recital at the Florence Methodist Church on Thursday, June 26 at 8 p. m. Pupils from Boone and Kenton counties will participate, and will render piano, vocal and violin numbers.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

FIREMEN WILL SPONSOR DANCE

AND PICNIC AT ZIMMER GARDENS JUNE 27TH AND 28TH—PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Members of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department are sponsoring their sixth annual picnic and dance, Friday and Saturday, June 27th and 28th at Zimmer Gardens, Florence, Ky.

Past entertainments given by the Florence firefighters have proven to be very entertaining and no doubt this year will be even better than in the past.

Extensive preparations are now underway to accommodate the largest crowd ever to attend this event. During the day Friday, those attending will be entertained with concessions and many other devices of entertainment.

Saturday visitors will enjoy picnic routine, and Saturday night those who care to dance will be entertained by a splendid orchestra employed by the department.

This event has been held annually for the past six years and has been well received each year. Money derived from this event will be used toward purchasing new firefighting equipment, and keeping present equipment mechanically perfect.

Officials of the department have used splendid judgment in purchasing new equipment, buying only the most modern apparatus. They deserve much credit for the splendid progress made during the past few years, and for service rendered Florence and surrounding territory.

Let's all show our appreciation by attending their sixth annual picnic and dance Friday and Saturday, June 27th and 28th.

HAVING A PORT

The man today who feels the most confident that there is such a thing as security, is that man who owns a bit of land that he can farm and provide for his family by living from its yield. This is the opinion of many in Boone County and you will hear more mention of it than you have for a good many years. We think they are probably right for surely security, at least as close as we come to possessing it, must be obtained through a mental refuge and a physical sanctuary. There is certainly a satisfaction in eating corn off of the cob that you tended yourself, scrambling eggs that wers laid by your own chickens, digging potatoes that you hoed with your two hands. To produce through one's own efforts comes a feeling of contentment. To the housewife who cans carrots, corn tomatoes, peas and beans, puts up fruit, lines shelves with arrays of pickles and spreads, packs chickens and pork, stores turnips, potatoes, onions, pears and apples, there surely comes a feeling of security and being able to weather the storm, come what may. Such a glorified array that lines the storage closet in the cool dark cellar is enough to cause envy in the man whose opportunity was not backed by foresight or perspiring endeavor. As security goes today, the man with his tract of ground, his peace derived from open country, his anchorage to the soil, his shelter from want, is the closet to obtaining it.

WE'RE HELPING HITLER

We aren't one to argue that what has been accomplished by Hitler is all just plain luck. We realize that perhaps the majority of thinkers are right when they say that Hitler has built up the most efficient war machine in the history of all the world. That part is Hitler's. But he has been greatly aided in his self-styled clean-up campaign by a number of people who have gone into other countries, spread doctrines, undermined unity and betrayed their associates, all in order to pave the way for their leader, who when the time seemed ripe came forth to invade and conquer. This action of betrayal was called fifth column activity. America felt safe enough for she had everything to gain by remaining intact and who would risk loss of freedom by fighting against each other within the country? America was so solid that treachery couldn't break thru the ranks. But too often we learn nowadays of sabotage connected with present disasters. There too is our slowness in producing defense equipment. Everywhere there seems to be unrest among the workers who refuse to carry on unless their demands are met. What is all of it and what is back of all of it? We should recall that after the smoke of battle cleared away facts came out to show how certain countries had fallen to Hitler with the undermining of unity within the country. This was a break for Hitler. With strikes, walk-outs, government big wigs arguing, disagreements over authority, employers disputing, perhaps if we would settle down to some common sense figuring we might see that we are helping to give Hitler a break.

BATH COUNTY ALFALFA GOOD

Alfalfa established two years made a uniform growth of 30 ins. in Bath county, despite the driest spring in years, says Joe R. Thompson, the county farm agent. The application of limestone, superphosphate and manure brought an outstanding crop on the farm of William Fox near Salt Lick. Thompson says sweet clover was the only other hay crop to do well this spring. Clover were hard hit by the drouth.

It has been a long time ago, when we used to read of the bandits in China, the highway robbery type, anyhow.

FIRST JERUSALEM CONFERENCE ON WORLD MISSIONS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 15:6-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.—Acts 15:11.

The conference on missions in Jerusalem was not the result of an appeal to a ruling church organization for a decision, but rather a gathering of the believers from Antioch with those in Jerusalem to confer regarding a serious difference of opinion. The earliest converts to Christianity were Jews, who had come by the way of Judaism into their new faith in Christ. But now, through the preaching of Paul and Barnabas, certain Gentiles had believed in Christ. Their new-found joy was soon beclouded by a theological problem. Certain teachers from Judea (Acts 15:1) declared that the Gentiles were not saved unless they came into the Christian faith the way of the fullfillment of the Jewish law. Paul and Barnabas at once realized that this was

I. The Vital Question—Is Salvation by Grace or Works? (vv. 7-11; see also vv. 1-5).

Paul and his fellow workers had rightly apprehended God's plan of salvation apart from works of the law. Paul realized that the entire future of the gospel ministry was in a sense dependent on the solution of this problem. Christianity is the only religious faith in the world that presents justification by grace as the way of redemption; all others follow (more or less) the path of salvation by works.

The question now was: Shall works of the law be mingled with grace—can Jesus Christ alone save men, or is salvation through Jesus Christ plus something else?

How was such a serious question to be settled? Should argument and strife be permitted to go on until the stronger party prevailed? Better judgment indicated the desirability of a friendly discussion and a joint decision with the believers at Jerusalem. This was

II. The Christian Solution—Council Rather Than Controversy (vv. 6, 7, 12-18).

There may be times when it becomes the duty of the Christian worker to take an uncompromising stand for the truth of God and refuse to be moved, come what may. But certainly there should be no such spirit in dealing with differing interpretations of Scripture on the part of sincere and earnest Christian brethren. How much would be gained in the Church today if, instead of magnifying differences and permitting personal desires and ambitions to intervene, men were willing to sit down in the spirit of Christ around the tables of Christian council and brotherhood, presided over and directed by the Holy Spirit (see Acts 15:28).

Observe the full measure of liberty in discussion, the attentive listening to the messages of the brethren. Note also that there were no secret sessions of a "steering committee" and no "steamroller" tactics.

The whole question was honestly and carefully considered by the council at Jerusalem, with the result that there was a vindication of the preachers of God's grace.

James finally spoke, giving the conclusion to which the Holy Spirit had led the conference (see v. 28). Here for all the future we have

III. The God-Given Answer—Salvation Is by Grace (vv. 19-21; see also vv. 22-35).

In his epistle to the Ephesians (Eph. 2:8, 9), Paul succinctly states this truth: "By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast." The teaching of Scripture is very plain on this point, and we do well to receive it in all its beauty and grace.

Let us observe, however, that the decision in Jerusalem, while it laid no further burden on these Gentile believers (v. 28), did quite properly require of them that, as those who had been saved by grace, they must "walk in newness of life" (Rom. 6:4) which they had in Christ. Paul had the same thought in mind when he supplemented Ephesians 2:8 and 9 with verse 10, declaring that God has ordained that we should walk 'in good works."

There are two opposite tendencies (both of which are wrong) in this matter, which consistently hurt the Christian church. The one which we have already stressed tries to mix works with grace, making salvation either entirely or partially by works. Sad to say, some who have sought to avoid this error have gone to the opposite extreme and have done violence to God's plan of salvation by making grace an excuse for sin, using their freedom from law as a justification of lawlessness. We are God's "workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works" (Eph. 2:10).

Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT

Poor posture may directly be caused by defective reasons, eyestrain, impaired hearing, or bone defects which may occur in children during adolescence. Thrusting the head forward to see better may be associated with nearsightedness. Cocking the head toward a speaker may indicate loss of hearing, in one ear. Marked "round shoulders" may be a sign of some disease of the bones of the spine. All children should have competent and thorough physical examinations, including tests of sight and hearing, before entering school, and at regular intervals thereafter.

If the mind and the body are healthy, the will is after all, the directing factor in maintaining good posture or correcting bad posture. The feet play a very importdtant part in body balance, as they support the entire weight of the body both in standing and in moving and hold it upright against the downward pull of gravity. The feet being the foundation of the body are very important part in body balance, as and without proper fitted shoes, weakness will develop in the muscles causing the bones of the feet to sag and throwing the whole body out of posture. You cannot have good health and unhappy feet.—Adv.

I. O. O. F. TO HEAR GOV. JOHNSON

AT ANNUAL HOMECOMING DAY EXERCISES AT ODDFELLOW'S CHILDREN'S HOME, LEXINGTON, JUNE 29.

Gov. Keen Johnson, a member of Madison Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. will deliver the principal address at the annual Homecoming Day exercises to be held at the Oddfellows' Children's Home in Lexington on Sunday, June 29th.

The event, which ordinarily attracts approximately 2,000 members of Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges throughout Kentucky and surrounding states, will be arranged this year especially for former residents of the home. During its long history, the institution has cared for approximately 3,000 children who since have become useful citizens of the state and nation.

Activities of the Homecoming occasion will be in direct charge of former residents of the home. The public has been invited to attend.

The all-day program will begin at 9 a. m., Central Daylight Saving Time, and will include a picnic lunch spread on the grounds of the home. Persons attending will bring their own baskets, and will invite the children of the home to be their guests.

Governor Johnson's address has been scheduled for 2 p. m., and will be broadcast over Station WLAP, of Lexington. He will be introduced by Hon. James W. Hammond, member of Paintsville Lodge No. 288, and warden of the state reformatory at LaGrange.

The afternoon exercises will begin 30 minutes earlier at 1:30 o'clock, when E. M. Glass, of Lexington, past grand master and general chairman of the Homecoming Day, will call the assembly to order. Dr. J. L. Clark, of Paris, past grand master, will give the invocation, and children of the home will present group singing.

Grand Master Harry Pettijohn, of Jewel Lodge No. 395, Ewing, Ky., and Rebekah President Nettie Noffsinger, of Melrose Lodge No. 81, Bremen, Ky., will be recognized.

The forenoon hours will be devoted to inspection of building and grounds of the Home and to a business session of former residents in the chapel.

A baseball game between the Odd Fellows Junior Lodge of Cynthiana and the team representing the Home will be played during the day. Other games and exercises also will be arranged for the children.

WELLING NOW LOCATED AT 5 WEST PIKE STREET

J. Harry Welling, who for the past seven years has conducted a jewelry business at Pike and Madison, Covington, is now located at 5 Pike Street, that city. His store has been modernized and a new front installed.

Mr. Welling has been in the jewelry business for 36 years. He was in charge of the watch repair department in Pieper's jewelry store, Covington for 23 years. During the World War, Mr. Welling served in the aviation section of the United States navy, repairing aeroplane instruments.

BROTHER AND SISTER ARE REUNITED AFTER TWENTY-SIX YEARS

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, Mrs. Lois Hancock, of Winslow, Arizona arrived in Union to visit her brother, Winston Mason and family, after a separation of 26 years.

After the death of their father in Mayfield, Ky., at the age of 7 years, Mr. Mason and another sister were placed in the Kentucky State Orphan's Home at Lyndon. Within the next six months Mr. Mason had been adopted into the home of the late J. T. Stafford of Carroll county, where he was reared. The sister was adopted into the home of I. H. Rowland of Morgan county, where she passed away in September 1918.

At the time of Mr. Mason's commitment to the Home, Mrs. Hancock, then an infant of a few months, remained in Mayfield with the mother.

From the time Mr. Mason went to the Home he heard no more of his mother and infant sister until December 1934, when through information obtained from the Orphanage Mrs. Hancock located her brother at Carrollton, Ky., now of Union.

Mr. Mason then learned through correspondence with her that shortly after his removal from the Orphanage his mother had passed away and the baby Lois was committed to the Home just one year to the month from the time he had been committed.

Lois remained there only one month, when she was adopted by a Mr. and Mrs. Marquess, of Hopkinsville. Later the family moved to Arizona, where Lois now resides.

Indeed, this was a happy reunion. Now that God has permitted this brother and sister to be together this sort time, may the bond of a brother's and sister's love existing between them ever grow stronger as the years go by!

NEWS and FACTS . . . of Statewide Interest

First Year Results of the Kentucky Beer Industry's "Clean Up or Close Up" Campaign

One year ago our Committee was organized to cooperate with law enforcement officials in eliminating the small minority of beer retailers permitting unlawful conditions or anti-social practices in their places of business.

Continuous activity on the part of our Committee, which included investigation of more than 1,300 retail beer outlets, has resulted in definite progress toward that objective.

To date, on our Committee's recommendation to state and local authorities, 18 beer retailers have lost their licenses, 2 others have had their outlets padlocked and 6 have had their licenses suspended because they would not conduct their places of business in accord with public sentiment and with the high standards of Kentucky's $20,000,000 legalized beer industry.

As we enter our second year, we renew our pledge to the public and our offer of assistance to law-enforcement officials. We are determined that conditions in retail beer outlets shall be as wholesome as beer itself.

By restricting your patronage to reputable beer retailers, YOU can help to preserve the social and economic benefits of beer—a beverage of moderation—which provides 15,000 jobs for Kentuckians and pays State taxes totaling more than $1,000,000 a year.

WITH THE

Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati—There is no rest for the Reds. They just completed a swing through the East, now they are to battle these same teams on their home soil. They opened their home stand with a four-game series against the New York Giants, with whom they were locked in a fight for third place. Following the Giant series, the Boston Braves, always tough customers for the Reds, come to Crosley Field for a ladies' day game Tuesday and a night game Wednesday. The customary pre-game show, including fireworks, has been scheduled Wednesday.

Thursday will be an off day, and it might be classified as the lull before the storm, for on Friday, the Brooklyn Dodgers invade Crosley Field for a four-game series in three days. Single games are booked for Friday and Saturday and a doubleheader is due for Sunday, starting at 1:30.

The Brooklyns have yet to taste defeat on the Reds' home diamond, having won two games on their last appearance. On the other hand, the Reds have won four games and lost three in the Brooklyn stronghold. Three of the victories came in the last series in Flatbush, when the Reds came from behind on three successive days to knock the Dodgers out of first place.

Monday, June 23, following the Brooklyn twin bill, will be an off day, then on Tuesday, June 24, the Reds will meet the Phillies in a single game, and will close the home stand with a doubleheader against these same Phils the following afternoon. The Phils have been the Reds' toughest customers this season. The teams have met five times, and the Phils have won four games. The lone Cincinnati victory came in the game Johnny VanderMeer pitched what should have been ruled a no-hit contest.

WASHINGTON COUNTY SHEEP NUMBERS UP

Sheep numbers in Washington county, Kentucky, increased from 18,173 in 1930 to 30,529 in 1941. It is estimated that lambs and wool will add about $300,000 to the incomes of farmers of the county this year.

County Agent Troll Young gives credit for the development of the sheep industry to the agricultural conservation program, which resulted in more pastures and hay crops.

Shortage of breeding stock may check further growth of the sheep business. Young says there are only about 75 rams for sale in the county, whereas farmers need about 400.

12 FARMERS HONORED

Twelve Grant county farmers were awarded blue ribbons by the Williamstown Rotary club, in recognition of their good farming. They are John Reed, L. A. Rogers, Oakly Wynn, Willie Kells, A. Threlkeld, Gilbert Stewart, D. F. Barker, C. D. Cotton, R. C. Hedges & Sons. Prof. George Roberts of the Kentucky College of Agriculture spoke at the recognition banquet.

Gayety Theater News

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY
Double Feature

Palm Springs, one of the most colorful pleasure resorts in America, frequented by movie stars and celebrities from all the world, is the background for the thrilling adventures of "The Saint in Palm Springs."

Sixth in the popular series based on the Leslie Charteris fictional hero, the current offering again presents George Sanders in the title role and depicts his adventures at the desert resort where he aids a beautiful girl obtain a huge inheritance that is opposed by foreign interests.

Wendy Barrie has the romantic lead, while Paul Guilfoyle, Jonathan Hale and Linda Hayes have other pivotal roles.

Plus

A realistic, behind-the-scenes drama of the sport-of-kings is thrillingly depicted in "Ride, Kelly, Ride." Advance reports indicate that patrons of the Gayety Theatre can look forward to exciting entertainment when this fast-moving hit from 20th Century-Fox is shown.

Depicting the experiences of a boy who wins fame as a jockey "Ride, Kelly, Ride" is based on a novel by Peter B. Kyne. Eugene Pallette, Marvin Stephens, Rita Quigley and Mary Healy head the featured cast.

* * *

SATURDAY

Edward Norris, young actor with a featured role in the latest musical western produced by Republic, "Back In The Saddle" starring Gene Autry, is a firm believer in the efficacy of training in little theatre groups. Norris himself is a graduate of such famous schools as the Pasadena Community Theatre, Provincetown (New York) Little Theatre, the Theatre Union of New York, and the Philadelphia Professionals.

In addition to Autry and Norris, the cast of "Back In The Saddle" boasts many luminaries. Smiley Burnette of course is featured in a comedy role. Others are Jacqueline Wells, Mary Lee, Addison Richards and Arthur Loft.

* * *

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

An unusual action scene with the cameras speeding at seventy-five miles an hour appears in Producer-Director Frank Lloyd's new Universal frontier comedy, "The Lady From Cheyenne."

The scene is that of an 1870 engine and train crossing the Wyoming plains and was filmed from a camera car traveling alongside the track.

With Loretta Young, Robert Preston and other players in the picture riding in the train, Producer-Director Lloyd instructed the engineer to run his ancient locomotive at top speed. The camera car kept pace with it and Lloyd didn't realize the fast pace his scene had reached until afterward, when the camera car chauffeur said his speedometer had passed seventy-five m. p. h.

* * *

TUESDAY
Double Feature

Clive Brook, unforgettable for his magnificent performance in "Cavalcade," the topnotch epic motion picture to emanate from World War I, returns now in "Convoy," a motion picture of parallel significance relating to the great European conflict of the present era. He is the hero captain of a cruiser flagship in a British naval force which is escorting a fleet of merchant vessels through the enemy mine-submarine-warship infested waters off the Continent, with his rival-in-love aboard his vessel and his truant wife aboard a refugee ship near by.

Plus

Off-stage static on the set during the filming of "Meet the Chump," the Universal funfilm to be shown at the Gayety:

Hugh Herbert, as an investment counselor, opened a massive ledger and appeared vitally interested. Then he looked up to Eddie Cline, the director, and said, "Well, what happens now;"

Cline, blithely sarcastic, replied, "What do you want to happen?"

Herbert: "Well, we could have a bookworm pop out at me, and I could act very surprise and say, 'Woo, woo, where'd you come from?' Then the bookworm could say, 'Oh, I work over at Disney's.' And I could say, 'Well, well, well, imagine that. How's business over there?'"

Cline: "Boy, call the production department; have them send down a stand-in for a bookworm!"

Christian Service Division Holds Meeting

The Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Burlington M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Ben Stephens Wednesday, June 11, with an all-day meeting.

The ladies worked on the quilt in the morning. At noon a bountiful lunch was served and was enjoyed by all.

At 2:00 o'clock the president took charge. Old and new business was discussed. The president turned the meeting over to the program leader.

The spiritual life part of the program was given by Mrs. Ruth Clore, and followed by the "Living Lord, Our Stewardship for Christian Citizenship."

Alcohol and Narcotis were discussed by the group.

Mrs. Rouse gave an interesting reading, "Among the Dives of Dopers."

Mrs. Greenup a reading, "Cross Roads of Faith."

Mrs. Ben Stephens, "Serving the Boys at Camp Shelby."

The meeting was dismissed by Mrs. Rouse.

The July meeting will be held with Mrs. Bess Rouse.

THE BOONE COUNTY RECORDER

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 65 | BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1941 | NUMBER 3

LICENSE LAW WARNING ISSUED

DRIVERS MUST PROCURE OPERATORS' LICENSE IN COUNTY IN WHICH THEY RESIDE—LICENSES EXPIRE JULY 31.

Kentucky motorists must procure their operators' licenses in the county of their residence under a new law which will be aggressively enforced for the first time this year, it was announced by the Department of Revenue. The present licenses expire July 31. The only exceptions under the Act, passed in 1940, are persons who are temporarily residing in another county at the time they seek to renew their licenses. Revenue Commissioner H. Clyde Reeves, in announcing that the Department would request circuit court clerks to adhere strictly to the law, hailed it as another safety measure designed to keep persons whose licenses to drive had been suspended or revoked from procuring licenses illegally. Reeves said that under the old law persons whose licenses had been suspended or revoked frequently went to a county where they were unknown and procured one, and since several weeks are required to process licenses in the Department of Revenue, the subterfuge was late in being discovered.

Reeves pointed out that the Department withheld rigid enforcement before the licensing period last year because of the short time between the effective date of the law and the licensing period which began on August 1, during which county officials and motorists had little time to become acquainted with its provisions.

Another instrument which helps to safeguard the issuance of a license to a person whose right to drive has been suspended or revoked is a booklet containing approximately 1800 names of persons whose licenses have been taken away. It is issued at six weeks intervals and sent to county officials and law enforcement agencies throughout the State.

L. G. Triplett, Supervisor of Operators' Licenses, said that revocations and suspensions for the present license year have totaled 1,835, which is far in excess of the 1,381 during the entire 1939-40 period. About 28,000 more licenses have been issued so far this year than were issued during the entire 1939-40 year.

Triplett announced that circuit court clerks would start issuing licenses on July 1, and urged motorists to procure them early in order to avoid the last minute rush.

Announcement

At the request of the Treasury Department we announce a new feature of interest and service to many readers who are buying or will buy Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps. This will be called the Defense Bond Quiz, and will start in next week's issue.

The questions will be chosen from among those asked by most Bond and Stamp buyers. The answers will tell what the new Defense Savings Program means to the individual and to the Nation.

DEMOCRATS TO SPONSOR DANCE

AT ZIMMER GARDENS JULY 3—IS ANNUAL EVENT TO RAISE FUNDS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO WORTHY CAUSES.

The Young Men's Democratic Club will holds its annual dance at Zimmer Gardens, Florence, Ky., Thursday, July 3rd. Music will be furnished by Andy Mirehoff and his well known Northern Kentucky Band. Dancing will be from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m.

The club feels this dance should be a huge success, because it is one of the limited functions which the club sponsors in order to raise money. It is needless to say that each year the Young Men's Democratic Club has contributed to many worthy causes in our County and State and plan to carry out this type program in the future. It is through these dances that the club is able to raise the necessary amount which is required to give to the outstanding causes.

The club wishes to extend a cordial invitation to each and everyone. Don't forget the date July 3, at 9 p. m. to 1 a. m., at Zimmer Gardens, Florence.

Tuberculosis Ass'n. Will Hold Meeting At Florence, June 27

There will be a meeting of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association in the Town Hall, Florence, Friday, June 27th at 8:00 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, R. V. Lents chairman, announced this week.

Those who attended a previous meeting are urged to come to this one, as well as any other citizens of the county who are interested and want to help with this important work.

This particular meeting is to plan to assist with the County X-ray Clinic to be held July 15, as well as talk over care for some urgent individual cases who are in dire need at the present time.

Canning Demonstration Set For Friday, June 27

A canning demonstration will be held at the Hebron school house Friday, June 27 at 20 p. m. (E. S. T.) The community is cordially invited to attend.

The demonstration will be sponsored by the Home Economics Department.

Mrs. Mary Clore is nursing Mrs. Robert Graves, of Bullittsville. Mr. and Mrs. Graves are the proud parents of an 8-pound baby girl, since Monday June 23, named Linda Fay. Mother and baby are doing fine.

105 PARTICIPATE IN EXERCISES

AT CLOSING OF DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL, HELD AT BURLINGTON CHURCH—HAS BEEN HUGE SUCCESS.

One hundred and five boys and girls participated in commencement exercises of the Daily Vacation Bible School held at the Burlington Baptist Church, last night (Wednesday) after being in session for the past eight days.

This was the first attempt to hold classes of this kind in Burlington, and was very successful from every standpoint. Daily attendance averaged ninety-five, according to Rev. Roy Johnson, Superintendent.

Training of boys and girls in Bible study and various other activities is the purpose of the school. Three hours were spent each day with the following activities: Devotional hour, various departments for Bible study, story hour (Bible and character), sword drill and handwork.

Those in charge of the school were, Rev. Roy Johnson, Supt.; Mrs. Mae Benson, teacher of intermediates; Mary Bess Cropper and Mrs. Helen Snyder, teachers of Juniors; Carolyn Cropper, primary teach; Geraldine Yelton and Loretta Hoard, beginner teachers; Mrs. Helen Clore, music chairman; Mrs. Kirtley Cropper and Mrs. Garnett Tolin, in charge of story hour; Mrs. Margie Freeland, secretary; Mrs. Kathryn Brown and Mrs. Lee Huey, chairmen of refreshment committee.

Rev. Johnson wishes to thank all the above named officers for their splendid support and cooperation and many others who contributed toward the success of this project. He stated that he is looking forward to even a bigger and better Daily Vacation Bible School next year.

Appeal For Aid- Red Cross Helps

The following item was sent us by Rev. J. Russell Cross, Chairman Boone County Red Cross Chapter.

"Robert Reynolds, a former resident of Walton, has been in the Tuberculosis Sanatarium in Louisville for fourth months. The doctors there assure us that he has shown much improvement, but that for the most good to be done he should remain longer. The family is unable to keep him there, and have appealed to me to seek help for them.

The article follows:

"It seems to me that this is a very fine way for any of us to show our good-neighborly spirit, so I feel no reticience in asking that if you are willing to help, you do one of two things: either send me your check, or leave it at Lusby's grocery store in Walton. Any help that you can give will be appreciated by both Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and myself."

$30,429.18 PAID LOCAL SHEEPMEN

FOR 1941 CLIP—WAS LARGEST CLIP EVER SOLD BY WOOL POOL—GROWERS WELL SATISFIED.

Boone County farmers received $30,429.18 for 64,822 pounds of wool delivered through the local pool June 18, 19 and 20, according to H. E. White, president of the pool. M. Sable's Sons of Louisville was the purchaser. Growers received $47.30 per hundred for clear wool and $42.30 for rejections.

This year's clip was the largest ever sold through the pool. Johnny Neimier, representing the M. Sable's Sons Company, stated that the wool was of the best quality he has ever received from Boone County. Percentage of rejections was very low. Local growers were well satisfied with the treatment offered by the company.

The clip classified by grades delivered included 60,479 pounds of clear, 4,295 pounds of rejections and 48 pounds of miscellaneous. Points of delivery and pounds received at each place are as follows:

Burlington 23,009 clear, 1,742 rejections, and 3 miscellaneous.

Walton 22,617 clear, 1,621 rejections, and 22 miscellaneous.

Petersburg 14,853 clear, 932 rejections, and 23 miscellaneous.

Fifth Sunday Services For Petersburg Christian Church Announced

Rev. Noble Lucas, pastor of the Petersburg Christian Church, announces preaching services Sunday, June 29th at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. This service will be held instead of first Sunday July services as the pastor will be absent at that time in another meeting.

Attention of members is called to this temporary change in schedule.

LARGE NUMBER GATHERS AT HOME OF R. B. HUEY

On Father's Day, June 15th, the entire family of R. B. Huey met at his home on Commissary Road as a surprise to him and his wife. At noon a bountiful dinner was served from well-filled baskets. In the afternoon the sun came out long enough for pictures to be taken of the group in several arrangements.

Those who enjoyed the day were Prof. and Mrs. Garnett Huey and daughters Harriet and Patsy from Paintsville, Ky., and Mrs. Charles Hysong and son George Robert, of Flemingsburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Huey and his family, Misses Wilma, Carra Lou and Nancy, Sammy and Robert Duncan Huey and Miss Ruth Kottmyer, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Huey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porter Huey, Mr. and Mrs. John Berkshire and son John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Huey, Miss Estelle Huey and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Huey.

Other relatives invited to be with them were, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Gaines and daughter Mary Sue, of Erlanger, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walton and sons John Brady and William Hudson and Mrs. Walton's mother, Mrs. Lula Hudson, of Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith and daughter and Mr. Donald Davis, of Erlanger, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith and family last Sunday afternoon.

HOMEMAKERS TO BEAUTIFY ROADS

IN BOONE COUNTY—CHAIRMEN TO WORK TOGETHER IN IMPROVING THEIR LOCAL COMMUNITY.

At a recent meeting of the County Citizenship and Exterior Beautification chairmen of the Boone County homemakers' clubs, plans were made for their activities during the coming months.

These two committees being alike in many ways, they planned to work together to beautify Boone county. Each local citizenship is to work with the exterior beautification chairman to help improve their local community, they are to use native trees, plants and shrubs and they are also trying to preserve our old and beautiful trees.

Through their point efforts they plan to have a countywide get-together which will be in the form of a "Silver Tea" to be held at the Florence Christian Church, July 31. Mrs. C. F. Blankenbeker and Mrs. John Vest are in charge of final arrangements. Guest speakers will be Mrs. Ann Stewart, well known for her "Let the Earth Speak," and Mrs. James Layne, well known club woman.

As another favor arrangements have been made to have the Lloyd Home open to the public on that day, with Mrs. Mabel Sayre, president of the Lloyd Society present, to tell the history of the home, and make everyone welcome.

This promises to be a red letter day for every one attending the tea. Be sure to attend and bring your friends, show Mrs. Garnett Tolin and Mrs. Blankenbeker, chairmen of these two projects, how much we appreciate them and their work.

Other plans made were to assist the Red Cross chairmen with their work. To have an annual county-wide clean-up day, and to have a garden tour in July.

These chairmen need our help to carry on their program. Let's all get behind them.

COMMITTEE IS SELECTED

FOR COUNTY NUTRITION PROGRAM—MARY HOOD GILLASPIE IS CHAIRMAN—EACH COMMUNITY TO BE ORGANIZED.

A County Nutrition Production Program has been set up in Boone County. The present national emergency has proven a definite need for better nutrition in order to build a strong nation.

Better production of farm products as well as the production of a sufficient amount for home use is urged from the Agricultural standpoint.

In relation to home economics an increase in the quantity and variety of home canned foods is being urged. There is a very definite need to give the family a greater variety of fruits and vegetables which can be home grown.

With the above program in mind a county committee consisting of the following people has been organized: Mary Hood Gillaspie, chairman; Rev. H. M. Hauter, 1st vice-chairman; Mrs. J. C. Layne, 2nd vice chairman; Evelyn Conrad, secretary; Mary Cook, treasurer; James Huey, Mrs. J. C. Aylor, Elizabeth Lowry, D. H. Norris, H. R. Forkner, Mrs. Lula Huey, Mrs Sam Sleet, Mrs. Geo. Kottmyer, Rev. J. Russell Cross and Russell Hall committee.

The above committee which is a representative body including all county organizations will aid in organizing the county nutrition production program.

Temporary community chairmen have been appointed to organize each community. They are as follows: Mrs. Garnett Tolin, Burlington; Mrs. Freda Kottmyer, Constance; Mrs. Wm. Rogers, Grant; Mrs. Joe Berkshire, Florence; Mrs. John L. Jones, Hamilton; Mrs. Howard Acra, Hebron; Mrs. Ray Newman, New Haven; Miss Gladys Klopp, Petersburg; Mrs. C. C. Pruett, Walton; and Mrs. Will McCormick, Verona.

A leaders meeting will be held at Burlington on June 30, at 1:30 p. m. (E. S. T.) to make final plans for the above program. The following program has been planned: Presentation of National and State Program, H. R. Forkner and Evelyn Conrad; (2) Boone County's Part in National Defense, Mrs. J. C. Layne; (3) Round Table Discussion of Community Problems; (4) Development of goals to be reached in each community.

BIG BONE, HEBRON LOCAL NINE WIN

IN COUNTY BASEBALL GAMES SATURDAY—HEBRON MOVES INTO THIRD PLACE—SEMIPRO NINE LOSE.

Big Bone kept its record perfect for the season by swamping Belleview 18-0 at the Big Bone park Saturday. The winners collected 11 runs in the first three frames, and after his team had acquired a 14-run margin C. Black was preserved for subsequent hurling duties and Carroll, Williamson, and Miller divided the pitching assignment for the winners from the fifth inning. The losers were held to seven hits. H. Williamson collected five safe blows in six trips to the plate.

Burlington turned back Petersburg, 5-2 at the local park in a pitcher's duel in which only three earned runs were made. Gulley turned in a three-hit performance on the mound for the winners, striking out 13, and would have had a shutout if three costly errors had not occurred behind his pitching. D. Deck gave up nine hits, for three tallies, while a pair of runs were also scored on a trio of miscues behind his pitching. Clore and Bradburn each collected a double.

Hebron slammed out a 17-0 win over CCC at the Hebron park, behind the six-hit pitching of Hodges, and moved up a notch in league standing. Wolfe and Cox were on the mound for the losers.

CCC travels to Petersburg, Hebron to Big Bone, and Burlington to Belleview for games Saturday.

The teams' standing

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	7	0
Belleview	3	2
Hebron	3	3
Petersburg	2	3
Burlington	2	3
CCC	0	6

The Boone County All-Stars were nosed out 5-3 in an eleven-inning game by the Bavarian team at the local park Sunday in the Campbell County Semipro League. After scoring two runs in the opening frame, the local team led until the seventh, when its opponent knotted the score. When each team scored another run each in the eighth and then went down scoreless in the ninth, the game went into extra innings, and neither team was able to score again until the eleventh, when the Bavarians made two runs on three hits and a base on balls, which the local team was unable to match. Bradburn and Sprague, in addition to collecting two hits each, slammed out doubles.

The All-Stars meet the Pleezing Foods team, which has suffered but one setback this season, next at the local park.

Aylor-Rice Reunion To Be Held At Florence

The Aylor and Rice reunion will be held Saturday, July 5th at Zimmer's, old Florence Fair Grounds. Florence, Ky., is was reported last week. All children of the late James H. Aylor and Roanna Rice Aylor, and anyone connected with the family, distant or near are urged to attend this reunion.

Miss Pauline Norris, of Cincinnati, O., spent last Friday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Norris and attended the Epworth League social at Bailey Greenup's that night.

CANDIDATES TO FILE PETITIONS

NOT LATER THAN JULY 2—DRAWING FOR POSITION ON BALLOTS JULY 8TH—EXPENSE ACCOUNT MUST BE FILED.

C. D. Benson, County Court Clerk of Boone County announced Tuesday that all candidates must file their petitions not later than July 2, 1941, in order to have their name placed on the primary ballot.

Drawing for positions on the primary ballot will be held at the clerk's office Tuesday, July 8th at 2 p. m., Mr. Benson announced. Any candidate or a representative can attend the drawing.

Filing of an expense account is another item that all candidates should not over look. These expense accounts must be filed not later than July 18th.

Lloyd Siekman Appointed ACP Supervisor

Lloyd Siekman, who has been employed as Clerk in the County Agent's office for the past seven years, was named State ACP Supervisor last week and took up his duties in this capacity Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Siekman is a graduate of Hebron high school of the class of '31. He is well qualified for the position he holds, and no doubt will fill his position most efficiently. His territory will be Northern Kentucky.

We regret to lose "Jake" from our community, but wish him much success in his new field.

Tillett Farm Sold To Indiana Man

George Tillett recently sold his 63-acre farm on Hicks Pike, near New Haven, to R. B. Bradley, of Lawrenceburg, Ky. Everything offered found a quick buyer. The sale included crops, stock, team and tools. Rel C. Wayman, Covington real estate agent, conducted the sale.

Prof. and Mrs. Garnett Huey and daughters, Harriet and Patsy, of Paintsville, and Mrs. Charles Hysong and son George Robert, of Flemingsburg returned to their homes on Thursday, after an enjoyable visit with R. B. Huey and family. Miss Mary Sue Gaines returned home with them for a visit.

PICNIC, DANCE SET JULY 27-28

BY FLORENCE VOLUNTEER FIRE FIGHTERS—WILL BE ONE OF MOST ENTERTAINING EVENTS EVER TO BE HELD.

Those attending the firemen's picnic and dance, sponsored by the Florence Volunteer Fire Department are promised one of the most entertaining events ever to be held on these grounds by the firemen.

Preparations are now complete, according to officers of the organization, and nothing has been spared to make this the biggest and best picnic and dance in the history of the department.

Friday and Saturday will be devoted to picnic routine, and Saturday night will be the grand finale, when those who care to dance will be entertained by an outstanding orchestra.

Preparation's have been made to accommodate a large crowd. In the past these events have been well supported, and it is believed by officers of the organization that this year will be no exception. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Warning Issued Against Clear Cutting Of Timber

You may cash in on your farm woods by clear cutting now, but it will be cash out of your pocket in the long run.

That's the warning from Ward T. Darnell, Camp Superintendent of the Camp SCS-5-Ky., Walton, Ky., who says that the present tendency of many farmers to overcut and oversell is a menace to the national defense program. He urged all farmers to protect the farm woodlands and adopt systematic management practices.

"Too many farmers are overanxious to cash in while prices are high, even though by so doing they eliminate all possible returns for many years to come," Darnell said. "Lump sum selling, followed by slash or clear cutting, frequently leaves the owner not only with little or no growing stock on the ground, but often brings him a low price for the material cut. Furthermore, slash cutting leaves the ground susceptible to soil erosion."

A three-point program, involving protection from grazing, protection from fire, and selection cutting is recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Selection cutting, it was pointed out, has many advantages. Volume, quality, and good prices can be secured only from large logs. Small, immature trees left after a selection cutting respond vigorously through stimulated growth. Also, selection cutting makes possible annual and periodic harvesting.

Do your own logging, do it on a systematic basis, and you'll reap your own reward in both cash and a sustained farm woods, was Darnell's advice.

TWENTY MEN ARE INDUCTED

AT FORT THOMAS ARMY POST DURING MONTH OF JUNE—SEVEN ARE CALLED FOR SERVICE JUNE 30TH.

Twenty selectees from Boone County will have been inducted into the U. S. Army when seven youth report to the Local Draft Board on June 30, according to Courtney Kelly, Clerk of the Board.

Those to be inducted June 30th will report to the Local Board at 9 a .m. EST. when they will be sent to Fort Thomas, local induction station of the United States Army.

Those called for June 30th are as follows: Ralph Holton Bradburn, volunteer, No. 308; Wilbur Walton Shinkle, No. 241; Henry Samuel, B. Morgan, No. 263; William Oscar Kerns, No. 265; Harold Frederick Prable, No. 275; Burgess Franklin Arney, No. 279; Irvan Harold Kampman, No. 283; Gregor Boitman, No. 299, alternate.

C. G. Kelly, Clerk of Local Draft Board No., asks all registrants to follow the instructions listed below:

1. Report immediately to your local board any change of address.
2. Report immediately to your local board any change in your work, your dependents or your physical condition.
3. Consult your advisory board for registrants when in doubt about your status as a registrant and particularly about your questionnaire.
4. Consult with your Government Appeal Agent if you believe you have been improperly classified.
5. Keep in touch with your local board.

Ladies Asked To Order Bulbs Immediately

Any one desiring bulbs, either narcissus or tulip, should give the order to her local chairman or Mrs. Tolin, Burlington, as soon as possible. The order is to be sent the latter part of this month.

COMMUNITY FIREWORKS

TO BE HELD AT BURLINGTON SCHOOL GROUNDS ON JULY 4—EXTRA ATTRACTION ON SCREEN ALSO PROMISED.

Plans were completed Monday night for a community fireworks display to be given under the auspices of the Burlington P.-T. A. immediately following the outdoor show at the school grounds on Friday night, July 4th.

The name of the picture for this occasion has not been released as yet. However, an extra good film has been promised for this night, and the regular admission price is to be charged for the double attraction on this occasion.

This is the first time this community has attempted a community fireworks, however, it is based on the idea that it will insure safety for children, and at the same time give them a much larger display. All funds for the fireworks are to be raised by members of the local P.-T. A. from voluntary subscription from persons living in and around Burlington.

JUST ONE!

A court not far from this section, sentences a driver because he was driving while under the influence of drink. The man protested that he had only had one bottle of beer and couldn't have been drunk on just one! This is no new excuse in any court. The drink of one beer may do more harm to one man than the same amount affects another. There have been cases of course where a man has been unjustly fined and punished for drinking while driving when he had the odor of liquor on his breath but was not drunk and had full control of his car and his senses. With the heavy toll of auto accidents mounting and those items of drunken motorists finding their way to the public's notice, there aren't going to be many courts that will be lenient with the man or woman who will get behind the wheel after on drink of beer and get mixed up in an auto accident. They will have a hard time proving they weren't drunk and make themselves liable to fines because they carry the odor of the evidence right with them.

WALK AGAIN

We each pride ourselves on being able to get along without some of the modern conveniences if we had to do so. Many we aren't willing to forego, ones our ancestors wouldn't know how to use and we don't know how to do without. Scarcely does a lovely day roll along in Boone County that some of us remark we are missing a lot by being so dependent upon our automobiles. We speak of how we formerly made our legs useful instead of valueless as they seem to be today. We feel they are necessary for transportation and get out the car to drive to the corner grocery, drive the children to a nearby school and find countless reasons for using the auto when the going could be made easily on foot. We depend upon our motors and rubber tires more than any other people in the world, so science offers the jalopy, we gather the price for gas, build a garage to house it, make the payments to keep it, and off we go to join in the traffic parade.

We should get tuned up to trust more to our legs, by roadside and on the city sidewalks. Not only would we be healthier but if the cost of gasoline should happen to advance to 60 cents a gallon as it did in Australia, we wouldn't miss putting the dust cover over the auto and taking to our feet. Let us start hiking for practice, just in case!

NOTHING NEW HERE

Into the midst of June, the month of brides, old shoes and rice! There is nothing recent in naming June the brides month for long ago, before the Christian era, and even before we had those Roman myths to teach us, June was considered the lucky month for a most successful marriage. Certain days were chosen as favorable, by the position of the sun and moon. Many superstitions have been handed down through the years regarding the month of brides and we cling to them as a necessary part of the ceremony. In the very early days if the villagers did not like the union they would follow the wedding procession and beat upon pans and ring bells to show their disapproval of the affair. The church ended this by a decree considering it a display that desecrated a solemn occasion. Today we throw rice and old shoes and tie tin cans on the back of the automobile but not as an act of disapproval. This is just for fun. Having a bachelor party before the ceremony is a very old custom, too. So again we haven't altered the old fashions too much except the one where HE chased HER with a club, caught up and tapper her on the head and from then on proclaimed himself the boss!

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Lesson for June 29

LESSONS FROM THE EARLY CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—I Corinthians 3:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.—I Corinthians 3:11.

Corinth in the time of Paul was a great city, as renowned for its commerce and culture as it was notorious for its vice and licentiousness. Here on his second missionary journey, Paul, with Silas and Timothy, spent 18 months winning many to Christ, in spite of the hostility of the Jews and the opposition of wicked men.

The church established in Corinth became the victim of a factional spirit which divided the loyalty of the people, hindering spiritual growth, destroying discipline, and resulting in low standards of life.

Paul found it necessary to write to the church regarding its difficulties, and we may well learn salutary lessons from his epistle.

I. A Lesson in Spirituality (vv. 1-4).

The further a man drifts from his place of spiritual power and usefulness, the more apt he is to try to keep up a "front," to take up any possible means of justification. The Corinthian church was divided into four groups, each one priding itself on being right. There was "a Pauline party, overzealous for the founder of the church; an Apollonian party, bewitched by the oratory of Apollos; a Petrine party, which, claiming Peter as authority, was bent on mixing Jewish ideas with Christianity; and a Christ party, which, in antagonizing other elements, became itself a faction" (Moore). (See I Cor. 1:11-13.) All this activity was covering up the fact that they were having.

1. Milk Instead of Meat (vv. 1, 2). In other words they were spiritual babes when they should have been grown-ups. Milk is a marvelous food, but there is need of stronger food for virile men and women.

How true it is that many ministers must spoon-feed or bottle-feed a lot of spiritual babes who should long since have grown up to the place where they can feed themselves and help others.

2. Strife Instead of Stability (vv. 3, 4). God does not want Christians to be like other men. When will we learn that lesson? One of the sure ways to stifle spiritual growth in a church or in an individual life is to engage in strife. Let us heed Paul's admonition and put away our bickerings, that we may become strong in the Lord.

II. A Lesson on Service (vv. 5-15).

Here is helpful instruction to the minister regarding his calling. Brethren, let us judge ourselves in the light of it lest we hinder God's work by having the wrong attitude or encourage our people to think carelessly on this important subject.

1. The Minister (vv. 5-9). There is no higher or holier calling than that to the ministry. We should not forget that, and will not, but will rather glorify the calling, when we realize that "minister" (v. 5) means "servant," "attendant," or "waiter." So Paul and Apollos, men of highest office and highest gifts, were God's waiters, to bring forth the bread of life; His servants, to plant and cultivate His field; and His builders, laboring on His building. Ministers are only instruments in God's hands, but they should be clean, well-prepared, and submissive instruments in His hands.

2. The Manner (v. 10). The servant of God must take heed how he builds. If, like Paul, he has the privilege of laying the foundation, he must be careful that it is the true foundation and is properly laid. He who builds must also be careful that every stone he lays is fitly placed and well-chosen.

3. The Materials (vv. 11, 12). How important it is that the materials of a building be right. If that be true of a physical building, it is a thousand times more important in God's building.

First of all there is only one foundation which the true minister can lay—Jesus Christ. It is the only foundation upon which anyone can build a lasting life structure for time and for eternity.

But there are other materials in the building which need to be chosen with care. It will not do for the minister to substitute the wood, hay, and stubble of his wisdom or the philosophy of men for the gold, silver, and precious stones of God's Word. Terrifying shame and loss is all that can result from such folly, for remember there is a day of judgment coming.

4. The Manifestation (vv. 13-15). Flaming fire will one day reveal how we have built. The "wood-hay-and-stubble" preacher or teacher of God's Word may himself be saved, but, oh, the tragedy of coming into God's presence after years of service like a man who has escaped from a burning building empty-handed; saved from the fire himself, but ashamed that he has so built as to suffer loss.

One advantage of living back in the Stone Age, you weren't expected to get olives out of a jar without tools!

The problem child may have a pair of problem parents, you know.

FARMERS LIKE VETCH

County Agent Charles E. Gabbard says Wolfe county farmers are convinced that vetch is the best winter cover and feed crop they can grow. Tests made over the county last winter brought almost universal praise, he reports. Crockett Rose, living near Malaga, sowed vetch with crimson clover and rye grass. Although pastured, the mixture was so heavy that it was necessary to mow it before plowing the field this spring.

Foot Health In Relation To Mental Health

When you suffer from flat feet, your muscular system is taxed and irritates the nerves of the foot, simultaneously affecting the entire delicate nervous system, causing it to function at less their normal capacity. The result of this whole action is a generalized irritability and unrest in the individual.

Ordinarily the body can overcome the irritations of its various sick parts, and is capable of removing the effects of the disease. The disturbances of the foot, however, are often subject to influences which the body has great difficulty in combating.

The foot according to dictates of society should be housed in a protective leather or cloth covering, which must meet the aesthetic tastes of the prevailing fashion. Thus, if the fashion dictates that long thin shoes be worn, thousands of individuals with short wide feet will attempt to crowd them into long, thin, shoes, and visa versa.

The vagaries of fashion may thus make you comfortable one season and uncomfortable another. However, when we consider the permanent effects of this change of style, we realize that the foot, which has a fairly permanent shape, has to respond like an elastic band. The harm wrought in one season does not disappear the next, but may rather be accentuated in some significant defect as for example the BUNION.

Once this defect is formed the foot is placed daily in what may be considered a vice or mold and the normal metabolic or growth activity of the foot is interferred with. The attempts of the body to overcome the irritation are frustrated and the physical ailment grows and becomes more pernicious. The mental effects of this constant irritant are such as to set up a continual hypersensitiveness in all behavior.—Adv.

This Week In Defense

President Roosevelt, in a special message to Congress, said that Germany had tried to drive the U. S. off the high seas by the "ruthless" sinking of the U. S. merchantman Robin Moor in the South Atlantic and proclaimed this country will not yield to such "outrageous and indefensible" acts of "an international outlaw." The President said if the U. S. yielded on the issue, "we would inevitably submit to world domination . . .

The President froze all funds and other assets in the U. S. of of Germany, Italy and all invaded or occupied European countries and the State Department directed the German Government to close all its consular establishments here not later than July 10.

The President said he froze German financial facilities here to prevent their use in ways harmful to national defense. The State Department said German consulates were ordered closed because their activities had become contrary to the welfare of this country.

The Justice Department instructed customs officials and immigration officers to prevent Germans from evading the order freezing German assets by leaving the country. The State Department ordered U. S. diplomatic officials "in certain countries in Europe" to deny American entry permits to persons likely to become agents here for foreign powers.

President Roosevelt, declaring a strike at the North American Aviation plant in Inglewood, Calif., was impeding the defense program, ordered the Army to operate the plant after workers rejected Mediation Board terms for settlement. Two days after taking over, the Army reported "100 percent efficiency" with all employees returned to work. The President said plants which he might be forced to place under Federal control will be returned to private management as soon as possible.

The House vote for an amendment to the 1942 Army appropriation bill to prohibit the payment of funds to any individual or company failing within 10 days to abide by Mediation Board recommendations for settlement of disputes. The Senate approved a declaration that strikes or lockouts in defense industries are "contrary to sound public policy."

The Mediation Board announced settlement of three labor disputes, including the dispute of the soft coal industry. The U. S. Conciliation Service announced settlement of 34 additional disputes.

Selective Service

Selective Service Headquarters ordered reclassification of all registrants "impeding the defense program." The order said "the citizen who has been deferred because of the job he is performing in the national defense program cannot expect to retain the status of deferment when he ceases to work on the job for which he was deferred."

The Senate approved a bill to defer men who reach their 28th birthday by July 1 of this year, except those already in the Service.

Foreign Affairs

The State Department announced sinking of the American freighter Robin Moore in the south Atlantic by a German submarine. Announcing the rescue of only 11 of 46 persons forces to abandon the ship, Under Secretary Welles told the press that international law requires precautions must be taken for the safety of passengers and crew before a ship is sunk.

Ships

The OPM granted full priority for materials necessary in the building of 289 merchant ships for U. S. and Great Britain and the 312 special lease-lend vessels.

OPM Production Director Biggers, speaking at Quebec, said "almost every ship now building in our rapidly expanding yards is ahead of schedule." The Maritime Commission directed the Southern Pacific Company to deliver for national defense purposes its entire fleet of 10 vessels (66,000 tons), formerly used in coastwise trade.

Lease-Lend Aid

President Roosevelt reported to Congress that $75,202,425 of war materials have been transferred to the democracies since enactment of the lease-lend law and $4,277,412,879 has been allocated for further aid out of the $7,000,000,000 provided by Congress. He said that work has started on agreements with foreign governments on the terms and conditions of the aid they receive.

Civilian Defense

Civilian Defense Director LaGuardia stated organization of medical groups, auixiliary police and fire units, sanitation, and first aid squads are the necessary basis for adequate home defense. He said panic is to be avoided under all circumstances and it will be necessary to educate the public to the absolute necessity of obeying instructions.

Mr. LaGuardia said firemen and policemen from 40 Eastern cities will be trained in combating poison gas and incendiary and high explosive bombs in 17, two-week courses at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., under the direction of the Army Chemical Warfare Service. Trainees will return home and instruct fellow townsmen.

OPM announced it will soon begin a nation-wide campaign to collect scrap aluminum from civilians. A test drive in Richmond, Va., and at Madison, Wis., it was said, produced enough of the metal to build 16 pursuit planes or two and one-half bombers.

Oil

Defense Petroleum Coordinator Ickes told a press conference that curbs on petroleum consumption along the Atlantic coast appear inevitable but the degree of restriction would depend on public cooperation in conserving oil and gasoline. He said the American Automobile Association has pledged a campaign to cut down consumption of gasoline by motorists by slower driving, elimination of hasty "getaways" in traffic, and proper engine adjustments. He said Bureau of Standards tests showed a car which gets 18 miles to the gallon at 30 m. p. h. will get only 8.6 miles to the gallon at 80.

Power

The Federal Power Commission reported "many areas of the country are now . . . facing power shortages . . . Unless orders are placed immediately for large amounts of additional capacity for 1943, serious shortages will develop . . . "

OPM Director General Knudsen announced OPM has formally approved the St. Lawrence Waterway and Power Project "as part of the all-out defense effort." The President allotted $200,000 for construction of a cooperative transmission system to carry power from the Pensacola Dam to 15 REA cooperatives in Kansas, Arkansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma to provide for development of zinc deposits for defense.

Coal

The Office of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel announced a campaign—endorsed by defense consumer, price and transportation officials—to promote buying and storing of next winter's coal this summer to lighten the load that movement of crops and defense materials will place upon the transport system beginning next fall. The Office warned consumers against "panicky" buying at high prices and said the supply of bituminous coal is ample for all needs.

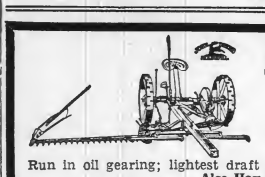
Prices

Administrator Henderson, of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, arranged with the industries concerned to prevent unjustified price increases in coffee, plywood, paper board, crude oil, gasoline and automobiles. Mr. Henderson told certain auto firms to withdraw recently announced price rises because they "are inconsistent with the favorable earning position of the industry."

Priorities

OPM placed borax and boric acid, aluminum scrap, zinc, copper, and synthetic rubber under full priority control. OPACS announced programs to allocate sufficient quantities of these materials for essential civilian needs.

Vice President Wallace, speaking in Washington, said the democratic way is for each citizen to put off non-essential purchases until after the emergency so that more material will be available for defense.



Defense Housing Coordinator Palmer announced there have been completed 14,293 defense dwelling units in 55 localities of 26 States and territories. Speaking to the Conference for National Housing Inventory, Mr. Palmer said it may be necessary to ask Congress for an additional $500,000,000 to construct 125,000 homes in defense areas in addition to the 97,000 already contracted for.

A County-wide picnic is given a prominent place in an 18-point program adopted by the Campbell county 4-H club council. Exhibits will be made by local, county, district and State fairs, and all district and State contests entered.

A talk on nutrition and a report of the county nutrition board will be of special interest to everyone. All members are urged to be present, and visitors are always welcome.

REGULATIONS ANNOUNCED

FOR REGISTRATION IN SELECTIVE SERVICE SET FOR JULY 1ST — NEW PROCEDURE IS IMPROVEMENT.

A Selective Service registrant who spends part of his time in one place and part in another will have the right to decide for himself which place he wants recorded as his residence when he registers July 1st. The place he chooses will determine the local board that will always have jurisdiction over him, National Headquarters, Selective Service System, announced.

On the first registration day, October 16, 1940 such registrants were somewhat confused, National Headquarters pointed out, and some of them thereafter wanted to change the address they had given for the place of their residence after registration day. In other instances, the addresses given were incomplete or ambiguous and the cards reached the wrong local boards.

The new Selective Service Regulations, prepared for the July 1st registration, require each registrant to describe the place of his resident so that its location may be determined from its description. A registrant who lives on a R. F. D. route which goes through two states will be required to indicate the location of his residence, rather than his mailing address. Because of this fact and because some registrants may want to have their mail sent to an address other than the place of their residence, the new registration card describes the place of residence and in addition the mailing address of the registrant.

A description of the place of residence of the registrant will once and for all fix the local board that will have jurisdiction of the registrant, National Headquarters stated. The mailing address, however, can be changed when necessary and local boards will send their notices to the mailing address without regard to the place of residence.

This new procedure is expected to be a big improvement over that followed in the first registration in that the description of the place of residence fixes local board jurisdiction and is never changed, while the mailing address is subject to change whenever the registrant moves, National Headquarters said.

The right of the registrant in each case to select his residence address without interference from registrars has been safeguarded in the new regulations, it was pointed out, and the registrars have been instructed to warn the registrant that once he decides upon a place of residence the description given by him will fix his local board once and for all.

The Regulations provide:

"The registrant shall be permitted to determine what place he desires to give as his residence when he is not located in one place all the time. The registrar shall make no effort to dictate or interfere with this choice."

There are two spaces for addresses on the registration card to be used July 1st. The first one (place of residence) will determine which local board has control, and the second address will be the mailing address of the registrant. Such addresses will probably be the same in most instances.

The new Regulations contain another important provision which makes it candatory for all citizens who are out of the United States on July 1st to register immediately upon their re-entry. Under the old regulations such citizens were allowed five days in which to register after their return.

Why Should Savings Bonds Be Bought?

Today there is further need of safety for the United States and for all its people.

United States Savings Bonds are the quickest way in which you can both serve your country and conserve your earnings. To meet the needs of all our people, the Government now offers three kinds of Savings Bonds:

(1) The Series E Bond preserves the character of the Savings Bonds which have proved so popular in the past. This bond is issued to meet the needs of the small investor, who can buy for $18.75 a bond that will appreciate in value in 10 years to $25. Larger bonds up to $1,000 are issued at the same rate of appreciation, which gives an investment yield of 2.9 percent to maturity in 10 years after issue date.

(2) The new series F Bond is issued to meet the needs of people who can invest up to $50,000 a year; and it may also be bought by associations, trustees, or corporations. For $74 they may buy a bond that will appreciate in value in 12 years to $100. Larger bonds are issued at the same rate, which gives an investment yield of 2.53 percent to maturity in 12 years after issue date.

(3) The new Series G Bond meets the needs of individuals, associations, and corporations that want current income checks. Offered at par, these bonds bear interest at 2.5 percent per annum. These bonds, in denominations of $100 up to $10,000, are redeemable at par if they are held for 12 years from issue date.

What Security Is Behind Savings Bonds?

The full faith and credit of the United States Government is pledged for payment of both principal and interest on these bonds.

Through these three United States Savings Bonds, the Government gives a balanced and complete investment program to the people.

How May Everyone Buy Savings Bonds?

There remains one great army of savers, eager to accumulate funds with which to support the national defense program, to whom the payment of $18.75 at one time is not convenient. For these boys and girls, young workers, clerks, soldiers and sailors, a simple system of saving money with which to buy United States Savings Bonds is provided through Postal Savings Stamps.

Postal Savings Stamps

At Post Offices and elsewhere you will now be given a stamp card of album for mounting the kind of Postal Savings Stamp you find easiest to collect.

On the purchase of a 10-cent stamp, you will be given a card on which you may mount 10 of these stamps, and exchange them for $1 worth of the larger sizes.

On the purchase of a 25-cent stamp, you will be given an album on which you may mount 75 of these stamps. When so filled, the album will have a total value of $18.75, the purchase price of a Savings Bond that will appreciate in 10 years to $25.

On the purchase of a 50-cent stamp, you will be given an album to mount 75 of these stamps, total value $37.50, the purchase price of a savings Bond that will appreciate in 10 years to $50.

On the purchase of a $1 stamp, you will be given an album to mount 75 stamps, total value $75, the purchase price of a Savings Bond that will appreciate in 10 years to $100.

On the purchase of a $5 stamp, you will be given an album to mount 15 stamps, total value $75, the purchase price of a Savings Bond that will appreciate in 10 years to $100.

The completed album is a quick, convenient way to exchange your current savings for United States Savings Bonds.

WALTON HOMEMAKERS

The Walton Homemakers' Club met in the home of Mrs. Blanche Franks, Friday, June 13th, with 14 members answering the roll call, and two visitors.

Many things were discussed. Mrs. Edna Vest, our Exterior Beautification chairman stated a silver tea is being planned for July 31st at Florence Christian Church. Guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. Anne Stewart, well known for "Let The Earth Speak." Mrs. Jas. Layne, who is connected with the Federation of Woman's Clubs and the State Beautification project will also speak. The tea should be of interest to all Boone County people, since they plan to use the proceeds from the tea to beautify Boone County roads.

The committee on recreation outlined plans for a tour to be held for the members on July 11th and a county-wide garden tour on July 29th.

Our Rug Project leaders have planned a rug exhibit on July 17, 18, and 19 in different windows of the business houses.

Miss Gillaspie stated at the Advisory Council meeting, the majority voted for "Meal Planning" as the major project for the coming year. So our main project will be a continuation of "Live-at-Home."

Thus concluded our regular monthly meeting until the second Friday in September.

Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Sec'y.

They took the rest out of restaurant, when they installed those loud-mouthed music boxes.

NOTICE

Attention is called to persons driving tractors with sharp lugs on our blacktop roads, causing damage. This is against the law. The county does not want to have persons cited, but must do so if this practice continues. It is your tax money that is wasted.

WITH THE

Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati—When tough ball clubs are mentioned, the Reds must take their hats off to the Philadelphia Phillies, notwithstanding that team's position in the National League race, for the results of the five meetings between the teams this season have taught the Reds to respect the club from the city of brotherly love.

No team in the league has been as hard for the Reds to overcome as the Phillies, and that includes the Cardinals and Dodgers, who are in a tangled fight for first place at the present time. In four of the five meetings between the Reds and Phillies this season the Phils have come out on top, which is good reason for the Reds to respect the Phils, regardless of standing.

These Cincinnati-devouring Phils were in Cincinnati for an afternoon game Tuesday and a ladies' day doubleheader Wednesday, which meant there was some red hot activity on these two days.

When the Reds finish with the Phils, they'll travel to Kansas City for an exhibition game against the Blues Thursday, then will get right into the thick of it with four games in three days against the Cardinals at St. Louis. The series will start with a night game Friday then continue with an afternoon game Saturday and a doubleheader Sunday.

Next Monday, June 30, the Chicago Cubs will stop off in Cincinnati for a night game. This will be a one-game stand. The night has been dedicated to the American Legion, inasmuch as R. O. T. C. medals will be presented to students of the University of Cincinnati by the American Legion.

In attendance will be the band of the Sailors and Soldiers Home at Xenia. The fireworks display will be of a patriotic nature, and the feature set piece will be a huge replica of the American Legion emblem.

ABOUT DUST

If you must be particularly careful of dust and are where you can't shake a dust mop freely, keep the dust from flying by fastening a paper sack over the mop. You can throw the sack away after you have shaken the mop. This is especially helpful if you can't shake the mop out of doors. For summer keep a dust cloth handy on the front porch so that you can wife off the porch furniture quickly. Put a tin container in the corner and you will have the cloth right at hand without having to go through the house for one.

Gayety Theater News

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

Showing a boy bandit of seven who robs a filling station and pawnshop may seem far-fetched, but the role of Flip, child robber in "Men of Boys Town," was taken from life.

Darryl Hickman portrayed the character in the film which stars Spencer Tracey and Mickey Rooney and come to the Gayety. The part of Flip was written from a case in the files of Father Edward J. Flanagan's Boys Town, that of a seven-year-old bandit who robbed a bank in Texas to become the youngest hold-up man in the records of crime.

The boy was taken to Boys Town by Father Flanagan and grew up to become a respectable citizen.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Both Bob Crosby and Charles Butterwork, important players in Judy Canova's new starring vehicle, "Sis Hopkins," studied law while in college. Both had planned to become lawyers upon graduation, but went instead into the entertainment world—Butterworth for comedy roles and Crosby for orchestra work.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
(Added Attraction)

Monday and Tuesday night, as an added attraction, the management has procured the fight picture of Billy Conn vs. Joe Louis, the most sensatinal blow-by-blow thrills of the year. Thirteen rounds of the fastest fistic action ever filmed, including the terrific 12th when the heavyweight Championship hung in the balance . . and the knockout that saved the Brown Bomber's crown!

TUESDAY

Shifiting its background from the exciting and oftimes dangerous city haunts of a suave confidence man and his criminal pal to the peaceful New England farm school of Plumfield, RKO Radio's picturization of "Little Men" is said to come to the screen as a delightful, streamlined version of Louisa May Alcott's beloved book. Produced by Gene Towne and Graham Baker, this exciting drama of boyhood features an all-star cast which includes Kay Frances, Jack Oakie, George Bancroft, Jimmy Lydon, Ann Gillis, Charles Esmond and "Elsie" the acting cow.

NOTICE

TO LOVERS OF HOME-GROWN PEACHES

Our first variety of peaches are ready for picking now. These peaches are desirable for preserving, pickling or canning whole. Our experience in the past has been that too many of our customers have waited for the later varieties and as a result many people are disappointed because we never have enough to supply the demand.

Let us recommend that you start now in getting your season's supply of tree-ripened delicious peaches. Come bring your baskets and take these home at $1.00 per bushel.

Positively no sales made on Sundays.

DRIVERS URGED TO USE CAUTION

OVER FOURTH OF JULY HOLIDAY—BETTER TO BE SAFE THAN SORRY, RED CROSS WARNS.

The Fourth of July week-end will be even more hazardous than in previus years because of increased congestion on the highways and at resort and recreational centers resulting in part from National Defense activities, it was pointed out today by J. Russell Cross, Chairman of the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Traffic death figures for the first three months of 1941 released by the National Safety Council, reveal that if the present rate continues, the total for this year will surpass 40,000 deaths—an all-time high. Highway fatalities last year totaled 34,000—an increase of seven per cent over the total for 1939. Deaths from drowining each year average approximately 7,000.

The vacationist must not only see to his own safety, but must anticipate the carelessness of others, Mr. Cross warned. The mistake of one motorist may result in fatality to those who may be obeying all the rules of the road.

This year's list of accidental deaths and injuries will be largely the result of carelessness and ignorance. For a safe Fourth, Mr. Cross offers the following suggestions

To motorists Get an early start for the holiday week-end trip to get ahead of the congestion and allow plenty of time.

Make a thorough check-up of your tires, brakes, lights and steering gear, for many accidents are the result of faulty equipment.

Keep an eye on the "other fellow," who may cause the accident.

Be sure luggage piled in the back of the car does not obscure rear vision.

Sacrifice that last hour at the beach and leave for home before the crowd.

Remember that driving after dark is many times more hazardous and after-dark accidents are frequently more serious.

To swimmers: Enjoy your water sports at patrolled beaches.

Bear in mind that expert swimmers can be drowned from cramps caused by swimming too soon after eating.

Miss Amanda Holloday entertained several of the ladies of the gym class at her home in Lexington last Friday. The following ladies were her guests: Mrs. Maude Kelly, Mrs. Ella Jarrell, Mrs. Alice Poston, Mrs. Lallie Kelly, Mrs. Isabelle Cropper, Mrs. Kathryn Cropper, Mrs. Virgie Sullivan and Mrs. May Benson.

DAIRY TOUR SET JULY 8TH

THREE DAIRY FARMS WILL BE VISITED — GENERAL FIELD MEETING AND DISCUSSION TO BE HELD AT LAST STOP.

Boone County will hold a dairy tour on Tuesday, July 8th, according to H. R. Forkner, Conty Agent. Three extra good dairy farms will be visited on the tour. A general field meeting and discussion meeting will be held at the last stop. The schedule of the meeting is as follows:

11:00 A. M. Eastern Time—Jesse Wilson's farm, 1½ miles East of Verona, just off State Road 16 (Walton-Verona Road) on old Stephenson Mill Pike. See the highest butterfat testing herd in the county. A good D. H. I. A. herd—a proven D. H. I. A. herd sire

12:00 Noon

1:00 P M. Eastern Time—Farm of R. B. Huey and son, 3 miles west of Burlington, ½ mile north of State Road 18 on Commissary pike. See Ada's Tormentor, Boone County's first and highest testing D. H. I. A. proven sire and good D. H. I. A. herd; breeding chute; real dairy farm.

2:00 P. M. Eastern Time—Farm of Robert Youell, two miles from Limaburg on Youell Pike. See 400-pound D. H. I. A. herd; two Association bulls; new grass silage silo; alfalfa; milk houses; good dairy farm. Attend the general field meeting here.

This tour and field meeting will interest all dairymen who want to improve their herds. Everybody is invited to attend and take part.

CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR

Alvin Kidwell

Alvin Kidwell, Democratic candidate for State Senator from the 26th Senatorial District was visiting the voters of Boone County last week. His announcement appears in this paper several weeks ago.

235 MATTRESSES ARE COMPLETED

AND 235 COMFORTERS AT CLOSE OF PROJECT JUNE 30—ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIVE FAMILIES REACHED.

The cotton mattress program in Boone County closed Monday, June 30, as articles were completed at the Burlington Center. This program has reached 155 families through the completion of 235 mattresses and 235 comforters. The project comes to the county thru the Home Demonstration Agent and Homemakers' clubs and is a part of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration program directed by the County Agent. Local agencies who have contributed to the success of the program are: The County School Board and Mr. Norris, who made their buildings available; Walton-Verona School system, who allowed the use of their school at Verona; Walton Lumber Company and Erlanger Lumber Company who aided in equipping the center; County Fiscal Court and the Road Department who moved equipment from center to center; Mr. L. W. Gulley who loaned scales; and Mr. Elza Poston and Mr. Calvin Cress who loaned carpenter horses.

The project was directed by Mrs. Mary Scott Moore, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent. The centers were supervised by Mrs. Vernon Pope and volunteer leaders from local Homemakers' clubs. Centers were opened at Burlington, Petersburg, Grant, Verona and Beaver.

Volunteer leaders who assisted were: Mrs. Chas. Engle, Mrs. A. B. Ligon, Mrs. Huey Aylor, Bullittsville; Mrs. S. B. Godbey, New Haven; Mrs. Sam B. Sleet, New Haven; Mrs. Raymond Witham, Miss Mary Rector, Miss Edna Berkshire and Mrs. Chas. Klopp, Petersburg; Mrs. Lorie Morith, Florence; Mrs. Christina Kirtley, Miss Marion Rogers, and Mrs. Zora Scott, Grant; Mrs. Ethel Wilson, Mrs. Iva Mae Ryle and Mrs. Mary Wilson, Rabbit Hash; Mrs. Joe Hedges, Union; Mrs. Grace Renaker, Mrs. Maude Wilson, Mrs. Pearl Lamn, Mrs. Walter King and Mrs. Sibbia Gordon, Verona; Mrs. Parker Hollis, Mrs. Flora Tanner, Hebron; Mrs. H. R. Forkner, and Mrs. Grover Jarrell, Bulington; Ms. Alan Gaines, Walton.

In acknowledging the cooperation of persons and agencies, appreciation is expressed to all who made it possible to conduct such a worthwhile project in the county. Many homes have benefited by this program to help themselves and in doing so to help others. here may be occasion in the future when this program or one similar will be offered. This is only one phase of the activities of the Homemakers' clubs.

Fireman's Picnic Huge Success

The Florence Volunteer Fire Department report this week that their picnic on last Friday and Saturday was a great success, and that the organization is more than pleased with the results.

All money derived from the picnic will go toward the debt of the Fire Department, and to purchase new equipment.

Chief Al Hue and all members of the Fire Department desire to thank everyone who assisted in any way in making the picnic a success.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Fourth of July, observed as a legal holiday in all of our states as well as the District of Columbia, Alaska, Canal Zone, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Phillippine and Virgin Islands. In Williamsburg, Va., in May 6, 1776, the fifth revolutionary convention convened and adopted the first constitution of a free and independent state. On May 15 it called on the Continental Congress to declare the colonies free and independent. On July 4, 1776 was signed the Declaration of Independence. An item in a history book where space is given to the names of the principle leaders, of the battlegrounds in the fight to attain independence and the cold print tries to impress the facts on the minds of the student. We are supposed to learn by heart the names of the signers of the Declaration and at the time it was something of a bother. We youthfully felt the fight had been a good one, we were justly proud of the forefathers who had struggled for the cause, but it all had happened many years ago and there was the present matter of clearing up a baseball diamond on a sand-lot in the neighborhood. We didn't get the full force of the picture as does the history student today.

July 4th when England and America separated and the young government becomes an individual, after a fight to the death. The mother had hoped to chastise the wayward child, a child that had grown to man's estate and wished to think and govern itself. America labored to give itself civil liberties, to bring its struggles for progress home where it could handle the situation where its citizens saw fit. America fighting to meet its spiritual and material problems in its own way, to work out its own destiny in the matter of civil and political welfare. This new country wanted to stand on its own feet, and she did! And so she does today!

We have fought to preserve the ideals of those early years, to maintain rights to worship our God as we desired, to enjoy the liberty of free speech, press and pulpit, of owning property and holding public meetings. The securing of these privileges took sacrifice on the part of all citizens, but America was worth the struggle then and America is worth it today. She is a cause worth protecting and sacrificing for her is our obligation. Remember that as we fight today the future will put us down after a date in a history book.

BURLINGTON, CCC BIG BONE, VICTORS

IN GAMES SATURDAY, AS CCC WINS FOR FIRST TIME—ALL-STARS LOSE IN SEMIPRO CONTEST.

Starting by scoring four runs in the opening frame and adding five more in the second, Burlington walloped Belleview 14-3 at the latter's park Saturday. Akin held the losers to seven singles and gave up two walks, while hurling all but one inning of the game for the winners, retiring when his team had a 10-run lead. In addition to tossing a hitless inning Benson got the only extra-base knock of the game, a home run. Though in trouble much of the time Aylor remained on the mound for Belleview.

CCC chalked up their first win of the season when they nosed out Petersburg 3-1 in a pitchers' duel at Petersburg. Wolfe and Lea, pitchers for CCC, turned in the hurling performance of the day, striking out 20 batters and holding the losers to three hits and scoreless until the final frame. D. Deck held his opponents to six hits.

Scoring 10 runs in the fourth inning, and blasting Goodridge from the mound, Big Bone swamped Hebron 25-5 at the Big Bone park, for the winners to bring their total runs score in the eight games won to 113. Black, Carroll, and Moore divided the pitching assignment for the winners and held their opponents to 10 base knocks, as Slayback helped their cause with a triple. Watts, M. Goodridge and Hodges finished the game for Hebron. Aylor got a base knock, good for the circuit.

Big Bone will be at Burlington, CCC at Belleview, and Petersburg at Hebron for games Saturday.

The standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	8	0
Belleview	3	3
Burlington	3	3
Hebron	3	4
Petersburg	2	4
CCC	1	6

The Boone All-Stars suffered their second defeat at the hands of the Pleezing Foods team when they went down by the score of 8-1 before a large crowd at the Burlington park Sunday. The local nine was held to four hits while their opponents collected 12, six off Shinkle, for five of their runs, before he was replaced in the second inning by Gulley, who, by keeping the six hits made off his pitches to not more than one in an inning, allowed not an earned run for the remainder of the game.

The All-Stars will be opposed by the Bellevue Merchants in their next game.

James W. Anderson

Services for James Willis Anderson, who died late Thursday at his home on Elijah Creek road near Hebron, Boone County, Ky., were held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Hebron Lutheran Church with Bullock and Catherman, Ludlow funeral directors, in charge. He was 68.

Mr. Anderson posed for a painting called "The Old Time Fiddler." The artist placed the portrait in an exhibition in Cincinnati and in the East, receiving a price. She presented a copy of this painting to Mr. Anderson,, and it hangs on the wall of the home. It will ever be a reminder of the love he had for his violin and the pleasure he gave to his listeners.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Virginia Beall Anderson; two sons, Kenneth and James Austin Anderson, at home; a brother, William Mt. Healthy, O.; and three sisters, Mrs. Pearl Byland and Mrs. Nannie Hellebush, Ludlow, and Mrs. Lucy Moore, Hebron.

Burial was in Hebron cemetery.

Albert Eades

Services for Albert Eades, Madison Pike farmer, who was crushed and suffocated when a tractor overturned upon him Saturday on his farm were conducted at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon at the Log Lick Christian Church, near Winchester, Ky., with burial in Log Lick cemetery. He was 85 years old.

Tharp and Stith, Florence were in charge of funeral arrangements.

NORTH, SOUTH NINES TO CLASH

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 4TH—STARS OF FORMER YEARS WILL BATTLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP.

A baseball treat is in store for fans in and near Burlington, who will attend the baseball game Friday, July 4th at the local park between the North Burlington nine and the South Burlington team.

Former stars, such as "Pap" Brady, Walter Brown, Hubert White, Jake Smith, C. D. Benson and many others will be in action on this day.

"Pap" Brady will be on the hill for the Northside boys, while C. D. Benson will do the hurling for the Southside nine. In a similar game last year, "Pap" held his opponents to six hits, and would have won over the young Burlington boys, had his team given him proper support in the field.

The game will be called promptly at 10:30 a. m. All baseball fans, who enjoy seeing a picture from the past will be delighted with the entertainment at the Burlington ball park, July 4th. Let's all go out and cheer the stars of yesteryear.

William A. Cook

William A. Cook, retired bridge carpenter for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, died Sunday at his home on Shelby Street, Florence, after an illness of three months.

Mr. Cook, a native of Pendleton County, had lived in Florence for two years. Previously he had lived in Newport, where he was a member of the First Baptist Church for 25 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lula Tanner Cook; a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Ulmer, San Francisco; a grandson, Clarence Ulmer, Jr., Philadelphia; two brothers, and two sisters.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Tharp and Stith funeral home, Florence. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Martin sold their farm of 147 acres on Ashby Fork, Wednesday, to Mr. G. E. Schulze of Erlanger.

Rose Named President Of Northern Kentucky Retail Merchants Ass'n.

Max M. Rose

Max M. Rose was recently elected president of the Northern Kentucky Retail Merchants Association at a dinner meeting at the Summit Hills Country Club, South Ft. Mitchell.

Mr. Rose is manager of the Quality Sample Shoe Shop, 627 Madison Ave., Covington, which numbers many Boone County residents among its large clientele.

This shop has met with exceptional success, because of offering the latest styles of ladies', men's and children shoes at special low prices.

Other officers elected at this same meeting were Edward Jansen, of Jansen Hardware Co., vice president; Harry Humpert, treasurer; Edward Love, secretary; and Horace L. Woody, Bernice Ellerman, a member of the firm of Ellerman's one of Northern Kentucky's most popular stores; Edward Finan; Robert Clore, well-known Burlington resident, associated with the Union Light, Heat & Power Co., Store; Charles Willenborg, business manager of The Kentucky Post, and Francis Vehr, manager of Sears, Roebuck & Company's Covington store, directors.

Roy W. Pitcher

Roy W. Pitcher, 18, who was stationed at Camp Alakali Lake, Oregon, was killed when struck by an auto June 22nd. The remains were received by Chambers and Grubbs and laid in State from Monday, June 30 to Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Beaver Christian Church, with Rev. Roy Johnson officiating, in the presence of many relatives and friends. Burial was in the churchyard cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pitcher; one sister Fay Molique; three brothers, Eugene, Donald and Ralph; his grandmother, Mrs. May Pitcher; three uncles, Henry, Harold and George; one aunt, Alma Weaver, and a number of relatives to mourn his passing.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Chambers & Grubbs, Walton.

Mrs. Alice Clements

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Clements, a native of Boone County, who died Wednesday of last week at Booth Hospital, Covington, were conducted at 11 o'clock Saturday at the Grassy Creek Christian Church, Pendleton County. Burial was in Belleview Cemetery, Boone County.

Mrs. Clements, who was 56 years old, was a member of the Grassy Creek Church. She had been a resident of Pendleton county for the last nine years.

She is survived by her husband, R. S. Clements; two sons, Harold and Lloyd Clements, and two daughters, Miss Glendora Clements. Covington and Mrs. Nathan Sullivan, Burlington.

Carra Lou Huey Suffers Severe Cuts

Miss Carra Lou Huey, daughter of J. H. Huey, of near Petersburg, suffered severe cuts on her knee and wrist last week when she fell at the home of her father. Miss Huey was entering the kitchen with a glass container filled with kerosene. The container struck a door, breaking, and Miss Huey slipped on the floor, falling into the shattered glass.

Dr. M. A. Yelton was called, and eight stitches were required to close the wound on her knee and two stitches on the wrist.

At this writing she is improving nicely.

STREAMS ARE RESTOCKED

WITH SMALL MOUTH BASS DURING PAST WEEK—FARMERS AND SPORTSMEN ASKED TO COOPERATE IN PROGRAM.

Boone County streams were restoked Saturday of last week with several hundred small mouth bass, furnished by the Federal Bureau of Hatcheries, Washington, D. C.

These fish, averaging from two to three inches in length were planted according to instructions mailed Edwin Johnson, State Conservation officer. By planting these fish in small numbers where there is plenty of feed, streams in this section will be greatly benefitted, and will within a few years yield many fine fish.

Property owners whose land adjoin Boone County streams are requested to cooperate with the Fish and Game Protective Association, in seeing that game laws are enforced and are asked to report any violation to Edwin Johnson, conservation officer or any member of the club.

During the past year our streams have been stocked with both large and small mouth bass, and within two years from now will offer real sport to followers of Izaak Walton.

Farmers and sportsmen are urged to become members of the local Fish and Game Protective Association. This club is following an extensive program of restocking fields and streams which will benefit everyone who enjoys hunting and fishing.

During the past few years the club has devoted much effort to a restocking program, which will be carried out in the future providing farmers and sportsmen cooperate. The club announced that if no cooperation is given at the close of the present program, no effort will be made by the club toward restocking in the future. It's up to you, sportsman and landowners to see that the laws are not violated on your property, and that you do not violate them yourself.

60th Wedding Anniversary Is Celebrated Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. James Addison Huey entertained a number of relatives and friends at their beautiful home, Union, Ky., Sunday, June 29th. The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Huey's sixtieth wedding anniversary.

The day was spent in reminiscence and an enjoyable day was spent by all present.

We join Mr. and Mrs. Huey's many friends in wishing them many more years of happy married life.

LEADERS DISCUSS NUTRITION MON.

AT MEETING HELD IN BURLINGTON—COMMUNITY MEETING DATES ANNOUNCED FOR MONTH OF JULY.

A leaders' meeting was held Monday, June 30, at Burlington for the temporary chairmen in charge of setting up a program of nutrition and production in the various communities of our county.

JUST IN CASE!

Last year at this time we had on our desk a bit of literature put out by the U. S. Forest Service, rules of behavior for those who might be going into the state and national forests for vacations. We may be smart in finding our way through traffic but the Forest Service finds that many of us aren't so smart in the woods. People who become lost from their party generally become panic stricken and they lose their heads through fear. The foresters of experience suggest that before you start wandering aimlessly around in circles, sit down and try to figure out sensibly just what about directions. Don't roam and if you happen to be caught by night or fog or storm, stop and make camp in a sheltered spot. Gather plenty of fuel and build a fire in a safe place. If injured, find an open spot to make a smoke signal. Travel only down hill. Most important of all, don't run, yell, worry yourself into a panic. Don't give up. When lost in the woods we are our own worst enemy in seeking safety.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

The U. S. is not overlooking the importance of the mosquito to the army and navy trainees in their camps, especially in the southern states where the danger of malaria is greater. Such protective means are as necessary to a soldier's welfare as being properly clothed and fed. A million dollars is being spent to prevent disease such as this malaria fever from running through our army camps. It will also cover attention to the other types of mosquitoes that are listed as annoying pests. We can carry on a local war against feeding grounds and breeding places for flies and mosquitoes here in Boone County. Through precaution we can eliminate a chance for illness for every town has spots that delight insects. It is up to us to clean up these places and protect our own army right here at home.

—o—

YOU CAN HELP HERE

Years ago, history tells us, a man chose a wife who was a skilled hand at herb growing, in mixing potions to allay the ills of the body and the mind, to cure broken promises, broken bones and broken hearts. Especially in our country has this custom of growing herbs, disappeared. It became necessary for us to import herbs and aromatic plants for drugs, and spices and commercial houses who manufacture medicines, sprays, paints and varnishes have had to cultivate their own plants or get them from abroad. War has made these companies appeal to gardeners here at home to give space in their yards for certain valuable herbs that we sorely need. Garden clubs have responded and through their efforts are furthering the growth of herbs and certain valuable types of weeds. From jimson weed comes a preparation needed by oculists in enlarging the pupil of the eye. Digatalis is used for heart troubles and comes from foxglove. Larkspur yields a drug for scalp disease. With each little plot added to each other little plot through our countryside we will have an answer to the problem of shortage of important plants. If any of you in Boone County wish to assist in this cultivation of medicinal plants, get your offer in to the National Farm Chermurgic council in Washington.

OUTSIDE LIVING

Let's all of us enjoy the yard more this summer. How about fixing that outside fireplace that you promised last year? Use old grills and collect stones around the county, mix a little cement and there it is for the pleasure of your family and friends. Have a lot of meals on the porch or if you have rustic benches and tables in the yard or the last word in fancy lawn furniture, take advantage of them and eat outside under the trees. With the market offering you the latest in gliders, porch swings, hammocks, you can do a lot of napping out of doors too.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for July 6

THE GOSPEL IS TAKEN INTO EUROPE

LESSON TEXT—Acts 16:6-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—Come over into Macedonia and help us.—Acts 16:9.

America is coming to the fore in the thinking of a confused world as the final hope of democracy and religious freedom. Europe, or at least most of Europe, represents in our thinking dictatorship, a totalitarian disregard for the personal rights of man, including his freedom to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

It is therefore very appropriate that on this "Fourth of July" Sunday, when patriotism has been much in our thoughts, that we remind ourselves in the study of our Sunday school lesson that the roots of American life, both cultural and religious, reach back into the European soil on which our forefathers dwelt. Much of that which we as Christians count precious has come to us because Paul, the missionary, was responsive to the leading of the Holy Spirit and carried the gospel into the heathendom of Europe, from whence, in due time, it came to our own land.

It was a crucial point in the history of Christianity; yes, and of the world, when the gospel came to Europe.

I. By Providential Hindrance (vv. 6-8).

Not only are "the steps of a good man ordered by the Lord" (Ps. 37:-23), but his stops as well. That is not an easy lesson to learn. Let us remember that we may be as much in the will of the Lord when all our efforts are thwarted as when they prosper.

Paul had set out on a second journey to carry out a follow-up campaign in the cities where he had already preached. This was a good plan and had God's blessing (see v. 5). But soon we find that word "forbidden" (v. 6) and then "suffered not" (v. 7). The Holy Spirit began to close doors to the gospel preacher. Now what? Shall he go on in determined self-will? Or shall he become discouraged and embittered in his soul? No, let him wait, for God is guiding him by providential hindrance, which is soon to be followed

II. By Divine Guidance (vv. 9, 10).

The Spirit spoke to Paul in a vision, revealing the divine purpose that the gospel should go over into Macedonia. The Spirit leads in our day, possibly not by visions, but by impelling inward prompting complemented and checked by the teaching of Scripture and by providential circumstances, and thus a man may know what is the will of God for him.

A word of caution is needed at this point. Some earnest Christian people go astray by projecting their own desires and purposes into the place where they seem to be the will of God, and thus do themselves and others, and Christianity itself, much harm. The three things should agree—(1) the inner prompting of the Spirit, (2) the teaching of God's Word, and (3) God's hand in our outward circumstances.

If these three do not agree, the Christian does well to wait, prayerfully, expectantly, for the Lord's further guidance.

III. Through a Faithful Witness (vv. 11-14a).

The gospel came to Europe because Paul and his fellow workers were faithful to their calling. When God led, they went to Macedonia (vv. 11, 12), where they sought out those who were in the place of prayer (v. 13). Paul spoke to them about Christ (v. 14). There he met the man of Macedonia who turned out to be a woman. For some reason the men were absent from the place of prayer on that all-important Sabbath morning. They were undoubtedly the ancient counterpart of our present day men who are "brothers-in-law" to the church, these foolish men who seem to assume that a bit of "religion" second hand through the wife or children will suffice.

IV. Through a Receptive Heart (vv. 14b-15).

God sent an obedient messenger to the place where He had a prepared heart. Lydia was a woman of distinction, business ability, and high moral character. But she knew, and Paul knew, that even good people need to be saved. We do well to keep that fact before us.

Paul spoke the truth of God, who opened Lydia's heart. Observe that she not only received the Word of God into her own heart, but at once gave herself to the task of passing it on. The first thing she could do was to give aid and comfort to the messenger of the truth, and she did that at once. Be assured that from that day on she did all she could to prosper the gospel on its way through Europe and to the ends of the earth. Have we done likewise?

The new style of wearing the hair should enable every woman to hear what is going on around her.

Is his face red, that fellow who said that the next war wouldn't last long because they didn't have enough money to fight?

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance, putting steel supports under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases, because they have never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "Fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances, if you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, back aches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired. Your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance, putting steel supports under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases, because they have never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: "Fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances, if you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, back aches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired. Your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

WOULD RAISE HEALTH STANDARD OF PEOPLE

Reporting on Kentucky's readiness for the defense program, Dr. Statie Erikson, chairman of the Kentucky Nutrition Committee and head of the University of Kentucky home economics department, gives the following requirements:

The health of the people must be raised by one-third—that is, a general improvement approximating that, for everyone.

The 996,000 individuals reported below the borderline of health must have far better food, better balanced, as well as medical care.

Larger gardens with more varieties of vegetables are urgently needed.

Use of fish liver oil for children; a quart of milk daily for children and a pint for adults; everyone use several vegetables daily and an egg a day.

"In addition to giving aid to Britain in the fight against the axis powers, America has determined to raise the health of her own people. A time of crisis often can be returned into a period of great gain, if long-term planning is done. The health and nutrition program in defense is long-term; no item is too small for attention, nor any purpose too large to be achieved by united effort," concluded the state chairman.

FOOD FOR DEFENSE PLAN MEANS MORE MONEY FOR FARMER

The government's plan to have more food produced for defense should mean higher prices for some Kentucky products, in the opinion of members of the Department of Markets and Rural Finance at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

For instance, the price of eggs is to be based on 22 cents a dozen for fresh eggs in Chicago. This should mean about 18½ cents a dozen in Kentucky, it is said, and compares to a little more than 16 cents last year, 15 cents in 1939, and a little under 18 cents in 1938.

The government is to support a butter price based on 31 cents a pound in Chicago for 92 score butter. This should result in a price of about 27 cents for butterfat in Kentucky, and compares to 25 cents last year, 20 cents in 1939 and 22 cents in 1938.

The Chicago basic hog price is to be 9 cents a pound. On account of variations in weights, grades and season, it is not possible to give figures for Kentucky, but prices should be materially higher than prevailed last year, it is declared.

The price which farmers are to be paid for chickens is to be based on 15 cents in Chicago. This should mean 12½ to 13 cents here, which is a little higher than prevailed in the past three years.

BANKS IN A NEW ROLE

Writing in Banking, Albert W. Atwood makes this observation: "Shakespeare said that one man in his time plays many parts, and so it is with the banks. Throughout the long depression they absorbed the mounting national debt, then as the defense program got underway their lending function became of vital importance, and now they have still another great role to play. It is their privilege and duty alike to educate and assist the public to invest in the three new kinds of United States savings bonds."

The banks of this nation are taking on this job purely as a necessary public service in a time of unprecedented spending. The banker knows the dangers of inflation. He knows that thrift and common sense must rule if we aren't going to go on a spending spree that will produce the worst hangover in our history. He knows that the worker who has a reserve fund in the form of government bonds has a cushion which both he and the country may require in the future, when the wars end and the boom deflates.

Thousands of banks are now selling the new defense bonds. For those who are unable to buy bonds now, inexpensive stamps may be purchased and accumulated until a total sufficient to obtain a bond is reached. All of the stamps and bonds are fully guaranteed by the United States Treasury.

Visit your bank and investigate this method of defense investment. A defense bond is a safe place for your money—and each one purchased helps build a barrier against inflation. Buy all you can.

They used to say that "he wasn't fit to touch the hem of her garment," and today with style changing so quickly he can't locate the hem.

SPECULATION UPS PRICE OF FOODS

Prices of food, clothes and other products have gone up appreciably. This price rise has not been due to the defense program—which so far has not affected the situation—but rather to speculation, according to Miss Alice Morrison, assistant in the University of Kentucky home economics department. She bases her statement in part on releases from Miss Harriet Elliott, consumer representative of the defense commission, who asserts that there is no reason for the price-rise in most consumer goods.

With millions of Americans busy on defense projects or in the army, the volume of goods available to consumers will be reduced to some extent by 1942-43, Miss Morrison asserts. This may mean competition among buyers unless they voluntarily restrict their buying. However, competition for goods will not be serious until present stock of consumer goods have been exhausted.

Consumers are partly to blame because when faced with less goods available, they often insist upon immediate and frantic buying. In turn, merchants have goods on hand, and realize that consumers fear a later shortage. This type of situation often has resulted in speculation, with disasterous results for the rank and file of consumers.

"Both the U. S. Government and the various State legislatures, trying actively to prevent unnecessary price-rises, should be told of the cooperation and backing of consumers in their efforts to prevent speculation and quality-decreases in consumer goods," concluded Miss Morrison.

FARMERS MAY GROW CASTOR BEANS IN DEFENSE PROGRAM

Castor bean production may become one of the important contributions of Kentucky agriculture to national defense. In eight counties farmers are cooperating with the Agricultural Experiment Station in testing the production of castor beans, which are the source of an oil highly useful in national defense.

Most of the beans used in making castor oil in this country have been imported from Brazil. The possibility of interference with shipping has aroused interest in domestic production.

The Kentucky Experiment Station has been experimenting with castor bean growing for three years. Varieties have been tested at the main Experiment Station at Lexington and at the substations at Quicksand and Princeton. From these tests enough seed was produced to enlist the cooperation of farmers in further tests.

In addition to the needs of national defense. there is a second reason for interest in castor bean growing in Kentucky: the need of another cash crop, especially in the dark tobacco regions.

Castor beans are easily grown and should do well all over Kentucky, according to Dr. E. N. Fergus, in charge of experimental work with them. Yields have been running from 1,400 to 1,500 pounds to the acre. The price now is around 3 cents a pound.

The one drawback to growing castor beans has been the fact that they required hand picking and hand threshing. The later operation, however, has been eliminated by the development at the Agricultural Experiment Station of a special threshing machine.

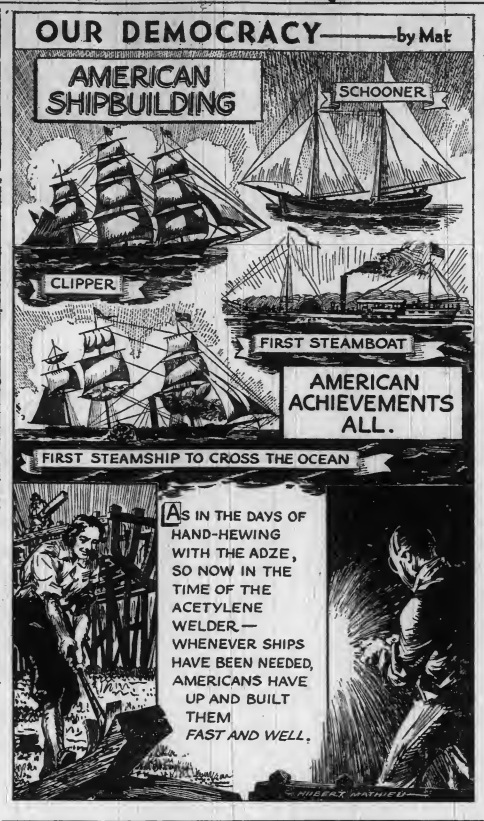
PROTESTS FRANTIC BUYING OF CLOTHES

Women should not engage in frantic buying of coats, shoes and other clothes because of war conditions, warns Miss Verna Latzke, clothing specialist for the University of Kentucky home economics department. There may be a slight price rise, but seemingly every effort will be made to protect consumers from soaring war-time prices such as prevailed during 1917-19.

Women should remember two things, especially:

Most clothes cannot be kept indefinitely in perfect condition.

Styles change, and clothes cannot always be altered to "look right" after a year or two.



While stories of defense needs have emphasized that they will rank first, it still remains that the United States is rich in all necessary products. Bona-fide scarcity of clothing is extremely unlikely in any event. There should be little reason for prices to go up much.

Women's clothing is made of wool, cotton, nylon, rayon or silk, and shoes of leather or plastics. No shortage exists, it is pointed out.

As always, the wise buyer will try to keep enough good clothes on hand, and not let her wardrobe "get down" or depleted. She will have on hand a winter coat, a tailored suit, a few dresses, and shoes. "The middle way" in buying remains the best way, the clothing specialist suggests.

OF IMPORTANCE

The weekly newspaper gets its rating in the line-up of important factors in American homes. 49.6% of the families in this land subscribe to a weekly newspaper and that is mightly close to being half of the families of the U. S! This is reason enough for the weekly newspaper to keep scoured and shined for the approval of its many readers. There aren't editors of such papers who haven't a pretty good idea of what their subscribers like, the sort of news that covers the local field, the type of national copy that gives the most for the space. With interested subscribers taking time to be helpful in editing the news, of offering timely suggestions, of helpful hints for features, of scratching here and there, your editor has the opportunity of getting close to the field he serves, to know what his public wants. We are glad that more people are becoming conscious of the part their weekly newspaper plays in the American scheme of things.

CHEAP SHOES MAY NOT BE BARGAINS

The following suggestions on buying shoes are valid in mid-summer or in winter, says Miss Frances Seeds, clothing specialist in the Kentucky College of Agriculture's home economics department.

1. A shoe at a low price is a bargain only if it is needed. No matter how little they cost, shoes that don't go well with one's clothes, and fit one's feet, are not bargains.

2. The foot lengthens when the person stands on it; be sure always to get a shoe long enough. While few buyers seem to realize it the correct length from the heel to the ball of the foot is as important as the right size in other respects. Remember—"heel to ball" length must be adequate.

3. Watch the inside line of the shoe. The straighter it is, the better the shoe for one's foot.

4. Especially for walking or working shoes, watch the fit. Feet take a lot of punishment anyway. Never sacrifice comfort to fashion on the everday shoes.

5. In general, good leather and good construction are costly. The better quality shoes are made up in many sizes, while the inexpensive shoes in only a few. Anyone not having average-sized feet should buy fewer but better shoes.

6. It is difficult to bind the "all-purpose" shoe. Walking or working calls for one kind of shoe—while "dess-up" occasions call for another. Today's varied activities call for several kinds of shoes.

WASHING GLOVES

If your gloves are of washable leather put them on your hands to laundry them, washing as though you were cleaning your hands. Chamois and doeskin gloves are better washed off the hands by gently squeezing in lukewarm water and using a mild soap lather. Do not rub them briskly together. Wash the inside of your gloves as well as the outside. Few people remember to do this. Rinse them several times in fairly warm water, run them lightly through a good clean suds which will keep the leather soft and pliable. Pat between towels to remove excess moisture. If you do not own a glove stretcher puff them into shape by blowing into the fingers. Dry in an even temperature and rub slightly at intervals during drying process.

In many restaurants today some of the music wants to make you dance, and most of it succeeds in getting your digestive system to doing a rumba.

NICHOLSON PROPERTY WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION

Rel C. Wayman, 623 Washington St., Covington, announces an auction sale of 95 acres at Nicholson, Saturday, July 12 at 10 a. m.

The acreage, divided into 40 baby farms, is on the corner of the 3-L Highway, Route 17, and Moffett Pike. The sale includes two houses, two barns, 300 fruit-bearing trees, growing crops, horses, six fresh cows, 20 hogs and farm tools. The "farms" consist of one to 20 acres.

BONUSES FOR MEN WHO MANAGE WELL, FARM STUDY SHOWS

Bonuses await farmers who manage well. So runs a conclusion in a farm business report which the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture made of 100 farms in the Pennyroyal Plains sections of Simpson. Logan, Todd, Christian and Caldwell counties.

This holds regardless of the size of the farm. The 11 best farmers operating 75 to 150 acres made an average of $634 more than did the average man with a farm of this size. In the 151 to 250-acre group, the 11 top men made an average of $1,032 more than the average an, and the 11 high farms of 251 acres or more had an income of $1,182 above the average. These figures represent the premiums which go to farmers who know how to manage well, says E. J. Nesius , who made the report.

Mr. Nesius points to the possibilities in increasing incomes by growing higher-yielding and better-quality tobacco. Efficiency in labor also is a factor. He found farmers who worked less than 150 days a year. Farmers do better when they make use of a barnyard manure, grow cover crops, turn under green manure crops, use limestone and fertilizers and grow legumes, he said.

The fact that livestock raisers nearly always seemed to be better off than average farmers, also impressed Mr. Nesius. Then he noted that good farmers had gardens and produced a great deal of their living on their farms.

BUYING SHIRTS:

Be sure the shirt you are buying has been preshrunk, and that it will not shrink further more than 2%. Choose a cotton that is firmly woven with no loose or fuzzy threds, this indicating a poor grade of cloth. If shirt is colored be certain that it is guaranteed color-fast. Get the height collar that is best suited to the length of the neckband has a number of rows of stitching it will stay in place better and saves the collar from much crumbling. See that buttonholes are firmly made and in center of front pleat of shirt. Avoid metal or paper buttons. See that back of shirt carries plenty of material for action. If stitches are close together it signifies a well made shirt. Also they must be even and without knots.

- KENTUCKY FARM NEWS

Adair county farmers used almost twice as much limestone and phosphate this year as in 1939. Nearly half of the farmers in the county applied phosphate. Cover crop seedings included about 15,000 acres of mixed grasses and legumes and 6,200 acres of lespedeza.

HERE'S THE WAY TO USE REFRIGERATORS

Getting the best results from a refrigerator requires careful management, says home economics experts at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. They explain that the location of the refrigerator and the arrangement of the food are important.

Have the refrigerator in a convenient place. Plan just one trip to put everything in and take everything out. Every time the door is opened it takes ice or energy to chill the warm air that rushes in.

To help the refrigerator run as economically as possible, see that it is on the level. Also be sure that it is in a cool place—away from the stove, sunny windows, and the radiator during the winter.

A good refrigerator that is properly managed will keep perishable foods for a reasonable length of time. But it cannot work efficiently if the shelves are so crowded that the air cannot circulate. And it is bound to use more ice, electricity, gas, or kerosene if it must chill extra containers, hot dishes and foods that do not need refrigeration.

Dairy products and uncooked meats spoil most readily, so be sure to put them in the coldest part of the refrigerator. This coldest spot usually is located directly below or inside the ice or freezing unit.

Also see that the refrigerator and all containers are kept clean, to make sure that foods are safe from spoilage. When food is spilled, wipe it up at once. And don't forget the importance of a thorough weekly cleaning. This cleaning is most convenient when the ice supply is low in an ice refrigerator, and after defrosting a mechanical refrigerator. Use farm suds with a little soda added and rinse with clear water and wipe dry.

It looks as though the U. S. can't afford to practice economy right now.

Geo. A. Butler

Geo. A. Butler passed away in his home Friday evening, very suddenly from cornary thrombosis. The body was removed to Chambers & Grubbs mortuary for preparation, after which the remains were returned to his home and laid in state until Monday morning.

He is survived by his widow; four sons. James, Guy, William and Roy; one daughter, Mrs. Lillian Presser; three sisters, two brothers and a host of friends who will mourn his passing.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning at 10:00 a. m., at the residence, with Rev. Roy Johnson officiating, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. Burial was in Wheatley cemetery, Owen county.

Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of arrangements.

PLAN TO ERECT STATE MEMORIAL TO GEORGE ROGERS CLARK, STUDIED

A Louisville high school teacher has developed a plan, which, indorsed by school and State officials, promises erection of a State memorial to Kentucky's Revolutionary War hero, Gen. George Rogers Clark.

It's a simple plan, providing for the State's school children to give a few cents each during a certain week next fall, to donate a great part of the memorial fund.

Tapp Originated Plan

The man who originated this memorial plan is Hambleton Tapp, history teacher at Louisville Male High School. He's a Clark authority and enthusiast, and it has been a sore point with him for many years that while Ohio, Illinois and Indiana all have elaborate memorials to Clark, there is none in Kentucky, the land he made his home, and which he died.

Even at Clark's burial place in Cave Hill Cemetery the stone marker was provided not by the State for whose early history Clark made so many sacrifices, but by R. C. Ballard Thruston, a descendant of the hero.

So Mr. Tapp decided to do something about it. He first wrote an article in the Kentucky School Journal suggesting the idea, and it aroused such response that he was encouraged. The Filson Club, of which Mr. Thruston is president, was much interested and agreed to serve as the chief sponsoring organization.

Tapp's Plan Explained

Mr. Tapp's plan, brief, is this:

Gov. Keen Johnson has agreed to proclaim November 19 as "George Rogers Clark Day." During the following week Mr. Tapp hopes teachers in schools all over Kentucky will undertake to have Clark program of various kinds, and that each school child in the State will give a nickel to the fund. There are about enough children to provide $35,000 this way, he figures.

And each school will be asked to have a Clark play or pageant or show of some kind that week, with proceeds going into the fund—that's about $55,000, Mr. Tapp thinks.

Then he hopes all civic, patriotic and historic organizations in the State will have meetings and that each member will give up to $1. And in all, he wouldn't be surprised if the total donation for the week will be as much as $100,000.

Many Approve Plan

Mr. Tapp submitted his plan to the Kentucky Education Association's board of directors, and got its approval. He's receiving indorsements from the Kentucky State Historical Society; colleges all over the State, J. W. Brooker, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Barry Bingham, president and publisher of The Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times.

Management of the campaign and of the fund will be in the hands of the Filson Club's special committee, headed by J. Adger Stewart; a State-wide committee of educators, headed by Mr. Brooker, and a State-wide lay committee to include the Governor, Harry W. McChesney, Frankfort, and others.

Such details as design and location of the Clark memorial will be left for later discussion, Mr. Tapp said, but everybody he's talked to has agreed that Kentucky should have such a memorial.

"Yet more than a century has elapsed and Kentuckians have done little," he remarked. "In fact with the exception of the pioneer memorial at Harrodsburg, they have done nothing, in spite of the boasted assertion that Kentuckians are sensitive on matters pertaining to her history."

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our beloved wife and mother, Della Goodridge Siekman, who passed away July 2, 1940.

The call was sudden, the shock severe,
We little knew such grief was near,
Only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.

A wonderful mother, woman and aid,
One who was better, God never made;
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million, that Mother was you.

Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and whom you knew,
Our wonderful mother, that mother was you.

Defense Bond Quiz

Q. What is a U. S. Defense Savings Bond?

A. This Bond is proof that you have loaned money to the United States Goverment for national defense. Your Bond bears interest at the rate of 2.9 percent a year, if held to maturity (ten years).

Q. Why should I buy Defense Bonds?

A. Because money talks. To dictators it speaks defiance. To friends of freedom, it says, "Here's my hand!"

Note — To purchase Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank, or write for information to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

GIVE HIM A BIT

Big corporations and industries, big business and enterprises engaged in big production and plans for big defense work! Everything is done on a mammoth scale it appears to the average reader who covers front page news. Maybe something could be done to put the small business man in this big business picture. There are 18,000 small and medium-sized industrial plants that can undertake defense work and are ready to do so if they are given the orders. There are many factors in the favor of the gigantic factories and more reasons that they can afford to do the work. But there has been much time lost through big business trying to fight the strike situation, a situation that doesn't seem to keep the small fellows from producing. There are wide changes that must be made on big business machinery that takes more time. Couldn't the little business keep plugging along to add its bit to the desperately needed contribution for the major contracts for defense?

GOOD EGG PRICES SUGGEST FEEDING

With the government pledged to support egg prices, in the national defense program, it is suggested from the Kentucky College of Agriculture that a laying mash be fed to hens throughout the summer. Green feed, oystershell or ground limestone and water also are required. Best results will be obtained where roosters are sold and infertile eggs produced, says Stanley Caton, poultry expert. Eggs should be kept in cool, moist places between the time they are laid and sold.

Extra attention to growing pullets also is suggested so they will begin laying early and produce well during fall and winter when prices are good.

A good many farmers are reported interested in preserving eggs in waterglass for home use next fall and winter, thereby releasing fresh eggs for market when prices are high.

TOMATO GROWERS TO GET HIGHER PRICES

A plan worked out by the United States Department of Agriculture and canners provides for paying about $3 a ton more for the crop this year than growers received last year. An increase of at least 50 percent in production is wanted, so that plenty of canned tomatoes may be available for the American army and navy and for shipment to England.

In order to have more plants for setting, it is suggested that the plants in the bed be sprayed or dusted to control leaf-spot diseases. After the largest plants are pulled, give the bed a shot of nitrate dissolved in water. This will bring on the other plants in about a week.

Use of a starter solution of fertilizer added to water may be necessary to get the plants started after they are set. See a county agent for details in handling plants in the bed and in the field.

Crigler-Dolwick

Miss Betty Crigler and Mr. Omer Dolwick were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Hebron Lutheran Church in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Rev. H. M. Hauter performed the ceremony.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white, carrying a bouquet of white roses, while her attendants Misses Frances Siekman and Dorothy Kaman wore pink and blue, and carried pink roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crigler, following the ceremony. Gifts received by the happy young couple practically filled one entire room.

The Recorder joins their many friends in wishing them many years of happy married life.

GEO. C. GOODE

WHOLESALE and RETAIL

COVINGTON, —:— KENTUCKY

This Week In Defense

Civilian Defense Director LaGuardia announced plans for a nation-wide Fourth of July celebration, with a radio address by President Roosevelt at (4 p. m. EST) to be followed by the singing of the national anthem simultaneously throughout the nation.

Commenting on the arrangements, the President said, " . . it is altogether fitting that we should rededicate ourselves to defend and perpetuate those inalienable rights which found true expression in the immortal Declaration. Those words never had a deeper or more solemn meaning for America than they have in this hour of anxiety and peril. . ."

Foreign Affairs

President Roosevelt told his press conference the U. S. would give all possible aid to Russia in its war with Germany but that no list of Soviet needs had been submitted yet. The Treasury Department announced it had licensed Russia to use its $40,000,000 in frozen funds here. Acting Secretary of States Welles announced the Neutrality Act, which prohibits American vessels from combat areas, would not be invoked in connection with the Russian conflict.

Mr. Welles said that while the Communist dictatorship is as intolerable as the Nazi dictatorship, the immediate issue is defense against Hitlerism and the German plan for universal conquest.

The State Department ordered Italy to recall all Italian officials and cease all activities in this country except those at the Washington Embassy by July 15 because they "serve no desirable purpose."

Aid to Democracies

The President indorsed the British recruiting drive for 15,000 to 30,000 American technicians to aid in air raid detection in England. He also pointed out that American youth can join British or Chinese armed forces if they do not take an oath of allegiance to any country other than the U. S.

He told a press conference the possibility of sending rifles to Eire is being considered if the Eire government gives assurances they would be used against Germany in the event of a German attack on Ireland.

Production Progress

The President said the over-all defense production picture is not discouraging although there is a serious lag in munitions production because entire plants have to be built before quantity production begins. He said, however, production of some items is already at peak.

Army

The War Department announced total strength of the Army as 1,441,500 officers and enlisted men, including: Regular Army, 505,700; National Guard, 288,800; Selectees, 594,000; Reserve Officers, 53,000. Army Chief of Staff Marshall announced that Congress will be asked for funds to aid 100,000 more men to the Regular Army to replace those sent to outlying bases. The Army also announced it has recommended to the President that steps be taken to obtain authority to continue the National Guard and Reserve Officers on active duty for more than one year.

Navy

Navy Secretary Knox announced the U. S. fleet expansion program is "setting records every day." He also announced revision of enlistment contracts for the Marine Corps Reserve to provide service for the duration of the national emergency, and asked Congress for authority to continue all naval enlistment personnel in service for the duration.

Air

The War Department announced unification of its air activities in a new unit known as the "Army Air Forces," consolidating present units in a single command under Major General Arnold, Deputy Chief of Staff for Air. Secretary of War Stimson said the air forces are now independent within the Department.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority announced a $95,000,000 program to complete work on 250 airports now under way and to construct or improve 149 additional airports.

Aluminum Collection

Civilian Defense Director LaGuardia announced July 21 as the date when governors, mayors and other officials, local defense councils and such organizations as the American Legion, Boy Scouts, women's clubs, labor, farm and religious organizations will cooperate in collecting unneeded aluminum from every home in the land. Mr. LaGuardia estimated that 20,000,000 pounds of aluminum—enough for 2,000 fighter planes—would be collected.

Nurses

Medical officials of the Army, Navy and Public Health Service, stated that a shortage of nurses is beginning to be apparent and appealed for a larger number of women to seek nursing training.

Prices

Price Administrator Henderson announced he will set ceiling prices on new automobiles and, "in all probability," used cars, because certain manufacturers have refused to cooperate in avoiding inflation by keeping prices at their present level. Mr. Henderson also froze prices of tires, inner tubes and rubber at price levels of June 16 to prevent price skyrocketing in connection with deversion to defense of approximately 25 percent of rubber consumption.

The Price Administrator also set maximum prices on pig iron, major raw material used in steel, and asked furniture and household refrigerator manufacturers not to raise prices.

Priorities

The OPM announced priority action on crude rubber, zinc and tungsten compounds. Rubber consumption is to be reduced from 817,000 to 600,000 tons a year; 16,000 tons of metallic zinc will be reserved in an emergency pool to meet expected 1941 shortage; and priority control over tungsten has been extended two months past June 30, the originally scheduled expiration date.

U. S. Housing Authority Administrator Straus issued instructions that wood and stone will replace rubber, cork and strategic metals in building of USHA slum-clearance homes.

Labor Supply

President Roosevelt created a Committee on Fair Employment Practice to investigate complaints of discrimination in defense employment and ordered all Federal agencies to include the defense contracts a provision obligating the contractor to avoid discrimination. The President said in some instances workers have been barred from defense jobs "solely because of race, creed, color, or national origin."

The OPM announced Atlantic shipyards had agreed to a two-year pact eliminating strikes and lockouts and providing periodic adjustment of wages according to living costs.

TO WHAT SHALL WE GIVE?
By J. Russell Cross.

Due to the fact that many organizations are raising funds at the present time of national emergency, the question arises, "To what shall I give?" Several Boone Countians have asked me what is the U. S. O. and how is the money to be used. This is an attempt to clarify the existing confusion in the minds of many.

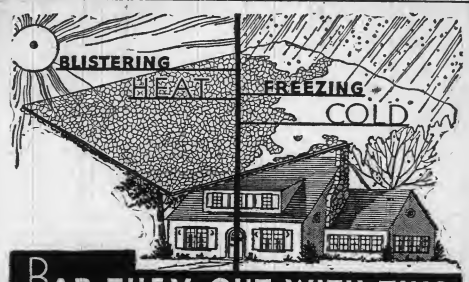
The Government

In the defense program of the government there is a new policy in regard to religious work among the soldiers. The chaplains will have full charge of the work inside the camps. With this in view over 600 chapels are being erected in the camps where religious services will be conducted. In addition, morale officers will be in charge of recreation and the social life of the men.

U. S. O.

Just outside the camps recreation centers will be built by the government and operated by the United Service Organizations composed of the Y. M. C. A.; the Y. W. C. A; the National Catholic Community Service; the Salvation Army; the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers' Aid. A drive for $11,000,000 is now in progress to finance this work. The U. S. O. will fill a vital need in our defense program not only for the men in the service, but for young women working in the defense plants and for the families of the men visiting them.

Denominational Efforts



Several denominations feel that even those important programs cannot fully cover the situation presented, and although cooperating fully with both agencies mentioned above, the church is attempting to specialize in its chosen field, that of ministering primarily to spiritual needs. The denominations feel that this is both a definite challenge and a great opportunity for service in God's Kingdom.

WOODEN BOWLS

If you had those delightful wooden bowls for serving pop-corn, use them for serving at a salad luncheon. Clean your vegetables the day before and put them in the hydrator to stay crisp. Line your wooden bowls, for individual services, with lettuce and put in your sliced cucumbers, raw carrots in long thin strips, buds of raw cauliflower, celery hearts, rose-bud radishes, young onions and top it all with slices of hard-boiled eggs. Have several dressings mixed and in pitchers or bowls so that the guests may help themselves. There are lots of delicious wafers on the market to serve with this appetizing salad.

WITH THE

Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati—The Reds have only five games left on their home diamond before they embark on their third eastern trip of the season, after the all star game, but those five games are expected to produce plenty of fan interest.

Reason for the enthusiasm is that one of the games will be played at night, Monday, against the Chicago Cubs, two of them will be played in a single afternoon, Friday, July 4, against Pittsburgh, and the other two will be played on Saturday and Sunday, July 5 and 6 against the red hot St. Louis Cardinals.

That's an appetizing dish for any baseball fan, and there is little doubt but that close to 70,000 people will turn out for these games, which is an indication that they feel the same way about it.

LLOYD WANER

Monday night's contest will pit the Reds against the Cubs, who have been coming to the fore pretty well of late. Wilson has that team clicking, and his mind is now set on a first division berth. Of course, the Reds are the chief stumbling block in that quest, so that means ACTION spelled out in capital letters.

The pre-game show Monday was one of the best of the season. The night was designated as American Legion night, as heads of the legion presented R. O. T. C. students of the University of Cincinnati with Medals. This being the occasion, the band from the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Xenia were brought down to furnish the music. The fireworks display was of a patriotic nature, with a surprise for all attending. The Feature set piece was an American Legion emblem.

Tickets are on sale at the Reds' downtown ticket office at 307 Vine Street, Cincinnati. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

HOW TO DETECT COUNTERFEIT COINS

1. KNOW YOUR MONEY!
2. RING all coins on a hard surface. Genuine coins sound clear and bell-like. Counterfeits sound dull.
3. FEEL all coins. Most counterfeit coins feel greasy.
4. COMPARE the reeding (the corrugated outer edge) of a suspected coin with one known to be genuine. The ridges on genuine coins are distinct and evenly spaced. On counterfeit coins they are poorly spaced and irregular.

HOW TO CASH GOVERNMENT CHECKS

1. KNOW YOUR ENDORSERS!
2. DEMAND definite identification of the payee.
3. COMPARE endorsement on check with signature on identification.
4. WPA workers carry cards with identification number, signature and physical description. If you cash WPA checks, compare these three things and make sure the description fits that of the person presenting the check.
5. BE CAUTIOUS about cashing a check on which the payee's address is far removed from your place of business
6. REMEMBER—You may lose the amount of any Government check which has not been endorsed by the rightful payee.
7. MAKE A CHECK BEFORE YOU TAKE A CHECK!!

918 COMBINES ON KENTUCKY FARMS

A survey made by the College of Agriculture revealed that farmers in 84 Kentucky counties own 918 combine harvesters. A total of approximately 500 combines were used last year to harvest redtop, and 480 were used to harvest orchard grass. They also are used to harvest soybeans, cowpeas and other legume crops. In point of number of combines, Daviess county farmers lead, owning 125.

F. F. A. NEWS

The Hebron Chapter of Future Farmers of America held their June meeting at the school house. The meeting opened with the usual ceremony, and Harry Aylor as our president. Committee reports were given. The treasurer, Russell Conrad reported that we had $50 in the bank.

The following members plan to attend the State Camp at Hardinsburg, July 28-Aug. 1: Joe Hogan, Bill Burns, Dallas Conrad, Harry Scroggin, Harold Williams and James Huey.

The following delegates were elected to attend the State Convention at Louisville, Aug. 6, 7, 8: Joe Hogan and Harry Aylor, with Russell Conrad alternate delegate. Hobert Willoughby and Raymond Witham also plan to attend.

We decided to have a fish fry July 11th at Eli Williams' home, father of one of our members. This is one of our biggest events of the year. The members are asked to attend and bring their parents.

After the meeting the members made entires to our thrift bank, and refreshments were served.

Joe Hogan, Reporter.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the family of Geo. A. Butler, wish to express our appreciation of the many kind acts and deeds shown us while our loved one laid in State in our home; also the singers for the numbers rendered; the donors of the beautiful floral offerings; Bro. Roy Johnson for his consoling message; and Chambers & Grubbs for their sympathetic service rendered. 1t-c

Mrs. Butler and Family.

One way for us to help our country here in Boone County, is for women to be more concerned over the boll-weevil and less over the silk-worm.

Letter From England Received By Mrs. Ethel Wilson

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

Your letter written March 17th reached me on April 9th. I was very glad to get it and feel that now we are really in touch. Will you please thank your friend Mrs. Stephens for her kind letter and say that I am hoping to find someone to write to her, but have not succeeded yet. However, I am sure I shall soon.

I was most interested in all you told me about your life and about Kentucky. Do tell me more. I shall never evacuate from England as long as England is in trouble, but when we have won the war, then I shall hope perhaps to come and see the States, and shall look forward to meeting you.

As you see I am in my new cottage. I have had a busy time sowing my vegetable garden and clearing up the mess left by the last owners who lived here 15 years ago. In the kitchen wall one of the workmen found a coin marked 1733. It was turned down on one side like an envelope flap and I'm told that they used to do that in old days so as to make the edge sharp. Then they put the coin—or rather four coins, between their clenched fingers and used them as a kunckle duster! Some people say this cottage is four hundred years old. It has one sitting room, 2 bedrooms above, a kitchen and a bathroom next the sitting room, on the ground floor, and an attic. What used to be the washhouse I've converted into a garage. The sitting room has big elm beams and some oak. There is an open fireplace where I burn logs on an iron basket, and there is an inglenook. Some houses have two inglenooks, but are of later date. At the time this house was built, women weren't expected to sit down, so there was only one seat by the fire—for men!

A friend of mine—the one I told you drives a mobile canteen in London—has been staying with me for Easter. We worked hard in the garden because I want to grow enough to feed myself and send some to her in London. Two days ago we heard London had had another bad raid, so she gave up the rest of her holiday and went back to help. I can't help being anxious about her, but of course she wants to do all she can to help.

Next week I am going to spend in Lincolnshire, where the English bulbs are grown. But I suppose this year I shall find no novely tulips but only rows of carrots and onions. I shall go by car, it's 130 miles, as trains are rather slow. A week ago I went up north to Cumberland. There they seem right out of the war. They've had no raids and really people living in the county have very little to remind them of the awful things going on elsewhere. Perhaps what has brought home the war most to the agricultural worker is the shortage of cheese. Now that jam is to be rationed too, and bacon is already rationed, it's difficult for him to find anything for his midday packed lunch that he takes whim him into the fields. Personally I've nevert felt short of anything. In fact I generally have some of my rations over at the end of the week to give away. But then I have meals out, when I'm traveling, and you don't have to give up a coupon for that, and also I don't ever eat a lot of meat. In the last ten days I've had two guests and they both brought their rations of butter and margarine—and were most welcome!

A friend of mine was shutting up her house last week because her husband has been stationed in Scotland, and she came to say goodbye to me. As a parting gift she gave me two onions and a pot of jam, and in return I gave her ¼ pound of butter. We both laughted about it, and wondered what we would have said at such presents a year ago! But today we were both thrilled with our presents. I suppose really it would be true to say that one has to be careful, but no one is short of anything yet, except onions. And everyone has sown so many in their gardens this year that I should think we will be living on onions in 1942.

I have bowls of king-cups, celandine, primoses and wild daffodils in my rooms, and two big vases of red alder and willow. There are purple primulas just outside my front door and forget-me-nots and wallflower almost out. This afternoon I'm going to sow the border at the back of the house. There is to be a row of peas to eat at the back and clubs of flowers and vegetables alternately in front. So we combine beauty and utility.

Tomorrow I go to Lincolnshire. The part I am going to is called Holland and it is like Holland, too. The county town in Boston, the town from which your Boston's name was taken. The chief industry is bulb growing and I believe a lot are exported to the U. S. A.

Talking about American towns, my sister was in the Greenwich near New York. My brother-in-law worked in Shell and was manager of the American department over here after they returned from Greenwich.

I shall look forward to hearing from you again after you get this, and I'll do my best to find a letter friend for Mrs. Stephens quite soon.

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) Cicely McCall.

DON'T KILL A HEADACHE
By Dr. Thomas Sullivan

Millions of people who suffer from headaches are chiefly interested in killing those headaches by taking drugs which only serve to deaden the pain. They fail to realize that headaches in themselves are only nature's warnings. A wide variety of abnormal conditions lead to headaches. Accummulation of poisons in the body, digestive disturbances, eyestrain, and a long list of other conditions might be named. The important thing is to discover the abnormal physical condition which is behind the headache. It is worse than foolish to simply kill a headache and disregard the bodily disturbance which has caused it.

It is a good deal like little Johnny sweeping the floor and pushing the dirt under a corner of the rug, instead of carrying it out. True, the dirt doesn't show for the time being, but that sort of performance does not have to happen very often until Johnny's mother discovers that something is radically wrong. You wouldn't treat your dog that way. If he were sick, you wouldn't shut him up in the garage merely to get him out of your sight. You would do something to correct the cause of his trouble. It is difficult to understand why people will treat their bodies with less consideration than they would treat their dog.

If you suffer from headaches, the important thing for you to do is to discover the cause of those headaches and having discovered that cause, have it removed. It is a mistake to merely kill the pain.

Chiropractic is the one profession among the healing arts that deals with the removal of "cause". Your chiropractor will discover wheather your headaches are coming from digestive disorders or some other disease, and having discovered it, he will seek to correct the cause of that disorder. When this cause has been corrected, the headache will disappear as a nutural consequence, and not until then. Every time you kill a headache you simply blow out the red latern of warning and blindly run your health train into the unknown tracks of hazard, trusting to chance that providence will see you through once more.

POINT PLEASANT
(Delayed)

Mr. Fred Gross returned home from the hospital, one day last week. Sorry to report that he is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Eggleston and Fannie Utz attended Sunday School at Florence and in the afternoon motored to Price Hill, Ohio, where they called on their daughter, Mrs. Otto Muntz and family, and Mrs. Mabel Van Bloricum.

Mrs. Margaret Beil, who has been spending several weeks with her son David Beil, wife and baby of near Crescent Springs, has returned to the home of her son, John Beil and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Lucas called on her parents here Sunday evening.

The farmer's are busy now cleaning out their crops, since the fine rain, which fell recently.

Several in this neighborhood attended the Ludlow Day at Coney Island Wednesday.

There will be another crop shortage in Europe this summer—the tourist crop.

APPLE GINGERBREAD

Apple gingerbread recipe, tested and found excellent by the home economics department of the Kentucky College of Agriculture:

1 cup molasses, ¾ cup sugar, ½ cup melted fat, 1 egg, 1 cup boiling water, 1½ teaspoons soda, 1 teaspoon ginger, ¾ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon salt, 2½ sups flour, 4-6 apples.

Pare, core and slice apples and place in well-butered baking pan, sprinkle with fourth of a cup of sugar, or more if apples are very sour, and partially cook in hot oven while mixing the gingerbread.

Mix molasses, half cup of sugar, melted fat, well-beaten egg and beat until all are well combined. Mix spices, salt and flour and sift into molasses mixture and stir until flour is just dampened.

Quickly mix soda with hot water and pour into mixture. Beat until smooth and pour over partically cooked apples. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 35 minutes. Serve with whipped cream.

GIRLS GET FAMILY LIVING EXPERIENCE

Experience in good family living with mutual responsibility and at minimum cost—once again, in 1940-41 this will feature the program of Shelby House at the University of Kentucky.

This 4-H club cooperative house makes it possible every year for approximately 20 young women to plan how to run their own home, maintaining high standards but cutting expenses to a low figure. They do their own meal planning, cooking, laundry and housework. Sometimes they bring food from home, which is credited to their bills at current market rates. And they maintain a small home library, take a few magazines and occasionally entertain visitors for luncheon or dinner—with every member of the household responsible for herself and for the whole program.

In this way, these former top-notch 4-H club members get valuable practical experience in homemaking and in community living, at the same time that they maintain a full scholastic schedule.

They elect house president, who assumes leadership in planning the year's program, assigns the members of the house to their various duties, looks after any who are ill (seeing that they get proper medical attention), arranges for guests, etc. Duties are rotated, so that everyone gets experience in several types of household work.

Well-rotted manure and high-grade commercial fertilizer are used in feeding shade trees. Loosen the soil to a depth of 3 or 4 inches, or drill holes 15 to 20 inches deep, to permit the fertilizer to come in close contact with the roots.

This new style of brilliant colored hose for feminine attire, is going to turn the spot-light on many a woman's weak spot.

NOTICE

TO LOVERS OF HOME-GROWN PEACHES

Our first variety of peaches are ready for picking now. These peaches are desirable for preserving, pickling or canning whole. Our experience in the past has been that too many of our customers have waited for the later varieties and as a result many people are disappointed because we never have enough to supply the demand.

Let us recommend that you start now in getting your season's supply of tree-ripened delicious peaches. Come bring your baskets and take these home at $1.00 per bushel.

Positively no sales made on Sundays.

ESTABLISHED 1875

Library U of K

VOLUME 66 — BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1941 — NUMBER 5

DRAWING IS HELD TUESDAY

FOR POSITIONS ON BALLOT—EDGAR (CUDDY) GOODRIDGE FAILS TO FILE DECLARATION PAPERS.

Drawing for position of names on the Democratic primary ballot was held at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of candidates and represenatives.

The order in which the names will appear on the August ballot are as follows:

County Judge—N. E. Riddell, A. M. Yealey, Forrest H. Brown.

County Clerk—Dorotha Ryle, C. D. Benson, Howard Huey.

Sheriff—Harold Conner, John W. Grant, J. T. Williams, Herbert Snyder.

Jailer—Wood Stephens, Elmer Kirkpatrick, Grover C. Jarrell.

Magistrate, 3rd District—Everett Jones, Tom Carr, M. C. Carroll.

Magistrate, 1st District—Edgar S. Graves, William B. Rogers, Jr.

The name of Edgar (Cuddy) Goodridge is omitted from the above list of sheriffs, due to the fact that Mr. Goodridge failed to file his notification and declaration papers with the County Clerk by July 2, the deadline set by the State for filing such papers.

According to Mr. Goodridge, this was an oversight on his part and he is making every possible effort to obtain an extension. He has contacted the Attorney General at Frankfort and is now awaiting a reply. Should the reply be favorable, Goodridge will be candidate for Sheriff. However, should the Attorney General rule that July 2nd is the latest a candidate can file, then Edgar Goodridge's name will not appear on the Democratic primary ballot.

The opinion of the Attorney General is being forwarded by mail, which will be published in full in the next issue of The Recorder.

1941 Tax Assessment Started Monday Morning

Wilton Stephens, County Tax Commissioner started the annual tax assessment of Boone County Monday morning, and will be on the road every day until the listing has been completed.

For the last few years, the assessor has been assessing the entire county alone, which is a very large task now that there are so many property owners in the county. This job was formerly taken care of by one man before the rural section of Boone County was so heavily populated and its town were very small.

Mr. Stephens stated that he will appreciate any courtesy shown him in the accomplishment of his task during the next six months.

Harry Cress, who is the U. S. Army stationed in Massachusetts, is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cress. Harry has received three promotions during his eighteen months of service. At the present time he is a Corporal.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

FOR NUTRITION MEETINGS—PERMANENT OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED AT EACH MEETING.

Ten local communities in Boone County have selected dates for Nutrition Organization meetings. Several dates have been changed since the last issue of the paper.

Everyone interested in Nutrition and the National Defense program are invited to these meetings, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Permanent officers including a chairman and secretary will be elected at each meeting. The community nutrition program will be planned by the local group.

Following is the schedule of meetings:

Verona, Wednesday, July 9.
Grant, Thursday, July 10th.
Petersburg, Friday, July 11.
Hebron, Monday, July 14th.
Hamilton, Tuesday, July 15th.
Burlington, Monday, July 21.
Walton, Tuesday, July 22nd.
Constance, Wednesday, July 23.
Florence, Thursday, July 24.
New Haven, Friday, July 25.

Seven Hundred Attend Fireworks And Show At Burlington Friday

A huge crowd estimated at 700 persons attended the outdoor show and fireworks display at the school grounds given under the auspices of the local P.-T. A. Friday, July 4th.

In spite of the cool weather and many other activities on this night, the affair was a huge success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Although it is rumored that there may be a ban on all fireworks next year, if it is at all possible, the P.- T. A. will sponsor a similar event next year, endeavoring to make it even better than this year.

William Butler, of Union, Ky., was a business visitor in Burlington Monday morning of this week, and while here called at The Recorder office and had his name placed on our mailing list. We are glad to welcome him as one of our new subscribers.

JUDGE RIDDELL DENIES CHARGE

THAT HE WILL RESIGN AFTER FIRST OF YEAR—WILL SERVE COUNTY, IF ELECTED FOR NEXT FOUR YEARS.

Rumors have been circulated throughout the county that Judge Riddell, if elected County Judge, would resign his post, and have someone appointed to fill the office. In an interview with Judge Riddell he stated that the rumor was false, and makes the following statement:

"I have been informed that a report is being circulated in the county to the effect that if I am elected County Judge I will resign soon after the first of the year and have someone appointed County Judge to take my place. This report is purely political propaganda and I wish to advise the people of Boone County that if I am elected to the office of County Judge, I will not resign or have anyone appointed, but will be your County Judge for the next four years.

"Signed N. E. Riddell."

Large Crowd Attends Aylor-Rice Reunion

The Aylor and Rice reunion held at Zimmer's Garden last Saturday was well attended, although quite a number of relatives were unable to be present.

The day was hurriedly spent in greeting out-of-town relatives and generally reminiscing with all present. A delightful lunch was spread at noon and the day also being the fifty-fifth birthday of Paul Aylor. The lunch was topped by singing "Happy Birthday" and the cutting of the birthday cake, with which ice cream was served.

After a steady stream of coming and going throughout the day everyone said "good-bye" in the late afternoon and departed hoping to meet again next year.

Those present to enjoy the event were Rev. and Mrs. O. M. Huey, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Aylor, Mrs. Emma Aylor Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Butler, of Florence; Mrs. Howard J. LIGHTNING STRIKES BARN

NEAR BEAVER WEDNESDAY—LOSS EXCEEDS $1000—OTHER CLAIMS PAID BY FARMERS' MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

Lightning struck a large barn on J. G. Renaker estate and J. C. Beddinger farm, Wednesday of last week, completely destroying the structure. Twenty tons of alfalfa hay, and a number of farm tools were also destroyed by the blaze. The building was insured for the sum of $1000 in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Loss was said to far exceed this amount.

Another large barn and two outbuildings were destroyed on the farm of J. W. Connley, Beaver, June 29th, when hay in the barn caused a spontaneous combustion. The barn was insured in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company in the amount of $400.00. No insurance was carried on the contents of the barn or the other two outbuildings.

The Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company, meeting Monday also paid another loss to W. L. Sturgeon, of $100.00, according to F. H. Rouse, Secretary of the company.

Mrs. Chas. W. Riley Reported Ill Monday

Mrs. Chas. W. Riley, of Hebron, was ill Monday and was under the doctor's care, being treated for ptomaine poisoning. Mrs. Hankins, who resides with the Riley's also had a slight touch of the poisoning which they thought they received at a basket dinner at Hebron Sunday.

EDUCATIONAL TOURS STARTED

THIS WEEK BY HOMEMAKERS—TOUR PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT DURING MONTHS OF JULY AND AUGUST.

Educational trip to Cincinnati commercial concerns and interesting places in Kentucky and Indiana were started this week by Boone County Homemakers. Approximately 225 homemakers and their friends have made reservations to take a trip during the summer months, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Tours and trips are made by the Homemakers instead of having regular monthly meetings in July and August. Each local club decided where their members would like to take a trip. Arrangements for transportation were made by a committee in each club. Correspondence with the various commercial firms concerning time and place was made by the County Extension Office.

Following are the clubs that made plans for trips and the places to be visited:

July 8th—Burlington and Florence, Lanier Home in Madison, Ind. and Clifty Falls, State Park.

July 9th—Constance, Frank Tea & Spice Co., WLW and Coca-Cola Bottling Works in Cincinnati.

HUBERT CONNER MASTER FARMER

OF BOONE COUNTY FOR 1941—WAS SELECTED FROM TWENTY-EIGHT OUTSTANDING FARMERS.

Hubert Conner, Hebron, has been selected by a special appointed scoring committee as the 1941 Master Farmer of Boone County, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. He was selected from 28 outstanding farmers nominated by agricultural leaders from all sections of the county. The Master Farmer program is sponsored in Kentucky every two years by the Kentucky Experiment Station and the Progressive Farmer Magazine.

Mr. Conner has long been rated as one of the county's most successful farmers and business men. His record scores exceptionally high in livestock, poultry, soils and fruit improvement and in leadership for better community and county rural welfare. Mr. Conner is 68 years old and his achievements in the county have been outstanding for more than forty years.

The 1941 County Master Farmer will be scored by a State Committee in the near future for a place on the 1941 State Honor Roll.

Jacob Hetzel

Services for Jacob Hetzel, Constance, Ky., retired farmer, who died Tuesday of last week were held at 1:30 p. m. Friday at the Bullock & Catherman funeral home, Ludlow. He was 67. Burial was in Hebron cemetery.

PETERSBURG, BIG BONE, NINE WIN

OVER HEBRON AND BURLINGTON IN ONLY GAMES PLAYED SATURDAY—SEMIPRO TEAM OUTPLAYS RIVAL.

Big Bone held on to its impressive lead in the county league and walloped Burlington 12-0 at the local park Saturday. The winner scored its 12 runs in seven innings on 17 safe blows and a couple of costly errors, while Black and Williamson held the local team to three scattered bingles. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning by mutual agreement. In addition to getting three hits each, D. Williamson, Carroll, and H. Black drove out doubles, Rogers a triple. Knox got a two-base hit for the losing team, as Akin did the pitching.

Petersburg journeyed to Hebron to nose out its rival 10-7, behind the hurling of D. Deck. After playing most of the game with the score knotted, the ultimate winner went out ahead 9-5 at the end of the eighth inning and then added another tally in the closing frame, which Hebron could not offset, though scoring twice in the ninth. Hitzfield helped Petersburg's cause with a home run with one mate on board. Garnett hit one good for the circuit with two aboard for the losers. Watt and Hodges were on the mound for Hebron.

The Belleview-CCC game was postponed because of the condition of the Belleview park.

Saturday, Burlington will be host to CCC, Petersburg to Big Bone, and Belleview to Hebron.

The standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	9	0
Belleview	3	3
Burlington	3	4
Petersburg	3	4
Hebron	3	5
CCC	1	6

After taking an early lead, which they never relinquished, the Boone County All-Stars slammed out a 12-8 victory over the strong Goodrich Tires team in a free-hitting contest at the local park Sunday. The local nine scored once in the opening frame, again in the third, and four times in the fourth to blast their opponent's starting pitcher from the mound, while holding their opponents scoreless. Sprague led the 14-hit attack of the All-Stars with two triples, a pair of singles, and a walk in five times at bat, while Sebree got two doubles, Deck and Gulley one each. Shinkle and Gulley were on the mound for the winners.

With a record of four wins and four setbacks the local semipros will meet the Fort Thomas Florist nine next at the Burlington park.

Two Farms Sold During Past Week

Fonnie Easton sold his 114-acre farm, three miles out on Burlington and Belleview Pike last week to Ernest W. Allen of Ft. Thomas. Possession of house and yard to be given August 1st, but Mr. Easton retains the use of balance of farm until February 1st. Mr. Easton plans to live at Burlington.

Mr. Allen will remodel the house and make it his home.

Peter Holz sold his 208 acre farm 3 miles out on East Bend Road last week to Rollie Kenton and son, Cartney Kenton, of Paris, Bourbon County. Possession to be given February 1st, at which time the Kenton families expect to become residents of Boone County.

A. B. Renaker and J. G. Smith made both of these sales.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Conner had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Latham and family, of Chicago, Ill., Miss Joyce Latham, of Covington and Mrs. Robert Tanner and daughter, of Latonia.

CLERK TO VISIT VARIOUS POINTS

IN COUNTY FOR PURPOSE OF ISSUING OPERATOR'S LICENSE—LICENSES MUST BE OBTAINED IN COUNTY OF RESIDENCE.

For the convenience of those who must drive several miles to the county seat, Circuit Clerk, A. D. Yelton, announced this week that he would visit various parts of the county during the month of July for the purpose of issuing operator's licenses:

Licenses may be obtained at the following places on the following dates:

Constance — Kottmyer's Store, July 16th.
Verona—Verona Bank, July 17.
Florence—Feed Store, July 18-19.
Grant—Citizens Bank, July 21st.
Hebron—Hebron Bank, July 22.
Union—Union Bank, July 23.
Petersburg—Farmers Bank, July 24th.
Walton—City Building, July 25th and 26th.
Burlington—Circuit Clerk's Office every day except Sunday.

Persons who have not had an Operator's License should apply in Burlington at the Clerk's office on Monday in order that they may take the test given by the Highway Patrol. When you apply for your license, take your old license with you as they must be turned in to the Clerk.

Minors between the ages of 16 and 18 must be accompanied by their father, if living, if not by the mother or guardian. This must be strictly complied with, or license cannot be issued to minors under 18 years.

License must be obtained in the county in which you live.

To The Voters Of 3rd Magisterial District And Citizens Of Boone Co.

While I make the race for Magistrate, I would like to say to the voters that in the past years, I have voted the Democratic ticket and worked in last elections with some good Democrats. I am at present a members of the Young Men's Democratic Club.

I have been secretary for the Big Bone M. W. of A. Camp for the past nine years. At the present time I have a general store and trucking business located near Big Bone, Ky.

While making this race, I promise if elected that I will at all times be looking after the interest of each taxpayer. I intend to try to give the people who are on those side roads a better road over which to get their live stock and products to market.

After driving a truck for twenty years I feel I know what the farmers need in the way of good roads. If elected I expect to look over each road in my district and make a report of the condition to the other magistrates and judge, so that each precinct will receive their share of the road tax money.

I would like to have the support of each voter on Saturday, August 2, 1941. I assure you your support will at all times be appreciated.

M. C. CARROLL.

Miss Mary Alice Poston celebrated her eleventh birthday Sunday with several of her friends. Those present were June Brown, Cordelia Kelly and Phillip and Paul Yelton.

FIVE YOUTHS TO ANSWER CALL

WILL BE INDUCTED INTO ARMY JULY 14TH — FIFTY-THREE REGISTER FOR SELECTIVE SERVICE JULY 1ST.

Five Boone County men have been examined for Selective Service and will be inducted into the United States Army July 14th, according to C. G. Kelly, Clerk of Local Draft Board 9. One man will be added to this number as soon as physical reports are received on same. This shortage of men ready for induction was brought about due to the fact that those men who have attained the age of 28, on or before July 1, 1941 have been deferred for thirty days.

Following is a list of those who will be inducted July 14th: Henry Clifford Durr, No. 343; David Milton Setters, No. 344; Edgar Carroll Clore, No. 368; Robert Andrew Scott, No. 407; and Charles Samuel Rosenstiel, No. 411.

The above youth will report to Local Draft Board No. 9, at Burlington courthouse, 9 a. m. E. S. T. on July 14, whereupon they shall be sent to Ft. Thomas, for induction.

Fifty-three men who have become 21 since October 16, 1940, were registered with Local Board No. 9, on July 1st. The Local Board met July 9th for schuffling, drawing and serial numbering of cards of registrants of July 1st.

The following telegram was received by Local Board No. 9:

"Postponement of men who have attained the age of 28, on or before July 1, should not be construed as prohibiting voluntary induction of such registrants.

"Signed Col. Rash."

District Conference Attended By 4-H Leaders

Boone county adult 4-H leaders attended the Central District 4-H Conference in Lexington last week. One hundred and eleven Extension Agents and leaders, representing twenty-eight counties, spent two days on the University of Kentucky Campus.

All phases of 4-H club work were discussed on the program. State 4-H leaders led the discussion groups. Group singing at each program was directed by Mr. J. M. Drake. Plans for the Conference were arranged by Mr. J. W. Whitehouse, State leader of 4-H club work in Kentucky.

Those from Boone County attending were Mrs. Vernon Pope, communtiy and canning leader, of Burlington, Mrs. Hugh McArthur, clothing and canning leader of Grant, and Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

New Residence Being Erected

Dewey Crowder is erecting a residence on the 48-acre tract of land, formerly owned by Mrs. Elza Poston, 1½ miles out on East Bend Road. Mr. Crowder and family are living in the flat over Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company office in the old Peoples Bank building in Burlington until their residence is completed.

ANNOUNCE DATES FOR RUG SHOW

SPONSORED BY BOONE COUNTY HOMEMAKERS AT BURLINGTON, FLORENCE AND WALTON —SHOW OPEN TO ALL.

Rug shows sponsored by the Boone County Homemakers will be held July 17th, 18th and 19th. All Homemakers who have made mats or rugs in the clubs during the past year are invited to display their work at one of the three centers: Burlington, Florence or Walton. Major Project leaders living in the centers where the displays will be made are making arrangements for the location of the show.

Those having mats or rugs are asked to bring them to the center on the 15th of July. Miss Vivian Curnutt, Home Improvement Specialist, University of Kentucky, will be in the county July 16th to help set up the Rug Shows. Project leaders will serve as hostesses during the three day show.

The shows will be open to all during the three-day period, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

VOLUME 66 | BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1941 | NUMBER 5

DRAWING IS HELD TUESDAY

FOR POSITIONS ON BALLOT—EDGAR (CUDDY) GOODRIDGE FAILS TO FILE DECLARATION PAPERS.

Drawing for position of names on the Democratic primary ballot was held at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of candidates and represenatives.

The order in which the names will appear on the August ballot are as follows:

County Judge—N. E. Riddell, A. M. Yealey, Forrest H. Brown.

County Clerk—Dorotha Ryle, C. D. Benson, Howard Huey.

Sheriff—Harold Conner, John W. Grant, J. T. Williams, Herbert Snyder.

Jailer—Wood Stephens, Elmer Kirkpatrick, Grover C. Jarrell.

Magistrate, 3rd District—Everett Jones, Tom Carr, M. C. Carroll.

Magistrate, 1st District—Edgar S. Graves, William B. Rogers, Jr.

The name of Edgar (Cuddy) Goodridge is omitted from the above list of sheriffs, due to the fact that Mr. Goodridge failed to file his notification and declaration papers with the County Clerk by July 2, the deadline set by the State for filing such papers.

According to Mr. Goodridge, this was an oversight on his part and he is making every possible effort to obtain an extension. He has contacted the Attorney General at Frankfort and is now awaiting a reply. Should the reply be favorable, Goodridge will be candidate for Sheriff. However, should the Attorney General rule that July 2nd is the latest a candidate can file, then Edgar Goodridge's name will not appear on the Democratic primary ballot.

The opinion of the Attorney General is being forwarded by mail, which will be published in full in the next issue of The Recorder.

1941 Tax Assessment Started Monday Morning

Wilton Stephens, County Tax Commissioner started the annual tax assessment of Boone County Monday morning, and will be on the road every day until the listing has been completed.

For the last few years, the assessor has been assessing the entire county alone, which is a very large task now that there are so many property owners in the county. This job was formerly taken care of by one man before the rural section of Boone County was so heavily populated and its town were very small.

Mr. Stephens stated that he will appreciate any courtesy shown him in the accomplishment of his task during the next six months.

Harry Cress, who is the U. S. Army stationed in Massachusetts, is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cress. Harry has received three promotions during his eighteen months of service. At the present time he is a Corporal.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

FOR NUTRITION MEETINGS—PERMANENT OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED AT EACH MEETING.

Ten local communities in Boone County have selected dates for Nutrition Organization meetings. Several dates have been changed since the last issue of the paper.

Everyone interested in Nutrition and the National Defense program are invited to these meetings, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Permanent officers including a chairman and secretary will be elected at each meeting. The community nutrition program will be planned by the local group.

Following is the schedule of meetings:

Verona, Wednesday, July 9.
Grant, Thursday, July 10th.
Petersburg, Friday, July 11.
Hebron, Monday, July 14th.
Hamilton, Tuesday, July 15th.
Burlington, Monday, July 21.
Walton, Tuesday, July 22nd.
Constance, Wednesday, July 23.
Florence, Thursday, July 24.
New Haven, Friday, July 25.

Seven Hundred Attend Fireworks And Show At Burlington Friday

A huge crowd estimated at 700 persons attended the outdoor show and fireworks display at the school grounds given under the auspices of the local P.-T. A. Friday, July 4th.

In spite of the cool weather and many other activities on this night, the affair was a huge success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Although it is rumored that there may be a ban on all fireworks next year, if it is at all possible, the P.- T. A. will sponsor a similar event next year, endeavoring to make it even better than this year.

William Butler, of Union, Ky., was a business visitor in Burlington Monday morning of this week, and while here called at The Recorder office and had his name placed on our mailing list. We are glad to welcome him as one of our new subscribers.

JUDGE RIDDELL DENIES CHARGE

THAT HE WILL RESIGN AFTER FIRST OF YEAR—WILL SERVE COUNTY, IF ELECTED FOR NEXT FOUR YEARS.

Rumors have been circulated throughout the county that Judge Riddell, if elected County Judge, would resign his post, and have someone appointed to fill the office. In an interview with Judge Riddell he stated that the rumor was false, and makes the following statement:

"I have been informed that a report is being circulated in the county to the effect that if I am elected County Judge I will resign soon after the first of the year and have someone appointed County Judge to take my place. This report is purely political propaganda and I wish to advise the people of Boone County that if I am elected to the office of County Judge, I will not resign or have anyone appointed, but will be your County Judge for the next four years.

"Signed N. E. Riddell."

Large Crowd Attends Aylor-Rice Reunion

The Aylor and Rice reunion held at Zimmer's Garden last Saturday was well attended, although quite a number of relatives were unable to be present.

The day was hurriedly spent in greeting out-of-town relatives and generally reminiscing with all present. A delightful lunch was spread at noon and the day also being the fifty-fifth birthday of Paul Aylor. The lunch was topped by singing "Happy Birthday" and the cutting of the birthday cake, with whica ice cream was served.

LIGHTNING STRIKES BARN

NEAR BEAVER WEDNESDAY—LOSS EXCEEDS $1000—OTHER CLAIMS PAID BY FARMERS' MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

Lightning struck a large barn on J. G. Renaker estate and J. C. Beddinger farm, Wednesday of last week, completely destroying the structure. Twenty tons of alfalfa hay, and a number of farm tools were also destroyed by the blaze. The building was insured for the sum of $1000 in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Loss was said to far exceed this amount.

Another large barn and two outbuildings were destroyed on the farm of J. W. Connley, Beaver, June 29th, when hay in the barn caused a spontaneous combustion. The barn was insured in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company in the amount of $400.00. No insurance was carried on the contents of the barn or the other two outbuildings.

The Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company, meeting Monday also paid another loss to W. L. Sturgeon, of $100.00, according to F. H. Rouse, Secretary of the company.

Mrs. Chas. W. Riley Reported Ill Monday

Mrs. Chas. W. Riley, of Hebron, was ill Monday and was under the doctor's care, being treated for ptomaine poisoning. Mrs. Hankins, who resides with the Riley's also had a slight touch of the poisoning which they thought they received at a basket dinner at Hebron Sunday.

EDUCATIONAL TOURS STARTED

THIS WEEK BY HOMEMAKERS—TOUR PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT DURING MONTHS OF JULY AND AUGUST.

Educational trip to Cincinnati commercial concerns and interesting places in Kentucky and Indiana were started this week by Boone County Homemakers. Approximately 225 homemakers and their friends have made reservations to take a trip during the summer months, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Tours and trips are made by the Homemakers instead of having regular monthly meetings in July and August. Each local club decided where their members would like to take a trip. Arrangements for transportation were made by a committee in each club. Correspondence with the various commercial firms concerning time and place was made by the County Extension Office.

Following are the clubs that made plans for trips and the places to be visited:

July 8th—Burlington and Florence, Lanier Home in Madison, Ind. and Clifty Falls, State Park.

After taking an early lead, which they never relinquished, the Boone County All-Stars slammed out a 12-8 victory over the strong Goodrich Tires team in a free-hitting contest at the local park Sunday. The local nine scored once in the opening frame, again in the third, and four times in the fourth to blast their opponent's starting pitcher from the mound, while holding their opponents scoreless. Sprague led the 14-hit attack of the All-Stars with two triples, a pair of singles, and a walk in five times at bat, while Sebree got two doubles, Deck and Gulley one each. Shinkle and Gulley were on the mound for the winners.

With a record of four wins and four setbacks the local semipros will meet the Fort Thomas Florist nine next at the Burlington park.

Two Farms Sold During Past Week

Fonnie Easton sold his 114-acre farm, three miles out on Burlington and Belleview Pike last week to Ernest W. Allen of Ft. Thomas. Possession of house and yard to be given August 1st, but Mr. Easton retains the use of balance of farm until February 1st. Mr. Easton plans to live at Burlington.

Mr. Allen will remodel the house and make it his home.

Peter Holz sold his 208 acre farm 3 miles out on East Bend Road last week to Rollie Kenton and son, Cartney Kenton, of Paris, Bourbon County. Possession to be given February 1st, at which time the Kenton families expect to become residents of Boone County.

A. B. Renaker and J. G. Smith made both of these sales.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Conner had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Latham and family, of Chicago, Ill., Miss Joyce Latham, of Covington and Mrs. Robert Tanner and daughter, of Latonia.

CLERK TO VISIT VARIOUS POINTS

IN COUNTY FOR PURPOSE OF ISSUING OPERATOR'S LICENSE—LICENSES MUST BE OBTAINED IN COUNTY OF RESIDENCE.

For the convenience of those who must drive several miles to the county seat, Circuit Clerk, A. D. Yelton, announced this week that he would visit various parts of the county during the month of July for the purpose of issuing operator's licenses:

Licenses may be obtained at the following places on the following dates:

Constance — Kottmyer's Store, July 16th.
Verona—Verona Bank, July 17.
Florence—Feed Store, July 18-19.
Grant—Citizens Bank, July 21st.
Hebron—Hebron Bank, July 22.
Union—Union Bank, July 23.
Petersburg—Farmers Bank, July 24th.

Persons who have not had an Operator's License should apply in Burlington at the Clerk's office on Monday in order that they may take the test given by the Highway Patrol. When you apply for your license, take your old license with you as they must be turned in to the Clerk.

Minors between the ages of 16 and 18 must be accompanied by their father, if living, if not by the mother or guardian. This must be strictly complied with, or license cannot be issued to minors under 18 years.

License must be obtained in the county in which you live.

To The Voters Of 3rd Magisterial District And Citizens Of Boone Co.

While I make the race for Magistrate, I would like to say to the voters that in the past years, I have voted the Democratic ticket and worked in last elections with some good Democrats. I am at present a members of the Young Men's Democratic Club.

I have been secretary for the Big Bone M. W. of A. Camp for the past nine years. At the present time I have a general store and trucking business located near Big Bone, Ky.

While making this race, I promise if elected that I will at all times be looking after the interest of each taxpayer. I intend to try to give the people who are on those side roads a better road over which to get their live stock and products to market.

After driving a truck for twenty years I feel I know what the farmers need in the way of good roads. If elected I expect to look over each road in my district and make a report of the condition to the other magistrates and judge, so that each precinct will receive their share of the road tax money.

I would like to have the support of each voter on Saturday, August 2, 1941. I assure you your support will at all times be appreciated.

M. C. CARROLL.

Miss Mary Alice Poston celebrated her eleventh birthday Sunday with several of her friends. Those present were June Brown, Cordelia Kelly and Phillip and Paul Yelton.

FIVE YOUTHS TO ANSWER CALL

WILL BE INDUCTED INTO ARMY JULY 14TH — FIFTY-THREE REGISTER FOR SELECTIVE SERVICE JULY 1ST.

Five Boone County men have been examined for Selective Service and will be inducted into the United States Army July 14th, according to C. G. Kelly, Clerk of Local Draft Board 9. One man will be added to this number as soon as physical reports are received on same. This shortage of men ready for induction was brought about due to the fact that those men who have attained the age of 28, on or before July 1, 1941 have been deferred for thirty days.

Following is a list of those who will be inducted July 14th: Henry Clifford Durr, No. 343; David Milton Setters, No. 344; Edgar Carroll Clore, No. 368; Robert Andrew Scott, No. 407; and Charles Samuel Rosenstiel, No. 411.

The above youth will report to Local Draft Board No. 9, at Burlington courthouse, 9 a. m. E. S. T. on July 14, whereupon they shall be sent to Ft. Thomas, for induction.

Fifty-three men who have become 21 since October 16, 1940, were registered with Local Board No. 9, on July 1st. The Local Board met July 9th for schuffling, drawing and serial numbering of cards of registrants of July 1st.

The following telegram was received by Local Board No. 9:

"Postponement of men who have attained the age of 28, on or before July 1, should not be construed as prohibiting voluntary induction of such registrants.

"Signed Col. Rash."

District Conference Attended By 4-H Leaders

Boone County adult 4-H leaders attended the Central District 4-H Conference in Lexington last week. One hundred and eleven Extension Agents and leaders, representing twenty-eight counties, spent two days on the University of Kentucky Campus.

All phases of 4-H club work were discussed on the program. State 4-H leaders led the discussion groups. Group singing at each program was directed by Mr. J. M. Drake. Plans for the Conference were arranged by Mr. J. W. Whitehouse, State leader of 4-H club work in Kentucky.

Those from Boone County attending were Mrs. Vernon Pope, communtiy and canning leader, of Burlington, Mrs. Hugh McArthur, clothing and canning leader of Grant, and Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

New Residence Being Erected

Dewey Crowder is erecting a residence on the 48-acre tract of land, formerly owned by Mrs. Elza Poston, 1½ miles out on East Bend Road. Mr. Crowder and family are living in the flat over Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company office in the old Peoples Bank building in Burlington until their residence is completed.

ANNOUNCE DATES FOR RUG SHOW

SPONSORED BY BOONE COUNTY HOMEMAKERS AT BURLINGTON, FLORENCE AND WALTON—SHOW OPEN TO ALL.

Rug shows sponsored by the Boone County Homemakers will be held July 17th, 18th and 19th. All Homemakers who have made mats or rugs in the clubs during the past year are invited to display their work at one of the three centers: Burlington, Florence or Walton. Major Project leaders living in the centers where the displays will be made are making arrangements for the location of the show.

Those having mats or rugs are asked to bring them to the center on the 15th of July. Miss Vivian Curnutt, Home Improvement Specialist, University of Kentucky, will be in the county July 16th to help set up the Rug Shows. Project leaders will serve as hostesses during the three day show.

The shows will be open to all during the three-day period, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

THE BOONE COUNTY RECORDER

ESTABLISHED 1875

VOLUME 66 BURLINGTON, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1941 NUMBER 5

Library U of K

DRAWING IS HELD TUESDAY

FOR POSITIONS ON BALLOT—EDGAR (CUDDY) GOODRIDGE FAILS TO FILE DECLARATION PAPERS.

Drawing for position of names on the Democratic primary ballot was held at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of candidates and represenatives.

The order in which the names will appear on the August ballot are as follows:

County Judge—N. E. Riddell, A. M. Yealey, Forrest H. Brown.

County Clerk—Dorotha Ryle, C. D. Benson, Howard Huey.

Sheriff—Harold Conner, John W. Grant, J. T. Williams, Herbert Snyder.

Jailer—Wood Stephens, Elmer Kirkpatrick, Grover C. Jarrell.

Magistrate, 3rd District—Everett Jones, Tom Carr, M. C. Carroll.

Magistrate, 1st District—Edgar S. Graves, William B. Rogers, Jr.

The name of Edgar (Cuddy) Goodridge is omitted from the above list of sheriffs, due to the fact that Mr. Goodridge failed to file his notification and declaration papers with the County Clerk by July 2, the deadline set by the State for filing such papers.

According to Mr. Goodridge, this was an oversight on his part and he is making every possible effort to obtain an extension. He has contacted the Attorney General at Frankfort and is now awaiting a reply. Should the reply be favorable, Goodridge will be candidate for Sheriff. However, should the Attorney General rule that July 2nd is the latest a candidate can file, then Edgar Goodridge's name will not appear on the Democratic primary ballot.

The opinion of the Attorney General is being forwarded by mail, which will be published in full in the next issue of The Recorder.

1941 Tax Assessment Started Monday Morning

Wilton Stephens, County Tax Commissioner started the annual tax assessment of Boone County Monday morning, and will be on the road every day until the listing has been completed.

For the last few years, the assessor has been assessing the entire county alone, which is a very large task now that there are so many property owners in the county. This job was formerly taken care of by one man before the rural section of Boone County was so heavily populated and its town were very small.

Mr. Stephens stated that he will appreciate any courtesy shown him in the accomplishment of his task during the next six months.

Harry Cress, who is the U. S. Army stationed in Massachusetts, is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cress. Harry has received three promotions during his eighteen months of service. At the present time he is a Corporal.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

FOR NUTRITION MEETINGS—PERMANENT OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED AT EACH MEETING.

Ten local communities in Boone County have selected dates for Nutrition Organization meetings. Several dates have been changed since the last issue of the paper.

Everyone interested in Nutrition and the National Defense program are invited to these meetings, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Permanent officers including a chairman and secretary will be elected at each meeting. The community nutrition program will be planned by the local group.

Following is the schedule of meetings:

Verona, Wednesday, July 9.
Grant, Thursday, July 10th.
Petersburg, Friday, July 11.
Hebron, Monday, July 14th.
Hamilton, Tuesday, July 15th.
Burlington, Monday, July 21.
Walton, Tuesday, July 22nd.
Constance, Wednesday, July 23.
Florence, Thursday, July 24.
New Haven, Friday, July 25.

Seven Hundred Attend Fireworks And Show At Burlington Friday

A huge crowd estimated at 700 persons attended the outdoor show and fireworks display at the school grounds given under the auspices of the local P.-T. A. Friday, July 4th.

In spite of the cool weather and many other activities on this night, the affair was a huge success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Although it is rumored that there may be a ban on all fireworks next year, if it is at all possible, the P.- T. A. will sponsor a similar event next year, endeavoring to make it even better than this year.

William Butler, of Union, Ky., was a business visitor in Burlington Monday morning of this week, and while here called at The Recorder office and had his name placed on our mailing list. We are glad to welcome him as one of our new subscribers.

JUDGE RIDDELL DENIES CHARGE

THAT HE WILL RESIGN AFTER FIRST OF YEAR—WILL SERVE COUNTY, IF ELECTED, FOR NEXT FOUR YEARS.

Rumors have been circulated throughout the county that Judge Riddell, if elected County Judge, would resign his post, and have someone appointed to fill the office. In an interview with Judge Riddell he stated that the rumor was false, and makes the following statement:

"I have been informed that a report is being circulated in the county to the effect that if I am elected County Judge I will resign soon after the first of the year and and have someone appointed County Judge to take my place. This report is purely political propaganda and I wish to advise the people of Boone County that if I am elected to the office of County Judge, I will not resign or have anyone appointed, but will be your County Judge for the next four years.

"Signed N. E. Riddell."

Large Crowd Attends Aylor-Rice Reunion

The Aylor and Rice reunion held at Zimmer's Garden last Saturday was well attended, although quite a number of relatives were unable to be present.

The day was hurriedly spent in greeting out-of-town relatives and generally reminiscing with all present. A delightful lunch was spread at noon and the day also being the fifty-fifth birthday of Paul Aylor. The lunch was topped by singing "Happy Birthday" and the cutting of the birthday cake, with which ice cream was served.

LIGHTNING STRIKES BARN

NEAR BEAVER WEDNESDAY—LOSS EXCEEDS $1000—OTHER CLAIMS PAID BY FARMERS' MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

Lightning struck a large barn on J. G. Renaker estate and J. C. Beddinger farm, Wednesday of last week, completely destroying the structure. Twenty tons of alfalfa hay, and a number of farm tools were also destroyed by the blaze. The building was insured for the sum of $1000 in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Loss was said to far exceed this amount.

Another large barn and two outbuildings were destroyed on the farm of J. W. Connley, Beaver, June 29th, when hay in the barn caused a spontaneous combustion. The barn was insured in the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company in the amount of $400.00. No insurance was carried on the contents of the barn or the other two outbuildings.

The Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company, meeting Monday also paid another loss to W. L. Sturgeon, of $100.00, according to F. H. Rouse, Secretary of the company.

Mrs. Chas. W. Riley Reported Ill Monday

Mrs. Chas. W. Riley, of Hebron, was ill Monday and was under the doctor's care, being treated for ptomaine poisoning. Mrs. Hankins, who resides with the Riley's also had a slight touch of the poisoning which they thought they received at a basket dinner at Hebron Sunday.

EDUCATIONAL TOURS STARTED

THIS WEEK BY HOMEMAKERS—TOUR PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT DURING MONTHS OF JULY AND AUGUST.

Educational trip to Cincinnati commercial concerns and interesting places in Kentucky and Indiana were started this week by Boone County Homemakers. Approximately 225 homemakers and their friends have made reservations to take a trip during the summer months, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Tours and trips are made by the Homemakers instead of having regular monthly meetings in July and August. Each local club decided where their members would like to take a trip. Arrangements for transportation were made by a committee in each club. Correspondence with the various commercial firms concerning time and place was made by the County Extension Office.

Following are the clubs that made plans for trips and the places to be visited:

July 8th—Burlington and Florence, Lanier Home in Madison, Ind. and Clifty Falls, State Park.

July 9th—Constance, Frank Tea & Spice Co., WLW and Coca-Cola Bottling Works in Cincinnati.

July 10th—Hebron, Kroger Research Foundation WLW and Coca-Cola Bottling Works in Cincinnati.

July 11th—Walton, Kroger Research Foundation, French Baurer, and WKRC.

July 12th and 13th—Rabbit Hash Central Kentucky Historical points and Renfro Valley.

July 15th—Verona, Kroger Food Foundation, WLW and Frank Tea and Spice.

July 16th—Petersburg, Frank Tea & Spice, WLW and Coca-Cola Bottling Works.

August 6th—Bullittsville, Kroger Foundation, Procter & Gamble, Bakery and Greenhouses at Eden Park.

August 8th—New Haven, Lanier Home in Madison and Clifty Falls.

Mrs. J. B. Botts, of Rising, Sun, Ind., Mrs. Virginia Botts, of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Shirley Biegle, of Cincinnati were visiting Mrs. Josie Maurer and sons Saturday afternoon.

Reeves-Kottmyer

The marriage of Miss Bessie Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reeves, Constance, Ky., to Mr. James Woodford Kottmyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kottmyer, also of Constance was solemnized at the Constance Christian Church at 8:30 o'clock, July 5th, with Rev. Orin Erbaugh, Trotwood, Ohio, officiating.

The bride was lovely in white net over white taffeta, with a long train and finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and gardenias.

Miss Esther Fryer, Covington, as bridesmaid, looked charming in yellow. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and blue delphinium.

Mr. Carl Craven, cousin of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Ben Kottmyer, Richard Kottmyer and Melvin Kenyon.

Mrs. Paul Craven (nee Vivian Hood) gave a program of piano music before the ceremony. Mrs. Gilbert Dolwick sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and Mrs. Robert Earl Dolwick, "I Love You Truly."

Following the wedding a reception was held at the groom's parents, with approximately three hundred guests present.

After a few days' honeymoon trip through southern Kentucky, the groom will return to service in the U. S. A. Air Corps, Chanute Field, Ill., where he has been in training since his enlistment in October 1940. From there he is to be transferred to McDill Field, Tampa, Fla.

The bride, who is a graduate nurse from St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, will continue her services with Dr. C. W. Justice, Ludlow, until circumstances make it possible for her to join her husband in Tampa, Fla.

Schneider-Goodridge

Friends of Claire Schneider and Carvin Goodridge were surprised to hear of their marriage, which took place April 26th in Cincinnati.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schneider, of Elsmere and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Goodridge. of Hebron.

He is a graduate of the Hebron high school in the class of '38 and is employed at the Trumble Electric Co., of Norwood, Ohio.

HUBERT CONNER MASTER FARMER

OF BOONE COUNTY FOR 1941—WAS SELECTED FROM TWENTY-EIGHT OUTSTANDING FARMERS.

Hubert Conner, Hebron, has been selected by a special appointed scoring committee as the 1941 Master Farmer of Boone County, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. He was selected from 28 outstanding farmers nominated by agricultural leaders from all sections of the county. The Master Farmer program is sponsored in Kentucky every two years by the Kentucky Experiment Station and the Progressive Farmer Magazine.

Mr. Conner has long been rated as one of the county's most successful farmers and business men. His record scores exceptionally high in livestock, poultry, soils and fruit improvement and in leadership for better community and county rural welfare. Mr. Conner is 68 years old and his achievements in the county have been outstanding for more than forty years.

The 1941 County Master Farmer will be scored by a State Committee in the near future for a place on the 1941 State Honor Roll.

Jacob Hetzel

Services for Jacob Hetzel, Constance. Ky., retired farmer, who died Tuesday of last week were held at 1:30 p. m. Friday at the Bullock & Catherman funeral home, Ludlow. He was 67. Burial was in Hebron cemetery.

PETERSBURG, BIG BONE, NINE WIN

OVER HEBRON AND BURLINGTON IN ONLY GAMES PLAYED SATURDAY—SEMIPRO TEAM OUTPLAYS RIVAL.

Big Bone held on to its impressive lead in the county league and walloped Burlington 12-0 at the local park Saturday. The winner scored its 12 runs in seven innings on 17 safe blows and a couple of costly errors, while Black and Williamson held the local team to three scattered bingles. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning by mutual agreement. In addition to getting three hits each, D. Williamson, Carroll, and H. Black drove out doubles, Rogers a triple. Knox got a two-base hit for the losing team, as Akin did the pitching.

Petersburg journeyed to Hebron to nose out its rival 10-7, behind the hurling of D. Deck. After playing most of the game with the score knotted, the ultimate winner went out ahead 9-5 at the end of the eighth inning and then added another tally in the closing frame, which Hebron could not offset, though scoring twice in the ninth. Hitzfield helped Petersburg's cause with a home run with one mate on board. Garnett hit one good for the circuit with two aboard for the losers. Watt and Hodges were on the mound for Hebron.

The Belleview-CCC game was postponed because of the condition of the Belleview park.

Saturday, Burlington will be host to CCC, Petersburg to Big Bone, and Belleview to Hebron.

The standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	9	0
Belleview	3	3
Burlington	3	4
Petersburg	3	4
Hebron	3	5

COLORED CLOTHES

Don't iron colored cloths with a real hot iron. Don't hang colored clothes in the sun to dry and turn them wrong side out when putting on the line. When washing colored clothes don't let them soak in soapy water too long, don't boil them or use too hot a water. Be sure your washing powder doesn't contain a too strong ingredient for the sake of the color.

CHRISTIANITY EXPANDS IN ASIA

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:8-10, 23-32.
GOLDEN TEXT—So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.—Acts 19:20.

War is the order of the day, and much as we may regret it the life of every one of us is affected by its feverish touch. Certainly no Christian has any pleasure in the violent hatreds of wicked men, and can only pray that somehow a righteous peace may come to this troubled world.

There is a warfare, however, which we do seek to foster and promote. We encourage it, and as Christians make a holy resolve to battle to the end. That is the warfare against Satan and his hosts. As long as he rules in the hearts of men, and sin and wickedness are here, we say, "Fight on, my soul."

Christian life and service are presented in Scripture as a fight. We do well to learn the methods and the weapons of this great spiritual conflict; not stressing a belligerent note of strife against one another, and particularly not between the divisions of God's army in the earth, but standing shoulder to shoulder in the battle against the Evil One.

I. Attack for God (vv. 8-10).

The vigorous prosecution of a strong attack on the enemy's position is good military strategy, and good spiritual warfare. The command of God is "Forward!" and His forces are not to hinder their effectiveness by weak indecision or fear. Paul sets us an example in his

1. Bold Preaching (vv. 8, 9a).

Paul had met some disciples (19:1-8) who knew only the baptism of John and did not have the Holy Spirit. Dr. Erdman rightly says that "there are many more like these twelve 'disciples' in the pews of Christian churches. They are sincere men, they hate their sins, they believe in the teachings of Jesus, they admire the Sermon on the Mount, they yearn for the highest and best things, but they lack spiritual power. Why? Because they are 'disciples of John,' they have not fixed their hearts and their hopes upon a divine, risen, glorified Christ; they do not know 'the grace of God.' When, however, they learn the full gospel and yield themselves to Christ, they are not merely baptized with water, but also the Holy Spirit."

2. Careful Teaching (vv. 9b, 10).

Three months of such preaching brought many converts, but there were also "hardened and disobedient" men whose opposition caused Paul to withdraw the disciples (learners) to the privacy of a lecture room for thorough instruction in Christian doctrine, a sort of Bible Institute of Ephesus. The church has largely failed in its teaching ministry and has thus weakened its effectiveness against the enemy. To be strong workers for the Lord, Christians must know the doctrines of the Bible.

II. Counter Attack by Satan (vv. 23-32).

The enemy of our souls is often content to let us go on in comparative peace as long as we do not bother him unduly, but once we put up the banner of a holy life and service in God's army, he begins a terrific counter attack. Paul had felt it already in the hardening of listeners' hearts (v. 8), but now it began in dead earnest.

1. By Selfish Opposition (vv. 23-27).

One way to bring a violent reaction against spiritual truth is to let it interfere with business. Demetrius and his fellow silversmiths professed to be concerned about the threatened destruction of the heathen worship of Diana (and what a fine testimony that was to the effectiveness of Paul's preaching!), but in reality they were worried about the loss of their ungodly business in charms (vv. 25-27).

Many of the enemies of the gospel in our time are fighting against God's Word because they are in a business which is condemned by it. They know that every time a new convert is won to Christ they lose a customer and it troubles them. Reader, if you are in that kind of business, get out of it quick before God's judgment falls upon you.

2. Senseless Tumult (vv. 28-32).

Knowing that their opposition was without true foundation, they inspired and agitated a wild demonstration. Is it not astonishing how many thoughtless and foolish people there are in the world who will senselessly follow the lead of someone who opposes God?

Shouting a slogan which had no real meaning, they lent their voices to the tumultuous agitation against God. Finally, one sensible man, fearing the punishment of city officials, quieted them. The Ephesians were just like many in our day who fear man more than God. But, may we ask, if you fear the judgment of men, how think you to escape the judgment of God? After all, it is God and His Word you oppose, unconverted friend. Do you think He will hold you guiltless?

Ossification Of The Bone

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S FOOT COMFORT
9th and Madison Covington

In the fetus or unborn child, the bones first consist of masses of cartilage which, about the second month of fetal life begin to ossify, or become bony. In a long bone, which may be taken as an example, the process commences in the center of the shaft and proceeds toward the extremities, which for sometime remain cartilaginous. Subsequently, a similar process commences in one or more places in the extremities and gradually extends through it. The extremity, does not, however, become joined to the shaft of the bone until growth has ceased, but remains separated by a layer of cartilage tissue termed epiphy cartilage.

The points at which bony development first commence are known as centers of ossification.

The process of ossification consists in the appearance within the cartilaginous skeleton of bone forming cells, and the deposition calareous or earthly matter which gradually displaces the cartilaginous matter.

These processes extend gradually in every direction from the original center of ossification until the entire cartilaginous mass becomes bony or is ossified.

The first bones in which ossification appears are the choule (collar bone) and inferior maxellary (lower jaw bone) about the fifth to seventh fetal week; the last ossification to appear is in the pisaform bone of the hand, about the twelfth week.

Knowing the time and care that nature takes, in forming and developing our feet, and body, isn't it reasonable to assist nature in taking the proper care of ourselves against the abuses of modern life by wearing shoes that fit and are constructed to hold the foundation of the body in perfect balance.—Adv.

Miss Juanita Muntz returned to her home Sunday evening, after a week-end visit with her grandparents.

ICE TEA

Since we are in the days of iced tea. an idea that accompanies the tea was suggested by a subscriber for women readers. When your hands are stained from vegetables, dip them in the left-over tea, then wash the hands in warm, sudsy water. You could keep some left-over tea in a bottle to be on hand for this purpose.

THE BROMLEY FIREMAN'S STREET FAIR

JULY 17-18-19 AT BROMLEY

This Week In Defense

President Roosevelt told his press conference he still hopes the U. S. can stay out of the world conflict. His statement was made in answer to a reporter's question if changing international situations had caused the President to alter his belief, stated in 1939, that the U. S. could and would stay out of the war.

Navy Secretary Knox told his press conference reports that Navy vessels were engaged in convoy duty were "absolutely untrue," and said reports that the Navy had lost lives, material and equipment or had been involved in any encounter with belligerent craft, were "most decidedly" not true.

OPM Director Knudsen issued a statement urging greater defense efforts and said "nothing could be further from the truth" than that Russia's entry into the war had averted danger to this country. Mr. Knudsen said "we are in somewhat better shape than we were last summer but we need the spark of enthusiasm—yes, of patriotism—to carry the program forward faster."

Aid to Russia, France, China

Acting Secretary of State Welles announced Russian requests to buy strategic materials had been received and brought to the attention of proper Government officials. Mr. Welles also said the U. S. has under consideration a plan to relax export restrictions on Russian commerce to permit the flow of war materials to that country. He also announced U. S. and North African French officials have arranged a plan calling for continuous movement of two ships carrying tea, sugar and other food to Africa, and two carrying strategic materials to the U. S.

President Roosevelt suspended duties on British Burma vessels reaching the U. S., to aid the flow of supplies to China over the Burma Road. Treasury Secretary Morgenthau extended China's $50,000,000 credit here for another year. Assistant Commerce Secretary Hinckley asked commercial airlines for 12 transport planes to meet "emergency defense requirements of the democracies."

Army

In his bi-annual report to the Secretary of War, Army Chief of Staff Marshall urged that Congress pass legislation permitting use of armed forces outside the Western Hemisphere and permitting holding selectees, National Guardsmen and Reserve Officers in the service for more than one year. Gen. Marshall said that conditions have changed to such an extent that a "grave national emergency" exists of a more severe character than the public realizes.

The War Department announced it will promote its officers on the basis of merit instead of seniority and permit re-enlistment for Regular Army men only if they are qualified for promotion in order to weed out those not able to take advantage of further training.

Air

The War Department awarded contracts totalling more than $478,000,000 for planes, engines and parts. The OPM announced its aircraft specialist, Merrill Meigs, will go to England to confer on production methods.

Gen. Arnold, Chief of the Army Air Forces, lowered requirements for pilots of heavy bombers so that fliers with 750 hours military air experience could man the ships to be built at a rate of 500 a month. The Air Forces also announced experimentation with glider training for its personnel.

Selective Service

More than 750,000 men who reached 21 since Selective Service registration last October, registered for service throughout the nation. President Roosevelt ordered 900,000 men inducted into the Army as selectees now in service finish their year of training.

Pending final action by Congress on legislation deferring men who were 28 on July 1 or before, Selective Service Director Hershey ordered temporary deferment of this age group. He also advised local boards to defer registrants with one or more dependents to whose support they make "any substantial contribution." The only exception to this, he said, would be men who married in the hope of evading service.

Army Recreation

The War Department announced a program of stage shows at Army camps throughout the country and said civilian contributions to soldiers' welfare will be coordinated by the Citizens Committee for the Army and Navy, Inc. Outstanding theatre men have made arrangements for five road shows to visit camps, using equipment built on trucks, the Department said.

Congress passed legislation designed to prevent prostitution with a "reasonable" distance of military and naval reservations.

Defense Area Public Works

Congress voted $150,000,000 for construction of schools, water works, sewers, hospitals and other necessary public works in localities overcrowded by defense workers. Works Administrator Carmody established 11 regional offices to handle the program and select projects suggests by the communities and for which the communities will help pay.

Defense Housing

OPM announced defense housing projects will be given priority to assure availability of necessary building materials. Defense Housing Coordinator Palmer issued a pamphlet explaining how defense housing needs are met.

Materials

OPM recommended building 8 new aluminum plants, in Arkansas, the Bonneville-Grand Coulee area, Upper New York State, Alabama, California and North Carolina to produce 600,000,000 additional pounds annually.

Price Administrator Henderson announced a series of conferences beginning the week of July 7 with representatives of makers of automobiles, refrigerators, washing machines, oil burners and steel furniture to get information on their needs for materials. He said allocations of essential raw materials to take care of public services essential to civilian welfare—such as transportation companies, telephone companies, farm equipment manufacturers, fire and police services, hospitals and schools—will be made as soon as amount of scarce materials needed are ascertained.

Labor Supply

The U. S. Employment Service reported serious shortages of workers in 13 shipbuilding, 16 aircraft and 26 machine shop occupations such as ship fitter, template maker, boatbuilder, aeronautical engineer, aircraft riveter, tool and die maker, and lathe operator.

Labor Training

The National Youth Administration announced allocation of $4,040,000 to finance July operations of a new program to train 368,000 out-of-school youths for defense jobs in the next year. The program is operated in cooperation with U. S. Employment Service and the U. S. Office of Education and local public educational officials.

The Office of Education reported that 1,500,000 persons were retained for defense work by existing educational facilities in the past year.

Pan-American Relations

The Assistant Coordinator of Commercial and Cultural Relations between the American Republics, speaking in Pennsylvania, said that in April Latin America sold $101,000,000 worth of goods to the U. S. —a rate of trade sufficient to absorb the wartime loss to the other Americas of the continental European markets.

Food Conservation

Agriculture Secretary Wickard, Associate Price Administrator Elliott and Paul McNutt, Coordinator of Health Activities, outlined a plan for community action to save for immediate or future use, quantities of food ordinarily wasted. The officials urged community leaders to check local fruit and vegetable surpluses, plan for distribution through school lunch and play ground programs to meet nutritional needs of small-income families, and make arrangements for preserving products not used in fresh form.

A. L. Mathews

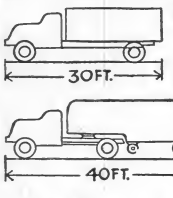
Dr. A. L. Mathews, retired physician, died Monday at his home on the Dixie Highway, Florence, after a long illness.

Dr. Mathews, who was 73 years old, formerly practiced in Covington.

A daughter, Mrs. Alda Brown and a brother, Robert Mathews, Crittenden, survive him.

Services will be held today (Thursday) at the residence at 1 o'clock. Burial will be in Napoleon cemetery.

FOR REMEMBRANCE



A use for torn bathing caps is to cut out pads from them to fit the bottom of dishes or vases. This will preserve the furniture and the pads are attractive, also . . . To keep nut meats during warm weather, place them in glass jars, cover tightly and put in the refrigerator . . . If you want to be sure of getting your eggs separate without breaking, break them one at a time into a funnel and let the white pass through the funnel into the bowl. The yolk will remain inside the funnel.

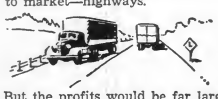
Eire has a grow-more potatoes drive.

KENTUCKY ROADS WILL CARRY SENSIBLE LOADS!

Major Thomas H. Cutler, Chief Engineer of the Kentucky Highway Department, says our roads are designed to sustain at least 16,000 pounds per axle load and our newer bridges will take care of two 15-ton loads passing each other at any point on the span. But our law limits the gross weight of a truck (including its pay load) to 18,000 pounds. (Many passenger buses crossing Kentucky weigh from 22,500 to 30,000 pounds, empty!)

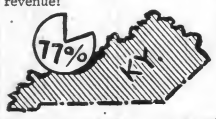
MODERN WEIGHT LIMITS PROMOTE SAFETY

Under Kentucky's antiquated law two vehicles 30 ft. long are required to carry the pay load which one vehicle 40 ft. long could transport if our state load limit were up-to-date. Obviously, then, our state's regulation, instead of reducing highway congestion and traffic hazards, actually increases these dangers.



WEATHER WEARS CAUSE 75% OF HIGHWAY DAMAGE

Heat, frost, erosion of shoulders and subgrades accounts for 75 per cent of highway maintenance costs, according to a study made by highway experts and announced by Joseph B. Eastman, former Federal Coordinator of Transportations. Vehicles with balloon tires—and almost every commercial truck is so equipped—have no appreciable wearing effect on modern roads.



KENTUCKY HIGHWAYS PAY PROFITS—COULD PAY MORE!

Reports the Louisville Courier-Journal (June 18, 1941): "The State Highway Department believes that high type trunk highways pay for themselves in added revenue from gasoline and other taxes and ultimately produce profits that can be used to build local feeder—farm to market—highways."

THESE PROFITS WOULD BUILD MORE ROADS

But the profits would be far larger—and build more and more secondary roads—if Kentucky's motor truck laws were up-to-date. You can see this when you consider that more than 75,000 or 20% of the licensed vehicles in Kentucky are Commercial trucks, and they pay 35% of the total gasoline tax. Indiana Highway Department statistics show that trunk highways under the Indiana load limit—52,500 pounds—show a net profit of $2,000 per mile, per year. Kentucky will never match this figure with a 18,000 pound gross load limit—too many truck lines "by-pass" our state and we lose the revenue!

77% OF KENTUCKY COMMUNITIES ARE SERVED ONLY BY TRUCK

Every person in these communities is paying a hidden transportation "tax" because of Kentucky's antiquated load limit law.

KENTUCKY'S PRESENT LAW INCREASES HAULING COSTS 37½%

Carefully analyzed figures prove that, with a 32,000 pound truck load limit in Kentucky, 37½% of actual hauling costs could be saved on everything imported to or exported from Kentucky by truck.

The Motor Transportation Industry of Kentucky is seeking to modernize Kentucky's motor truck law, to eliminate trade barriers which are now making Kentucky a transportation bottle-neck, and which Federal officials say are impeding National Defense. For your own pocketbook's sake you should support this program. Talk to your legislative candidate about it!

All men in Boone County were born free, but some changed their minds and got married.

One thing about our progress, the use of the electric shaver is more widespread than the use of the electric chair.

Farmers Interested In Water Supply

A large number of Boone County farmers have expressed, in a recent survey, interest in pond and lake building as a solution to a better form of water supply, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Plans are under way for starting a pond and lake building project in the near future.

Farmers who are interested in having ponds built by experienced men at a very low cost should notify the County Agent's office at an early date. The securing of the services of large proven equipment at the low cost is dependent on sufficient work to justify moving the equipment from another county.

RABBIT HASH

Everything was quiet here over the Fourth.

We were visited by a nice rain last week.

Rev. Gant, of Illinois, delivered a good sermon at East Bend M. E. Church Sunday evening. He attended services at the Baptist Church in Belleview Sunday morning. He and his wife left for their home Monday morning, after visiting relatives here for ten days.

BEAVER LICK

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Akin, of Rising Sun, Ind., were recent guests of A. A. Roter and family.

Mrs. Leslie Moore visited Mr. and Mrs. Lon Wilson several days last week.

Mrs. Jessie Ryan and daughter, Miss Mary Cecile were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Besterman, Sunday.

Mrs. Fannie Howard spent several days with the McCullough-Doud family near Florence, recently.

Mrs. J. L. Orr passed away at St. Elizabeth Hospital early Saturday, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Orr was well known here as she and her husband operated a liquor store and grocery here for two years. Funeral services were held at Shelbyville Monday. Burial was in the family lot in Shelbyville cemetery. Mr. Orr has the sympathy of his many friends in his bereavement.

John W. Conley had the misfortune to lose his barn, garage, and other outbuildings by fire Sunday, June 29. The fire was thought to have been caused from spontaneous combustion, as a quantity of new hay had been stored in the barn the day before, and all suddenly burst into flames while Mr. Conley was milking Sunday morning. Luckily he was able to save his cows, and automobile, but lost all feed, tools and his surveying instruments. It was feared for a time that the house would be destroyed, but the wind changed slightly and averted that danger. The Walton Fire Department was called but the barn had gained such headway, it was impossible to control the blaze.

The regular monthly meeting of the New Haven Homemakers' Club was held at the Richwood Community House, Friday, June 27. A very interesting lesson on Exterior Beautification was given by Emily Cleek, who also told us about the books that may be procured from the Homemakers' Library. Plans were made for a tour to be made to some place of interest in August. Mrs. Emily Cleek and Mrs. Grace Abdon were appointed to make final arrangements. At noon a nice lunch was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the church. Present at the meeting were Mrs. Walter Merrill, Mrs. Walter Pennington, Mrs. Harve Vest, Mrs. B.F. Bedinger, Mrs. Will Abdon, Mrs. Frank Rouse, Mrs. Stanley Ransom, Mrs. Jake Cleek, Mrs. Sam Sleet, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. J. E. McCabe, Miss Gillaspie and Mrs. Harry Moore. There will be no regular meeting in July as there are so many things on the program this month, among them being the garden tour, the canning demonstration, rug show and silver tea.

The funeral of Roy Wilbur "Billy" Pitcher held at the Christian Church here last Tuesday afternoon, was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. Six boys who had been his close friends acted as pallbearers and eight of his young girl friends carried flowers. After a touching discourse by Rev. Roy Johnson and the songs "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Goodnight and Good Morning" and "Some Time We'll Understand" by the choir, the body was laid to rest in the church cemetery. Billy is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pitcher, one sister, Mrs. Fay Molique, three brothers. Eugene, Donald and Ralph, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hodges and Mrs. May Pitcher, and many other relatives and a host of friends who mourn his death. Chambers and Grubbs were in charge of the arrangements.

PEOPLE'S LIBERTY BANK and TRUST CO.

One of Northern Kentucky's Leading Financial Institutions

This home-owned banking institution, located in Covington at 6th and Madison Ave., merits the confidence and support of the many people in all fields which it serves, furnishing stability to the commercial and financial interests of this section.

Deposits are insured up to $5,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which means each and every account is protected to this amount. Their service includes safe deposit boxes, collection, checking accounts and loans on approved collateral.

The People's Liberty Bank & Trust Co. is making loans to farmers when money is used for farm operations or for any other agricultural purposes.

This is a financial institution which looks upon farming as a leading industry and is glad to loan money to farmers desiring to do their full share in promoting the interest and keeping agriculture on a sound footing through justified credit.

This bank is noted for sound, energetic and conservative business, commanding in a marked degree the confidence of their depositors.

The People's Liberty Bank & Trust Co., was founded many years ago and among its customers today are to be found the names of firms and individuals who have continuously been depositors since the bank first opened its doors.

A sound example of more than ordinary financial ability will be found in the officers of this bank. "Large Enough to Serve, Small Enough to Satisfy" adheres at all times to the great cardinal laws governing banking and finance.

Japan's plan to increase coal production this year by 6,500,000 tons may be balked by transportation and labor shortage.

Albert Cardosi and Company

The reason for the high position of this Covington horse, mule, and cow commission house is that Mr. Albert Cardosi, the manager, is a well known local business man of long and successful experience in buying and selling or horses, mules, and cows.

The stables are conveniently located in Covington at 24 E. 5th St., and in this Northern Kentucky Business Review we are pleased to call the attention of our farmer readers to their reliable service. We also feel it timely to mention that he has many fine cows for sale at his farm location, opposite the Spanish Villa at Devon, Ky. The phone numbers are Hemlock 8689 and Florence 386, respectively.

Through their extensive dealings in horses, mules and cows, they have provided a most advantageous market right here in our own territory, and when ready to buy, sell, or exchange horses, mules or cows, see Cardosi & Company.

Located in Covington at 2nd St., and Western Ave. Phone Colonial 3034. Mr. Donovan, capable manager, is a well known local business man of long and successful record in this service and in this Suburban Trade Review we hereby call the attention of all suburban Northern Kentucky families to this superior service in carpet and rug cleaning.

Turn your work over to them and you will find that you will be saved the purchase of many new carpets and rugs by the high grade work which this plant features.

In this review, embracing as it does the most salient features of our onward progress we wish to compliment the Donovan Carpet Cleaning and Laying Co., on their signal success in satisfactorily serving the public.

Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Inc.

A Burial Park of Rare Natural Beauty

This is a prominent home-owned cemetery that merits the support of our suburban and rural communities of Northern Kentucky. The offices and cemetery are located on the Dixie Highway at Erlanger. Phone Dixie 7172.

The Forest Lawn Memorial Park is beautifully landscaped with a rare natural setting that adds much to the appearance of the entire cemetery. A perpetual care clause is included in the deed to every lot and there are plenty of lots available for both single and family plots. Why not drive out and select your lot now and be prepared when the time does come, as come it must?

The progress of civilization in any community is often judged by the advancement that has been made for care and respect of the deeds of our departed loved ones.

One hears so many people who have had unfortunate experiences in making funeral arrangements. Do you realize that most of these reported incidents occur because people refuse to learn in advance about the responsibility of bereavement.

Get in touch with these offices at once—let them explain their "Advance of Need Purchase Plan," which shows how they can save you time, annoyance and money in regard to this necessary service.

THE DIXIE CYCLE SHOP

Offering Raleigh Three-Speed Bicycles and Others

Mr. Geo. Maher, propreitor of the Dixie Cycle Shop at 16 E. 5th St., Covington, provides a complete sales, rental, and repair service on all makes of bicycles. He features the famous line of Raleigh 3-Speed bicycles and is also the largest dealer in English Lightweight Bicycles between New York and Chicago.

Our readers from our own and surrounding communities will find that it pays to deal with such an organization.

They are especially well equipped in both skilled employees and modern mechanical appliances for the care and repair of all styles and sizes of bicycles.

In these days of real efficiency no one wants an apprentice or an unknown firm to experiment with their job, but on the other hand are seeking the services of expert and experienced specialists such as are employed by Mr. Geo. Maher.

Such business establishments such as the Dixie Cycle Shop do much to advertise the diversity of industry in our section and the purpose of this Trade Review is to acquaint our readers with these concerns who take a real interest in the entire trade territory which they serve and to advise our readers that it pays to buy locally and help advance civic progress and improvement.

The Ready Mixed Concrete Co.

Featuring Concrete Blocks and Ready Mixed Concrete

This well known local concern has long and satisfactorily provided contractors, builders, and dealers throughout this area with a complete line of quality concrete products featuring ready mived concrete and concrete blocks. It can truly be said that if you are planning on doing building, remodeling or modernization work this season, you will certainly be the loser if you do not get in touch with this company. A written inquiry to their office at 433 E. 13th St., Covington or a telephone call to Hemlock 0074, will bring valuable advice and information.

Their concrete blocks are low in cost, reduce fire hazards and insurance rates, and are equally suitable for factories, warehouses, business buildings, and especially for all types of farm buildings such as silos, dairy barns, poultry houses etc.

The reputation of the concern behind a product is very important. The Ready Mixed Concrete Co., provides the best qualities at the lowest prices.

Farmers can save by hauling their own blocks directly from the plant.

They will be pleased to figure with you at any time on your needs, and are co-operating with all civic movements, especially everything promoting building expansion in this territory.

THE A. L. BOEHMER PAINT COMPANY

Manufacturers and Distributors of "Wearmore" Paints

For many years the A. L. Boehmer Paint Co., located in Covington at 114 Pike St., has enjoyed a continuous, uninterrupted contact with painting contractors, dealers, home owners, and industries thruout Northern Kentucky, supplying them with their famous line of Boehmer's "Wearmore" paint products. The business is under the personal supervision of Messrs. A. B. and Louis Boehmer, who are both well-known local business men. They and their dealers well-merit the support of the trade in this section.

They also operate a complete glass service featuring a complete line for all uses including window glass, desk tops, structural glass for store fronts, etc.

The wonderful success of this organization, its growth and expansion to its present recognition as the largest distributors of paint and varnish products in the Northern Kentucky area, is due to the determination of its founders to manufacture only high quality products that pass all tests for durability, and lasting tendencies. These famous paint products will successfully withstand the climatic ravages of summer's heat and dews and winter rains, snows and storms.

Not content with any produce short of perfection, the A. L. Boehmer Paint Co., has kept pace with every advancement in the paint line and make a complete line for all uses. The provide a prompt delivery service to the trade of our own and adjoining counties.

In closing, we desire to call the attention of all master painters, contractors and industries to the distribution service provided by the A. L. Boehmer Paint Company. For further information call at the offices, write, or if more convenient telephone Colonial 0212 and a courteous representative will be pleased to furnish details concerning prices, estimates, name of nearest dealer, etc.

EDW. P. COOPER - ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

Over 25 Years of Service—All Norge and Electrolux Appliances

Edward P. Cooper's Appliance Shop, located in Covington at 805 Madison Ave., is headquarters in Northern Kentucky for such Nationally famous lines as the Norge Refrigerators, Electrolux Refrigerators and other units of these popular lines. In addition, they handle Crosley Radios, Washers, and Refrigerators, Bendix, Dexter and Maytag Washers; R. C. A. Motorola and Zenith Radios; and a complete selection of ranges, stoves, vacuum cleaners, etc. The phone number is Colonial 1267.

Mr. Edward P. Cooper, the proprietor, is one of Northern Kentucky's foremost dealers in this line and has the distinction of being the first person to operate a regular broadcasting studio in Northern Kentucky. It was through his efforts that Ma and Pa McCormick, playing on one of the oldest commercial programs in the history of radio, became associated with W. L. W. We also feel it timely to mention the fact that at one time Mr. Cooper also operated a remote control broadcasting station from the old W. F. B. E. Studios in Cincinnati.

His territory includes our own and many other communities of Northern Kentucky and it is a pleasure to have the opportunity to call our readers' attention to his reliable service. He handles only nationally known lines—known to be tops in quality.

Here it is possible to save money on appliances that are in harmony with the rest of your home furnishings. By means of this Northern Kentucky Business review it is a pleasure to have the opportunity of referring Mr. Cooper to the residents of our own and all surrounding communities. We believe he will serve you satisfactorily. Our advice to our readers is Buy now while prices are still reasonable.

HAEHNLE PROVISION CO.

Northern Kentucky's Leading Pork and Beef Packers

By means of this review of the commercial, agricultural, and industrial progress of Covington and vicinity, we wish to call the attention of our readers to this leading member of the meat packing industry. They are packers and distributors of the famous line of Haehnle Quality Meats Products which include hams, bacon, sausage and other meat specialties. This firm under the direction of Mr. Frank Haehnle was founded July 5, 1910 and has been in continuous operation since that time. The phone numbers are Hemlock 5000 and 5001.

The plant, located in Covington, at 309-315 W. 12th is under the personal supervision of well-known local business men who attained their success by means of furnishing a metropolitan distribution service to their dealers at the lowest price possible in line with good business practice, and because the people know that they purchase only the choicest cuts which they in turn process under their own special formula.

A dozen times a day we make comparisons with accepted standards of quality with which we have long been familiar. People in this section use "Haehnle Meats" as the standard of quality.

One feature that immediately attracts the attention of all visitors to the plant is the complete order and cleanliness that prevails. All equipment is kept spotlessly clean, assuring the ultimate purchaser a products that not only tastes good, but is good. because its purity and cleanliness is continually checked by specially trained inspectors.

You will find Haehnle meat products everywhere throughou Burlington and vicinity—sold by the better class retail dealers who serve the more discriminating trade.

Demand Haehnle meat products from your dealer and get the best on the market.

THE GENERAL BUILDING ASSOCIATION

Northern Kentucky's Oldest—Over 70 Years of Service

The General Building Ass'n. was founded and built-up on the security of City and Suburban Homes and the honest and ability of its directors. The directorate is composed of such outstanding businessmen as Mr. John Hanauer, president; J. G. Helleman, vice president; J. C. Minderman, secretary; Mr. Chas. H. Feuss, treasurer. The offices are located in Covington at 629 Madison. Phone Colonial 7677.

At the General Building Association will be found men who have made a careful study of local conditions in Northern Kentucky and are therefore familiar with every detail of this comprehensive service.

Your estate may be already established or it may be in the making—whatever the case may be, you are adding to it with wise financial investments or subtracting from it with interest and bonus on borrowed money to tide you over the rough spots in the road.

They are offering you a secure investment that will protect you and yours from the deteriorating investment—an investment that accrues to your personal estate, with a liberal rate of earnings.

Another important factor—do not overlook the fact that money invested in this institution is used in turn to aid other local people to build and modernize their homes. Therefore, by placing your funds with this institution you are helping other worthy people to become home-owners and at the same time helping to build a bigger and better community.

Remember, no matter how small the sum may be that you wish to invest, it will be handled to your satisfaction and will bring profitable returns if placed in the hands of the General Building Association.

Seventy-Five Books Added To Homemaker Library Collection

The Boone County Homemakers are please to announce that in addition to the Hebron School Library books, there is now available a fine collection of seventy-five books which form the nucleus of their library. This group of books has been accumulated in several ways; some have been lent for an indefinite period, while others have been donated either by clubs or individuals, penny collections being taken up in the various clubs are aiding the growth of the library.

The rate for these books is five cents for a period of two weeks with a two-cent fine for each day of overtime. Money taken in will be used for the purchase of new books. The clubwomen are responding wholeheartedly in the donation of books, in generous collections, and particularly in use of the books.

The reading project has gotten off to a flying start largely because of the fine work carried on by the local chairmen. They are, Mrs. Jonas Stephens, Bullittsville; Mrs. Herbert Snyder, Burlington; Mrs. Walter Sprague, Constance; Mrs. Roy Lutes, Florence; Miss Marion Rogers, Grant; Mrs. A. W. Rogers, Hebron; Mrs. Jake Cleek, New Iaven; Mrs. Lawrence Chambers, of Petersburg; Mrs. Minnette Stephens, Rabbit Hash; Mrs. Marie Beacom, Taylorsport; Mrs. O. K. Powers, Verona; Mrs. Allan Gaines, Walton.

The Home Demonstration office is open on Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m. for those who want access to the library books.

FARMERS CAN'T DO IT ALL

Fred S. Sexauer, president of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, recently said this: "Farmers cannot raise defense food at low prices in the face of shortage of help and rising costs. Farmers should be patriotic, but patriotism does not consist of letting labor ers tie up munitions, arms and supply industries, and expect to get continually higher wages and shorter hours."

Agriculture, in short, can't be expected to make all sacrifices. They must be shared by other groups. If general price levels continue to go up due to higher labor and other costs the price of farm-produced goods must follow the trend.

WED. THURS., AND FRIDAY
JULY 16TH, 17, 18TH

The record of wardrobe changes for the old-time "clothes-horse films is held by Gloria Swanson, who had as many as forty changes of costume for a single picture. But Lana Turner claims the record for the most changes of hairdress in a screen play. In "Ziegfeld Girl." the young star wears her hair in eleven different coiffures!

As the elevator operator in the opening sequences of the film she has long hair in a small knot at the back of head. As the famous beauty of the "Ziegfeld Follies," she wears seven sophisticated coiffures in all.

Seventy-Five Books Added To Homemaker Library Collection

The Boone County Homemakers are please to announce that in addition to the Hebron School Library books, there is now available a fine collection of seventy-five books which form the nucleus of their library. This group of books has been accumulated in several ways; some have been lent for an indefinite period, while others have been donated either by clubs or individuals, penny collections being taken up in the various clubs are aiding the growth of the library.

The rate for these books is five cents for a period of two weeks with a two-cent fine for each day of overtime. Money taken in will be used for the purchase of new books. The clubwomen are responding wholeheartedly in the donation of books, in generous collections, and particularly in use of the books.

The reading project has gotten off to a flying start largely because of the fine work carried on by the local chairmen. They are, Mrs. Jonas Stephens, Bullittsville; Mrs. Herbert Snyder, Burlington; Mrs. Walter Sprague, Constance; Mrs. Roy Lutes, Florence; Miss Marion Rogers, Grant; Mrs. A. W. Rogers, Hebron; Mrs. Jake Cleek, New Iaven; Mrs. Lawrence Chambers, of Petersburg; Mrs. Minnette Stephens, Rabbit Wash; Mrs. Marie Beacom, Taylorsport; Mrs. O. K. Powers, Verona; Mrs. Allan Gaines, Walton.

The Home Demonstration office is open on Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m. for those who want access to the library books.

FARMERS CAN'T DO IT ALL

Fred S. Sexauer, president of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, recently said this: "Farmers cannot raise defense food at low prices in the face of shortage of help and rising costs. Farmers should be patriotic, but patriotism does not consist of letting labor ers tie up munitions, arms and supply industries, and expect to get continually higher wages and shorter hours."

Agriculture, in short, can't be expected to make all sacrifices. They must be shared by other groups. If general price levels continue to go up, due to higher labor and other costs, the price of farm-produced goods must follow the trend.

COMMITTEE STUDIES POOL

FOR MARKETING OF LAMBS—WILL PRESENT PROGRAM TO SHEEPMEN ATTENDING MEETING SEPTEMBER 6TH.

The Boone County lamb marketing committee studied the marketing of Kenton and Gallatin counties, Kentucky, and Prebble County, Ohio, lambs on the Cincinnati Livestock Market last Wednesday, July 9th, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Pool lambs were found to bring from 85c to $1.00 per hundred more than non-pooled lambs and the organization was found to be working satisfactorily to cooperating farmers.

The committee plans to present the pool lambs marketing program to sheepmen attending the annual meeting of the Boone County Sheep Protective Association at Burlington Saturday, September 6, at 1:00 p. m.

The lamb pool marketing program presents to farmers four distinct advantages:

1. Graded lambs grouped in car load lots or approximately that number gives the packer greater confidence as to uniform quality and enables him to pay a higher price.

2. Lower selling costs results through car lot selling.

3. Lambs are graded locally and those lambs that are not ready for top quality price can be left at home.

4. Cooperative organization work results in farmers producing higher quality products that demands a premium on the market.

Wm. Thos. McGlasson

Wm. Thos. McGlasson, son of Wm. Carson and Elizabeth Rouse McGlasson, was born near Hebron, Sept. 10, 1862. He departed this life July 9th, 1941, age 78 years, 9 months and 29 days.

He was united in marriage to Alice Edith Quigley, March 2, 1889. To this union were born two daughters, Mrs. Verner Tupman and Mrs. Liston Hempfling.

He united with the Hebron Lutheran Church at the age of twenty-three years, and was a member of the Church Council for many years.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, two daughters, one sister, Mrs. Addie Ayle, four grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

Herschel Drake Enrolled At Ohio State University

Herschel Drake, Assistant County Agent of Boone County is enrolled in the first term of Ohio State University's summer quarter. Four thousand men and women are enrolled, and several hundred more will start their studies in the second term opening July 28th.

POND BUILDING PLAN OFFERED

BOONE COUNTY FARMERS—GOOD WATER IMPORTANT IN PROFITABLE LIVESTOCK PRODUCTION.

Boone County farmers will be offered the services of an experienced contracting engineer and pond builder in the near future, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The contractor will use modern equipment building ponds and lakes by the hour or by contract.

Approximately fifty farmers have already applied for this service and many more are expected to file application as soon as the work gets started.

Good water is one of the most important needs in profitable livestock production. There is truth in the saying "An animal can live for weeks without food but only a few days without water." Present methods and experience in building water supplies give the farmer the lowest cost in history. Those desiring pond construction should contact the County Office.

Miss Mary Margaret Garnett, of Ludlow, spent Monday of this week with Miss Mary Jean Hensley.

Silver Tea Planned By Boone Homemakers

As a countywide program the Citizenship and Exterior Beautification chairmen of Boone County are planing a "Silver Tea" for July 31. The committee in charge of the program has been able to secure very outstanding talent for the program. Vocal selections will be rendered by Miss Ann Yelton, of Cincinnati, Ohio, while Mrs. Ann Stewart, well known for "Let the Earth Speak" and Mrs. James Lane, chairman of Kentucky State Highway Beautification, will be the speakers.

The tea will be served at the Lloyd Home, all those present will appreciate the opportunity to see and visit the John Uri Lloyd Home. Homemakers and friends, everyone is invited to attend this program. Come and bring your friends.

Annual Fish Fry At Big Bone Scheduled Saturday, July 26

The Big Bone Baptist Church will hold its free annual fish fry, all day, Saturday, July 26th, it was announced this week.

Members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend.

NUTRITION COMMITTEE

ORGANIZED AT HEBRON MONDAY NIGHT—SIXTEEN PEOPLE ATTEND MEETING—OFFICERS NAMED.

The Hebron community Nutrition Committee was organized Monday night, July 14, at the Hebron School. Sixteen people attended this meeting. The meeting was called to order by the temporary chairman, Mrs. Howard Acra, who explained the nature of the meeting and the purpose of the nutrition organization.

H. R. Forkner gave an interesting discussion on the relation of production to national nutrition. This, Mr. Forkner stated, is divided into two parts, namely, Production of large crops for national defense uses and food for the family in the live at home program. He further stated that the country is in an emergency and each of us has a job to do, and we may be entering into a period of acute conditions for which we must be ready by having an organization.

Mr. Cook, in a brief discussion stressed the need of being prepared and stated that we should produce more for home use to release the commercial canned goods to others.

Mrs. Lane spoke briefly on the need of eating the proper foods and the value of them to the body.

Miss Gillaspie began her discussion with the question, "does your family get a balanced diet daily? She stated that the county is divided into ten communities for the nutrition organizations containing the following committees: Home Garden, School lunch, Publicity, Exhibits, and canning committee.

After these discussion, officers were elected and committees were appointed. The officers are: Mrs. Acra, chairman; Mrs. Reimer, Secretary; Garden Committee, Mr. Chester Goodridge, Chairman; Mr. Edgar Graves and Mr. William Moore; Exhibit Committee, Mrs. Engle chairman, Mrs. Mary Holliday, Mrs. Earl Morehead and Mrs. A. B. Nichols, members; Canning-Committee, Mrs. John Crigler, chairman, Miss Lucy Lee Grant and Miss Evelyn Conrad, members; Publicity committee, Jas. R. Huey, Chairman; School Lunch committee, Miss Conrad, chairman, Mrs. Engle, Mrs. Acra and Mr. Huey, members.

After the committees were appointed goals were set up for the organization. With the United States in a condition of emergency every one, we believe, will cooperate in this work and see that we become a strong and better prepared nation.

Box Supper Planned By Bullittsville Homemakers July 26

Members of the Bullittsville Homemakers' Club will sponsor an old fashioned box supper at the Bullittsville Church Yard, on Saturday evening, July 26th at 8:30 p. m. E. S. T.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Watch this paper next week for advertisement.

PETERSBURG TOPS BIG BONE NINE

SATURDAY IN LOSER'S FIRST SETBACK, AS BURLINGTON DOWN CCC—SEMIPROS BOW TO RIVAL'S HURLER.

Petersburg snapped the Big Bone team's winning streak Saturday and downed the previously unbeaten nine 8-2 at the Petersburg park. At the half-way mark in the game the teams were deadlocked at 2-2, but not for long, for the winner went out ahead by a margin of two runs in the fifth inning and from then on set the pace. D. Deck held the Big Bone sluggers to four hits for the game and scoreless from the fourth frame on, while his teammates hammered Carroll for 14 safe blows including a triple by H. Deck.

Burlington swamped CCC 22-2 at the local park, in a contest that lasted but seven innings. The local boys pushed seven tallies across the plate in the opening frame and scored at least one more run in every inning except the fifth, on a barrage of base hits including eight doubles and a home run, as Akin just coasted along on the hill for the home team, giving up seven hits.

Belleview chose to forfeit a game to Hebron Saturday, rather than play it without several of their regulars, who were out of the county for the week.

Petersburg will play at Belleview, CCC at Big Bone, and Hebron at Burlington Saturday.

The standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost
Big Bone	9	1
Burlington	4	4
Petersburg	4	4
Hebron	4	5
Belleview	3	4
CCC	1	7

The Boone County All-Stars lost to the Fort Thomas Florists by the score of 6-0 at the local park Sunday in the Campbell County Semipro League. Hess, the Florists' ace pitcher, was unusually effective against the local team, as he limited them to seven hits, while striking out 16 and walking none. Though Gulley gave up 11 base knocks, only one was a double and he kept them scattered so that only four earned tallies were made off his pitches, the Florists' other two coming as result of an error made by two All-Star players' colliding when fielding a fly ball. Benson collected the only extra-base hit for the local nine, a double.

The All-Stars will entertain the Weidemann team, which is tied for second place in the 12-team league, in the last of the scheduled games, before the elimination series begin. The local team downed the Wiedemann nine by a score of 9 to 3 earlier in the season.

Top Wheat Loan Rate Is $1.15 In Co.

Loan rates on 1941 wheat in the AAA crop loan program range from $1.15 a bushel on number 1 wheat to $1.06 a bushel on number 5 grain, Mark Cook, chairman of the Boone County Agricultural Conservation Association, said today.

These rates, offered by the Commodity Credit Corporation on Boone County wheat stored in approved warehouses, are subject to some revisions downard where the wheat is smutty or garlicky, Mr. Cook said.

All growers who comply with their acreage allotments in the AAA program are eligible for the loans. In addition, farmers who have overseeded allotments are eligible for loans at 60 per cent of the regular rate on wheat produced on their excess acreage.

Arrangements for the loans are to be made through the county office of the Agricultural Conservation Association, Mr. Cook said, and loans may be made on the 1941 crop up to December 31, 1941. The loans will not fall due until April 30, 1942, but are callable on demand. Interest on the loans is 3 percent.

The 1941 wheat loan program, assured by approval of wheat marketing quotas in the referendum on May 31 is based on the recently enacted 85 per cent of parity loan law.

The average loan rate in Kentucky will be approximately $1.12½ a bushel compared with a national average rate of about 98 cents a bushel. No approved Government Warehouse has been located in Boone County and most of the wheat is being stored in Cincinnati where the loan rate is approximately 5c less than the Kentucky loan rate.

6 TOWNS LEFT ON SCHEDULE

OF CIRCUIT CLERK WHO IS VISITING VARIOUS PARTS OF COUNTY ISSUING OPERATOR'S LICENSE.

Six communities will be visited during the remainder of July by Circuit Clerk, A. D. Yelton, who is issuing operator's licenses in various communities of the county.

The remainder of the schedule follows:

Florence—Feed Store, July 18-19.
Grant—Citizens Bank, July 21st.
Hebron—Hebron Bank, July 22.
Union—Union Bank, July 23.
Petersburg—Farmers Bank, July 24th.
Walton—City Building, July 25th and 26th.
Burlington—Circuit Clerk's Office every day except Sunday.

Persons who have not had an Operator's License should apply in Burlington at the Clerk's office on Monday in order that they may take the test given by the Highway Patrol. When you apply for your license, take your old license with you as they must be turned in to the Clerk.

Circuit Clerk Yelton stated that minors between the ages of 16 and 18 must be accompanied by their father, if living, if not by the mother or guardian. This must be strictly complied with, or license cannot be issued to minors under 18 years.

Licenses must be obtained in the county in which you live.

ALUMINUM TO BE COLLECTED

BY COUNTY AND HOME AGENTS IN BOONE COUNTY — CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN ON NATION-WIDE BASIS JULY 21.

County farm and home demonstration agents throughout Kentucky are to take an active lead in the rural sections in the campaign for the collection of old aluminum for defense, according to T. R. Bryant, assistant director of the extension service of the State College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The campaign will begin on a nationwide basis the week of July 21.

Mr. Bryant has instructed all county extension agents to coordinate their activities with those of the committees which the Governor is appointing in all counties.

To do the job effectively, a house-to-house canvass will be made, through local committees, women's clubs and 4-H club members:

The campaign in Kentucky will be a part of the nationwide drive to collect old and unneeded aluminum to supplement the large quantities of this material needed in the production of defense equipment.

Political Statement

The following statement was handed us on Tuesday night, July 15, by Edgar (Cuddy) Goodridge:

"Having neglected to file as a candidate for Sheriff before Midnight, July 3, the Attorney General has informed me that it is impossible for me to be in the race. His letter follows:"

July 8, 1941

Mr. Edgar M. Goodridge
Hebron, Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Goodridge:

Request has been made of our office for an opinion as to what a candidate can do who failed to file his nominating papers or failed to file as an Independent candidate by petition before the deadline on midnight, July 3rd.

There is nothing that can be done in this matter as this party is barred to run either as a candidate in the primary or as an Independent candidate, the office being a county office.

Yours very truly,
GUY H. HERDMAN,
Assistant Attorney General.

"This is indeed a great disappointment to me and I want to thank those who have worked in my behalf and who intended to vote for me in the primary.

"I also want to make the statement in contradiction of any rumor or rumors that I was retiring in favor of any candidate, and that this was purely my neglect and that I do not have any hard feelings or ill will toward anyone.

"Signed
"EDGAR M. GOODRIGE."

Robert E. DeJarnette

Robt. E. DeJarnette, aged 70 years died early Thursday morning at his residence 22 East 11th St., Covington, after an illness of two months. The remains were removed to the Taliaferro Funeral Home, Erlanger, for preparation.

Mr. DeJarnette operated a drug store in Dry Ridge for 20 years, also was pharmacist in the Bentler Drug Store, Erlanger, for two years. While in the drug business at 13th and Greenup, Covington, his store was robbed three times. During one of these robberies he was shot in the hand by a negro robber.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Pauline DeJarnette, one daughter, Roberta; two sisters, Mrs. Rita Marshall, Crittenden and Mrs. Allie Sullivan, Price Hill, O.; and one brother John B. DeJarnette, Williamstown, Ky.

Florence Baptists To Begin Two-Week Revival July 28th

Rev. R. F. Demoisey, pastor of the Florence Baptist Church, announces a two-week revival meeting at the Florence Church, beginning July 28th, continuing through August 10th.

Dr. D. H. Willett, of Irvine, Tenn., will be the evangelist and will bring the messages each evening. Al Fields, of Florence, will be in charge of the music.

Services will begin promptly each evening at 8:00 p. m. Everyone is invited to attend.

Places For Rug Show Announced

Boone County Homemakers will sponsor a rug and mat show this week on July 17, 18 and 19. Each homemakers' club in the county will show their handicraft at one of these exhibit centers.

The public is invited to visit one or all of the exhibits during the three-day show. Major project leaders, serving as hostesses, will be present at each center to answer questions concerning the rugs and mats.

The exhibits will be arranged Thursday morning. Miss Vivian Curnutt, home improvement specialist, will arrange the displays in each center. She will be assisted by Major Project leaders, Mrs. Rod Hughes, county rug chairman and Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Following are the exhibit centers: Burlington, Old Recorder Office; Florence, Town Hall; Walton, Walton Garage, Hardware Store, Community Public Service Electric Shop and Mr. Percival's Department Store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Perry, of Covington, spent last Sunday afternoon with Mrs. L. C. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Beemon and family.

VETCH WILL BE AVAILABLE

AS ACP WINTER COVER CROP—DEDUCTION RATE FOR SEED WILL BE $9.50 PER ONE HUNDRED POUNDS.

Winter hairy vetch will be available as conservation material for winter cover crop seeding Boone County this fall, John E. Crigler, Secretary of the County Agricultural Conservation Association, said today.

This seed is ordered through the county office and charged against the farm's soil building allowance for the 1942 agricultural conservation program.

The deduction rate for vetch seed will be $9.50 per 100 lbs. There will be a small charge for handling which will be paid directly by the farmer. Several conveniently located places in the county will handle this vetch. A credit of $1.50 per acre will be given the Agricultural Conservation Program toward earning the soil-building allowance, for the seeding of vetch seed and an additional $1.50 per acre for turning or disking it under the following spring. Vetch is seeded at the rate of from 15 to 20 pounds per acre. An ideal place for seeding vetch is on land that will be plowed under and planted to a depleting crop in 1942. It may also be used for hay. It should be planted with some small grain crop regardless whether it is planted as a green manure crop or for hay. The vetch seed should by all means be innoculated before it is planted unless the ground has been innoculated recently for vetch.

Supplies of this seed to be made available in the county probably will be limited, and farmers interested in using it to earn part of their 1942 soil-building allowances should place orders at an early date.

Last year approximately 480,000 pounds of vetch seed was furnished as a conservation material in Kentucky counties. Although the seed was received late in the season, he added, very favorable reports have been received from farmers who seeded this winter legume.

Samuel M. Egnew

Samuel M. Egnew, aged 63 years died suddenly early Wednesday morning at his residence 137 Center St., Erlanger. The remains were removed to the Taliaferro Funeral Home for preparation.

He was born in Millersburg, Ky., and had resided in Erlanger for fifteen years. Mr. Egnew was an employee of the linen department of the H. & S. Pogue Co., Cincinnati, for 20 years, retiring recently on account of ill health.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rose Egnew, one sister, Mrs. W. J. Tingle, Campbellsburg, Ky., and one brother James Egnew, Maysville, Ky.

Services were conducted Thursday night at 8:30 at the Taliaferro Funeral Home, the remains being forwarded to Chicago, Ill., for burial Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Rice, who is working in North Carolina is spending several days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rice.

MARK COOK IS NAMED CHM'N.

OF AGRICULTURAL DEFENSE BOARD OF COUNTY—WILL CARRY OUT AGRICULTURAL DEFENSE ACTIVITIES.

All agencies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture operating in Boone County will be represented on a County Defense Board announced July 5 by Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture. Mark Cook, chairman of the county AAA committee has been designated chairman of the board by the secretary.

The local board will carry out agricultural defense activities in cooperation with similar boards in all agricultural counties of the nation and with the department's Kentucky State Defense Board to which it will be responsible.

The Kentucky State board will be made up of representatives of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the Extension Service, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the Farm Security Administration, the Soil Conservation Service, the Farm Credit Administration, the Surplus. Marketing Administration, the Agricultural Marketing Service, the Forest Service, and the Rural Electrification Administration. M. D. Royse, Winchester, chairman of the State AAA Committee, will be chairman of the State Defense Board.

These state and county defense boards are being set up because of the vital importance of agriculture in the defense program, the secretary's announcement stated. They will deal in local areas with some of the problems which the Office of Defense Relations in the Department of Agriculture attempts to solve nationally.

These problems may be classified in two groups: Coordinating and expediting all agricultural defense activities of farm agencies and coordinating agricultural defense with activities of other agencies of defense in the field.

The work of these boards is "urgently essential," the secretary's announcement said, since national defense is the first order of business in the U. S. Department of Agriculture "for the duration."

Establishment of these boards does not change cooperative relations of the Department of Agriculture with the State Extension Service and does not in any way alter normal functioning of departmental agencies in their non-defense responsibilities. It is a step to have all employees incorporate with their regular responsibilities the emergency responsibilities of defense, the secretary said.

R. M. Evans, AAA administrator, in commenting on the establishment of the boards said that it imposes a two-fold responsibility upon the AAA. First, he said, is the responsibility to carry through the job of defense among our farm people and, second, "we must, more than ever before, coordinate our work with that of the other agencies of the department. Thru this cooperation the work of defense will go forward."

DEMONSTRATION SET FOR JULY 22

BY HOMEMAKERS — LATEST METHODS OF CANNING VEGETABLES AND FRUITS WILL BE GIVEN.

The latest methods of canning fruits and vegetables will be given in a canning demonstration next Tuesday; July 22nd. The demonstration, sponsored by the Boone County Homemakers, will be held at the new Burlington school 1:30 p. m. (E. S. T.), according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Everyone in the county is invited to attend the demonstration. Homemakers are making many efforts to give canning information that will enable the Homemaker to be better prepared for emergencies which the National Defense situation may produce.

Miss Myron Clinard, Food preservation specialist, Educational Department, Ball Brother Company, will give the demonstration. Miss Clinard, a former 4-H member and Homemaker, has had much practical experience in canning in the home and in the class rooms.

The canning demonstration is part of the year's program planned by the "Live at Home" leader last spring.
